SCHOOL TEACHERS, 3500 STRONG, IN SESSION HERE

Seven Counties Send Teachers To Convention

Host Arrives For Two Day Sessions In Auditorium Of Cathedral

NOTED EDUCATORS WILL BE HEARD

First Program Is Being Carried Out At Assembly This Afternoon

Opening today at two o'clock, the sessions of the annual convention of the midwestern section, Pennsylvania State Educational Association got under way in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Teachers from seven counties, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Clarion, Jefferson, Lawrence and Mercer are present.

President A. J. Calderwood presided at the opening session this afternoon with Dr. J. J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church delivering the invocation.

Outstanding Music

Choral music of an unusual nature will feature this convention a chorus of high school students recruited from seven counties in the district being on the program both for today and tomorrow. Directors of school music from five cities and townships will direct the chorus in the afternoon session and five more will direct the music in the evening session.

The program of music for the afternoon session follows:

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Two brightly illuminated jack-o-lanterns greeted motorists just on this side of Walmo, on the New Wilmington road last evening. The pumpkins were placed side by side on the left side of the road and were facing toward New Castle.

A police officer was detouring autos coming down Highland avenue, at Falls street, last night and today. The traffic was being shifted because of the fact the street intersection at Mill and North was torn up.

Some drivers of autos select the most conspicuous places to park a car. Pa Newc noted one parked in the curve at Highland and Park avenues last night, a detriment to traffic at the corner if anything could be.

Weather conditions this afternoon do not look any too promising for the New Castle-Warren football game at Warren, O., tonight. New Castle will have a large crowd of rooters in the stands nevertheless.

Fact that New Castle is mid-way between Chicago and New York on the direct improved highway system, is steadily making this city the recognized half way stop-over for autoists making the trip. Considerable business is coming to the city as a result.

A considerable number of New Castle autoists are inspecting the paving job done on Englewood avenue, by driving their cars over the street, it is noted. The street is one of the most appealing in the city at the present time.

Score Of Arrests Made For Speeding By State Officers

More than a score of arrests was made for speeding, in the borough of Wampum yesterday, according to State Highway patrolmen who are on duty in that place.

The speeders are fined $10.00 and costs, the latter amounting to about $2.25. Arrests also were made Wednesday, it was stated. The highway patrolmen may shift operations to other boroughs on other highways at any time, it was indicated.

The patrolmen use two cars. Telephones connected by a strand of wire running one eighth mile along the highway are operated by dry cells.

The one patrolman takes the time when a car goes by and when the car reaches the other machine one eighth mile distant the time is again checked.

Providing he has driven his pleasure car 40 miles or more an hour he is arrested.

Speed of trucks depend upon their size, the patrolmen stated.

Motorcycle Officer Who Shot Bandit Sought Here; In Another Gun Battle

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—James Gramentine, motorcycle patrolman who several months ago earned himself a reputation for courage and marksmanship when he fatally wounded the notorious Francis "Puggy" Ryan, New Castle liquor store bandit, in a running gun-fight, today had another brush with death when four thugs he pursued opened fire upon him with an automatic rifle.

Four bullets from the bandits' gun, which Gramentine said "looked to me like a blow torch," shattered the cycle's headlight and put a rear-vision mirror out of commission.

Gramentine surprised the quartet skulking on the premises of a neighbor when returning home after going off duty. He gave chase, and his narrow escape followed.

An interesting oral description of what it feels to be looking at the "business end" of a homicidal weapon was given by the youthful patrolman when he said:

"That gun looked like a blow torch. I don't know how many shots were fired but I do know that when my lights went out I felt like I had swallowed an Easter egg, shell and all.

"At a time like that you have a peculiar feeling in the pit of your stomach."

BODY OF LONG MISSING PITT STUDENT FOUND

(International News Service)

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 23.—Found in a clump of bushes in Spanta, October 6, the decomposed body of a man today was identified tentatively as that of Allen Upjohn, Jr., 19, heir to a drug company fortune, who disappeared from the University of Pittsburgh almost a year ago.

Identification was made through a laundry mark on the shirt. A Newark laundry said the mark was made on clothes of the Upjohn family.

A .22 caliber rifle was found on the chest of the youth and traces of a bullet wound were found in the skull.

After viewing the body, William E. Broadbent, eastern representative of the Upjohn company, expressed the opinion it was that of the young heir, police said.

Young Upjohn's parents were reported enroute from their Kalamazoo, Mich., home.

O'Toole Elected To Council Seat At Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—James L. O'Toole, an attorney and a Democrat, was elected to city council today to fill the unexpired term of Mayor Cornelius D. Scully, who resigned his council seat when named to succeed former Mayor William N. McNair.

Only other name to be placed in nomination was that of Dr. Marion K. McKay, University of Pittsburgh professor, also a Democrat.

Vandal Loose In N. Y. Subway

Plays Havoc With Well Ordered Train System This Morning

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Somewhere in the subway caverns a jester, mad or intoxicated, played havoc with the well-ordered train system today by throwing off electric switches to stall the trains.

Twenty police officers risked death from the "third rail" and passing trains as they prowled through the tunnels in search of the hilarious vandal. Subway crews, too, followed the trail or thrown switches to keep some semblance of order in the train service.

Brought to jolting halts as the power was shut off, trains carrying thousands of office workers were stalled for from 20 minutes to an hour.

One switch was tied down with rope. Others merely pulled down. Shut-down of power continued as police searched for the vandal.

(Special To The News)

CINCINNATI, Oct. 23.—It is not unreasonable to expect President Roosevelt to state definitely and without oratorical embellishment his intentions concerning the constitution and the supreme court, in the event of his re-election. It seems a trifle irregular to have the president's views on important matters leak out through the indiscretions of members of his family and entourage rather than to have them set forth unequivocally by Candidate Roosevelt himself.

Would it be too much to ask Mr. Roosevelt whether he intends to have the constitution changed? And if so, precisely what changes he proposes, or will propose, or will have proposed for him, if he gets another term?

It is impertinent for representatives of the voters to ask this question: Mr. President, would you, if re-elected, attempt to get congress to pack the supreme court with additional members known to be favorable to your ideas of collectivism and centralization of dictatorial power?

If the president wishes to continue his mystery game possibly one of the boys will come forward with at least partial answers to these questions.

Landon In Southwest For Meetings Today—Replies To Roosevelt Speeches

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ABOARD LANDON SUNFLOWER SPECIAL, Enroute To Oklahoma City, Oct. 23.—Swinging across the southwest along the old Santa Fe Trail to invade Oklahoma, Governor Alfred M. Landon today delivered a blistering personal denunciation of President Roosevelt's policies and campaign tactics.

Charge Facts Concealed

The Republican nominee charged the president with seeking reelection while concealing facts about his administration and without a full disclosure of his future policies. He accused the executive of "dissipating the people's resources through waste, graft and incompetence" and with "using the people's money, directly and indirectly, to secure his reelection."

Declaring the American people were aroused at last to Roosevelt's "reckless squandering of public funds and other people's money," Landon charged the president with secretly planning, if reelected, "to bring within federal government the control of all our commercial industrial and social problems."

Challenges President

Roosevelt policies, he said, already have "pauperized the federal government and would now weaken and impoverish the people who support it." Landon again personally challenged the president to announce, before election, whether he intends to "revive the policies of

Engagement Revealed Some Time Ago Is Definitely Broken Off

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Bertha Westwood, pretty daughter of Squire James J. Westwood, serving a life prison term for the murder of his wife, announced today she will not be married October 31, on her 21st birthday, as planned.

The young woman, whose engagement and plans to marry Reed O. Boudin, 30-year-old Forth Worth, Texas, accountant, were revealed some time ago, stated she had cancelled the engagement. Whether or not the marriage was "definitely off" she would not say, but asserted merely that she and Boudin had decided to "forget it."

Mrs. Simpson Is Arranging Trip; Likely Bermuda

Famous Mrs. "Wally" Simpson Will Leave England After Divorce Decree Nisi

May Be Leaving England To Escape Flood Of Publicity Over King's Friendship

(Copyright, 1936, by International News Service)

IPSWICH, Eng., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Wallis Simpson will leave England on a trip shortly after she is granted a divorce decree nisi, International News Service was informed exclusively today.

Exact whereabouts of her destination is unconfirmable, but a friend of the plaintiff said Mrs. Simpson is considering a trip to Bermuda, accompanied by Lady Evelyn Fitzgerald.

Makes Arrangements

The latter is making ticket and luggage arrangements for the trip, and has requested that the names of Mrs. Simpson's and herself should not appear on any passenger list.

If they go to Bermuda, there is no direct passage available from England before November 4 via the Fyffe line or the Pacific S. S. line.

However, the Liner Queen Mary is leaving October 27 for New York, where it would be possible to make a quick transfer to a ship bound for Bermuda.

May Visit U. S.

It is possible Mrs. Simpson will go to the United States after a period in Bermuda, perhaps to Florida, and also to Washington and Baltimore, where she has many close American friends, International News Service's informant said.

Asked if Mrs. Simpson planned to leave England permanently, the informant replied:

"It is possible."

It was explained Mrs. Simpson's desire for the trip was partially influenced by the natural feeling of any woman to escape reverberations of a split from her husband and also by the fact the decree nisi calls for a quiet retreat during the six months of the temporary nisi period, after which a final decree is granted if the king's proctor makes no report of a breach of regulations.

Three Raids On Madrid Are Made During Daylight

First Daylight Attacks From Air On Capital—Planes Driven Off

MADRID POPULACE IS MUCH EXCITED

Rebels Press Offensive In Drive For Madrid—Resistance Stiffens

By THOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Oct. 23.—Rebel bombing planes swept over Madrid in three separate air raids today, the first carried out in broad daylight since the civil war began.

While damage was reported slight, the raids caused tremendous excitement and brought clearly home to the population the imminent danger of the capital being over-run by General Franco's invading insurgent armies.

Three planes participated in the first raid and two in the second. All five were driven off by loyalist gunfire, but two small bombs were dropped on the grounds of Madrid university, northwest of the capital.

Battles Continue.

Madrid, Oct. 23.—Rebels ran up against a stone wall of leftist defenses on the southwestern front today, but the northwest, where their offensive was concentrated, the insurrectos shelled their way through Navas Del Marquez and drove to within two miles of the historic Escorial palace.

Insurrect leaders predicted that the famous burial place of Spain's kings would fall in another day.

The Moors and Foreign Legionnaires fighting eastward on Navalcarnero, however, were halted by reinforcements from Madrid who piled into the strong entrenchments that have been under preparation for more than a month.

The rebels then brought up their artillery and called bombing aircraft into action to blast the loyalists' second line of defense and gain the Guadarrama river valley.

Mass For Battle.

There one of the most bitter battles of the Madrid siege is in prospect with the new supreme commander of the loyalist armies, Gen. Sebastian Pozas, massing all his

Thousands Will Make Visit To New Castle Mill

Open House At New Castle Tin Plant On Wednesday, October 28

OFFER PRIZES FOR ESSAY ON PLANT

Seek Names Of Men Who Started Work In Plant In Fall Of 1893

So much interest was engendered in the operations of a tin mill when the Shenango Works held its Community Day on October 14, that the Community Day of the New Castle Works, set for Wednesday, October 28, is expected to draw thousands who were unable to get to the Shenango Works. In addition many people will take the opportunity to see the New Castle Works who also went through Shenango.

H. C. Ford, assistant manager of New Castle Works, who is in charge of the New Castle Works Community Day is preparing for a tremendous crowd. Members of the Employes Representative Association will be stationed along the route through the mill and the route will also be marked with white tape and red arrows.

Plenty Of Parking

There will be plenty of parking for automobiles. The vacant lot on Moravia street opposite the Reiber street tunnel will be used, and the area just north of the main entrance to the plant will be used. Both entrances to the mill will be used for visitors.

Invitations have been sent to all clergymen in the county, and to city and county officers. Special attention is being paid to high school students who will attend the Community Day. A special parking place will be assigned for school busses and an essay contest will be staged for the students.

Three prizes of five dollars and five of two dollars has been offered to the senior and junior high

Wampum Man Is Hold-up Victim

Held up by a colored man as he was putting his truck away this morning at 1:30 Henry Pilloni of Main street, Wampum, was robbed of $23 in cash. The holdup man was a stranger in Wampum and had been seen around the boro all day Thursday.

Mr Pilloni had been working late and was putting his truck into the garage at the back of his yard. The colored man stepped from the darkness and covering Pilloni with a gun ordered him to turn over his pocketbook. The empty pocketbook was found in the street later. The holdup was reported to the police.

Three Men Lose Lives In Plunge Of Automobile

Auto Drops Off "High Bridge" Near Cresson And Lands On Moving Freight Train

ALL RESIDENTS OF JOHNSTOWN

(International News Service)

CRESSON, Pa., Oct. 23. — Three men were killed instantly today when their automobile plunged from "High Bridge" near here and fell 50 to 60 feet onto Pennsylvania railroad tracks and directly in the path of a moving freight train.

The dead:

Robert Hess, 28, of Johnstown;
Cyril G. Edwards, 27, of Johnstown, and Hamilton Suskie, 25, also of Johnstown.

The trio was returning to Johnstown from a dance at Gallitzin.

Their automobile, completely wrecked, was found wedged between the tenth and eleventh cars of the freight.

Apparently out of control, the car smashed through a barricade on the bridge, which is on the Cresson-Gallitzin highway. It was owned by John B. Murphy, of Johnstown, who reported he had loaned the car to Hess for the trip to Gallitzin.

Fire Threatens East Side Block

Fire which was discovered at 10:35 last evening in the shoe repair shop of George Katras, in the three-story business and apartment building at 1331 East Washington street, threatened the building, but was discovered before it had gained much headway and was extinguished before much damage was done. The loss was placed at $50.

An alarm from Box 48 called Fourth Ward and B. truck companies to the scene.

The families of J. P. Sommag and Frank Stanley occupy the second and third floors of the structure.

It may look queer to mention here, that soon we'll have the hurly burly of Christmas shoppers bustling round and so I say my friends, shop early. Don't wait until its Christmas week to buy your candy and your socks, to buy the toys you have to gather, the bicycles and lettered blocks. But get them now before the rushing, I know its early, muchly so, but you will save your nerves and vigor if you will buy before the snow. For once the Christmas season's with us there's always too much stuff to do, and Christmas shopping wont stand waiting, shop early, weather's sixty two.

President Is Back In Washington After New England Tour

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Publicly expressing confidence that his arduous 48-hour stumping tour of New England was going to put Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island in the Democratic column on November 3, President Roosevelt was back in Washington today for a tentative breathing spell from campaign travel.

The 11 days remaining before election were not going to find the president idle, however. In his battle to continue his lease on the White House for another four years.

Tonight he goes on the air again over a nation-wide hook-up. Definite engagements have been made to speak in New York City on Oct. 28 and again on Oct. 31.

Insist Program Indefinite.

Presidential aides insisted Mr. Roosevelt had no traveling plans set before the Oct. 28 appearance at 50th anniversary ceremonies of the dedication of the Statue of Liberty. They admitted, though, that "everything was being left open" for the next few days should any situation develop that he thought needed his personal attention.

There has been talk in New Deal circles that the president would visit Scranton, Pa., again—presumably in connection with his journey to New York City next Wednesday. Likewise there has been speculation

Score Of Arrests Made For Speeding By State Officers

More than a score of arrests was made for speeding, in the borough of Wampum yesterday, according to State Highway patrolmen who are on duty in that place.

The speeders are fined $10.00 and costs, the latter amounting to about $2.25. Arrests also were made Wednesday, it was stated. The highway patrolmen may shift operations to other boroughs on other highways at any time, it was indicated.

The patrolmen use two cars. Telephones connected by a strand of wire running one eighth mile along the highway are operated by dry cells.

Three Raids On Madrid Are Made During Daylight

First Daylight Attacks From Air On Capital—Planes Driven Off

MADRID POPULACE IS MUCH EXCITED

Rebels Press Offensive In Drive For Madrid—Resistance Stiffens

By THOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Oct. 23.—Rebel bombing planes swept over Madrid in three separate air raids today, the first carried out in broad daylight since the civil war began.

While damage was reported slight, the raids caused tremendous excitement and brought clearly home to the population the imminent danger of the capital being over-run by General Franco's invading insurgent armies.

Three planes participated in the first raid and two in the second. All five were driven off by loyalist gunfire, but two small bombs were dropped on the grounds of Madrid university, northwest of the capital.

Battles Continue.

Madrid, Oct. 23.—Rebels ran up against a stone wall of leftist defenses on the southwestern front today, but the northwest, where their offensive was concentrated, the insurrectos shelled their way through Navas Del Marquez and drove to within two miles of the historic Escorial palace.

Insurgent leaders predicted that the famous burial place of Spain's kings would fall in another day.

The Moors and Foreign Legionnaires fighting eastward of Navalcarnero, however, were halted by reinforcements from Madrid who piled into the strong entrenchments that have been under preparation for more than a month.

The rebels then brought up their artillery and called bombing aircraft into action to blast the loyalists' second line of defense and gain the Guadarrama river valley.

Mass For Battle.

There one of the most bitter battles of the Madrid siege is in prospect with the new supreme commander of the loyalist armies, Gen. Sebastian Ponzas, massing all his

Thousands Will Make Visit To New Castle Mill

Open House At New Castle Tin Plant On Wednesday, October 28

OFFER PRIZES FOR ESSAY ON PLANT

Seek Names Of Men Who Started Work In Plant In Fall Of 1893

So much interest was engendered in the operations of a tin mill when the Shenango Works held its Community Day on October 14, that the Community Day of the New Castle Works, set for Wednesday, October 28, is expected to draw thousands who were unable to get to the Shenango Works. In addition many people will take the opportunity to see the New Castle Works who also went through Shenango.

H. C. Ford, assistant manager of New Castle Works, who is in charge of the New Castle Works Community Day is preparing for a tremendous crowd. Members of the Employes Representative Association will be stationed along the route through the mill and the route will also be marked with white tape and red arrows.

Plenty Of Parking

There will be plenty of parking for automobiles. The vacant lot on Moravia street opposite the Reiber street tunnel will be used, and the area just north of the main entrance to the plant will be used. Both entrances to the mill will be used for visitors.

Invitations have been sent to all clergymen in the county, and to city and county officers. Special attention is being paid to high school students who will attend the Community Day. A special parking place will be assigned for school busses and an essay contest will be staged for the students.

Three prizes of five dollars and five of two dollars has been offered to the senior and junior high

Wampum Man Is Hold-up Victim

Held up by a colored man as he was putting his truck away this morning at 1:30 Henry Pilloni of Main street, Wampum, was robbed of $23 in cash. The holdup man was a stranger in Wampum and had been seen around the boro all day Thursday.

Mr. Pilloni had been working late and was putting his truck into the garage at the back of his yard. The colored man stepped from the darkness and covering Pilloni with a gun ordered him to turn over his pocketbook. The empty pocketbook was found in the street later. The holdup was reported to the police.

Three Men Lose Lives In Plunge Of Automobile

Auto Drops Off "High Bridge" Near Cresson And Lands On Moving Freight Train

ALL RESIDENTS OF JOHNSTOWN

(International News Service)

CRESSON, Pa., Oct. 23. — Three men were killed instantly today when their automobile plunged from "High Bridge" near here and fell 50 to 60 feet onto Pennsylvania railroad tracks and directly in the path of a moving freight train.

The dead:

Robert Hess, 28, of Johnstown; Cyril G. Edwards, 27, of Johnstown, and Hamilton Suskie, 25, also of Johnstown.

The trio was returning to Johnstown from a dance at Gallitzin.

Their automobile, completely wrecked, was found wedged between the tenth and eleventh cars of the freight.

Apparently out of control, the car smashed through a barricade on the bridge, which is on the Cresson-Gallitzin highway. It was owned by John B. Murphy, of Johnstown, who reported he had loaned the car to Hess for the trip to Gallitzin.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT PITTSBURGH

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at Pittsburgh for a former New Castle resident, Mrs. Herman Schnitzler, who died on Tuesday at Mercy hospital after a long illness.

Fire Threatens East Side Block

Fire which was discovered at 10:35 last evening in the shoe repair shop of George Katras, in the three-story business and apartment building at 1331 East Washington street, threatened the building, but was discovered before it had gained much headway and was extinguished before much damage was done. The loss was placed at $50.

An alarm from Box 48 called Fourth Ward and B. truck companies to the scene.

The families of J. P. Sonntag and Frank Stanley occupy the second and third floors of the structure.

It may look queer to mention here, that soon we'll have the hurly burly of Christmas shoppers bustling round and so I say my friends, shop early. Don't wait until its Christmas week to buy your candy and your socks, to buy the toys you have to gather, the bicycles and lettered blocks. But get them now before the rushing, I know its early, muchly so, but you will save your nerves and vigor if you will buy before the snow. For once the Christmas season's with us there's always too much stuff to do, and Christmas shopping wont stand waiting, shop early, weather's sixty two.

President Is Back In Washington After New England Tour

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Publicly expressing confidence that his arduous 48-hour stumping tour of New England was going to put Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island in the Democratic column on November 3, President Roosevelt was back in Washington today for a tentative breathing spell from campaign travel.

The 11 days remaining before election were not going to find the president idle, however, in his battle to continue his lease on the White House for another four years.

Tonight he goes on the air again over a nation-wide hook-up. Definite engagements have been made to speak in New York City on Oct. 28 and again on Oct. 31.

Insist Program Indefinite.

Presidential aides insisted Mr. Roosevelt had no traveling plans set before the Oct. 28 appearance at 50th anniversary ceremonies of the dedication of the Statue of Liberty. They admitted, though, that "everything was being left open" for the next few days should any situation develop that he thought needed his personal attention.

There has been talk in New Deal circles that the president would visit Scranton, Pa., again—presumably in connection with his journey to New York City next Wednesday. Likewise there has been speculation

SEES MILLIONS FOR LANDON

Al Smith Makes Chicago Speech

Declares "Millions Of Jeffersonian Democrats" Not For Roosevelt

ROOSEVELT POLICY STRONGLY ATTACKED

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—"Millions of Jeffersonian Democrats, Democrats that believe in the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, that regard it as their political Bible, Democrats who believed in the 1932 platform and want it enforced" will go to the polls November 3 and so cast their vote as to assure "a sane, orderly, sensible, comprehensible administration under Governor Landon of Kansas," former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, had predicted here today.

They are going to do this, the Democratic nominee for president in 1928 declared in an address here last night, because the Roosevelt administration has turned its back on every Jeffersonian plank in the 1932 platform, has abandoned true Democratic principles, and has embarked on a course of tax-gathering and squandering of public funds that spells disaster to the nation if not checked.

Assails Rubber Stamping

Chief targets of the "Happy Warrior's" barbed sarcasm were the growth of bureaucracy, the rubber stamping of congress and the Roosevelt administration's fiscal policy.

"I never came to Chicago in my life as strong a Democrat as I am now," Smith said. "And for a very good reason. Because I am actually helping to save the Democratic party and the nation."

Pointing out the national debt has increased from about 20 billion dollars in 1933 to 34 billion, Smith cried:

"Who owes it? Who is going to pay it? We are. When I hear this talk about soaking the rich, I realize that if we took all the rich men in the country and stood them on their heads and took everything away from them, including their underskirts, we would not begin to pay any part of it. It's going to be paid by the rank and file."

schools in New Castle and Lawrence county (outside of Ellwood City) for the best essays of not over two hundred words on what the students observe in the mill during their trip through. This means a total of $25 prize money that is being offered.

Twenty Exhibits

Twenty exhibits of black plate will be set up in the mill for the guests and many merchants of the city are preparing to show black plate exhibits in their windows next week.

Some question has been raised in the New Castle Works as to how many original New Castle Works tin mill men are still in New Castle. Mr. Ford would like to know the names of those men who started in the New Castle Works in the fall of 1893, who are still in New Castle.

New Castle Works has always been known for its high quality of plate. Today the plant is making the highest grade of plate in its history and this plate is being made up into black plate specialties. The use of the plate covers a thousand articles.

Community Day of the New Castle Works is for everybody in New Castle and Lawrence county. It is an opportunity to see one of the pioneer mills of the tinplate industry. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

PRESIDENT IS BACK IN WASHINGTON AFTER NEW ENGLAND TOUR

he might touch once more in New Jersey the latter part of next week.

On both scores his secretaries insisted no arrangements had been made.

The radio speech tonight will be addressed primarily to 18 "business men's dinners for Roosevelt" in key cities all over the country. A. B. Giannini, the west coast banker, will preside over the one in San Francisco and Joseph P. Kennedy, Wall Street financier, will preside at the one in New York City.

Cancels Press Conference.

For the second consecutive time, the president cancelled his regularly scheduled press conference today. It was explained he wanted to work on tonight's speech and also rest up from the highly strenuous two weeks of campaigning he has just completed in the west and New England.

Mr. Roosevelt was most pleased with his sally into New England. Great crowds turned out to see him in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island as he whirled across them by motor touching more than 30 towns and cities and making almost that many speeches.

Privately, New Deal political analysts were laying claim to Massachusetts' 17 electoral votes and Connecticut's eight as a result of the swing. They were not so sure of Rhode Island. More than 25,000 turned out to hear the president in Providence but a family row among Rhode Island Democratic leaders makes the New Dealers fearful the state will wind up in the Republican column.

How many people turned out to see and cheer the president in the three states Wednesday and Thursday probably could not be accurately estimated. The size of the crowds and the warmth of their greeting exceeded all expectations.

Mr. Roosevelt has an engagement to participate Monday in ceremonies in Washington incident to dedication of a new WPA building at Howard university, federally-endowed college for Negroes. The keeping of this engagement necessarily would limit any additional plans he might have for a final stumping tour.

His aides said the president hoped to be able to spend the week-end cruising on the White House yacht Potomac.

GOVERNOR LANDON SAYS ROOSEVELT CONCEALS FACTS

regimentation" in the face of adverse court decisions. Thus far in the campaign, he added, the president by concealing facts has "violated the principle of truth in government."

"He is attempting," said Landon, "to sell himself to the people of this country without full disclosure."

Landon was headed for Oklahoma City, where he delivers a major address at 12:30 Central Standard Time, leaving there at 2 p. m., he will swing into Indiana for another major address in Indianapolis tomorrow night. Resting over Sunday in that city, he will carry his campaign back into the east with major addresses in Philadelphia next Monday night, in Pittsburgh next Tuesday night and in New York City next Thursday night. He will close his campaign with a final speech in St. Louis next Saturday night.

Replies To Roosevelt

After spending most of yesterday in his state room, trying to recover from a sore throat, caused by voice strain, Landon issued a lengthy reply to the president's Worcester, Mass., speech. Instead of explaining his policies for the future, Landon said, the president "harks back to our retarded and artificial recovery—a recovery which at a cost of twenty-five billion dollars and a debt almost doubled has left eleven million unemployed and twenty millions on relief without hopes for the future."

Landon specifically challenged the truth of the president's claim that his administration has reduced indirect taxes to 33 cents out of each dollar of federal taxes collected. Landon pointed out that treasury figures showed that in 1933, 58 cents out of each dollar collected came from indirect taxes, with 64 cents in 1934, 61 cents in 1935-1936, and 51 cents in 1936. He added that Roosevelt had written Roy W. Howard on September 2, 1935, declaring invisible taxes then constituted 60 cents out of each tax dollar.

Assails Tax Program

"How is it possible to justify his statements in the light of his own words of a little more than a year ago and the figure published by his secretary of the treasury?", demanded Landon. Landon assailed the president's entire tax program. He denied the accuracy of the president's claim that "his administration originated the deduction for earned income," pointing out that "everyone who has paid an income tax since 1922 knows that this innovation was of Republican origin." He said the president's boast that a "reduction in interest rates was a benefit to the working people" was entirely fallacious. The actual result, said Landon, was a drastic reduction of income to people with savings bank deposits and investments in long term bonds.

Seriously Crippled

"Hospitals, educational institutions, philanthropic organizations and our great research agencies interested in public health will be seriously crippled for decades to come by these actions of which the president boasts," said Landon. "The present administration's new tax measures, if continued, will definitely put an end to the large contributions of private citizens to the charitable and philanthropic institutions which are dependent upon such contributions."

Finally Landon said:

"In short, Mr. Roosevelt's theory of taxation is an acknowledgement of his fundamental objective, namely, to bring within the federal government the control of all of our commercial, industrial and social problems. He believes that a bureaucracy in Washington can make greater progress than a system of free enterprise which has developed this country to its present position."

The program of chorus music for the evening session follows:

"Venetian Love Song" (Nevin)—Lloyd Deffenbaugh, Midland, conductor.

"Go Down, Moses" (arr. Noble Cain)—Mary Louise Mattson, Beaver Falls, conductor.

"Pilgrims Chorus" — (Tannhauser), (Wagner) — Newton Huffman, Knox, conductor.

"Deep River" (arr. Fisher)—Frank Beymer, New Brighton, conductor.

"The Nightingale" (Tschaikovsky) — Richard Dryden, Butler, conductor.

The speaker for the afternoon session today is Superintendent Henry Hill, of the schools of Lexington, Kentucky, an educator of note. His subject will be "What Curriculum Makes A Good Citizen." A business session will follow in which the nomination of officers for the coming year will be made. The report of the nominating committee will likely be accepted by the convention. Eight panel discussions will take place during the afternoon session.

Evening Addresses

Superintendent of Schools W. D. Gamble, who is also first vice president of the midwestern section will preside at tonight's general session which opens at 7:45. Frank D. Slutz, of Dayton, O., and Dr. L. A. Pechstein of the University of Cincinnati, will deliver the evening addresses. Mr. Slutz will speak on "Education And Main Street" and Dr. Pechstein will speak on a subject unannounced as yet.

The Saturday morning session will feature State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lester K. Ade who will speak on "The Fine Art Of Living Together." This session will open at 11 o'clock, departmental sessions taking the time between 9 and 10:30. These sessions will be held in the Senior high school. Election of officers and reports of committees will conclude the convention.

Dinner Events

Five dinners are scheduled for today. At 5:30 the Dean of Women dinner will be held in the Castleton hotel. At 5:45 a dinner for elementary principals will be held in the Cathedral. The Science Teachers' Association will hold its annual dinner in the dining room of the George Washington Junior high school at 5:30, the Social Studies Section in the Highland U. P. church at 5:45 and the Slippery Rock Alumni will hold its annual dinner at 6 o'clock in the First Christian church.

The convention general chairman is Superintendent C. C. Green, with the local branch of the P. S. E. A. in charge of arrangements. The officers of the local chapter are J. W. Anderson, president; Mary J. Scherger, vice president; Genevieve Riddle, secretary; George Hockenberry, treasurer; Peter Grittle, auditor; William Wallace, auditor.

MRS. SIMPSON IS ARRANGING TRIP; LIKELY BERMUDA

Three "Bobbies" are guarding her London residence, keeping American newspaper photographers at a distance.

A detective visited the office of one photographic agency which was persistently trying to obtain pictures of Mrs. Simpson outside her dressmaker's.

No Pictures

Simpson, meanwhile, is going regularly to his office and is still living at the Guard's club. He genially presented a photographer doing sentry duty with a box of cigarettes, saying he was sorry he was unable to pose for pictures for American readers, but understood the photographer's assignment.

Ipswich is flooded with American newspaper correspondents, but surprisingly no interest has been shown by English newspapers to date.

Today is commission day and tomorrow will mark the opening of the Assizes. It is improbable the divorce case will arise before Saturday, but it is possible it might occur today immediately after the ritual in which the sheriff hands the jail list to the judge. Some think the case will come up on Tuesday.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. George H. Speed.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Speed, aged 68 years, wife of George H. Speed, suffered a stroke at about 11 o'clock last night and died this morning at 2:25, at her home, 506 Sampson St.

Mrs. Speed was a well known resident and had a great many friends. She was a member of Trinity church, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, the Service Star Legion and the Union Label League.

She was born in Massachusetts, on September 11, 1868, daughter of John and Sarah Williams Rowe.

Surviving in addition to her husband are, two sons, John H. and James N. Speed, one daughter, Mrs. I. W. Miller, and five grandchildren, of New Castle, four brothers, John and Nicholas Rowe, of Pardoe, George and Richard Rowe of Greenville, and three sisters, Mrs. Andrew Kline and Mrs. Frank Bush, of New Castle, and Mrs. James Wolf, of Grove City.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity church, in charge. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Underwood.

Mrs. Mary Underwood, aged 78 years, widow of Edward Underwood, formerly of North Beaver township, died on Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maud Shrey, Columbiana, O. where she had resided for the past several years.

Mrs. Underwood leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Phillip McQuiston, of Ellwood City R. D. 1, and Mrs. Anna Schaettgen, of Rock Island, Ill.

Funeral services are to be conduct on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the daughter's home in Columbiana and interment will be made in a Columbiana cemetery.

John Thomas.

John Thomas, aged 76 years, died this morning at about 5:30 o'clock in his home, 511 Cascade street.

Mr. Thomas was born in Morrision, Swansea, South Wales, on March 29, 1860. He had resided in New Castle for the past 35 years and was a member of the Eagles club.

Surviving are one daughter, Sara Thomas at home; one son, Alfred Thomas of New Castle; six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Colley and Mrs. Mary Riddle of New Castle and Mrs. Harold Treester of Detroit, Mich. His wife, Theresa, died on October 1, 1929.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home and interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Henry Kipp Funeral.

Funeral services for the late Henry Kipp, grandfather of Mrs. Hugh Sturdy, Delaware avenue, were conducted Wednesday forenoon in the R. L. Boyd funeral home, with Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church in charge. Pallbearers were relatives of the deceased; interment was made that afternoon at Stow, O.

Miss Compello Funeral

Requiem mass for Miss Mary Compello, of South Liberty street, was celebrated by Rev. Fr. S. Ippolito at St. Lucy's church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, and interment was made in the church cemetery.

Thirty girls of the Immaculate Conception Sodality of the church attended in a body.

Pallbearers were young friends of the deceased, Gertrude DeMasi, Josephine Lambiase, Helen LaMarco, Rosie DiGennaro, Annie Rainey and Barbara DeVivo.

Verdict Rendered In Damage Case

Mr. And Mrs. Frank J. Wimer Awarded $600 In Suit Against T. F. Patterson

In the case of Fred J. Wimer and Helen Wimer against Thomas F. Patterson, Jr., which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers Thursday afternoon, a jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Wimer for $352 and Mrs. Wimer for $248, or a total of $600.

The case grew out of an automobile accident on the New Castle-Ellwood road, near the residence of Gomer Owens. Wimer was driving north, and attempted to make a left hand turn into a drive at the Owens property. He testified that he had held out his hand, signalling his intention to turn, but at that time there was nobody in sight.

While he was making the turn he claimed that the Patterson car suddenly came around a curve from the rear at a high rate of speed and struck his car. Both he and Mrs. Wimer were injured.

reserves for a counter-offensive around Mostoles, six miles from Naval-Carnero.

Rebels indicated, however, that the main offensive for the time being would be around the Escorial, since the advance there has lagged behind that on the southern line.

Bombardment of the Escorial sector was resumed today, consequently, and rebel troops also advanced far beyond Navas Del Marques.

Upon the shoulders of Gen. Fanjas, one of Spain's best-known military strategians, now rests the seemingly impossible task of saving Madrid. He concentrated today on strengthening the second lines of defense, deepening trenches and building breastworks.

Eleven persons who refused to help build defenses, according to rebel reports, were shot.

Losses Heavy.

Madrid, Oct. 23.—Rebel troops sustained heavy losses today in an attempt to break through the Siguenza front, a government communique stated.

Loyalists counter-attacked and repulsed the invaders, annihilating two cavalry squadrons.

On the Cordoba front, 55 rebels were killed and several hundred wounded when loyalists captured Castro. Government artillery damaged the town hall, governor's palace and cathedral at Huesca in an onslaught against Chimilla and Alorri nearby.

Rebel leaders in the Asturias sent an urgent appeal for reinforcements and anti-typhus vaccine.

Mrs. Zioncheck Is Not Missing

(International News Service)

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Ruseye Nut Zioncheck, widow of the late erratic Rep. Marion Zioncheck, who was reported missing here, was back at the home of her parents near Texarkana today.

Considerable furore was created yesterday when an unidentified man telephoned police headquarters and asked officers to search for Mrs. Zioncheck who he said had been missing since Tuesday.

Investigation revealed Mrs. Zioncheck purchased a $1,000 silver fox fur coat here and left late that night by auto, after a trip to Fort Worth.

SEES MILLIONS FOR LANDON

Al Smith Makes Chicago Speech

Declares "Millions Of Jeffersonian Democrats" Not For Roosevelt

ROOSEVELT POLICY STRONGLY ATTACKED

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—"Millions of Jeffersonian Democrats, Democrats that believe in the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, that regard it as their political Bible, Democrats who believed in the 1932 platform and want it enforced" will go to the polls November 3 and so cast their vote as to assure "a sane, orderly, sensible, comprehensible administration under Governor Landon of Kansas," former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, had predicted here today.

They are going to do this, the Democratic nominee for president in 1928 declared in an address here last night, because the Roosevelt administration has turned its back on every Jeffersonian plank in the 1932 platform, has abandoned true Democratic principles, and has embarked on a course of tax-gathering and squandering of public funds that spells disaster to the nation if not checked.

Assails Rubber Stamping

Chief targets of the "Happy Warrior's" barbed sarcasm were the growth of bureaucracy, the rubber stamping of congress and the Roosevelt administration's fiscal policy.

"I never came to Chicago in my life as strong a Democrat as I am now," Smith said. "And for a very good reason. Because I am actually helping to save the Democratic party and the nation."

Pointing out the national debt has increased from about 20 billion dollars in 1933 to 34 billion, Smith cried:

"Who owes it? Who is going to pay it? We are. When I hear this talk about soaking the rich, I realize that if we took all the rich men in the country and stood them on their heads and took everything away from them, including their undershirts, we would not begin to pay any part of it. It's going to be paid by the rank and file."

THOUSANDS WILL MAKE VISIT TO NEW CASTLE MILL

schools in New Castle and Lawrence county (outside of Ellwood City) for the best essays of not over two hundred words on what the students observe in the mill during their trip through. This means a total of $25 prize money that is being offered.

Twenty Exhibits

Twenty exhibits of black plate will be set up in the mill for the guests and many merchants of the city are preparing to show black plate exhibits in their windows next week.

Some question has been raised in the New Castle Works as to how many original New Castle Works tin mill men are still in New Castle. Mr. Ford would like to know the names of those men who started in the New Castle Works in the fall of 1893, who are still in New Castle.

New Castle Works has always been known for its high quality of plate. Today the plant is making the highest grade of plate in its history and this plate is being made up into black plate specialties. The use of the plate covers a thousand articles.

Community Day of the New Castle Works is for everybody in New Castle and Lawrence county. It is an opportunity to see one of the pioneer mills of the tinplate industry. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

PRESIDENT IS BACK IN WASHINGTON AFTER NEW ENGLAND TOUR

he might touch once more in New Jersey the latter part of next week.

On both scores his secretaries insisted no arrangements had been made.

The radio speech tonight will be addressed primarily to 18 "business men's dinners for Roosevelt" in key cities all over the country. A. B. Giannini, the west coast banker, will preside over the one in San Francisco and Joseph P. Kennedy, Wall Street financier, will preside at the one in New York City.

Cancels Press Conference.

For the second consecutive time, the president cancelled his regularly scheduled press conference today. It was explained he wanted to work on tonight's speech and also rest up from the highly strenuous two weeks of campaigning he has just completed in the west and New England.

Mr. Roosevelt was most pleased with his sally into New England. Great crowds turned out to see him in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island as he whirled across them by motor touching more than 30 towns and cities and making almost that many speeches.

Privately, New Deal political analysts were laying claim to Massachusetts' 17 electoral votes and Connecticut's eight as a result of the swing. They were not so sure of Rhode Island. More than 25,000 turned out to hear the persident in Providence but a family row among Rhode Island Democratic leaders makes the New Dealers fearful the state will wind up in the Republican column.

How many people turned out to see and cheer the president in the three states Wednesday and Thursday probably could not be accurately estimated. The size of the crowds and the warmth of their greeting exceeded all expectations.

Mr. Roosevelt has an engagement to participate Monday in ceremonies in Washington incident to dedication of a new WPA building at Howard university, federally-endowed college for Negroes. The keeping of this engagement necessarily would limit any additional plans he might have for a final stumping tour.

His aides said the president hoped to be able to spend the week-end cruising on the White House yacht Potomac.

GOVERNOR LANDON SAYS ROOSEVELT CONCEALS FACTS

regimentation" in the face of adverse court decisions. Thus far in the campaign, he added, the president by concealing facts has "violated the principle of truth in government."

"He is attempting," said Landon, "to sell himself to the people of this country without full disclosure."

Landon was headed for Oklahoma City, where he delivers a major address at 12:30 Central Standard Time, leaving there at 2 p. m., he will swing into Indiana for another major address in Indianapolis tomorrow night. Resting over Sunday in that city, he will carry his campaign back into the east with major addresses in Philadelphia next Monday night, in Pittsburgh next Tuesday night and in New York City next Thursday night. He will close his campaign with a final speech in St. Louis next Saturday night.

Replies To Roosevelt

After spending most of yesterday in his state room, trying to recover from a sore throat, caused by voice strain, Landon issued a lengthy reply to the president's Worcester, Mass., speech. Instead of explaining his policies for the future, Landon said, the president "harks back to our retarded and artificial recovery—a recovery which at a cost of twenty-five billion dollars and a debt almost doubled has left eleven million unemployed and twenty millions on relief without hopes for the future."

Landon specifically challenged the truth of the president's claim that his administration has reduced indirect taxes to 38 cents out of each dollar of federal taxes collected. Landon pointed out that treasury figures showed that in 1933, 58 cents out of each dollar collected came from indirect taxes, with 64 cents in 1934, 61 cents in 1935-1936, and 51 cents in 1936. He added that Roosevelt had written Roy W. Howard on September 2, 1935, declaring invisible taxes then constituted 60 cents out of each tax dollar.

Assails Tax Program

"How is it possible to justify his statements in the light of his own words of a little more than a year ago and the figure published by his secretary of the treasury?", demanded Landon. Landon assailed the president's entire tax program. He denied the accuracy of the president's claim that "his administration originated the deduction for earned income," pointing out that "everyone who has paid an income tax since 1922 knows that this innovation was of Republican origin." He said the president's boast that a "reduction in interest rates was a benefit to the working people" was entirely fallacious. The actual result, said Landon, was a drastic reduction of income to people with savings bank deposits and investments in long term bonds.

Seriously Crippled

"Hospitals, educational institutions, philanthropic organizations and our great research agencies interested in public health will be seriously crippled for decades to come by these actions of which the president boasts," said Landon. "The present administration's new tax measures, if continued, will definitely put an end to the large contributions of private citizens to the charitable and philanthropic institutions which are dependent upon such contributions."

Finally Landon said:

"In short, Mr. Roosevelt's theory of taxation is an acknowledgement of his fundamental objective, namely, to bring within the federal government the control of all of our commercial, industrial and social problems. He believes that a bureaucracy in Washington can make greater progress than a system of free enterprise which has developed this country to its present position."

"The Nightingale" (Tschaikovsky) — Richard Dryden, Butler, conductor.

The speaker for the afternoon session today is Superintendent Henry Hill, of the schools of Lexington, Kentucky, an educator of note. His subject will be "What Curriculm Makes A Good Citizen." A business session will follow in which the nomination of officers for the coming year will be made. The report of the nominating committee will likely be accepted by the convention. Eight panel discussions will take place during the afternoon session.

Evening Addresses

Superintendent of Schools W. D. Gamble, who is also first vice president of the midwestern section will preside at tonight's general session which opens at 7:45. Frank D. Slutz, of Dayton, O., and Dr. L. A. Pechstein of the University of Cincinnati, will deliver the evening addresses. Mr. Slutz will speak on "Education And Main Street" and Dr. Pechstein will speak on a subject unannounced as yet.

The Saturday morning session will feature State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lester K. Ade who will speak on "The Fine Art Of Living Together." This session will open at 11 o'clock, departmental sessions taking the time between 9 and 10:30. These sessions will be held in the Senior high school. Election of officers and reports of committees will conclude the convention.

Dinner Events

Five dinners are scheduled for today. At 5:30 the Dean of Women dinner will be held in the Castleton hotel. At 5:45 a dinner for elementary principals will be held in the Cathedral. The Science Teachers' Association will hold its annual dinner in the dining room of the George Washington Junior high school at 5:30, the Social Studies Section in the Highland U. P. church at 5:45 and the Slippery Rock Alumni will hold its annual dinner at 6 o'clock in the First Christian church.

The convention general chairman is Superintendent C. C. Green, with the local branch of the P. S. E. A. in charge of arrangements. The officers of the local chapter are J. W. Anderson, president; Mary J. Scherger, vice president; Genevieve Riddle, secretary; George Hockenberry, treasurer; Peter Grittie, auditor; William Wallace, auditor.

MRS. SIMPSON IS ARRANGING TRIP; LIKELY BERMUDA

London Thursday to visit a dressmaker and the fashionable shops, buying tropical costumes and accessories.

Three "Bobbies" are guarding her London residence, keeping American newspaper photographers at a distance.

A detective visited the office of one photographic agency which was persistently trying to obtain pictures of Mrs. Simpson outside her dressmaker's.

No Pictures

Simpson, meanwhile, is going regularly to his office and is still living at the Guard's club. He genially presented a photographer doing sentry duty with a box of cigarettes, saying he was sorry he was unable to pose for pictures for American readers, but understood the photographer's assignment.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. George H. Speed.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Speed, aged 68 years, wife of George H. Speed, suffered a stroke at about 11 o'clock last night and died this morning at 3:25, at her home, 506 Sampson St.

Mrs. Speed was a well known resident and had a great many friends. She was a member of Trinity church, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, the Service Star Legion and the Union Label League.

She was born in Massachusetts, on September 11, 1868, daughter of John and Sarah Williams Rowe.

Surviving in addition to her husband are, two sons, John H. and James N. Speed, one daughter, Mrs. I. W. Miller, and five grandchildren, of New Castle, four brothers, John and Nicholas Rowe, of Pardoe, George and Richard Rowe of Greenville, and three sisters, Mrs. Andrew Kline and Mrs. Frank Bush, of New Castle, and Mrs. James Wolf, of Grove City.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity church, in charge. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Underwood.

Mrs. Mary Underwood, aged 78 years, widow of Edward Underwood, formerly of North Beaver township, died on Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maud Sircy, Columbiana, O., where she had resided for the past several years.

Mrs. Underwood leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Phillip McQuiston, of Ellwood City R. D. 1, and Mrs. Anna Schaettgen, of Rock Island, Ill.

Funeral services are to be conduct on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the daughter's home in Columbiana and interment will be made in a Columbiana cemetery.

John Thomas.

John Thomas, aged 76 years, died this morning at about 5:30 o'clock in his home, 511 Cascade street.

Mr. Thomas was born in Morriston, Swansea, South Wales, on March 29, 1860. He had resided in New Castle for the past 36 years and was a member of the Eagles club.

Surviving are one daughter, Sara Thomas at home; one son, Alfred Thomas of New Castle; six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Colley and Mrs. Mary Riddle of New Castle and Mrs. Harold Treester of Detroit, Mich. His wife, Theresa, died on October 1, 1929.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home and interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Henry Kipp Funeral.

Funeral services for the late Henry Kipp, grandfather of Mrs. Hugh Sturdy, Delaware avenue, were conducted Wednesday forenoon in the R. L. Boyd funeral home, with Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church in charge. Pallbearers were relatives of the deceased; interment was made that afternoon at Stow, O.

Miss Compelio Funeral

Requiem mass for Miss Mary Compello, of South Liberty street, was celebrated by Rev. Fr. S. Ippolito at St. Lucy's church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, and interment was made in the church cemetery.

Thirty girls of the Immaculate Conception Sodality of the church attended in a body.

Pallbearers were young friends of the deceased, Gertrude DeMasi, Josephine Lambiase, Helen LaMarco, Rosie DiGennaro, Annie Rainey and Barbara DeVivo.

Verdict Rendered In Damage Case

Mr. And Mrs. Frank J. Wimer Awarded $600 In Suit Against T. F. Patterson

In the case of Fred J. Wimer and Helen Wimer against Thomas F. Patterson, Jr., which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers Thursday afternoon, a jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Wimer for $352 and Mrs. Wimer for $248, or a total of $600.

The case grew out of an automobile accident on the New Castle-Ellwood road, near the residence of Gomer Owens. Wimer was driving north, and attempted to make a left hand turn into a drive at the Owens property. He testified that he had held out his hand, signalling his intention to turn, but at that time there was nobody in sight.

While he was making the turn he claimed that the Patterson car suddenly came around a curve from the rear at a high rate of speed and struck his car. Both he and Mrs. Wimer were injured.

reserves for a counter-offensive around Mostoles, six miles from Naval-Carnero.

Rebels indicated, however, that the main offensive for the time being would be around the Escorial, since the advance there has lagged behind that on the southern line.

Bombardment of the Escorial sector was resumed today, consequently, and rebel troops also advanced far beyond Navas Del Marquez.

Upon the shoulders of Gen. Ponzas, one of Spain's best-known military strategians, now rests the seemingly impossible task of saving Madrid. He concentrated today on strengthening the second lines of defense, deepening trenches and building breastworks.

Eleven persons who refused to help build defenses, according to rebel reports, were shot.

Losses Heavy.

Madrid, Oct. 23.—Rebel troops sustained heavy losses today in an attempt to break through the Siguenza front, a government communique stated.

Loyalists counter-attacked and repulsed the invaders, annihilating two cavalry squadrons.

On the Cordoba front, 55 rebels were killed and several hundred wounded when loyalists captured Castro. Government artillery damaged the town hall, governor's palace and cathedral at Huesca in an onslaught against Chimilla and Alorri nearby.

Mrs. Zioncheck Is Not Missing

(International News Service)

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Rubye Nix Zioncheck, widow of the late erratic Rep. Marion Zioncheck, who was reported missing here, was back at the home of her parents near Texarkana today.

Considerable furore was created yesterday when an unidentified man telephoned police headquarters and asked officers to search for Mrs. Zioncheck who he said had been missing since Tuesday.

Investigation revealed Mrs. Zioncheck purchased a $1,000 silver fox fur coat here and left late last night by auto, after a trip to Fort Worth.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR MRS. McCASLIN'S CLASS

Imbued with the spirit of Hallowe'en, a bewitching group of young women who compose the Sunday school class of Mrs. W. S. McCaslin at the First U. P. church, invaded the home of Virginia Schefnocker on Canyon street Thursday evening for a party.

There were 17 present, including two special guests, Mrs. Ida Grace Getz and Miss Florence Pyle. Various games appropriate to the season were enjoyed with prizes for the winners. These were Mrs. Jack Frazier, Mrs. Robert McCullough, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. W. S. McCaslin, Misses Bobbie Campbell and Helen Jenkins.

The committee for the affair consisted of Virginia Schefnocker, Mrs. Robert McCullough and Miss Helen Jenkins, but even the latter two were surprised when the hostess invited the guests to the dining room for refreshments.

Instead of the usual Hallowe'en lunch, Miss Schefnocker had prepared a savory chop suey supper which she served with the assistance of Miss Pyle and Miss Jenkins. Favors at the table were china pumpkins filled with nuts, other decorations being in keeping with the occasion.

H. S. P. CLUB PLANS HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Thursday evening, Miss Alberta Davis, John street, delightfully entertained members of the H. S. P. club when they gathered in her home for their regular meeting.

A short business session was conducted at which time plans were made for a Hallowe'en party on Tuesday evening, October 27. This will be in the form of a masquerade party in Orr's hall on Grove street. The husbands and escorts of the members will be special guests.

Several committees were named, including the following: entertainment, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Anna Ruth Frisbee and Alberta Davis; decorating, Grace Love and Erma Kerr; refreshments, Eva Leat and Nellei Simons.

After the business meeting the members joined in informal chat and sewing. Miss Davis later in the evening served a most delicious luncheon and was assisted by her sister Martha. The next meeting will be Thursday, November 5, in the home of Grace Love on Pearl street.

BOOK REVIEW FEATURES FINE ARTS OPENING

Fine Arts Department of the Woman's club will have the opening meeting next Monday, October 26, at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, 331 Laurel boulevard. Mrs. George Short will be co-hostess.

The literature group for the day will be in charge with a book review by Mrs. A. M. Shumaker on Margaret Mitchell's much discussed book, "Gone With the Wind."

EVENING BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McClure were hosts Thursday evening to New Castle Field club members who gathered in their club rooms for a period of card playing. The affair was well attended, and contests were in progress shortly after 8 o'clock.

Those winning prizes were Mrs. Adolph Green, Mrs. R. M. Garland, Mrs. L. B. Hauschild, Albert B. Sarret, E. F. Kariher and E. L. Brundage. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

In two weeks there will be a similar party held at the club for the enjoyment of its members, the hosts to be announced.

ALL DAY ASSEMBLY FOR ACME MEMBERS

The monthly meeting of the Acme club, was held in the home of Mrs. J. W. Fullerton, on the Mt. Jackson Enon Valley road, Wednesday, with the women gathering at 10 o'clock in the morning for an all day event. Dinner was served at noon the dining table being attractively decorated in Hallowe'en appointments, with a bouquet of dahlias adorning the center. Places marked for fourteen. While seated at the table, each recited a poem or related an interesting incident in verse.

Their next meeting with Mrs. Harlan Wilson of Sunny Side on the 16th of November, the Thanksgiving theme will be developed in the program of entertainment.

Special guests included Mrs. Haverfield of Monongahela City and mother of Mrs. Fullerton, and Mrs. Caroline W. Ingham, house guest of the hostess.

TWO VISITORS AT G. H. M. MEETING

Two visitors, Mrs. C. B. Wingerd and Mrs. Wilson, the latter of Mahoningtown, added to the 18 members of the G. H. M. class of the Central Presbyterian church, formed a congenial group of 20 who were guests of Miss Lela Patterson of Allen street Thursday evening.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ben Jenkins and Mrs. S. A. White, who with Miss Patterson provided enjoyable entertainment after the customary business session. Luncheon of a Hallowe'en nature was served at a late hour. On the third Thursday in November the class will have the next meeting, the place to be determined.

S. M. F. Club Guests.

Thursday evening S. M. F. club associates were delightfully entertained in the home of Dorothy Cooper on Meyer avenue. A short business discussion opened the program, when plans for a masked Hallowe'en party were rounded out. The affair will take place Thursday night, October 29, in the home of Marie Wolford on Morton street.

Cards filled in the remainder of the leisure period with Mary Gretta Jackson and Harriet Schmid receiving the awards. Miss Marjorie Truexall was a special guest. A delicious lunch was served at conclusion of play by the hostess.

On November 5 the club will meet with Ruth Simon on Northview avenue.

D. M. I. Club

In the home of Mrs. Dante De Salco, 1109 South Jefferson street, Wednesday evening, the D. M. I. club was received.

Cards and chat were the pastimes, prizes going to Mrs. Carl Jennock and Mrs. Ralph Carbo. Refreshments concluded the pleasant affair.

November 4, the club will be entertained by Mrs. Angelo Filigensile, Maitland street.

RUBINO-MORELLI WEDDING THURSDAY

In her chenille cut velvet gown, made entrain, Miss Mary Rubino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rubino, of 202 Franklin avenue, Ellwood City, was an attractive bride for her marriage to Tullio Morelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morelli, of 213 East Lutton street, New Castle, on Thursday morning, in the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church, Ellwood City. The Rev. Fr. Vincent Gallinno officiated.

A beautiful tulle veil completed Miss Rubino's costume. She carried a cleverly arranged bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Josephine Rubino, the bride's sister, who was maid of honor, was gowned in King Edward coronation red velvet with an arm bouquet of orchids. INSPIRING MESSAGE TO LOCAL JEWISH WOMEN

Attracting attention of new and old members alike of New Castle section, National Council of Jewish Women is a New Year's message received by the local Council president, Mrs. W. L. Gosel, from Mrs. Arthur Brin, national president.

It is particularly appropriate at this time, coming as it does just before the state conference of the National Council of Jewish Women, which will be held in New Castle November 9-11 inclusive. Headquarters will be at the Castleton Hotel, with the evening meeting on the Sunday preceding, in Temple Israel.

Mrs. Brin, who is nationally and internationally known for her work on behalf of world peace, which is an important part of the national program of the Council, urges the necessity of joint effort during the forthcoming year to counteract martial tendencies throughout the world.

"Ideals which are fundamental to civilization are perishing," declared Mrs. Brin in her message to the 40,000 members of the Council. "Institutions which bulwark our social order are breaking down.

Men have curtailed the liberties of men—freedom of speech, of assembly, of press, of conscience. The desire of man for mutual understanding; faith in that which unites them—their common humanity, the hope of a warless world.—these are drying up. In their place are distrust, suspicion, even hate.

A nation is teaching hate in its little children, to its people, to other peoples. There is danger that the world is falling into the grip of the ignorant, the prejudiced, the violent. The world they are trying to will into being will be a very different world. The civilization they would build is not the kind to which we aspire."

The present program of the New Castle section for the forth coming year includes much of the work suggested by Mrs. Brin, details for which will be considered at the state conference.

SURPRISE FROLIC AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, chairman of Temple Israel's Hallowe'en surprise party, succeeded with her able committee in making the event held in the Temple Thursday evening, everything they promised. A crowd of friends and guests numbering a hundred or more, attended.

Goblins and fun reigned in true Hallowe'en spirit, amidst a weird setting of corn stalks, pumpkin faces and other witchcraft, set off with dim lighting effects. A variety of amusing contests were entered into provoking much merriment, and fortunes were told in a darkened booth by Freda Shiffman, in gypsy attire. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening, with radio music being provided by J. F. Perelman.

After the awarding of the door prize to Mrs. Alvan Shenken, Marcus Feuchtwanger presented Miss Billie E. Glenn and few of her students in a program of tap and acrobatic numbers. Those appearing in this feature, included Miss Billie, James Cardella, Vivian and Dorothy Pitzer, Rosemary Place, Leota and Loretta Fleeger. Harry Schneitzinger accompanied at the piano.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR MRS. McCASLIN'S CLASS

Imbued wtih the spirit of Hallowe'en, a laughing group of young women who compose the Sunday school class of Mrs. W. S. McCaslin at the First U. P. church, invaded the home of Virginia Schefnocker on Canyon street Thursday evening for a party.

There were 17 present, including two special guests, Mrs. Ida Grace Guy and Miss Florence Pyle. Various games appropriate to the season were enjoyed with prizes for the winners. These were Mrs. Jack Frazier, Mrs. Robert McCullough, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. W. S. McCaslin, Misses Bobbie Campbell and Helen Jenkins.

The committee for the affair consisted of Virginia Schefnocker, Mrs. Robert McCullough and Miss Helen Jenkins, but even the latter two were surprised when the hostess invited the guests to the dining room for refreshments.

Instead of the usual Hallowe'en lunch, Miss Schefnocker had prepared a savory chop suey supper which she served with the assistance of Miss Pyle and Miss Jenkins. Favors at the table were china pumpkins filled with nuts, other decorations being in keeping with the occasion.

H. S. P. CLUB PLANS HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Thursday evening, Miss Alberta Davis, John street, delightfully entertained members of the H. S. P. club when they gathered in her home for their regular meeting.

A short business session was conducted at which time plans were made for a Hallowe'en party on Tuesday evening, October 27. This will be in the form of a masquerade party in Orr's hall on Grove street. The husbands and escorts of the members will be special guests.

Several committees were named, including the following: entertainment, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Anna Ruth Frisbee and Alberta Davis; decorating, Grace Love and Erma Kerr; refreshments, Eva Lent and Nellei Simons.

After the business meeting the members joined in informal chat and sewing. Miss Davis later in the evening served a most delicious luncheon and was assisted by her sister Martha. The next meeting will be Thursday, November 5, in the home of Grace Love on Pearl street.

Their meeting the coming week will be held at the home of Ravina Wolfe, West Long avenue.

SURPRISE FROLIC AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, chairman of Temple Israel's Hallowe'en surprise party, succeeded with her able committee in making the event held in the Temple Thursday evening, everything they promised. A crowd of friends and guests numbering a hundred or more, attended.

Goblins and fun reigned in true Hallowe'en spirit, amidst a weird setting of corn stalks, pumpkin faces and other witchcraft, set off with dim lighting effects. A variety of amusing contests were entered into provoking much merriment, and fortunes were told in a darkened booth by Freda Shiffman, in gypsy attire. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening, with radio music being provided by J. F. Perelman.

After the awarding of the door prize to Mrs. Alvan Shenken, Marcus Feuchtwanger presented Miss Billie E. Glenn and few of her students in a program of tap and acrobatic numbers. Those appearing in this feature, included Miss Billie, James Cardella, Vivian and Dorothy Pitzer, Rosemary Place, Leota and Loretta Fleeger. Harry Schneitzinger accompanied at the piano.

The committee in charge, composed of Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, Mrs. Gordon Stone, Mrs. Ben Zeisel, Mrs. Harry Botwin, and Mrs. Nanette Linvale.

MRS. SCARAZZO HOSTESS TO COLONIAL MEMBERS

Colonial club members spent a most delightful evening Thursday, when they were entertained in the home of Mrs. Alfonso Scarazzo, Hazelcroft avenue.

Plans were completed for a Hallow'en party to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Ross, South Mill St. Tuesday evening. Bingo was the popular pastime, prizes going to Mrs. Andrew Sarbo, Mrs. Anna Richards and Mrs. P. G. Marotti. At an appointed time, the hostess served dainty refreshments.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Thursday night, November 5, in the home of Mrs. P. G. Marotti, of Cunningham avenue.

First Baptist Classes Party

This evening at the home of Marie Hogue, Castlewood, the Young Peoples' Fellowship Society and the Young People's choir of the First Baptist church will gather to launch their Fall social activities which will take the form of a Hallowe'en masquerade.

Members will make their appearance in masked costumes, meeting at the church at 7:30 o'clock where transportation will be provided to the Hogue residence. The committee is composed of Marie Hogue, Ina Lusk and Flossie Williams.

G. W. C. Club

Mrs. Robert Russell, Chestnut street, received G. W. C. club members in her home Wednesday afternoon. Fancywork and conversation filled in the time, and at a suitable hour, refreshments were served. Special guests in attendance, were Mrs W. W. Cameron of Greenville, Pa., Mrs. Fred Williamson of New Wilmington, and Mrs. R. F. Milliken of this city.

On Thursday, November 5, the club will meet again, the hostess to be announced.

J-Five Club

Members of the J-Five club met at the home of Mrs. Albert DePalmo on Elm street last evening. After business items were discussed, games and sewing were forms of pastimes. Mrs. Stanley Caprawski was awarded the prize.

The hostess served lunch at the close of the evening, with fall appointments predominating. Mrs. Louis Peretti of South Jefferson street will receive members on Wednesday evening.

Yucatan Club

Monday evening's meeting of the Yucatan club will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Martin, North Mercer street.

1936 Sewing Circle

1936 Sewing Circle members will meet Tuesday evening of next week, instead of this week, at a downtown tea room as planned.

TIME TO REFORM

IF FEDERAL election law is not given a raking over as one result of the present election campaign, members of congress will be avoiding an evident duty.

A case in point is the misuse of the congressional franking privilege for disseminating political propaganda, which lately has been figuring in the news. This abuse has been going on for years but never before, seemingly, on such a scale as this year.

A current dispatch from Washington tells of a plan to send out 60,000,000 printed cards in the last days of the campaign under the frank of various Democratic congressmen.

Such unbridled exploitation of the frank by political parties is manifestly not in the public interest and is, moreover, a gross imposition on the postal patron and general taxpayer. Its present course points toward an eventual scandal.

We personally hope for a revulsion of popular feeling that will force abolition of the congressional frank altogether.

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

The story of the long devotion of Helen Keller and Mrs. Anne S. Macy has often been told in prose which ever rings like the finest poetry. For since 1887, when the half-blind girl from a charity home began to lift the six-year-old Helen Keller from the gloom of blindness and deafness, the two have been sisters, alter egos, inseparable companions, groping and achieving together, not merely teacher and pupil.

The death of Mrs. Macy, herself completely sightless at the end, thus is a proper occasion to salute anew her vision which surpassed earthly scenes, and to snare again the inspiration of the blind leading the blind upward to a spiritual luminosity envied by a world having "eyes but seeing not."

For what Helen Keller has achieved for herself, Anne S. Macy shared. And that Helen Keller today is not helpless instead of a distinguished lecturer, writer, scholar and example of illustrious conquest, Mrs. Macy merits a world's acclaim. She, just as her better known protege, has amply proved again that the soul needs no physical eyes for envisioning life's great fundamentals.

SPAIN'S LONG AGONY

Two vital questions arise out of the obscurity which surrounds the situation in Spain. One is whether the capture of Madrid will bring the civil war to an end. The other is what the Soviet government of Russia will do by way of rescuing the Popular Front government from a predicament which appears desperate.

President Azana and several members of the Madrid government left the capital city on Monday and went to Barcelona. Does this mean that their cause is lost and that they are taking flight to avoid falling into the hands of the insurgent forces? Or does it mean that the war against the insurgents will be carried on from Catalonia even after Madrid has fallen? Dispatches suggest that one guess is as good as the other.

Just what the Russians are driving at is not clear. Do they believe that they could save the Popular Front government by withdrawing from the All-European Non-Intervention Agreement and sending war supplies to the government forces asks the Public Ledger of Philadelphia? Or are they determined to smash the non-intervention pact and bring Europe again to the verge of general war, just in the hope of serving their own interests, saving face at home and advancing the cause of Communism?

A critical phase has obviously been reached in the Spanish conflict, both on the battle front and in its far-reaching international ramifications. As the struggle goes into its fourth month, a decision seems no nearer than it was after the fourth day. It is a war which thus far has defied predictions. And for the Spanish people it is a long agony without any clearly appointed end.

KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON

It seems to be unanimously resolved by old General Consensus that six states will swing the presidential election. The experts avow it, the candidates seem to confirm it. Final analysis of all analysis, straw votes and the reports of the political scouts has demonstrated, to all but the incorrigibly skeptical, that the deciding vote on November 3 will be cast by New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. What the 25,000,000 or so voters in the forty-two other states will do on the given day has been appraised and indexed and, one gathers, it will be lost motion to bother counting the returns.

The experts, with the airy ease that ignores bad guesses of the past, have decreed Mr. Landon must not lose one of those states if he is to win the election. The states may be doubtful, but the experts are not. Regardless of the accuracy of their diagnosis, it is a fact that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Landon with their statistical staffs, seconds, trainers and managers are concentrating on the supreme six. These states are to be hand-ridden, it appears, in the stretch drive of a campaign that overnight has been streamlined, air conditioned and placed on a non-stop schedule. The acceleration has been remarkable and abrupt.

For the week from now until the election there will be no rest for the candidates, their headliners and sideliners. Also there will be mightily little for the rest of it. Predictions and statements will pour in torrential streams from both headquarters. The autumnal air will resound with the outgivings of massed orators, some of whom you cannot escape hearing this side of the equator. Speeches, interpretations and deductions will ambush you from every page as you progress through your newspaper.

The week will be trying, even without the complications of mortgage payments and due dates. Nevertheless November 3 will come, and the country will go on, shoppers will shop, the breakfast ham and eggs will still be a national institution.

And so, regardless of the insufferable opinion of that nit-wit who is for the other fellow, watch your temperature and temper and stay out of draughts.

Now that all European currency is on the cigar-coupon standard, financing of the next war should be easier.

How did that mass-education movement ever come out—the one in which 7,000,000 young and not-so-young men magazined their way through college? Or didn't they get through?

Stalin Not Coming.
Paradise, New Style.
Have Your Bones Nailed.
Who Runs The Rackets?
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

MORNING NEWSPAPERS said Stalin, ill, was coming here to be cured by the Mayo brothers, of Minnesota, or Johns Hopkins. He was to instruct Communists in the United States to make no fuss over him, and go home cured.

The Russian embassy says: "Nothing in the story," first printed in the Novoye Russkoye Slovo, Russian language paper.

It seemed improbable that Stalin would place himself in the hands of "medical science" supported by "American capitalism," but many Americans would be interested in a "close-up" of the man who succeeds Ivan the Terrible, Peter the Great, and the more recent wrecking czars, as absolute ruler of all the Russias.

IN NEW YORK State, 30,000 acres of unprofitable farm and woodland are set aside as game preserves, to create a "paradise for hunters." Paradise has been differently described.

Buddha called his "Nirvanna," which means "nothingness," absence of sin and worry.

Mohammed promised that every good fighting Moslem in Heaven would be 30 feet tall, always young, with plenty of wine, milk, honey, surrounded by obliging and beautiful young ladies made of solid musk, not including his wife.

A "Paradise for hunters," where the fortunate may enjoy killing their lowly animal brothers, seems a queer Paradise for civilized man. The red Indians had it, in their "happy hunting ground," provided by the Great Spirit.

All Of Us

USE THAT MOMENT!

NOT ALL moments are rich and strong, full of meaning and power. . . . Some moments are dull and lifeless, a drag on your disposition and your character.

But some moments are miraculous. Suddenly, out of nowhere, without warning, they appear. Life glows, life shines, life lifts you high above your ordinary self. You feel, with a certainty so swift that it is absolute knowledge, that you can do anything. All your powers are concerted in this one moment. . . . You are not another human being entirely, you are you at your highest, seeing clearly, feeling intensely, multiplied and gloriously stimulated.

This moment comes, this moment goes. . . . For all you know it may never come again. . . . What can you, what will you, do with it?

You hold it in your hand. It gleams like a polished tool. Will you hold it idly, admiring its perfection, its keenness, its superlative usefulness? Or will you take it and use it, use it and create something that will outlast this moment and serve you all the rest of your days?

You have your choice. . . . Those good-great-precious moments come to all of us. And sometimes we do more than admire them, enjoy them. We feel so grand, but we desire only to FEEL and not to DO. So the rich moment slips away from us and we are only the memory of that lost opportunity.

But if we USE this moment of our eminence, make something out of it, do something with it, we have made ourselves worthy of our good fortune. We have made it last. We have set ourselves a great example of what once we were and did—and what we may be and do again.

I am not weaving a dream. I am talking fact. I know the brightness I have allowed to grow dull. I know the opportunities I have let slip. . . . And so have you wasted many a highest moment. Be wiser when it comes again—and use that moment!

The World War, all told, cost, apart from 30 million lives—$39 billion dollars. We could have given to each city of 20,000 inhabitants and over, in each country named a five million library and a ten million dollar university. Out of what was left we could have set aside a sum of 5 per cent that would provide a $1,000 yearly salary for an army of 125,000 teachers and a like salary for another army of 125,000 nurses.

"Yes," said he, "that's it, how did you know?"

"Well," the wife replied, "I smell the clove."

Campaign Won By Hayes. Opponent Says He Was Counted Out. Election Thrown Into Congress.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

DEMOCRATS always will contend that Samuel Jones Tilden of New York was counted out in the election of 1876 in favor of Rutherford Birchard Hays of Ohio.

Republican fortunes had been going steadily downhill since the re-election of Grant in 1872. Scandals had continued in the Grant administration, although the bluff, trusting warrior himself was untainted. The Democrats had won congress in the mid-term 1874 election. Even Massachusetts, traditionally Republican, had chosen a Democratic governor.

And less than a year prior to the election, Grant's secretary of war, William Worth Belknap, was accused of accepting bribes in dispensing patronage. The house of representatives moved for his impeachment without a dissenting vote. Belknap tried to evade an impeachment trial by resigning. But the senate held an impeachment trial anyway. Thirty-seven voted "guilty", 25 not guilty—a bit short of the necessary two-thirds' vote for conviction.

Then there was the disclosure of graft in the letting of mail contracts—and it seemed as if the Democrats could not lose the national election.

TILDEN NOMINATED

The Democrats nominated Samuel J. Tilden, an able corporation lawyer, who, as governor of New York, had fought corruption, and who now promised to purify politics in Washington, if elected. Tilden was 52.

The Republicans nominated a "dark horse"—Rutherford B. Hayes, who had been an officer of volunteers in the Civil war, a congressman from Ohio and a governor of that state. He was, moreover, a dry.

DISPUTED VOTES

Tilden won the popular vote. He carried Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Indiana and Missouri as well as 10 southern states where votes were not in dispute. Due to a clash over election machinery (this was still in the "reconstruction" period), the votes of Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina were disputed. Hayes could not win without those votes. Tilden had 184 undisputed electoral votes; and 185 constituted a majority.

Unquestionably, if the three disputed southern states would have been permitted to vote their own free will, Tilden would have had an undisputed electoral majority.

Even without them, Tilden probably won. For, in Oregon, although three Republican electors had been chosen, one was found to be ineligible. The Democratic governor had appointed in his stead the next candidate on the poll, a Democrat.

Louisiana definitely turned in a Democratic majority, but the returning board was Republican and rejected precincts in which there had been Democratic majorities, declaring there had been "fraud" or "intimidation" in those districts.

The Florida vote depended on a single county. But the returning board had only a single Democratic member. And in South Carolina, federal troops patently had used coercion.

DECIDING THE CONTEST

The election was thrown into congress.

The house was Democratic; the senate was Republican.

The situation began to look ominous. Partisans of each side began to talk of a resort to arms.

Congress, seeking a peaceful means of compromise, agreed upon an electoral commission of three Democrats and two Republicans from the house, and three Republicans and two Democrats from the senate, and two Democrats and two Republicans from the supreme court. The justices in turn were to choose a fifth justice.

The fifth justice, and the deciding vote, was a Republican—Joseph P. Bradley. Thus the commission was composed of eight Republicans and seven Democrats—and every question was decided 8 to 7.

Thus Hayes was given the presidency.

Hayes as president proceeded with quiet moderation — soothing the tense nerves of the nation, north and south. Under him reconstruction days ended. He withdrew federal troops from the south — and Democratic governments came into power in the disputed states of Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida.

He was not, however, enough of a partisan leader to win the fealty of party leaders—and was not renominated in 1880.

MEN AND VEGETABLES

If it weren't for the winter we should never love the spring.
If it weren't for the struggle victory
scenes we'd never sing.
If the tasks were always easy and their outcome plain to see,
And if failure never threatened life
would very tedious be.

If we never faced a problem, if we never had a debt,
If everything we wanted without working we could get;
If we never made a blunder, never
suffered from a fall;
Were we never disappointed life
would hold no joy at all.

If distinctions were abolished, were
there neither poor nor rich,
Were the wise and foolish equal and no culling which was which;
Were there no such things as duties, needing patience, strength
and skill,
We should live like garden cabbage,
but we'd never know a thrill.

It's because we have to struggle it's because we often fail;
It's because our cares are rugged
and our pleasures all so frail;
It's because there's good to cherish,
and there's evil to revile,
And perfection is denied us that makes every joy worthwhile.

Today's Yesterdays—Oct. 23, 1642 A remarkable case of suspended animation saved the life of Sir Gervase Scroop, one of the royalist leaders shot down in the Battle of Edgehill (England). Fifty-four hours after he had fallen with 18 severe wounds and had been stripped and left for dead upon an icy field, his son found the friend, mad body and had it carried into a house to be prepared for burial. Warmth restored signs of life and stimulants brought Sir Gervase to his senses. Surgeons said the nobleowed his life to the enemy who stripped him bare, left him in the cold; this saved him from bleeding to death.

Oct. 23, 1669 William Prynne, lawyer, who received the severest penalty on record for utterance of the law, died at 69. He was fined $25,000, placed in the pillory where his ears were cut off and then imprisoned for a long term, for writing a condemnation of stage plays. He didn't know that he was libeling King Charles I's queen, who liked stage plays. Charles put him where he wouldn't see any plays.

A few years later: Prynne defended Charles I from an attack in the House of Commons, and was fined and imprisoned.

Oct. 23, 1844—Thousands of white muslin "ascension robes" made by faithful followers of William Miller of Pittsfield, Mass., were tossed away and the surprised, disappointed prophet slunk off. The nation had listened for years to his fiery predictions of the approach of the end of the world, and many hundreds had believed him when he said Oct. 23, 1844 would be the last day.

These gave away all their worldly goods, confessed their sins, knelt in prayer all of the 22nd and into the 23rd, until the sun rose and revealed with a great burst of light that Prophet Miller, like many another who offer forecasts of God's decisions was capable of moral errors.

WE HEAR much about that so-called "courtesy of the road," but those of us who drive cars find it conspicuously absent in too many cases.

The unfortunate driver who has a little difficulty in starting his motor in traffic must bear the jibes of the "minutemen" who are going nowhere at a tremendous rate of speed. Of course, we must keep traffic moving when it is open. We all know that. But that does not mean that we must hurl insults or sarcasms at every fellow-motorist whose car is having a stubborn spell.

I have noticed people, otherwise well-bred and gentle, who cannot resist this all-too-common sport.

In this era of speed and thoughtlessness, take time not only to be safe, as we are constantly warned, but to be courteous.

If you cannot lend a helping hand, pass on in silence. That delay of a minute or two won't inconvenience you at all unless you are catching a train, in which event you should have allowed yourself more time.

TIME TO REFORM

IF FEDERAL election law is not given a raking over as one result of the present election campaign, members of congress will be avoiding an evident duty.

A case in point is the misuse of the congressional franking privilege for disseminating political propaganda, which lately has been figuring in the news. This abuse has been going on for years but never before, seemingly, on such a scale as this year.

A current dispatch from Washington tells of a plan to send out 60,000,000 printed cards in the last days of the campaign under the frank of various Democratic congressmen.

Such unbridled exploitation of the frank by political parties is manifestly not in the public interest and is, moreover, a gross imposition on the postal patron and general taxpayer. Its present course points toward an eventual scandal.

We personally hope for a revulsion of popular feeling that will force abolition of the congressional frank altogether.

OUT OF THE SHADOWS

The story of the long devotion of Helen Keller and Mrs. Anne S. Macy has often been told in prose which ever rings like the finest poetry. For since 1887, when the half-blind girl from a charity home began to lift the six-year-old Helen Keller from the gloom of blindness and deafness, the two have been sisters, alter egos, inseparable companions, groping and achieving together, not merely teacher and pupil.

The death of Mrs. Macy, herself completely sightless at the end, thus is a proper occasion to salute anew her vision which surpassed earthly seeing, and to share again the inspiration of the blind leading the blind upward to a spiritual luminosity envied by a world having "eyes but seeing not."

For what Helen Keller has achieved for herself, Anne S. Macy shared. And that Helen Keller today is not helpless instead of a distinguished lecturer, writer, scholar and example of illustrious conquest, Mrs. Macy merits a world's acclaim. She, just as her better known protege, has amply proved again that the soul needs no physical eyes for envisioning life's great fundamentals.

SPAIN'S LONG AGONY

Two vital questions arise out of the obscurity which surrounds the situation in Spain. One is whether the capture of Madrid will bring the civil war to an end. The other is what the Soviet government of Russia will do by way of rescuing the Popular Front government from a predicament which appears desperate.

President Azana and several members of the Madrid government left the capital city on Monday and went to Barcelona. Does this mean that their cause is lost and that they are taking flight to avoid falling into the hands of the insurgent forces? Or does it mean that the war against the insurgents will be carried on from Catalonia even after Madrid has fallen? Dispatches suggest that one guess is as good as the other.

Just what the Russians are driving at is not clear. Do they believe that they could save the Popular Front government by withdrawing from the All-European Non-Intervention Agreement and sending war supplies to the government forces asks the Public Ledger of Philadelphia? Or are they determined to smash the non-intervention pact and bring Europe again to the verge of general war, just in the hope of serving their own interests, saving face at home and advancing the cause of Communism?

A critical phase has obviously been reached in the Spanish conflict, both on the battle front and in its far-reaching international ramifications. As the struggle goes into its fourth month, a decision seems no nearer than it was after the fourth day. It is a war which thus far has defied predictions. And for the Spanish people it is a long agony without any clearly appointed end.

KEEP YOUR SHIRT ON

It seems to be unanimously resolved by old General Consensus that six states will swing the presidential election. The experts avow it, the candidates seem to confirm it. Final analysis of all analysis, straw votes and the reports of the political scouts has demonstrated, to all but the incorrigibly skeptical, that the deciding vote on November 3 will be cast by New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. What the 25,000,000 or so voters in the forty-two other states will do on the given day has been appraised and indexed and, one gathers, it will be lost motion to bother counting the returns.

The experts, with the airy ease that ignores bad guesses of the past, have decreed Mr. Landon must not lose one of those states if he is to win the election. The states may be doubtful, but the experts are not. Regardless of the accuracy of their diagnosis, it is a fact that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Landon with their statistical staffs, seconds, trainers and managers are concentrating on the supreme six. These states are to be hand-ridden, it appears, in the stretch drive of a campaign that overnight has been streamlined, air conditioned and placed on a non-stop schedule. The acceleration has been remarkable and abrupt.

For the week from now until the election there will be no rest for the candidates, their headliners and sideliners. Also there will be mightly little for the rest of it. Predictions and statements will pour in torrential streams from both headquarters. The autumnal air will resound with the outgivings of massed orators, some of whom you cannot escape hearing this side of the equator. Speeches, interpretations and deductions will ambush you from every page as you progress through your newspaper.

The week will be trying, even without the complications of mortgage payments and due dates. Nevertheless November 3 will come, and the country will go on, shoppers will shop, the breakfast ham and eggs will still be a national institution.

And so, regardless of the insufferable opinion of that nit-wit who is for the other fellow, watch your temperature and temper and stay out of draughts.

Now that all European currency is on the cigar-coupon standard, financing of the next war should be easier.

How did that mass-education movement ever come out—the one in which 7,000,000 young and not-so-young men magazined their way through college? Or didn't they get through?

Stalin Not Coming.
Paradise, New Style.
Have Your Bones Nailed.
Who Runs The Rackets?
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

MORNING NEWSPAPERS said Stalin, ill, was coming here to be cured by the Mayo brothers, of Minnesota, or Johns Hopkins. He was to instruct Communists in the United States to make no fuss over him, and go home cured.

The Russian embassy says: "Nothing in the story," first printed in the Novoye Russkoye Slovo, Russian language paper.

It seemed improbable that Stalin would place himself in the hands of "medical science" supported by "American capitalism," but many Americans would be interested in a "close-up" of the man who succeeds Ivan the Terrible, Peter the Great, and the more recent weakling czars, as absolute ruler of all the Russias.

IN NEW YORK State, 30,000 acres of unprofitable farm and woodland are set aside as game preserves, to create a "paradise for hunters." Paradise has been differently described.

Mohammed promised that every good fighting Moslem in Heaven would be 30 feet tall, always young, with plenty of wine, milk, honey, surrounded by obliging and beautiful young ladies made of solid musk, not including his wife.

A "Paradise for hunters," where the fortunate may enjoy killing their lowly animal brothers, seems a queer Paradise for civilized man. The red Indians had it, in their "happy hunting ground," provided by the Great Spirit.

IF IN AN overgrown jungle of Peru you dug up an ancient hip bone, its broken parts nailed together, you might say "how primitive."

USE THAT MOMENT!

NOT ALL moments are rich and strong, full of meaning and power. . . . Some moments are dull and lifeless, a drag on your disposition and your character.

But some moments are miraculous. Suddenly, out of nowhere, without warning, they appear. Life glows, life shines, life lifts you high above your ordinary self. You feel, with a certainty so swift that it is absolute knowledge, that you can do anything. All your powers are concerted in this one moment. . . . You are not another human being entirely, you are you at your highest, seeing clearly, feeling intensely, multiplied and gloriously stimulated.

This moment comes, this moment goes. . . . For all you know it may never come again. . . . What can you, what will you, do with it?

You hold it in your hand. It gleams like a polished tool. Will you hold it idly, admiring its perfection, its keenness, its superlative usefulness? Or will you take it and use it, use it and create something that will outlast this moment and serve you all the rest of your days?

You have your choice. . . . These good-great-precious moments come to all of us. And sometimes we do more than admire them, enjoy them. We feel so grand, but we desire only to FEEL and not to DO. So the rich moment slips away from us and we are only the memory of that lost opportunity.

But if we USE this moment of our eminence, make something out of it, do something with it, we have made ourselves worthy of our good fortune. We have made it last. We have set ourselves a great example of what once we were and did—and what we may be and do again.

I am not weaving a dream. I am talking fact. I know the brightness I have allowed to grow dull. I know the opportunities I have let slip. . . . And so have you wasted many a highest moment. Be wiser when it comes again—and use that moment!

The World War, all told, cost apart from 30 million lives—400 billion dollars. We could have given to each city of 20,000 inhabitants and over, in each country named, a five million library and a ten million dollar university. Out of what was left we could have set aside a sum of 5 per cent that would provide a $1,000 yearly salary for an army of 125,000 teachers and a like salary for another army of 125,000 nurses.

The World At A Glance

Campaign Won By Hayes.
Opponent Says He Was Counted Out.
Election Thrown Into Congress.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

DEMOCRATS always will contend that Samuel Jones Tilden of New York was counted out in the election of 1876 in favor of Rutherford Birchard Hays of Ohio.

Republican fortunes had been going steadily downhill since the re-election of Grant in 1872. Scandals had continued in the Grant administration, although the bluff, trusting warrior himself was untainted. The Democrats had won congress in the mid-term 1874 election. Even Massachusetts, traditionally Republican, had chosen a Democratic governor.

And less than a year prior to the election, Grant's secretary of war, William Worth Belknap, was accused of accepting bribes in dispensing patronage. The house of representatives moved for his impeachment without a dissenting vote. Belknap tried to evade an impeachment trial by resigning. But the senate held an impeachment trial anyway. Thirty-seven voted "guilty", 25 not guilty—a bit short of the necessary two-thirds' vote for conviction.

Then there was the disclosure of graft in the letting of mail contracts—and it seemed as if the Democrats could not lose the national election.

TILDEN NOMINATED

The Democrats nominated Samuel J. Tilden, an able corporation lawyer, who, as governor of New York, had fought corruption, and who now promised to purify politics in Washington, if elected. Tilden was 62.

The Republicans nominated a "dark" horse" — Rutherford B. Hayes, who had been an officer of volunteers in the Civil war, a congressman from Ohio and a governor of that state. He was, moreover, a dry.

DISPUTED VOTES

Tilden won the popular vote. He carried Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Indiana and Missouri as well as 10 southern states where votes were not in dispute. Due to a clash over election machinery (this was still in the "reconstruction" period), the votes of Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina were disputed. Hayes could not win without those votes. Tilden had 184 undisputed electoral votes; and 185 constituted a majority.

Unquestionably, if the three disputed southern states would have been permitted to vote their own free will, Tilden would have had an undisputed electoral majority.

Even without them, Tilden probably won. For, in Oregon, although three Republican electors had been chosen, one was found to be ineligible. The Democratic governor had appointed in his stead the next candidate on the poll, a Democrat.

Louisiana definitely turned in a Democratic majority, but the returning board was Republican and rejected precincts in which there had been Democratic majorities, declaring there had been "fraud" or "intimidation" in these districts.

The Florida vote depended on a single county. But the returning board had only a single Democratic member. And in South Carolina, federal troops patently had used coercion.

DECIDING THE CONTEST

The election was thrown into congress.

The house was Democratic; the senate was Republican.

The situation began to look ominous. Partisans of each side began to talk of a resort to arms.

Congress, seeking a peaceful means of compromise, agreed upon an electoral commission of three Democrats and two Republicans from the house, and three Republicans and two Democrats from the senate, and two Democrats and two Republicans from the supreme court. The justices in turn were to choose a fifth justice.

The fifth justice, and the deciding vote, was a Republican—Joseph P. Bradley. Thus the commission was composed of eight Republicans and seven Democrats—and every question was decided 8 to 7.

Thus Hayes was given the presidency.

Hayes as president proceeded with quiet moderation — soothing the tense nerves of the nation, north and south. Under him, reconstruction days ended. He withdrew federal troops from the south — and Democratic governments came into power in the disputed states of Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida.

He was not, however, enough of a partisan leader to win the fealty of party leaders—and was not renominated in 1880.

MEN AND VEGETABLES

If it weren't for the winter we should never love the spring.
If it weren't for the struggle victory
songs we'd never sing.
If the tasks were always easy and their outcome plain to see,
And if failure never threatened life
would very tedious be.

If we never faced a problem, if we never had a debt,
If everything we wanted without
working we could get;
If we never made a blunder, never
suffered from a fall;
Were we never disappointed life
would hold no joy at all.

If distinctions were abolished, were
there neither poor nor rich,
Were the wise and foolish equal and no telling which was which;
Were there no such things as duties,
needing patience, strength
and skill,
We should live like garden cabbage,
but we'd never know a thrill.

It's because we have to struggle; it's
because we often fail;
It's because our cares are rugged
and our pleasures all so frail;
It's because there's good to cherish,
and there's evil to revile,
And perfection is denied us that
makes every joy worthwhile.

Today's Yesterdays—Oct. 23, 1642 A remarkable case of suspended animation saved the life of Sir Gervase Scroop, one of the royalist leaders shot down in the Battle of Edgehill (England). Fifty-four hours after he had fallen with 16 severe wounds and had been stripped and left for dead upon an icy field, his son found the frigid, rigid body and had it carried into a house to be prepared for burial. Jack Gerson Observes 14th Anniversary In Successful Business

HAS GROWN FROM HUMBLE BEGINNING

JACK GERSON

Fourteen years of successful business enterprise is being observed starting today by Jack Gerson, one of Western Pennsylvania's leading jewelers, and the event will be observed by special merchandise offerings by Mr. Gerson at his popular new store at the corner of Mill and Washington streets.

Mr. Gerson's business growth has been phenomenal. Starting out on North Mercer street with but one other employe, a bookkeeper, the business has grown and grown until now, fourteen people are needed to look after the wants of his many customers.

It was necessary to start looking for a new location a year ago, and the valuable corner at Mill and Washington was secured by Mr. Gerson.

Additional Help

During the anniversary sale which opens today, six additional people will be employed to augment the present staff, making 20 in all who will be present to attend to the wants of those seeking the splendid jewelry offerings which he is making. Thousands of articles in jewelry have been secured just for this event, giving his patrons a wider selection than ever to choose from.

During the fourteen years that he has been in business Mr. Gerson has had accounts with 25,000 people from this community, showing the tremendous volume of business which has been done.

In commenting on his success, Mr. Gerson stated today that it is not so much himself, but the people of the community who have built this great business, and he feels grateful for the confidence they have had in him.

PARIS, Oct. 23—The rightist newspaper La Liberte stated the Spanish rebel headquarters had ordered all Russian ships found in Spanish territorial waters to be stopped and searched and sunk if munitions are found aboard.

The rebels were reported notifying all foreign powers to this effect.

The order was issued, said La Liberte, following landing of arms and munitions at Santander, Spain, by an unidentified vessel believed to have been Russian. The arms were for Madrid's forces, the paper said.

Celebrities who give their reason for supporting a certain party could boil it down to three words: "Because grandsire did".

READING CIRCLE '06 PROGRAM THURSDAY

Reading Circle '06 members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. F. D. Gemmill on the Ellwood-New Castle road Thursday afternoon, who entertained at their regular bi-weekly session. Response to roll call given with mentions of "Why I Like Autumn."

After the usual routine of business was concluded, Mrs. P. K. Fike gave a reading entitled "Coming Into The Harbor," followed by a paper on, "There's Always Finland," and given by Mrs. G. G. Orr. A selected poem by Mrs. L. T. Moore concluded the short program.

A special memorial service was conducted for the late Mrs. C. N. Lockhart, who passed away within the last year. She was a charter member of the organization. Those taking part were Mrs. W. E. Burrows, Mrs. J. A. Wilson and Mrs. P. K. Fike.

Mrs. H. C. Mitchell invited members to her home on Winter avenue, November 5.

CHEERIO CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEET

Cheerio club members were pleasantly entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. William Burdett of Ray street.

A business session was held after the guests arrived, at which plans were made for fall and winter work, and also a Hallowe'en party to take place Wednesday, October 28, at the home of Viola Neyman, Bradner avenue.

Various games and sewing claimed attention, Mrs. William Donaldson winning the favor in the contests and also the drawing prize.

Seated about a large table cleverly arranged in Hallowe'en suggestions, the group found their places marked with appropriate favors. The centerpiece was a lighted large black cat. Mrs. Floyd Neyman assisted the hostess with a tempting lunch.

On Thursday, November 5, the next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Edward Kelly, East Washington street.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS OF LOCAL COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Veri of 409 East Lutton street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Abe Vago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vago, 618 East Lutton street.

The engagement will terminate in a quiet wedding on November 23, and will take place in the parsonage of St. Vitus church of this city.

Housewarming

Mrs. James Bartett, of Robinson street, was surprised Thursday evening when members of the Ritz club, of which he is the president, journeyed to her new home, also on Robinson street, for a housewarming.

Music and dancing were the main diversions and a special song was sung by Mrs. Anthony Pamela. At an appointed time, Mrs. Fred Farrone and Mrs. Frank Boran served a flavorful lunch.

PARLEY-VOUS GUESTS AT DINNER GATHERING

Mrs. Lou Davies of Martin street was a pleasing hostess to her associates of the Parley-Vous club Thursday evening, when she entertained at a nicely appointed seven o'clock covered dish dinner. Fall flowers were used in profusion in the rooms and a choice boquet formed the table centerpiece.

After partaking of the full course menu attention was given to games and contests. Mrs. Vivian Dunlap and Mrs. W. S. Caskey were winners of the prizes. When festivities reached their height a special birthday shower was tendered two of the club women, Mrs. Lou Davies and Mrs. Carl Wright. Each received lovely remembrances.

Their November meeting will take place in the home of Mrs. Elmer Tinstman, Wilmington avenue, the date to be announced.

L. A. B. Club

Mrs. William Ellgass of Wallace avenue, was hostess to L. A. B. club members Thursday evening, at their regular meeting. The rooms were decorated in Hallowe'en suggestions, and a series of 500 and bingo games claimed attention. Those winning prizes, were Mrs. John Sweet and Mrs. James McCullough.

Seated about the dining room table, which too, was appointed in orange and black tones, the guests were served an appetizing holiday lunch. Mrs. Ellgass was assisted by Mrs. M. R. Sweet. Special guests, included Mrs. E. Duvall and son Edward of New York who are visiting in the city.

Their meeting on Thursday, October 29, will be in the form of a quilting party, with luncheon to be served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. John Shaffer of Cunningham avenue will be hostess on this date.

Amerita Club

Mrs. Nicholas Altobelli of Du-Shane street had as guests in her home Thursday evening members of the Amerita club. Bingo was played, with Angeline Jacobucci receiving the main prize. Mrs. Andrew Nocera was awarded the club favor, while in other games Mrs. Anthony Valianni was the winner.

A delicious lunch was served by candle light by the hostess, with Hallowe'en appointments predominating. Special guests in attendance included Aurora DeCicco of Beaver Falls, Mrs. Samuel Bassano and Mrs. Nobile DiLorenzo.

On November 12 Angeline Iacobucci of Summit street will entertain.

Jolly Jesters Club

Fancywork, conversation and 500 provided entertainment for members of the Jolly Jesters club Thursday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. George Hudson at Edenburg. Mrs. William Kelson and her two sons, Billy and Charles were special guests.

Upon being invited into the dining room later in the afternoon, the hostess served a tasty lunch with Mrs. William Kelson and Mrs. George Hudson Sr., assisting. Fall flowers were used as the table centerpiece.

Mrs. Walter List also of Edenburg, invited members to be her guests on November 5.

LINGER LONGER CLUB NEW ORGANIZATION

Mrs. Wentworth Graham was a charming hostess to associates in a last year's quilting club on Thursday, at her home on South Lee avenue.

The club has recently been re-organized with eight members under the name of Linger Longer Quilting club. Meetings will be held once a month with a tureen dinner at noon featuring.

Officers elected are: Mrs. Clark Miller, president; Mrs. Albert Pilshaw, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Huling, secretary; Mrs. Jack Thatcher, treasurer; Mrs. George Edwards, News reporter.

At noon, the group enjoyed an excellent chicken dinner in the dining room at a table artistically decorated with flowers. Mrs. Miller assisted. Plans will be revealed later for the next meeting.

LADIES ASSOCIATION LUNCHEON-MEETING

Mrs. A. H. McBride, Mrs. Raymond McBride, Mrs. M. R. Newbery and Mrs. Harvey Robinson were associated in the entertainment of the Ladies' Association of the First U. P. church Thursday afternoon in the home of the first named on Carlisle street.

Mrs. Robinson had charge of the program which was in the nature of a thank offering service. Reports were heard concerning the Beaver Valley Presbyterial which was held in New Galilee recently. Mrs. Newberry, Mrs. Fred Sontum and Mrs. R. M. Jamison reported.

At the luncheon preceding the program, 20 members enjoyed an appetizing hot menu which was served buffet fashion. The next meeting will take place on the third Thursday in November.

Q. A. C. CLUB WOMEN HOLD MASQUERADE

Launching the Fall season of social activities, Q. A. C. club members gathered in the home of Mrs. Edwin Hannon, Round street, on Thursday evening in masquerade to take part in a Hallowe'en celebration.

Games were played, with Mrs. Harry Pitnoff, Mrs. Fred Steckel and Mrs. James Flynn receiving prizes. A tasty holiday lunch was served afterwards, and a special feature was the reading given by Edna Hanna, daughter of the hostess.

Mrs. James Flynn of Edison avenue will entertain on November 5 in her home.

Lo-Cour-Chee Club

Mrs. Cecil Logan of Brooklyn avenue was hostess last evening to the Lo-Cour-Chee club members. Prizes were distributed to Mrs. Earl White, Mrs. Thomas McClurg and Mrs. Roy Nelson for winning honors in the card contests featured. Mrs. Marie Ray was a special guest.

After partaking of a dainty collation served by the hostess, they made plans for their meeting on November 5, to take place with Mrs. Earl White on Ray street.

DINNER FEATURES QUILTING PARTY

Even though it's Hallowe'en when superstitions run riot, the presence of 13 members at the meeting of the 1934 Jolly Quilters Thursday with Mrs. William Anderson of Monroe street, did not subdue the spirits of the group.

There was one guest, Mrs. John Book who increased the number to 14, so everything was hotsy-totsy. Regular quilting was the occupation of the morning and afternoon with an appetizing tureen dinner in between at noon.

Mrs. Robert Abernathy will be hostess to the club on November 5, at her home in South New Castle Boro.

SWASTIKA CLUB MASQUERADE PARTY

A masquerade party was enjoyed by Swastika club members in the home of Irene Price on Rose avenue Thursday evening, marking one of their leading October events.

A program of games in keeping with the Hallowe'en idea provided the entertainment, and after the guests were served a delicious lunch by Mrs. James Lavender, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Irene Price and the latters' aunt, Mrs. Reese Price. Seasonal appointments predominated throughout.

Anniversary Is Being Observed

Jack Gerson Observes 14th Anniversary In Successful Business

HAS GROWN FROM HUMBLE BEGINNING

JACK GERSON

Fourteen years of successful business enterprise is being observed starting today by Jack Gerson, one of Western Pennsylvania's leading jewelers, and the event will be observed by special merchandise offerings by Mr. Gerson at his popular new store at the corner of Mill and Washington streets.

Mr. Gerson's business growth has been phenomenal. Starting out on North Mercer street with but one other employe, a bookkeeper, the business has grown and grown until now, fourteen people are needed to look after the wants of his many customers.

It was necessary to start looking for a new location a year ago, and the valuable corner at Mill and Washington was secured by Mr. Gerson.

Additional Help

During the anniversary sale which opens today, six additional people will be employed to augment the present staff, making 20 in all who will be present to attend to the wants of those seeking the splendid jewelry offerings which he is making. Thousands of articles in jewelry have been secured just for this event, giving his patrons a wider selection than ever to choose from.

During the fourteen years that he has been in business Mr. Gerson has had accounts with 25,000 people from this community, showing the tremendous volume of business which has been done.

In commenting on his success, Mr. Gerson stated today that it is not so much himself, but the people of the community who have built this great business, and he feels grateful for the confidence they have had in him.

Draw Tickets In Sweepstakes

Sixteen Persons Drawing Horse That Wins Race Will Get $150,000 In Cash

(International News Service)

DUBLIN, Oct. 23—Distribution of $8,044,825—at least 40 per cent of which will go to lucky Americans—began today as the great drum full of counterfoils in the 19th Irish hospitals sweepstake revolved in the gilded round room of the Dublin lord mayor's mansion house.

Of the first 280 tickets drawn, 97 went to the United States.

Draw director John O'Sheehan announced that receipts for this draw, which will be based on the Cambridgeshire horse rase to be run at Newmarket, Eng., next Wednesday, amounted to $13,531,455 and would be split into sixteen prize units of half a million dollars each.

Russian Ships To Be Searched

Rightist Spanish Newspaper Says Soviet Ships Will Be Stopped

REPORT ARMS ARE LANDED IN SPAIN

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 23—The rightist newspaper La Liberte stated the Spanish rebel headquarters had ordered all Russian ships found in Spanish territorial waters to be stopped and searched and sunk if munitions are found aboard.

The debels were reported notifying all foreign powers to this effect.

The order was issued, said La Liberte, following landing of arms and munitions at Santander, Spain, by an unidentified vessel believed to have been Russian. The arms were for Madrid's forces, the paper said.

Celebrities who give their reason for supporting a certain party could boil it down to three words: "Because grandsire did".

Girl Reporter In Honolulu

Only Has 2400 Mile Flight To Reach Coast Of United States

HAS COVERED GREAT EXPANSE OF OCEAN

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN
(International News Service and New York Evening Journal Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1936, by International News Service and New York Evening Journal)

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 23—We're back in civilization again, and I've a brief breathing spell to make a final sketchy shopping trip before we take off on the 2,400 mile hop to the Golden Gate.

The China Clipper dropped down on the waters of Pearl Harbor just after dusk last night, completing the hop from the Midway Islands in a little less than 10 hours.

The jaunt of 1,380 miles from Sand Island in the Midland group was uneventful. There was perfect flying weather over the blue seas dotted with tiny coral atolls, and we were pushed by strong tailwinds.

I've always wanted very specially to see Honolulu, and it was a perfect approach to drop down on it out of the red sunset sky, with the harbor lights twinkling out of the blue dusk.

I thought the whole population of the island had turned out to greet us when I saw the crowd gathered at the landing float.

On the hop from Midway, I discarded my slacks and sweater in favor of a white sharkskin dress—so that when we landed I could be distinguished from my fellow passengers, who are all men.

It's very consoling to see and talk to a woman again, after flying thousands of miles across the Pacific with only men companions, and stopping at wild tropical islands where a woman is as rare as a white collar.

Although it was really only the past couple of nights that we stopped at the lonely mid-Pacific Islands we've covered so many miles on trackless ocean since we left Manila it seems ages since we've seen a civilized city.

phia learn that the best plan, with a thigh bone, broken near the hip socket, is to nail the pieces together, instead of putting the patient in a plaster cast. Nailing the bones means recovery in four to five weeks, a plaster cast means six months. The simplest way is often the best.

YOUNG MR. Dewey, busy in New York clearing out rackets and discouraging criminals, including some lawyers, understands his business.

He transferred the worst vice racketeer from his lucrative job to a long prison term, and his latest list of 14 men indicted by the grand jury includes labor union officials, lawyers, gangsters and representatives of employers, engaged in blackmailing 300 restaurants, besides stealing $240,000 from union funds.

One lawyer, Abraham Cohen, is under $100,000 bail; Irving Epstein, business agent of the restaurant union, is under $50,000 bail; Harry A. Vogelstein, another lawyer, is out on $20,000 bail; others accused are Philip Grossell, bail $50,000; Charles B. Baum, president of a union local, bail $50,000; John J. Williams, a union business agent, bail $50,000; Max Pincus, labor union president, bail $50,000.

ALL THESE gentlemen may be innocent, as they say, but Mr. Dewey is to be congratulated on giving them a chance to prove it, and the public hopes they will be able to catch the five others who ran away.

Labor union men are interested in eliminating union officials and union lawyers accused of working criminal rackets and, incidentally, stealing union funds. Unions would not last long on that basis. The one little restaurant-union-lawyer racket, according to Prosecutor Dewey, paid $2,000,000 a year profit.

BUSINESS IS picking up, with Uncle Sam's tax collectors.

In July, August and September they collected more than one thousand million dollars, or one hundred and sixty-four millions more than they collected in the same months last year.

Tom Reed, who used to be speaker of the House and fight against spending, will open his eyes if he hears of this, in Heaven. In his day five hundred millions was enough to run the entire government for a whole year, pensions and all, and that was called "hideous extravagance". We live and learn.

A WELL-MEANING orchestra leader says all orchestras should refrain from playing martial music, thus "preventing another international war."

This country might give up war-like music and settle down to sweet, gentle crooning, but would that help against other countries, preferring martial tunes? The old kings knew that to encourage good fighting, you must make it attractive. They gave drums, fifes and fighting music to soldiers, and fancy uniforms.

IF ANYTHING happens to you in the way of a bad accident, have it attended to immediately, or as soon as possible. Dr. John J. Moorehead, professor of clinical surgery, says there is a "golden period," namely, six hours immediately following an accident, when broken bones, etc., can be treated with the least danger of complications. Every hour's delay is dangerous.

Travel, including airplanes and automobiles, causes 60 per cent of all accidents. Industry accounts for 20 per cent, football is the most dangerous sport, polo next.

A GENTLEMAN-IN-WAITING to Victoria, formerly Queen of Spain and daughter of Queen Victoria of England, Count Fernando Mora, says Spain will put a king on the throne, namely Alfonso's third son, Prince of Asturias.

The world thinks the day for kings has gone by; modern fashion calls for a self-chosen dictator, rather than an accident of birth. Even the old-fashioned democratic self-government idea is going out of fashion.

And who are the "Predatory Rich?" As a matter of fact, the only "Predatory Rich" are the Racketeers,—those who steal and rob and cheat. They are few in number and fewer of them ever become rich. By inference, those who talk about the "Predatory Rich" would have you believe that Morgan, Du Pont, Ford, Rockefeller, Mellon and men of that stamp constitute that class. They do not. Their brains have put millions of citizens to work at wages which have astounded the rest of the world, wages so high that the United States is the only Nation where the majority of citizens live in homes of their own, built substantially, with sanitary plumbing, electric light, mechanical refrigeration, heating plants, radios and to cap it all, with an automobile in the garage.

Few of the really rich men of the Nation spend great sums in luxurious living. Their money is not in Banks. It is invested in Railroads, Mines, Steel Plants, Oil Wells, Refineries, Pipe Lines and the myriad enterprises which make America the envy of the World. They are our best and most valued citizens.

Payroll Tax To Start January 1

Social Security Tax Law Becomes Effective With Start Of 1937

TAX WILL COME OUT OF SALARIES

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—In response to many requests for information about the effective date for salary deductions under the so-called social security act of the Roosevelt administration, the Republican National Committee, Eastern Division, announced:

Beginning January 1, 1937, employers will be required under this law to deduct one per cent from employees' pay, which is referred to as an income tax, from which no exemption is allowable, increases to 1½ per cent; then 2 per cent; then 2½ per cent and finally 3 per cent.

Salary deductions are made on pay up to $3,000 a year, or $57.69 per week.

Employees exempted from the tax and benefits include farm workers, domestic servants, casual labor, members of the crew of a ship, federal, state and municipal employees and employees of educational, religious or eleemosynary institutions.

Old-age benefits under the law, however, cannot be paid until you reach 65 years of age, provided you then quit your job; and in no case before 1942.

Will Get Number

Before the end of 1937 you will have to fill out a card to identify yourself and the government at Washington will assign you a Worker's Number. Thereafter and as long as you live you will be known by the number wherever you are employed—that's equivalent to a license tag.

The employer is required to pay a like amount to the government.

Employers, in addition, will be required to pay the federal government a payroll tax for unemployment insurance the benefits of which, however, will not become effective in a state until the legislature makes provision for it.

It is this act which Abraham Epstein, executive secretary of the American Association for Social Security, who has given 19 years of his life to promoting the cause, recently said should be called the "Social Insecurity Act."

Mr. Epstein pointed out that since no person can get the annuity to which he, himself, has contributed by a series of payroll deductions unless he quits his job the law is "not only senseless but is illustrative of the fantastic dreaming behind much of it."

He said further:

"Not only does this act fall short in providing for our dependent aged during the next generation, but it places an immediate burden upon the younger workers—those between 20 and 30 years of age—because it is these workers who must bear the bulk of the burden for supporting the present older generation, in addition to providing for their own old age. Young working men and women are forced to pay premiums for their old-age annuities which are about 40 per cent higher than any private insurance company would require for the same retirement benefits."

Hence, if you are only 25 years old and your pay is but $20.00 per week until you are 65 years of age, your pay will be taxed as follows:

20 cents a week or $10.40 a year in 1937—1939.

30 cents a week or $15.60 a year in 1940—1942.

40 cents a week or $20.80 a year in 1943—1945.

50 cents a week or $26.00 a year in 1946—1948.

60 cents a week or $31.20 a year after 1948.

FARM DEBT CUT

HARRISBURG—Farmers in the rural resettlement administration during August adjusted 36 farm debt cases in Pennsylvania. Through the adjustments the indebtedness of the farmers was reduced by $23,731 and overdue taxes totaling $2,893 were paid.

Supporting the franc may cost us something, but look at the gain. France will think us noble again.

Christianity As Love

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

I Corinthians 13:13—"Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love."

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Oct. 25 is Acts 18:1-17 and I Corinthians 13:1-13, the Golden Text being I Corinthians 13:13, "Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three and the greatest of these is love.")

IF IT IS true that "God is love," it is equally true that religion is the expression of love towards God and towards our neighbor. Love is the fulfilling of the law." But God's love is the source: "We love because he first loved us."

Love Of Friends Strengthens

It was Christian love that drew Paul to Aquilla and Priscilla his fellow tentmakers after unloving race prejudice drove them out of Rome and Paul found them in Corinth. They worked together at their trade as a means of support while Paul preached the gospel to all whom he could reach with it. It was Christian love and the encouragement of the loving fellowship which gave new power to Paul's ministry, after Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, and joined Paul at Corinth. Thus love between friends does more than increase their respective talents by addition, it multiples each by the others and then some!

Christ's Love Encourages

But in an hour of despondency over the exceeding wickedness of Corinth and the immensity of the task of evangelizing such a city Paul was overwhelmed with fears for his own safety and the futility of continuing his mission in Corinth, when the Lord Jesus appeared to him in a vision saying, "Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city." It was the love of Christ not only for his servant Paul but for the great throngs of lost souls in Corinth that brought Paul this heavenly Visitor and the vision of a great task yet to be done. And this "love of Christ constrained" Paul to "dwell there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them" and building up the church in Corinth to which Paul wrote at least three letters. In one there is included the most beautiful treatise on love in all literature.

"The Greatest Thing in The World"

To Christians quarreling among themselves over the relative greatness of their several gifts Paul commended love as a gift more earnestly to be desired and "a most excellent way." Truly, it is "the greatest thing in the world" as Henry Drummond says.

Love is the one absolutely essential gift without which every other gift is valueless. Eloquence without love is mere noise. "If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but not have love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal." Knowledge and faith without love are profitless: "If I have the gift of prophesy....knowledge.... faith ...but have not love, I am nothing." Sacrifice is meaningless without love: "If I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing."

The Nature Of Love

"Love is patient, kind, humble: "Love suffereth long, and is kind, etc." Love is courteous and unselfish." "Doth not behave itself unseemingly seeketh not its own." Love is slow to expose, eager to believe the best, hopeful, patient: "beareth (literally 'covereth') all things, believeth, hopeth....endureth all things." Love outlasts everything else: "Love never faileth." It will outlive phophesy, tongues, knowledge and every other gift. We shall never outgrow love: it will still abide when we no longer see in a mirror darkly but face to face and know even as we are known. "Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three and the greatest of these is love."

Tomato Canning Aid To Farmers

Great Increase In Acreage Of Crop Shown This Year

HARRISBURG Oct. 23.—Tomatoes for canning, Pennsylvania's newest and most promising cash crop have added a million dollars to the cash income of the farmers of this state this year, J. Hansell French, secretary of agriculture, announced today.

Favorable growing conditions in Pennsylvania while other tomato-growing sections were drought-stricken, high prices and alert farmers sensing new opportunities in tomato culture were contributing factors in making this the most successful season for Keystone state tomato growers.

Tomatoes were planted on 14,000 acres in this state this year, against 3400 acres in 1929. Secretary French predicts an acreage of 30,000 by 1940.

Many of the world's largest processors of tomatoes are operating plants in Pennsylvania and others are seeking sites here. Contract acreage next year is expected to be greatly increased for tomato juice manufacture.

Presbyterial Of Mercer Has Fall Rally Yesterday

United Presbyterian Women Of Mercer Presbyterial Convene At New Bedford

The fall rally of Mercer Presbyterial, Women's Missionary Society, conducted at the New Bedford United Presbyterian church Thursday morning and afternoon, was very well attended. Delegates were there from Mercer, Plainsgrove, West Middlesex, Sharon, East Brook, New Wilmington and numerous intermediate points.

Features of the day were missionary addresses by Mrs. Duncan Henry, of New Wilmington, who served for a number of years as a missionary in Ethiopia, and who expects to join her husband there as soon as it is safe to travel there, and Miss Laura Walker, a missionary to Egypt, and a strong temperance address by Rev. J. C. Fulton, pastor of the Plainsgrove U. P. church.

Mrs. J. Charles Paul was the presiding officer. Much of the morning was devoted to the hearing of departmental reports. A pageant "Why the Missionary Meeting Was A Failure," was presented in the afternoon by the young women's society of New Bedford. Devotions were conducted at the opening of both sessions by Miss Margaret S. Walker and Mrs. Flora McGill.

Schools Dismiss For Convention

Teachers To Attend Opening Session Of PSEA Convention This Afternoon

All schools of the city will be closed at noon today in order to permit the teachers and principals to attend the sessions of the convention of the southwestern section P. S. E. A. which open this afternoon in the Cathedral.

It is required that all teachers attend the convention and in the case of the New Castle teachers there is an additional reason for attendance inasmuch as the local chapter of the P. S. E. A. is the host organization to the visiting members.

About 3500 teachers are expected to attend from the seven counties in the district.

Payroll Tax To Start January 1

Social Security Tax Law Becomes Effective With Start Of 1937

TAX WILL COME OUT OF SALARIES

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—In response to many requests for information about the effective date for salary deductions under the so-called social security act of the Roosevelt administration, the Republican National Committee, Eastern Division, announced:

Beginning January 1, 1937, employers will be required under this law to deduct one per cent from employees' pay, which is referred to as an income tax, from which no exemption is allowable, increases to 1½ per cent; then 2 per cent; then 2½ per cent and finally 3 per cent.

Salary deductions are made on pay up to $3,000 a year, or $57.69 per week.

Employees exempted from the tax and benefits include farm workers, domestic servants, casual labor, members of the crew of a ship, federal, state and municipal employees and employees of educational, religious or eleemosynary institutions.

Old-age benefits under the law, however, cannot be paid until you reach 65 years of age, provided you then quit your job; and in no case before 1942.

Will Get Number

Before the end of 1937 you will have to fill out a card to identify yourself and the government at Washington will assign you a Worker's Number. Thereafter and as long as you live you will be known by the number wherever you are employed—that's equivalent to a license tag.

The employer is required to pay a like amount to the government.

Employers, in addition, will be required to pay the federal government a payroll tax for unemployment insurance the benefits of which, however, will not become effective in a state until the legislature makes provision for it.

It is this act which Abraham Epstein, executive secretary of the American Association for Social Security, who has given 19 years of his life to promoting the cause, recently said should be called the "Social Insecurity Act."

Mr. Epstein pointed out that since no person can get the annuity to which he, himself, has contributed by a series of payroll deductions unless he quits his job the law is "not only senseless but is illustrative of the fantastic dreaming behind much of it."

He said further:

"Not only does this act fall short in providing for our dependent aged during the next generation, but it places an immediate burden upon the younger workers—those between 20 and 30 years of age—because it is these workers who must bear the bulk of the burden for supporting the present older generation, in addition to providing for their own old age. 40 cents a week or $20.80 a year in 1943—1945.

50 cents a week or $26.00 a year in 1946—1948.

60 cents a week or $31.20 a year after 1948.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

CULLING OUT POOR EWES SAVES EXPENSIVE FEED

This is an important time of the year for the Lawrence county sheepman.

All unproductive ewes should be culled out of the flock now. The group slated to go will include ewes with broken mouths, bad udders and light shearing prospects.

With favorable lamb prices the last couple of years, many flock owners have sold promising ewe lambs and retained some old unprofitable ewes.

Successful sheepmen of the county condemn this practice and do not follow it in the management of their flocks. They know that it does not pay to put expensive feed into ewes that cannot pay the bill.

Farm feeds are high priced this year. Therefore, it is especially imperative that they be fed only to young, strong, healthy ewes which will give a good return.

In handling his flock, the efficient shepherd also will drench his breeding ewes at least twice this fall before they go into winter quarters. Detailed information on this essential practice for controlling internal parasites can be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Association office 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

ROUGHAGE IS VALUABLE IN DAIRY COW'S RATION

Present conditions in the feeds market emphasize the great importance and value of roughages in the dairy ration.

The value of all feeds depends primarily upon the amount of digestible nutrients they contain. A ton of good mixed dairy feed contains about 1500 lbs. of digestable feed materials while a ton of good quality mixed hay contains approximately 1,000 pounds of digestible materials. At present prices for grain feeds the cost of digestible feed materials in a good grain mixture is about 2½ cents a pound, while present prices for hay or silage provide equally good digestible feed materials at about one half this cost.

In the face of this condition, it is very apparent that dairymen should feed freely of hay, silage, and other roughage and very carefully of all grain and concentrate feeds. Cows in milk must have grain if they are to return the greatest profit even though the comparative cost is high since they cannot consume sufficient roughage to provide all their needs in milk production and body maintenance.

To get the greatest returns from the feed dollar this winter through dairy cows, liberal feeding of roughage with grain carefully weighed out to each individual cow in accordance with her actual needs should be the rule.

VENTILATION ESSENTIAL IN THE FRUIT STORAGE

Good ventilation in the storage helps to cool rapidly the fruit placed there.

Doors, windows, and ventilating shafts should be arranged so that the air will move through the entire length of the room, thus bringing a fresh supply of cool air to each apple.

A slatted false floor raised 8 to 10 inches above the storage floor and an open space of 4 to 6 inches between the fruit containers and side walls will aid free circulation. There should be a space of about two feet between the fruit and the ceiling.

Incoming air is cooled quickly by the earth floor of a storage. Even though the outside air is warmer than the storage floor, the apples often may be cooled more rapidly during the daytime with doors open than with no ventilation. Of course, the doors should always be open at night until there is danger of freezing. If the sun shines directly into the storage when the doors are open, they should be closed during warm days or a vestible built over them for shade.

Relative humidity of 85 per cent is considered satisfactorily for apple storage. If the air is too dry, the fruits shrivel; while if too damp, the growth of molds and other rot organisms is encouraged and the apples may even absorb water to such an extent that the skin splits. This swelling and splitting from high humidity is particularly noticeable with overripe fruits. Too high humidity is seldom if ever a cause of trouble with the well-ventilated storage. More frequently the air becomes too dry, especially with storages which do not have earth floors. Humidity usually may be raised to a satisfactory level by keeping the storage floor moist.

LEAFY VEGETABLES AND ROOT CROPS KEEP BEST WHEN COOL AND MOIST

Many vegetables keep well in storage only when cool, moist conditions are maintained. Root crops and leafy vegetables are in this group.

Solid heads of Danish cabbage are best for storing. The outer leaves and usually the stems and roots are removed.

Brussels sprouts and kale may be left in the garden until severe weather. Freezing improves the texture and flavor. The roots should be set in soil for storage.

Celery, chinese cabbage, endive, escarolle should be lefet in the garden until cold weather but protected from severe frosts by covering with heavy paper, dry burlap, or boards. While the roots should be kept moist the leaves must not be wet in storage.

Beets, carrots, winter radishes, rutabagas and turnips demand similar conditions. Select medium-sized, tender roots free from cracks, disease and injuries. The tops should be removed. The roots may be covered with soil, sand or leaves to hold moisture.

In storing parsnips and salsify, smooth firm roots of good size may be placed in soil or sand and allowed to freeze before using.

Temperature requirements of these vegetables range from 40 to 33 degrees. The first three groups keep best in a relative humidity of 95 per cent; the latter two groups require 90 per cent humidity.

COLOR BRINGS LIFE TO WINTER CLOTHES

Look at the hills with their Joseph's coat of many colors—deep, rich mature greens, and reds changing from flame to those dark tones of wine and garnet, and yellow like drifting sunshine or deep gold. Doesn't it take your breath away?

Now look at your fall and winter wardrobe. Is it ready to meet the cold gray days with colors that lift your spirits and make you want to burst into song? Or is it drab, dull, and so uninteresting that you hate to put away your cheerful summer things and change into the array of mountones before you? If so, do something about it. There are ever so many days to liven it up with little or no expense, says Miss Mary Vogle, home evonomics extension representative of Lawrence County.

First, of all, look at yourself in a mirror and decide which colors belong to you. Are you a blonde? Then keep to the blues, greens, bluegreens and black for foundation colors and use warm colors such as wine red, yellow and orange for small dashes of life and contrast in your wardrobe. If you are a brunette then by all means use brown or rich greens for your background color and accent these with small touches of bright colors or combine them with larger amounts of warm tones of red, orange and yellow in dull shades.

Are you interested in in-betweeners. If so, you want to accent your most charming feature, whether it be hair, eyes, or complexion, by wearing the colors which will emphasize it most.

Now look at your wardrobe. How can you brighten it up? The coat is always the backbone of any outfit. If it is black you will find that dresses, and blouses of light, warm gray, medium green or any tone of blue or red will add spice for everyday wear. Dashes of brilliant red, green or blue for trimming on dark dresses as well as scarfs and other colorful accessories are quite the vogue this fall. To be ultra-smart for dress-up occasions you can keep to all "black and white" using a buttonniere of bright colors on your coat.

Is your coat brown? You will find that red, yellow and orange in any shade will blend beautifully with it, and a soft shade of green will be a delightful contrast. Here, for more formal wear the "brown-andwhite" outfit to match the coat can be enhanced with gayly colored accessories or buttonniere.

Choose only becoming colors which you thoroughly enjoy wearing. Don't think that you have to buy new things. How about that colorful summer dress that became a tiny bit tight in the hips? Why not cut it off below the waist, hem it, and use it for a blouse with your dark suit? Get your dye pots to work and have fun working with colors. Get the "feel" of color, use it, and live it.

Woman Alleged Bank Bandit Gang Member Jumps From Train Window

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Oct. 23.—Federal authorities Thursday revealed escape of Miss Margaret Allen, 26, from a train while being taken to Alderson, Va., to serve a two-year term for her part in the recent $64,000 holdup of a bank here.

As the train stopped at Charlestown, Va., the woman asked to go to the rest room, Chief Deputy Marshall John B. Grogan said. His wife, he said, accompanied her, and as soon as the door was closed, Miss Allen leaped through the train window and fled.

Novel Test For New Airplane

(International News Service)

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—Prof. John D. Akerman, head of the aeronautical engineering department of the University of Minnesota, will make a novel and dangerous test in the interests of aviation progress next week.

In a new type, tail-less plane with a wing-spread three times the body length, Akerman will take off from Wold-Chamberlain field to demonstrate his theory that airplanes can be controlled by slots and flaps in the wings and that tails in certain types are unnecessary.

The plane weights 675 pounds, has a 22-foot wing span and a body length of 7½ feet. So far Akerman has yet to take it off the ground.

STUDENT MANAGER IS NO SOFT SNAP

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 23—Student football managers at Warwood high school have had another task added to their already heavy schedule of work. In addition to carrying water, running errands, and other usual chores, they will be washing machine operators in the future.

The school, feeling laundry bills on football equipment were too high, has purchased a washing machine. The student managers have to see that uniforms are washed regularly.

CONSIDER KIWANIANS' MEET AS ONE OF BEST

The New Castle Kiwanis club's Pittsburgh state convention delegation today reported that this year's sessions were most successful. Attendance was good.

Attending the conclave this week were Secretary L. C. Mantz, Thomas L. Paden, Orville Potter, H. L. Marvin and Daniel H. Treloar, Jr. Mrs. Treloar attended with her husband.

Roosevelt Questions Engineering Courses

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Roosevelt questioned the effectiveness of present day engineering courses and called upon the nation's educators to study revisions of education methods to minimize the "job-stealing" effects of the machine age on future generations.

In a letter addressed to heads of more than 100 schools and colleges, in which he enclosed a brochure entitled "Little Waters"—a study of the social-engineering problems of soil and water conservation—the president said that advance in productive power and resultant social and economic dislocations have been "revealed with distressing clearness in public records of unemployment, bankruptcies and relief".

Consider Problems.

"The design and construction of specific civil engineering works or of instruments for production represent only one part of the responsibility of engineering," the letter stated. "It must also consider social processes and problems, and modes of more perfect adjustment to environment, and must cooperate in designing accommodating mechanisms to absorb the shocks of the impact of science.

"This raises the question whether the curricula of engineering schools are so balanced as to give coming generations of engineering the vision and flexible technical capacity necessary to meet the full range of engineering responsibility."

Await Action In Coal Case

New York And Pennsylvania Seek To Stamp Out "Bootleg Coal Mining"

TWO MEN FACE CONSPIRACY COUNTS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Assistant District Attorney John C. McDermott today was awaiting action by Pennsylvania authorities to aid in stamping out of the bootleg coal racket here. Governor Herbert Lehman, in an unprecedented action yesterday, sent the presentment of the New York county grand jury, which had been investigating the alleged stolen coal traffic, to Gov. George H. Earle of Pennsylvania.

McDermott, who is in charge of the New York investigation, said:

"I think the action of Governor Lehman in the matter is highly commendable.

Still At Large.

"When Governor Earle was approached some time ago and asked what action he would take in the matter, he said he would act when a communication, 'if any', was received from Governor Lehman."

Two men, residents of Pennsylvania, are wanted here to answer charges of a conspiracy to sell stolen coal. Despite extradition proceedings these men are still at large in their home state.

"I do not believe that the letter was prompted by the extradition proceedings as they are independent of it," McDermott observed. "It appears to me, however, that the extradition proceedings have been unduly delayed.

"If the citizen of a state is to be expected to have respect for the law, examples should be set by those sworn to uphold it."

GARDNER

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Derr of Gardner had a visit from their nephew, Alexander Black, on Friday night. The lad went later to his home on the Butler road. Two of Mrs. Derr's nieces, Dorothy and Olive Jean Hale of New Castle, spent Saturday at their aunt's home.

After several weeks' illness, Miss Dorothy Donley of Gardner was able to go back to her position at the Shenango Pottery on Monday.

Last Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Reed of the old Pittsburgh road went to Erie to see their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith and daughter Miss Helen. They came back home on Monday morning.

A. H. Wade of the Butler road took his mother, Mrs. Carrie Wade, to her home at North Washington, and brought his wife, Mrs. Mabel Wade, to their home, from Hooker, where Mrs. Wade was helping the family of her brother, Mr. Barkley, as his wife is still in the Butler hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Reed, all of the old Pittsburgh road, went recently to see Miss Mildred Mayberry graduate from the Aliquippa high school, a granddaughter and niece of the Reed families.

Mr. and Mrs. August Arnold of the old Pittsburgh road had a visit from the families of two of their daughters, who live in New Castle. Mr. and Msr. Elmer Bigley and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. Regis Arnold, who came home from the hospital, is improving nicely and is able to be about. Mrs. Arnold is again asking for donations of foodstuffs for the New Castle hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bender of the Harlansburg road are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Schreinel of Canton, O., who were friends of Mrs. Bender's girlhood and who are greatly loved for their many deeds of kindness.

Calvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis of Gardner came home from the Jameson Memorial hospital on Monday evening and is recovering nicely after an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robison and family of near Portersville spent Sunday at Gardner visiting Mrs. Clifford Robison and children.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Weir of the old Pittsburgh road spent Tuesday evening as the guests of their relatives at Ellwood City, Abner Runyan and his daughter, Miss Bessie Runyan, who is a retired teacher. Mr. Runyan has reached the age of 93 years and a very quiet little company met in his honor, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKim of Wampum spent Sunday at the John P. Weir home.

Rev. Dominic DeFino and Miss Helen Yasco of New Castle called on Gardner friends on Tuesday evening.

State Employes To Get Holiday

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 13.—All will be quiet on Capitol Hill election day—and the previous day, too.

Gov. George H. Earle announced all state employes will be permitted to be absent from work on election day if they live more than 100 miles from Harrisburg and may be absent Monday also.

APIARY INSPECTION ENDS; NO ARRESTS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Although the state apiary inspection this year was unusually extensive, not one beekeeper was prosecuted for violating the laws.

"The beekeepers are adhering closely to the letter of the law," explained J. Hansel French, secretary of agriculture, "because they realize that the bee laws were passed for their protection and that the beekeeper who violates these laws is a menace to all apiaries in his neighborhood."

Auto Speeders Being Arrested

State Patrolmen Report Number Of Auto Drivers Nabbed

SOME OF ARRESTS MADE IN WAMPUM

Superintendent of the State Highway Quarles' efforts to curb speeding of trucks and automobiles has reached Lawrence county, according to reports from the local sub-station, patrolmen having stated today that a number of arrests for speeding have been made. The arrangements made to trap speeders in boroughs is unique.

Telephones in highway patrol automobiles stationed one-eighth of a mile apart are furnished electric current from dry cell batteries to which is attached a wire that runs for that distance along the highway.

As soon as an auto or a truck believed to be exceeding the mileage passes the first card the time is clocked by stop watch and telephoned ahead to the other car and it is from this timing that arrests occur if the law is violated.

On the highways the highway patrolmen use a motorcycle to time the autoist.

The telephone system is operated in boroughs where there is a 20-mile speed limit and the motorcycle patrolmen operate outside boroughs on the state highways.

On state highways, pleasure cars are allowed 40 miles but arrests are made for driving the automobiles at 50 miles an hour. The speed of a truck in a borough or on a state highway depends upon its size, the hourly rate ranging from 24 to 35 miles an hour. Arrests are made in boroughs for driving pleasure cars 40 miles an hour, it was stated.

The patrolmen arrested speeders at Wampum Wednesday and were on another road Thursday and today it behooves all motorists to operate sanely and cautiously.

Charge Democratic Committee With Violation Of Corrupt Practices Act

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The senate campaign funds committee on Thursday asked the Democratic national committee to answer charges that it violated the corrupt practices act by accepting corporate contribution under the cloak of advertising in its convention book.

The committee's action was prompted by Republican accusation that big corporations were "forced" to make huge campaign contributions when "high pressure" methods were used to sell advertising.

The campaign committee sent a letter to Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley for a report on the nature of funds received from advertisers in "the book of the Democratic national convention of 1936". No action will be taken until a reply is received.

Complaint Sworn.

The Republican national committee a few days ago submitted a sworn complaint to the committee charging that the corrupt practices act, which make it illegal for corporations to contribute to national campaign funds, was violated.

The Republicans charged that the advertising rates were out of proportion and that the cost to the corporation in reality represented gifts to the parties.

Under the law an officer of a corporation making such a contribution can be fined $1,000 and sent to prison for one year.

EGG SHOW OFFICIAL

HARRISBURG — E. J. Lawless, Jr., chief of the poultry division of the bureau of Markets, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, is chairman of the egg show committee for the second poultry industrial exposition to be held in Commerce hall, Port Authority building, New York City, November 10 to 14. D. C. Henderson of State college is chairman of the Pennsylvania sub-committee.

Rally Is Being Opened On Sunday At Second Baptist

On Sunday, October 25, a monthly rally will be launched in the Second Baptist church for the purpose of cancelling some of the church debts.

This rally will close on the fifth Sunday of November.

November 1 is to be homecoming day. All members who have been fellowshipped by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Nelson, will be present. Rev. Nelson has been in charge of the congregation for fourteen years.

A. D. Thomas is chairman of the board of trustees and William Weeks is chairman of the board of deacons.

Roosevelt May Make Address In Harrisburg

Democrats Plan For Rally Next Thursday Morning At Capitol

GOVERNOR EARLE TO SHARE PROGRAM

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—State Democratic leaders late Thursday revealed virtually definite plans that will bring President Roosevelt to Harrisburg for a rally on the steps of Pennsylvania's capitol next Thursday morning.

Discussed in recent weeks, the arrangements for a campaign appearance of the chief executive in the heart of "doubtful" Pennsylvania were brought to a head Thursday at a conference of state and Dauphin county Democrats, it was learned.

State Democratic Chairman David L. Lawrence said "that's the plan now—it's all but finally approved."

Lawrence said the president probably would go from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, driving through the heart of the Quaker City on his way to Camden, under present plans.

The president, accompanied by state party leaders—including Gov. George H. Earle—will speak at 9:30 o'clock from approximately the spot on which Pennsylvania governors are inaugurated—the steps of the $13,000,000 state capitol.

Detailed plans for the rally have not been completed, it was said.

Weak, Drowsy, Tired Folks!

Very likely your blood needs building up. Iodo-Vin helps increase the red coloring matter in the blood. The red blood corpuscles carry oxygen, the energy element, to all parts of your body, and aid in renew.ug strength and vitality. Iodo-Vin also helps correct indigestion, cleanses the bowels, helping get rid of poisonous wastes that might otherwise contaminate the system. Why not start your Iodo-Vin treatment today? Build up your body so that you can be proud of it, and get your share of life's pleasures and do your work well. It costs only a few cents a day to take this well-known tonic. Surely this is a small price to pay for the vitality and energy demanded by this fast-moving age.

Woman, 75, To Give Landon First Vote

SHARON, Pa., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Nettie Collins of 211 Elm avenue, this city, 75 years old, is interested in home affairs and the welfare of her neighbors, but never did believe that women should dabble in politics. She took no interest in the battle to give women the right of suffrage, believing that her place was in the home, caring for her family instead of "gallivantin' around polling places." But Mrs Collins now is convinced it is her duty to vote, and will cast a ballot on November 3.

Said Mrs. Collins today: "I am proud to cast my first vote for Governor Alfred M. Landon for President."

Poachers Kill Veteran In Michigan State Conservation Service

(International News Service)

NEGAUNEE, Mich., Oct. 23.—With a suspect jailed and a "good clue" they are withholding, authorities probed the dynamite-murder of Andrew Schmeltz, 45, veteran conservation officer.

Schmeltz was murdered by poachers in revenge for numerous arrests made by the conscientious law enforcing officer, Prosecutor Voelker said.

Blown to bits, Schmeltz' body was found in swamps near here, after he left to patrol the area on information from an unknown informant that game laws were being violated.

The poachers killed Schmeltz first, then later set off the dynamite charges under the body to hide evidence of the crime, officials said.

Equal Justice Society Formed

Wealthy Men Band Together In Society For Prevention Of Alimony

(International News Service)

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Oct. 23.—Suel Willis Rushmore, 65, wealthy retired engineer and inventor, today said that prospective members are flocking to his "Millionnaires' Alimony Defense Society."

The society, which is to be known henceforth as the "Mads," will be patterned after similar organizations in New York, except that all applicants must be wealthy.

"They must be men who, like myself, have been victimized by a scheming woman and unscrupulous lawyers," said the elderly inventor.

"We will aim at the correction of our barbaric divorce laws. We will strive for laws giving men and women an equal chance at the bar of justice."

Rushmore finally won a divorce from his 47-year-old wife, Hazel Opie Rushmore, after years of litigation during which time his bill for temporary alimony and counsel fees ran over the $85,000 mark.

To Make Tests Of Lubricating Oils

Laboratory At State College Will Try Experiments On Deisel Engines

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 23—Comparative performance tests of lubricating oils in Diesel engines, the first such tests ever made a college laboratory, will begin at the Pennsylvania State College in the near future.

Prof. Harold A. Everett, head of the department of mechanical engineering, announced that the tests would be run on two of the latest type Diesels, just installed in the department laboratory.

After actual operating conditions have been simulated as closely as possible, research work will go forward on the two Diesels and four gasoline engines, with the engines running at what would represent a speed of at least 60 miles an hour on the highway. No commercial brans of lubrication oil will be checked, but special oils differing only in some essentials will be prepared by the petroleum refining laboratory at the college.

In addition to testing lubricating oils, the proposed research here will comprise records of oil, gas and air consumption and the wear on the respective engines when they are operated for stated periods at high speeds.

Would Eliminate Noisy Factories

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Declaring that noise constitutes a factory hazard as important as other recognized industrial hazards, Dr. Foster Kennedy, professor of clinical neurology at the Cornell University Medical College, today urged that noise abatement "should be given its rightful place in the industrial world."

Barcelona Is "Filthy" City

(International News Service)

BURGOS, Spain, Oct. 23.—Barcelona is a city of almost indescribable filth and anarchy, according to refugees arriving here today. The streets, they said, are strewn with corpses and rubbish.

Insurgent leaders said government supporters were shooting "50 people daily" at Cuenca.

SENATOR COUZENS' FUNERAL LIKELY MONDAY

Death Follows Years Illness

Thousands Of Messages Of Condolence Are Received At Detroit

EARLY MEMBER OF FORD MOTOR CO.

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Oct. 23.—Michigan's senior senator, James Couzens, was dead today.

Sen. Couzens, in poor health for more than a year, died late yesterday in Harper hospital after an emergency operation to relieve a kidney ailment.

While thousands of messages of condolence, including one from President Franklin D. Roosevelt, were sent to Sen. Couzens' family, plans were being made for his funeral. Last rites probably will be held Monday

Was 64 Years Old

Sen. Couzens had celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday last Aug. 26. He was born in Chatham, Ont., and like Thomas Edison, started his career as a news butcher on a railroad.

Coming to this country in 1889, he worked as a car checker for a railroad, later in a coal company and then became associated with the Ford Motor Company. He came up through the ranks there, selling his interest in 1919 for approximately $30,000,000 in cash.

A multi-millionaire, he later accepted a job as police commissioner, served as Detroit's mayor and was appointed to the senate in 1922. He had been there ever since.

Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald, who holds power to appoint a successor, announced none would be named since the senator's term expires in January and there is no session of congress before that time.

Many Colleges Represented In Annual Sports Day Program

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Oct. 23.—Girls from many Western Pennsylvania colleges and universities participated in the annual Sports Day program, held on the local campus today. During the afternoon the co-eds competed in tennis, swimming, archery and other sports. During the late afternoon the visitors toured the campus, and faculty guests attended a tea in the girls' dormitory. Dinner at 6:15 completed the program.

Representatives were present from Pittsburgh, Indiana, Slippery Rock, Geneva, Thiel, Westminster and Allegheny.

Castlewood

Mrs. D. H. Collins spent last weekend in Mercer, Pa.

Mrs. W. J. Irwin of Mercer is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henry and daughter Thelma of Ellwood City were Sunday visitors at the Albert Brown home.

Mrs. E. Rippel and family of Pittsburgh were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kederian.

Jimmie, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blews, who has been confined to his home for several weeks by illness, is able to return to school.

Miss Betty Slease and Frank Decarbo spent Sunday evening with Miss Frances Irwin and Jack Jameson of Mercer, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Rouser and Mrs. Walter Leffler of Beaver Falls and Mrs. Everett Garwig and son Paul of Ellwood City visited one day recently with Mrs. Loy McHattie.

Mr. and Mrs. John White visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Jones of the Pulaski road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ackins and son of Blairsville visited a few days last week with Mrs. Ackins' cousins, Joe Cowan and Mrs. Ray Houk of Castlewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cowan and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Cowan's mother in Slippery Rock.

Held Unfit

New Jersey's highest court held Mrs. Mable Eaton (above) unfit to have custody of her two children after evidence had been introduced which purported to show that Mrs. Eaton was "a convert to Communism and atheism."

Badminton Now College Sport

Game Is Introduced To Students At Westminster By Dean Of Women

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 23.—A new sport has been added to Westminster College's intramural sports program for the year, badminton, played by both men and women.

Dean Mary E. Turner is responsible for adding the sport to the official W. A. A. list of sports through her gift of a badminton set. Along with badminton, hockey is the chief seasonal sport during October, with a hockey tournament in progress, headed by Sara Briadle, Billy Lorimer, Mildred Kerr and June Tenchout. Following the invitation tournament, class tournaments in hockey will continue until cold weather.

The W. A. A. organization retains as its motto, "Play for Play's Sake," and refusing at any time to introduce the "win" element of sports. The program is supposed to offer enough sports so that each girl can find a sports hobby.

How to Overcome Piles or Rectal Soreness

If you are annoyed with piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from your druggist a Dixie Tee-Mint and apply once or twice daily. This cooling and soothing preparation quickly relieves the itching and soreness, stops pain and heals the affected parts. Try it. Tee-Mint is highly recommended and is easy and pleasant to use. It seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy that is so easy to use may be had at such small cost.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET

The monthly business and social gathering was conducted at the home of Mrs. Walter Waddington for the members of the King's Daughters class. After the business period the games committee, Mrs. Jane Johnston and Mrs. Merle Mayberry took charge and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. T. C. Watson, Mrs. L. R. Houk, Mrs. Hazel Bruno and Mrs. Ruth Dean. At this time the hostess, assisted by her joint aide, Mrs. Helen Frisbee, served a delicious Hallowe'en menu.

LOYAL LADIES MEETING

Mrs. A. Holzhouser proved a pleasing hostess recently when she entertained the members of the Loyal Ladies class at her home. Games and chat were the chief pastimes. Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party. Prizes for the various games were awarded to Mrs. I. A. Lytle, Mrs. Pack and Mrs. Lawrence. At this time Mrs. Holzhouser, assisted by Mrs. Pack, served a dainty repast.

TUREEN DINNER

The Women's Missionary society enjoyed an all day sewing and tureen dinner at the church on Wednesday. Plans were made for a similar meeting next week, when a missionary barrel will be packed.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Mrs. I. A. Lytle, of Alborn avenue, entertained this week in honor of the sixth birthday of her granddaughter, Nancy Watson. Thirty children were in attendance and enjoyed games. They were then invited to the dining room where a gayly lighted cake formed the centerpiece and Hallowe'en tones were carried out in a clever manner. Nancy was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

BUSY BEE CLASS

Mrs. T. C. Watson entertained the members of the Busy Bee class at a social gathering in her Schenley avenue home recently. Chat and the drawing of "Big Sister" names were the main pastimes of the evening, and plans were made for the winter activities. Mrs. Watson, helped by Mae Pack, served a delicious lunch. Miss Eleanora Shaffer was welcomed as a new member.

MASQUERADE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Houk, of Alborn avenue, proved pleasing hosts Saturday evening to a group of young married couples at a Hallowe'en party in their residence. Mrs. S. H. McCullough and Mrs. J. Frisbee had charge of the games; prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Watson, Mrs. T. E. Shaffer, Merle Mayberry, Mrs. Ruth Dean and T. E. Shaffer. At this time Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Watson helped serve a regular Hallowe'en menu after which the ghosts, clowns and goblins departed for their homes.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY

About 30 neighbors and friends met this week at the new residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis to give them a housewarming. Mrs. Paul Lutz and Mrs. J. Bocklus presented Mrs. Davis with many lovely and useful gifts in behalf of those present. Most of the evening was passed with games and chat. At a seasonable time the guests were invited to the Harry Lutz home where Mrs. Paul Lutz, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Johnson, Mrs. Earl Powell, Mrs. J. Bocklus and Mrs. A. T. McConahy, served a delicious menu.

NEW CASTLE NOTES

Mrs. A. Wood, of Oil City, has returned to her home after a week with her son, Lester Wood, here. Other guests at the Wood home were Mrs. Maude Parker and Mr. and Mrs. McKlm, of Ellwood City.

Mrs. J. W. Fombell, of the old Pittsburgh road, has returned home after spending the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Davis, Pittsburgh.

Mrs. J. M. Watson, of Fayette, spent several days recently at the home of her son, T. C. Watson, Schenley avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ashton and children, of Ellwood City, spent several days here this week at the home of Mrs. Ashton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wood.

Mrs. J. H. Kalajainen, who has been ill at her home for some time, is showing a slight improvement.

Pauline Frederieks has recovered sufficiently from the accident she had several weeks ago to be able to return to school this week.

John Platt who was confined to his home the past week with the grip is able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dean have moved to the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence who moved to Adams street. Mr. and Mrs. L. Wood moved to the Dean residence and Mr. and Mrs. A. Morris moved to the house vacated by the Wood family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waddington and family spent the day recently with the former's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Toronto.

Mrs Otto Smith and daughter, of Massillon, O, were guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs Harvey Zeigler one day this week.

Wilbur Zeigler returned here recently after making a motor trip to Texas where he and W. Stelter, who accompanied him, enjoyed the fair.

'Y' GYM ATTENDANCE SHOWS STEADY GAIN

Gymnasium attendance is still soaring upward at the Y. M. C. A., Activities Director Henry T. MacNichols reported today.

MacNichols called particular attention to the growing interest in the senior young men's volley ball periods on Mondays and Fridays at 7 p. m. and the senior class period on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8 p. m. He said new members are enlisting almost daily.

GUARD AGAINST WINE FREEZING

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Who would think, when alcohol is used for anti-freeze, that the state liquor stores would have to build up their inventories in the fall to prevent some bottles from freezing in transit.

Such is the situation with wines, particularly those that are not fortified with spirits. As a consequence, orders have been issued to all state stores to stock up a reserve of eight weeks' supply to be used only when regular weekly orders to the regional warehouses cannot be completed and delivered due to the intense cold. This surplus is to be kept intact and up to quota until spring brings milder temperatures.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET

The monthly business and social gathering was conducted at the home of Mrs. Walter Waddington for the members of the King's Daugters class. After the business period the games committee, Mrs. Jane Johnston and Mrs. Merle Mayberry took charge and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. T. C. Watson, Mrs. L. R. Houk, Mrs. Hazel Bruno and Mrs. Ruth Dean. At this time the hostess, assisted by her joint aide, Mrs. Helen Frisbee, served a delicious Hallowe'en menu.

LOYAL LADIES MEETING

Mrs. A. Holzhouser proved a pleasing hostess recently when she entertained the members of the Loyal Ladies class at her home. Games and chat were the chief pastimes. Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party. Prizes for the various games were awarded to Mrs. I. A. Lytle, Mrs. Pack and Mrs. Lawrence. At this time Mrs. Holzhouser, assisted by Mrs. Pack, served a dainty repast.

TUREEN DINNER

The Women's Missionary society enjoyed an all day sewing and tureen dinner at the church on Wednesday. Plans were made for a similar meeting next week, when a missionary barrel will be packed.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Mrs. I. A. Lytle, of Alborn avenue, entertained this week in honor of the sixth birthday of her granddaughter, Nancy Watson. Thirty children were in attendance and enjoyed games. They were then invited to the dining room where a gayly lighted cake formed the centerpiece and Hallowe'en tones were carried out in a clever manner. Nancy was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

BUSY BEE CLASS

Mrs. T. C. Watson entertained the members of the Busy Bee class at a social gathering in her Schenley avenue home recently. Chat and the drawing of "Big Sister" names were the main pastimes of the evening, and plans were made for the winter activities. Mrs. Watson, helped by Mae Pack, served a delicious lunch. Miss Eleanora Shaffer was welcomed as a new member.

MASQUERADE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Houk, of Alborn avenue, proved pleasing hosts Saturday evening to a group of young married couples at a Hallowe'en party in their residence. Mrs. S. H. McCullough and Mrs. J. Frisbee had charge of the games; prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Watson, Mrs. T. E. Shaffer, Merle Mayberry, Mrs. Ruth Dean and T. E. Shaffer. At this time Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Watson helped serve a regular Hallowe'en menu after which the ghosts, clowns and goblins departed for their homes.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY

About 30 neighbors and friends met this week at the new residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis to give them a housewarming. Mrs. Paul Lutz and Mrs. J. Bockius presented Mrs. Davis with many lovely and useful gifts in behalf of those present. Most of the evening was passed with games and chat. At a seasonable time the guests were invited to the Harry Lutz home where Mrs. Paul Lutz, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Johnson, Mrs. Earl Powell, Mrs. J. Bockius and Mrs. A. T. McConahy, served a delicious menu.

Safe Drivers Being Cited

Police Watch For Good Drivers As Well As Law Violators

THREE LISTED BY POLICE THURSDAY

Daily police see thousands of automobiles, good and bad driving and when a person operates his auto recklessly or in a manner not conducive to the safety of other automobiles or pedestrians police usually take some action. However, Thursday a new system was inaugurated at the traffic bureau and it was decided that when police see persons do something out of the ordinary in order to promote safety of other automobiles or pedestrians license numbers are taken down and inscribed under the caption "Safe Drivers."

Police watched at various places yesterday and today there was a trio of auto operators listed at the traffic division as safe drivers. Their names and car license numbers are as follows: Lillian Price, Pennsylvania 6Z590; Stanley Reece, Pennsylvania license 1315B and Saverna Williams, Pennsylvania license T188V.

The officers keep an eye "peeled" for drivers who, though they have the green light, permit persons who are in the cartway to cross intersections; also an eye alert for autoists who, on a main thoroughfare, sometimes stop their cars to permit an autoist to drive from an alleyway, instead of hemming the latter's car in.

State Program Not Approved

W. P. A. Has Not Allocated "Expected" $8,000,000 For Hazard Elimination Program

AGREEMENT NOT PUT INTO EFFECT

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Charging the commonwealth was misled by "false promises", state Republican fiscal officers today decided to junk the administration's $9,000,000 armory construction and state institution hazard elimination programs.

In view of WPA's expressed inability to allocate the "expected" $8,000,000 to be matched with a state outlay of $1,000,000 for the two programs, State Treasurer Charles A. Waters and Auditor General Frank Baldwin have decided:

1—Not to approve requisitions for expenditure of state funds for such improvements under the control of WPA.

2—To insist that the health, welfare, public instruction and military affairs departments forget about federal funds and plan improvements "where they are most needed" in line with state money available.

3—Not to approve "piece-meal" work, but only fully completed projects.

Auditor General's Statement.

Following a conference with the auditor general, Waters told International News Service:

"In view of the definite breaking down of agreements made by WPA authorities in Washington to advance approximately $8,000,000 to match $1,000,000 appropriated by the 1936 special legislature for armory construction and elimination of fire and panic hazards at the 54 state institutions, we will not approve requisitions for expenditure of the state funds for such improvements under the control of the WPA.

"The health, welfare, public education and military affairs departments should take inventory immediately, forgetting about federal funds, pick out the most necessary projects from programs drafted before the WPA repudiated its pledges and use state money to complete them

"If those fire hazards are as acute as we were led to believe they were, the most dangerous ones should be corrected immediately and thoroughly by contract, but not in the delayed, piece-meal manner apparently unavoidable under WPA regulations."

REPORT MINOR AUTO ACCIDENTS

Dr. W. L. Campbell, 414 Moody avenue, reported to police at 7:50 p. m. Thursday his car, traveling south on North Mill street, hit a barricade which had a red lantern on it. The barricade is on the west side of North Mill Street as south traffic off Highland avenue must detour east or west through Falls street.

R. W. McKee, 404 Neshannock avenue, reported to police at 5:10 p. m. yesterday his car and that with Pennsylvania license 241B2 had a slight accident at South Jefferson and South streets.

Expect Taxi Parade Thru Here Shortly

Drivers Who'll Pilot Cabs To New York Pause En-route West

New Castle, for the first time in months, will probably see another of those long caravans of modern taxicabs go through its business district on Saturday.

The cab parade is expected tomorrow because last night nearly 60 of the drivers, aboard a chartered motor coach, paused here while en-route west to the taxi manufacturing plant. They stopped at the Fountain Inn a short while. They will spend the night there when when they take the cabs east.

The new taxis, equipped with radios, are to be taken to New York. Overnight the machines will be kept at a large storage garage and refueled for another lap of the trip.

One Way Traffic On Mill Street; North To Falls

Owing to conduits being installed at North and North Mill streets, a one way traffic rule was enforced last night and today between that point and Falls and North Mill street. Traffic can move north but coming south from Highland avenue must detour either east or west through Falls street. A barrier has been erected on the west side of Mill street at Falls and North Mill streets and an officer also helps to direct traffic. Last night a fireman was secured from the fire department to aid the police in the temporary traffic regulation.

Plenty Parking At Warren Tonight

Ample parking space, properly policed, will be provided at the Harding stadium in Warren tonight, it was said today at noon by B. N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club. Several hundred New Castle football fans will motor to Warren for the football game between New Castle and Warren high schools.

The best route to Warren is No. 422 to Coltsville, right at Coltsville to Hubbard, route No. 7 from Hubbard to Brookfield, left at Brookfield on route No. 82 to Warren.

Safe Drivers Being Cited

Police Watch For Good Drivers As Well As Law Violators

THREE LISTED BY POLICE THURSDAY

Daily police see thousands of automobiles, good and bad driving and when a person operates his auto recklessly or in a manner not conducive to the safety of other automobiles or pedestrians police usually take some action. However, Thursday a new system was inaugurated at the traffic bureau and it was decided that when police see persons do something out of the ordinary in order to promote safety of other automobiles or pedestrians license numbers are taken down and inscribed under the caption "Safe Drivers."

Police watched at various places yesterday and today there was a trio of auto operators listed at the traffic division as safe drivers. Their names and car license numbers are as follows: Lillian Price, Pennsylvania 6Z590; Stanley Reece, Pennsylvania license 1315B and Saverna Williams, Pennsylvania license T188V.

The officers keep an eye "peeled" for drivers who, though they have the green light, permit persons who are in the cartway to cross intersections; also an eye alert for autoists who, on a main thoroughfare, sometimes stop their cars to permit an autoist to drive from an alleyway, instead of hemming the latter's car in.

State Program Not Approved

W. P. A. Has Not Allocated "Expected" $8,000,000 For Hazard Elimination Program

AGREEMENT NOT PUT INTO EFFECT

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Charging the commonwealth was misled by "false promises", state Republican fiscal officers today decided to junk the administration's $9,000,000 armory construction and state institution hazard elimination programs.

In view of WPA's expressed inability to allocate the "expected" $8,000,000 to be matched with a state outlay of $1,000,000 for the two programs, State Treasurer Charles A. Waters and Auditor General Frank Baldwin have decided:

1—Not to approve requisitions for expenditure of state funds for such improvements under the control of WPA.

2—To insist that the health, welfare, public instruction and military affairs departments forget about federal funds and plan improvements "where they are most needed" in line with state money available.

3—Not to approve "piece-meal" work, but only fully completed projects.

Auditor General's Statement.

Following a conference with the auditor general, Waters told International News Service:

"In view of the definite breaking down of agreements made by WPA authorities in Washington to advance approximately $8,000,000 to match $1,000,000 appropriated by the 1936 special legislature for armory construction and elimination of fire and panic hazards at the 54 state institutions, we will not approve requisitions for expenditure of the state funds for such improvements under the control of the WPA.

"The health, welfare, public education and military affairs departments should take inventory immediately, forgetting about federal funds, pick out the most necessary projects from programs drafted before the WPA repudiated its pledges and use state money to complete them.

"If those fire hazards are as acute as we were led to believe they were, the most dangerous ones should be corrected immediately and thoroughly by contract, but not in the delayed, piece-meal manner apparently unavoidable under WPA regulations."

REPORT MINOR AUTO ACCIDENTS

Dr. W. L. Campbell, 414 Moody avenue, reported to police at 7:50 p. m. Thursday his car, travelling south on North Mill street, hit a barricade which had a red lantern on it. The barricade is on the west side of North Mill street as south traffic off Highland avenue must detour east or west through Falls street.

R. W. McKee, 464 Neshannock avenue, reported to police at 5:10 p. m. yesterday his car and that with Pennsylvania license 241H3 had a slight accident at South Jefferson and South streets.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Japan Tries To Woo Filipinos

Is Making Many Friendships With Its Hospitality In Pacific Islands

WRITER GIVES OWN EXPERIENCES

Central Press
Washington Bureau
502 Times-Herald Bldg.

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. — The Japanese, according to dispatches from Manilla, seem to have launched a campaign to win the Philippines, in anticipation of the islands' independence, not by a grab, as on the Asiatic mainland, but by gaining the Filipinos' devoted friendship.

Representatives of the Japanese government and of Japanese business, are described as continually active in Manila and elsewhere throughout the archipelago, arranging for parties of influential Filipinos to visit Nippon.

When these tourists arrive there they are treated royally.

Filipino newspapermen are especially catered to. Upon their return home they naturally speak extremely well of the manner in which the mikado's officialdom and the Japanese public generally entertained them.

Thus, it is said, a strong pro-Japanese sentiment is being created throughout the islands.

STEWART'S EXPERIENCE

The Japanese can be perfectly heavenly to visitors.

When a visitor, however, falls foul of regulations, he can have a terrible time.

On my own couple of stays in Japan I found the Japanese the most hospitable hosts with whom I ever was thrown into contact. They almost overdid their hospitality; it was oppressive.

I had a camera.

Since then there have been cases in which foreigners have involved themselves in serious trouble by taking the most innocent snapshots, on the theory that information was being gathered for future air raids.

I shot pictures in every direction and never was questioned.

I had access to cabinet members. The sky was the limit.

GOOD INTRODUCTIONS

However, I had exceptionally good introductions.

I was correspondent for an American news agency, affiliated with a similar Japanese agency.

This news agency was (and is) a powerful organization.

But I have heard of other foreigners who have not been so royally treated.

To an extent it has been their own fault. Usually they have been Occidentals who, accustomed to treating the meek Chinese roughly, have tried to treat the Japanese similarly. The Japanese won't stand for it.

A STEWART QUERY

Japan certainly is not open to criticism for trying to win the Filipinos' friendship by sociability rather than by coercion.

Nevertheless one can't but wonder.

If sociability fails to work in the long run, won't there be a tendency toward coercion?

The only cough drop medicated with the throat-soothing ingredients of Vicks VapoRub.

Canton Fire Chief Retires At Eighty

(International News Service)

CANTON, O., Oct. 23—The fire alarm gong which has been installed in the home of R. O. Mesner here has run down and never will be wound again. On countless occasions in past years the old gong awakened Mesnar at night to summon him to fires, but it will disturb his slumber no more.

For, after 66 years of service, Mesnar has retired as chief of Canton's fire department at the age of 80. From now on, he expects to do "just two things—have as good a time as I can and promise not to take another man's job."

Mesnar has applied for a pension of $65 a month.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

CORRESPOND ABROAD

Through an international bureau of foreign correspondence for students, pupils of the New Castle Senior high school are able to write to students of their own ages in many different lands. This bureau is conducted to aid the foreigners in learning English which is studied almost universally abroad. It also promotes international friendships.

To contact a foreign correspondent a student pays ten cents to certain teachers in the building who are sponsoring these contacts, states his age, the country he prefers, and whether he wishes to write to a boy or a girl.

It is an interesting hobby and many students put in their requests. Some of the countries in which the students are most interested are England, France, Australia, Africa, and Holland.

LINCOLN HI-Y

Wednesday evening, October 21, the Lincoln Hi-Y held its regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. in the form of a Hallowe'en poverty party. Prizes were awarded to James Frew and Joe Proctor for the best costumes. Following the party the members retired to the pool where several contests were held. There were twenty-nine members and ten candidates present.

After the party the officers and John Thompson, boys' superintendent, met for the purpose of discussing future programs.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED

At the meeting of the Senatus Romanus held Friday, October 9, the following were elected as conscripti members: Guy Lateana, Marjorie Vaughn and Mary Louise Kirkpatrick. Initiation of new members was carried on under the supervision of Jean Tinsley.

The new members were presented with purple and white ribbons which they are required to wear for two weeks. The chairman of the social committee reported that a wiener roast had been planned for Wednesday evening at Gaston Park. The meeting was closed with a discussion of parliamentary law given by Donald Lusk.

SEWING PROJECT COMPLETED

In the Home Economics department, the first unit on hand sewing has been completed. Those taking prizes for outstanding work in this field were Berenice Hammond and Bettie Farmer.

The department has also finished its work on nutrition and has started its study of child care.

LEADERS' CLUB FORMED

Wednesday morning the newly organized Leaders' Club met in the auditorium under the supervision of Marjorie Rhodes for the purpose of discussing the type of club meetings desired. It was decided to alternate, one meeting to have panel discussions and the next to divide the club into interest groups due to the size of the club. The club will meet once a week.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

On Monday evening, the Girl Reserves met in the Y. W. C. A., President Miriam Clinefelter presided at the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Leah Davis and devotions were read by Pauline Lynch. Sara Jane Cleland made an announcement about the next meeting which will be a Hallowe'en meeting.

Various interest groups were formed including dramatics, chorus, crafts, knitting, bowling and basketball.

FRENCH CLUB MEETS

Tuesday morning, a meeting of the French club was held in room 118. The hour was spent socially with singing, games and French conversation as the main diversions. The meeting was supervised by Miss Kelley and June Travers, the program chairman.

WIENER ROAST FOR SENATUS

Wednesday, October 14, Senatus Romanus members attended a wiener roast held at Gaston Park. A blazing fire was soon started and the smell of wood smoke gave an added zest to appetites, already sufficiently whetted. An ample supply of refreshments was provided by the social committee under the direction of Loraine Hook. Later, the members gathered about the fire, spending an enjoyable evening, popping corn and singing songs.

STUDENTS IN CONVENTION PROGRAM

Tonight and Saturday, the western section of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association will conduct its fourth annual convention in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Professor Joseph Replogle, musical director of the high school, announces the following program:

Friday afternoon and evening, there will be a chorus of 265 members, eight of these are from the Ne-Ca-Hi chorus.

Saturday morning, our school will be represented on the program by a string quartet of: first violin, Vance Dufford; second violin, Robert Reese; viola, Martha Black; and cello, Jess Badger; and a baritone solo by Charles Coulter, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Louise Kirkpatrick.

The chorus will sing ten numbers under the direction of ten different conductors. The string quartet will render the "Minuet" from Hayden and "Andante" from Dittersdorf.

Nearly All Pitt Engineering Grads Placed On Jobs

(Special To The News)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Placement of graduates of the University of Pittsburgh schools of engineering and mines this year has almost reached the 100 per cent mark, Dean E. A. Holbrook announces. Of the 117 students graduated in engineering and mines in June, 113 have been placed in positions, a percentage of 96.

Petroleum engineering graduates are placed as far away as South America, Dean Holbrook states; while most of the graduates of the school of mines are located in Pennsylvania, and the metallurgical graduates are located, for the most part, in the Pittsburgh district, steel and iron center.

Would Teach Boys Boxing

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Leather-pushing as an indirect means to salvation for boys who otherwise would develop into street corner bullies was advocated today by George F. Denniston of the Catholic Youth association of New York Catholic Charities.

Replying to criticism of the association's boxing activity, Denniston said it was the only agency found universally to attract the energetic type of boy who "easily becomes the corner bully or the reckless leader."

Broker's Wife Granted Divorce

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Florence W. Roberts today was awarded a separation from her husband, Owen W. Roberts, retired broker, $7,500 a year alimony and custody of her 13-year-old daughter. She charged her husband had placarded their apartment with signs reading:

"Keep out—There is a trap here."

PAINT KILLS SIX COWS IN PASTURE

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23. — The careless throwing of a pail of white lead into a pasture cost a farmer at Mt. Holly Springs, Cumberland county, six cows out of a herd of seven.

Suspecting a poisonous plant the farmer summoned Dr. E. M. Gress, botanist for the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, to locate the source of the poison. Doctor Gress traced the poison to the paint pail.

SEES MORE INTEREST IN HOME ECONOMICS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23—Evidence of the growing interest in Home Economics education in Pennsylvania according to Superintendent Lester K. Ade, of the Department of Public Instruction, is seen in the increased number of colleges and universities offering professional preparation for teachers in this special field.

Seventeen colleges in the commonwealth now sponsor courses for Home Economics teachers. Eight of these have been approved for Home Economics education on a general basis.

The Japanese can be perfectly heavenly to visitors.

When a visitor, however, falls foul of regulations, he can have a terrible time.

On my own couple of stays in Japan I found the Japanese the most hospitable hosts with whom I ever was thrown into contact. They almost overdid their hospitality; it was oppressive.

I had a camera.

Since then there have been cases in which foreigners have involved themselves in serious trouble by taking the most innocent snapshots, on the theory that information was being gathered for future air raids

I shot pictures in every direction and never was questioned.

I had access to cabinet members

The sky was the limit.

GOOD INTRODUCTIONS

However, I had exceptionally good introductions.

I was correspondent for an American news agency, affiliated with a similar Japanese agency.

This news agency was (and is) a powerful organization.

But I have heard of other foreigners who have not been so royally treated.

To an extent it has been their own fault. Usually they have been Occidentals who, accustomed to treating the meek Chinese roughly, have tried to treat the Japanese similarly. The Japanese won't stand for it.

A STEWART QUERY

Japan certainly is not open to criticism for trying to win the Filipinos' friendship by socialibity rather than by coercion.

Nevertheless one can't but wonder.

If sociability fails to work in the long run, won't there be a tendency toward coercion?

Canton Fire Chief Retires At Eighty

(International News Service)

CANTON, O., Oct. 23—The fire alarm gong which has been installed in the home of R. O. Mesner here has run down and never will be wound again. On countless occasions in past years the old gong awakened Mesnar at night to summon him to fires, but it will disturb his slumber no more.

For, after 66 years of service, Mesnar has retired as chief of Canton's fire department at the age of 80. From now on, he expects to do "just two things—have as good a time as I can and promise not to take another man's job."

Mesnar has applied for a pension of $85 a month.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

CORRESPOND ABROAD

Through an international bureau of foreign correspondence for students, pupils of the New Castle Senior high school are able to write to students of their own ages in many different lands. This bureau is conducted to aid the foreigners in learning English which is studied almost universally abroad. It also promotes international friendships.

To contact a foreign correspondent a student pays ten cents to certain teachers in the building who are sponsoring these contacts, states his age, the country he prefers, and whether he wishes to write to a boy or a girl.

It is an interesting hobby and many students put in their requests. Some of the countries in which the students are most interested are England, France, Australia, Africa, and Holland.

LINCOLN HI-Y

Wednesday evening, October 21, the Lincoln Hi-Y held its regular meeting at the Y. M. C. A. in the form of a Hallowe'en poverty party. Prizes were awarded to James Frew and Joe Proctor for the best costumes. Following the party the members retired to the pool where several contests were held. There were twenty-nine members and ten candidates present.

After the party the officers and John Thompson, boys' superintendent, met for the purpose of discussing future programs.

NEW MEMBERS ELECTED

At the meeting of the Senatus Romanus held Friday, October 9, the following were elected as conscripti members: Guy Lateana, Marjorie Vaughn and Mary Louise Kirkpatrick. Initiation of new members was carried on under the supervision of Jean Tinsley.

The new members were presented with purple and white ribbons which they are required to wear for two weeks. The chairman of the social committee reported that a wiener roast had been planned for Wednesday evening at Gaston Park. The meeting was closed with a discussion of parliamentary law given by Donald Lusk.

SEWING PROJECT COMPLETED

In the Home Economics department, the first unit on hand sewing has been completed. Those taking prizes for outstanding work in this field were Berenice Hammond and Bettie Farmer.

The department has also finished its work on nutrition and has started its study of child care.

LEADERS' CLUB FORMED

Wednesday morning the newly organized Leaders' Club met in the auditorium under the supervision of Marjorie Rhodes for the purpose of discussing the type of club meetings desired. It was decided to alternate, one meeting to have panel discussions and the next to divide the club into interest groups due to the size of the club. The club will meet once a week.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

On Monday evening, the Girl Reserves met in the Y. W. C. A., President Miriam Clinefelter presided at the meeting. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Leah Davis and devotions were read by Pauline Lynch. Sara Jane Cleland made an anouncement about the next meeting which will be a Hallowe'en meeting.

Various interest groups were formed including dramatics, chorus, crafts, knitting, bowling and basketball.

FRENCH CLUB MEETS

Tuesday morning, a meeting of the French club was held in room 118. The hour was spent socially with singing, games and French conversation as the main diversions. The meeting was supervised by Miss Kelley and June Travers, the program chairman.

WIENER ROAST FOR SENATUS

Wednesday, October 14, Senatus Romanus members attended a wiener roast held at Gaston Park. A blazing fire was soon started and the smell of wood smoke gave an added zest to appetites, already sufficiently whetted. An ample supply of refreshments was provided by the social committee under the direction of Loraine Hook. Later, the members gathered about the fire, spending an enjoyable evening, popping corn and singing songs.

STUDENTS IN CONVENTION PROGRAM

Tonight and Saturday, the western section of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association will conduct its fourth annual convention in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Professor Joseph Replogle, musical director of the high school, announces the following program:

Friday afternoon and evening, there will be a chorus of 265 members, eight of these are from the Ne-Ca-Hi chorus.

Saturday morning, our school will be represented on the program by a string quartet of: first violin, Vance Dufford; second violin, Robert Reese; viola, Martha Black; and cello, Jess Badger; and a baritone solo by Charles Coulter, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Louise Kirkpatrick.

The chorus will sing ten numbers under the direction of ten different conductors. The string quartet will render the "Minuet" from Hayden and "Andante" from Dittersdorf.

Nearly All Pitt Engineering Grads Placed On Jobs

(Special To The News)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Placement of graduates of the University of Pittsburgh schools of engineering and mines this year has almost reached the 100 per cent mark, Dean E. A. Holbrook announces. Of the 117 students graduated in engineering and mines in June, 113 have been placed in positions, a percentage of 96.

Petroleum engineering graduates are placed as far away as South America, Dean Holbrook states; while most of the graduates of the school of mines are located in Pennsylvania, and the metallurgical graduates are located, for the most part, in the Pittsburgh district, steel and iron center.

Would Teach Boys Boxing

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Leather-pushing as an indirect means to salvation for boys who otherwise would develop into street corner bullies was advocated today by George E. Denniston of the Catholic Youth association of New York Catholic Charities.

Replying to criticism of the association's boxing activity, Denniston said it was the only agency found universally to attract the energetic type of boy who "easily becomes the corner bully or the reckless leader."

PAINT KILLS SIX COWS IN PASTURE

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23. — The careless throwing of a pail of white lead into a pasture cost a farmer at Mt. Holly Springs, Cumberland county, six cows out of a herd of seven.

Suspecting a poisonous plant the farmer summoned Dr. E. M. Gress, botanist for the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, to locate the source of the poison. Doctor Gress traced the poison to the paint pail.

SEES MORE INTEREST IN HOME ECONOMICS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23—Evidence of the growing interest in Home Economics education in Pennsylvania according to Superintendent Lester K. Ade, of the Department of Public Instruction, is seen in the increased number of colleges and universities offering professional preparation for teachers in this special field.

Seventeen colleges in the commonwealth now sponsor courses for Home Economics teachers. Eight of these have been approved for Home Economics education on a general basis.

County's First Bird Show Open

Many Interesting Displays In Show At Orr's Hall, Grove St.

OPEN THROUGH SATURDAY ALSO

When we have, we do not appreciate till it is gone. This is speaking of our disappearing bird life.

Through the Conservation committee of the Lawrence County Garden club, which is staging Lawrence county's first bird show, today and Saturday, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., nature lovers of this community have a wonderful opportunity to see clever displays of insect and song birds of this locality, arranged most realistically in Orr's hall, Grove street.

One of the highlights of the show is an exhibition of the "Men's Garden club", in the northeast corner of the room. The display represents a typical country fence corner, arranged in such a manner to produce an almost natural sanctuary for birds. It is the usual cover for winter birds. In it are cedar wax wing, wood duck, Hungarian quail, female pheasant and ruffed grouse. These stuffed birds have been loaned by Frank Coen, game warden.

Along the east side of the room are displays by Conservation department of the Women's club showing "Local Bird Sanctuaries", how birds are sheltered and protected in this country; East Side Garden club has contributed a clever arrangement showing a means of protecting birds by means of belling a cat. "Window Feeding Stations" is the title of the display by the Lawrence county club. In the southeast corner, the Mahoningtown club shows the necessity of and proper placing of bird baths. Through their exhibition, the East Brook Garden club, in the southern end of the room, demonstrates how to attract birds to our gardens, revealing the various feeding stations, shrubs and other means of attracting birds.

"Bird Hazards," display by the North Beaver club, located in the southwestern corner, is one of the most educational exhibitions in the show. The various birds and animals destructive to our song birds are shown. A witch hazel plant, the first to bloom in the spring and the last to bloom in the fall, is another feature of this presentation. Continuing along the western end of the room, there are a series of exhibitions by Junior North Beaver club, New Bedford club, Mahoning Valley Garden club and New Castle Free Library. Girl Scouts, art students of the Lincoln-Garfield school under the direction of Miss McVay, and Jordan game farm, have contributed their bit to the affair.

The feature display, borrowed from the Carnegie museum of Pittsburgh, through Nicholas Casillo of the Men's Garden club, completes one of the most colorful and educational presentations here in some years. Approximately 100 specimens of practically every bird in this locality have been arranged by Owen Penfield Fox, vice chairman of the Conservation committee.

The committee in charge expects an unusually large crowd to witness the show which is worthwhile from every standpoint. There is no admission charge.

V. F. W. To Sponsor Christmas Toy Shop

NYA Boys Will Aid In Work This Season; Donations Asked

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a toy repair project as has been their custom in past years.

This year they will be assisted in the labor by the boys of the national youth administration.

All who have toys in the home which have been discarded, or are not in use, are urged to make this known at the national youth administration office by calling 4750 or by getting in touch with any member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

All toys will be gathered up as soon as word is received by either of the above mentioned organizations.

Scouts To Vie In Field Meet Here Saturday

Boy Scouts of Lawrence county's troops will compete in their Fall Field meet at the George Washington school athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon, October 24 at 1:30 o'clock.

The competing youths will be tested in nine different events under the watchful eyes of competent judges.

The troops today were hoping for clear skies and dry weather. The public may attend.

Scout Commissioner Ralph F. Davis declared the meet should be "one of the county's best."

Women's Clubs In Food Ingathering

Many Clubs Co-operating In Jameson Memorial Food Donations

Splendid co-operation in the food ingathering for the Jameson Memorial hospital is being shown again this year, according to Mrs. Harold L. Gordon, general chairman of the ingathering.

Practically every church in the county is joining in the work, with the women of the church soliciting the membership. In addition to the church women, the women of many of the civic clubs are interested in the ingathering. Among the clubs that have displayed an interest in it thus far are the Circle of '91, Current Events of '23, Current Events class, Business and Professional Women, The Reading Circle, Current Events of '06, The Women's club and the Minerva club.

Hardware Group In Session Here

Dealers From Four Counties Dine And Marvel At Hypnotist

PROF. FITZGIBBON IS EVENING PERFORMER

Close to 50 hardware store owners from four counties, members of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard Hardware Association, gathered in New Castle last night for one of their periodical group dinner programs.

From Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties the dealers and their guests came for one of their most enjoyable get-togethers. They held their meeting, the greater part of which was given over to entertainment, in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A.

Speeches marked the early part of the evening's program while a demonstration by Prof. Gerald M. P. Fitzgibbon, famed hypnotist, psychologist and lecturer, kept the crowd amazed for the remainder of the time.

Presiding over the group affair was W. Glenn Pearce, Philadelphia, secretary of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard organization, now conducting a series of group conferences throughout his large district. The New Castle meeting was the fourth of a series of 10 meetings.

Mr. Pearce opened the meeting, introduced special guests and then presented Donald Rice, Philadelphia, youthful field worker for the association, who outlined accomplishments and objectives of the organization. He stressed the organization's value to the retail merchant.

Prof. Fitzgibbon was introduced when Mr. Rice finished.

The demonstration of real hypnotism which the audience saw was probably the most successful and most entertaining to be given here. Volunteers drawn from the audience performed under his spell the many things he suggested they do. It was a remarkable exhibition of hypnotic power.

Announcement was made that the seaboard association will hold its annual convention and exhibition in Pittsburgh from February 23 to 26, 1937.

New Castle hardware men who are members of the association acted as hosts last night.

Wasilewski Suit Against County Is Not Yet Settled

The case of J. S. Wasilewski against the County of Lawrence, in which he is sueing to collect a bill for meat furnished the sheriff with which to feed prisoners, came to a sudden ending at court yesterday afternoon, when Judge Chambers granted a motion of County Solicitor, William McElwee Jr., for a nonsuit. The order was made after arguments which lasted about two hours. J. Glenn Berry and J. Norman Martin, representing the sheriff and Wasilewski, immediately made a motion to take off the non-suit. The motion was entertained and there will be further arguments later. There are several acts of the legislature relating to the conduct of the sheriff's office and there is a dispute between the attorneys as to which act governs Lawrence county.

The reason for the importance of Liverpool as a leading wheat market is that Great Britain is one of the principal industrial nations of the world and consequently needs a great supply of wheat to feed her population, her own crop being insufficient.

Identify Skeleton Found Near Mars, Pa.

(International News Service)

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 23.—A skeleton found at Mars near here was identified today as that of Charles Huzele, 70, former inmate of St. John's Lutheran home, who had been missing since September 6.

Coroner M. E. Headland said death was probably due to a heart attack. He indicated no inquest would be held. An inmate of the home for ten years, Huzele had no known relatives.

Squirt Tear Gas Into County Office

Some One Raises Window And Turns Gas Into Room Last Night

Registration Clerk, Thomas Edmunds and two assistants, working over the registration books at the court house, were forced to leave their office about 8 o'clock last night when some one raised a window in the county commissioners front office and squirted tear gas into the room.

The commissioners office and the registration office are separated by a partition. There was nobody in the county commissioners office at the time, but the door between it and the registration office was open, allowing the tear gas fumes to penetrate to the latter.

Eyes of Registration Clerk Edmunds and his assistants were still red and smarting this morning from the effects of the gas. It was still so strong in the county commissioners office this morning that they could not occupy it during the forenoon.

A communist meeting had been scheduled for the court house last night, but the commissioners rescinded the order and the court rooms were locked. About two dozen persons gathered ostensibly to attend the scheduled meeting, but they dispersed when it was learned that it was not to be held. There was no disorder.

First Story Hour Conducted Thursday At Public Library

The story hour season was reopened Thursday at the free public library and a crowd of 118 boys and girls was there to hear Miss Alice Joyce, the children's librarian, tell all about "The Forest Bride" and "Tom Tiptop." One of the little boys was so excited at the close that he forgot his coat. It is still at the library.

Next Thursday at 4 p. m., Miss Joyce will tell Hallowe'en stories.

County's First Bird Show Open

Many Interesting Displays In Show At Orr's Hall, Grove St.

OPEN THROUGH SATURDAY ALSO

When we have, we do not appreciate till it is gone. This is speaking of our disappearing bird life.

Through the Conservation committee of the Lawrence County Garden club, which is staging Lawrence county's first bird show, today and Sautrday, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., nature lovers of this community have a wonderful opportunity to see clever displays of insect and song birds of this locality, arranged most realistically in Orr's hall, Grove street.

One of the highlights of the show is an exhibition of the "Men's Garden club", in the northeast corner of the room. The display represents a typical country fence corner, arranged in such a manner to produce an almost natural sanctuary for birds. It is the usual cover for winter birds. In it are cedar wax wing, wood duck, Hungarian quail, female pheasant and ruffed grouse. These stuffed birds have been loaned by Frank Coen, game warden.

Along the east side of the room are displays by Conservation department of the Women's club showing "Local Bird Sanctuaries", how birds are sheltered and protected in this country; East Side Garden club has contributed a clever arrangement showing a means of protecting birds by means of belling a cat. "Window Feeding Stations" is the title of the display by the Lawrence county club. In the southeast corner, the Mahoningtown club shows the necessity of and proper placing of bird baths. Through their exhibition, the East Brook Garden club, in the southern end of the room, demonstrates how to attract birds to our gardens, revealing the various feeding stations, shrubs and other means of attracting birds.

"Bird Hazards," display by the North Beaver club, located in the southwestern corner, is one of the most educational exhibitions in the show. The various birds and animals destructive to our song birds are shown. A witch hazel plant, the first to bloom in the spring and the last to bloom in the fall, is another feature of this presentation. Continuing along the western end of the room, there are a series of exhibitions by Junior North Beaver club, New Bedford club, Mahoning Valley Garden club and New Castle Free Library. Girl Scouts, art students of the Lincoln-Garfield school under the direction of Miss McVay, and Jordan game farm, have contributed their bit to the affair.

The feature display, borrowed from the Carnegie museum of Pittsburgh, through Nicholas Casillo of the Men's Garden club, completes one of the most colorful and educational presentations here in some years. Approximately 100 specimens of practically every bird in this locality have been arranged by Owen Penfield Fox, vice chairman of the Conservation committee.

The committee in charge expects an unusually large crowd to witness the show which is worthwhile from every standpoint. There is no admission charge.

V. F. W. To Sponsor Christmas Toy Shop

NYA Boys Will Aid In Work This Season; Donations Asked

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a toy repair project as has been their custom in past years.

This year they will be assisted in the labor by the boys of the national youth administration.

All who have toys in the home which have been discarded, or are not in use, are urged to make this known at the national youth administration office by calling 4750 or by getting in touch with any member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

All toys will be gathered up as soon as word is received by either of the above mentioned organizations.

Scouts To Vie In Field Meet Here Saturday

Boy Scouts of Lawrence county's troops will compete in their Fall Field meet at the George Washington school athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon, October 24 at 1:30 o'clock.

The competing youths will be tested in nine different events under the watchful eyes of competent judges.

The troops today were hoping for clear skies and dry weather. The public may attend.

Scout Commissioner Ralph F. Davis declared the meet should be "one of the county's best."

Women's Clubs In Food Ingathering

Many Clubs Co-operating In Jameson Memorial Food Donations

Splendid co-operation in the food ingathering for the Jameson Memorial hospital is being shown again this year, according to Mrs. Harold L. Gordon, general chairman of the ingathering.

Practically every church in the county is joining in the work, with the women of the church soliciting the membership. In addition to the church women, the women of many of the civic clubs are interested in the ingathering. Among the clubs that have displayed an interest in it thus far are the Circle of '91, Current Events of '23, Current Events class, Business and Professional Women, The Reading Circle, Current Events of '06, The Women's club and the Minerva club.

Hardware Group In Session Here

Dealers From Four Counties Dine And Marvel At Hypnotist

PROF. FITZGIBBON IS EVENING PERFORMER

Close to 50 hardware store owners from four counties, members of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard Hardware Association, gathered in New Castle last night for one of their periodical group dinner programs.

From Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties the dealers and their guests came for one of their most enjoyable get-togethers. They held their meeting, the greater part of which was given over to entertainment, in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A.

Speeches marked the early part of the evening's program while a demonstration by Prof. Gerald M. P. Fitzgibbon, famed hypnotist, psychologist and lecturer, kept the crowd amazed for the remainder of the time.

Presiding over the group affair was W. Glenn Pearce, Philadelphia, secretary of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Seaboard organization, now conducting a series of group conferences throughout his large district. The New Castle meeting was the fourth of a series of 10 meetings.

Mr. Pearce opened the meeting, introduced special guests and then presented Donald Rice, Philadelphia, youthful field worker for the association, who outlined accomplishments and objectives of the organization. He stressed the organization's value to the retail merchant.

Prof. Fitzgibbon was introduced when Mr. Rice finished.

The demonstration of real hypnotism which the audience saw was probably the most successful and most entertaining to be given here. Volunteers drawn from the audience performed under his spell the many things he suggested they do. It was a remarkable exhibition of hypnotic power.

Announcement was made that the seaboard association will hold its annual convention and exhibition in Pittsburgh from February 23 to 26, 1937.

New Castle hardware men who are members of the association acted as hosts last night.

Wasilewski Suit Against County Is Not Yet Settled

The case of J. S. Wasilewski against the County of Lawrence, in which he is sueing to collect a bill for meat furnished the sheriff with which to feed prisoners, came to a sudden ending at court yesterday afternoon, when Judge Chambers granted a motion of County Solicitor, William McElwee Jr., for a nonsuit. The order was made after arguments which lasted about two hours. J. Glenn Berry and J. Norman Martin, representing the sheriff and Wasilewski, immediately made a motion to take off the non-suit. The motion was entertained and there will be further arguments later. There are several acts of the legislature relating to the conduct of the sheriff's office and there is a dispute between the attorneys as to which act governs Lawrence county.

Identify Skeleton Found Near Mars, Pa.

(International News Service)

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 23.—A skeleton found at Mars near here was identified today as that of Charles Huzele, 79, former inmate of St. John's Lutheran home, who had been missing since September 6.

Coroner M. E. Headland said death was probably due to a heart attack. He indicated no inquest would be held. An inmate of the home for ten years, Huzele had no known relatives.

Squirt Tear Gas Into County Office

Some One Raises Window And Turns Gas Into Room Last Night

Registration Clerk, Thomas Edmunds and two assistants, working over the registration books at the court house, were forced to leave their office about 8 o'clock last night when some one raised a window in the county commissioners front office and squirted tear gas into the room.

The commissioners office and the registration office are separated by a partition. There was nobody in the county commissioners office at the time, but the door between it and the registration office was open, allowing the tear gas fumes to penetrate to the latter.

Eyes of Registration Clerk Edmunds and his assistants were still red and smarting this morning from the effects of the gas. It was still so strong in the county commissioners office this morning that they could not occupy it during the forenoon.

A communist meeting had been scheduled for the court house last night, but the commissioners rescinded the order and the court rooms were locked. About two dozen persons gathered ostensibly to attend the scheduled meeting, but they dispersed when it was learned that it was not to be held. There was no disorder.

First Story Hour Conducted Thursday At Public Library

The story hour season was reopened Thursday at the free public library and a crowd of 118 boys and girls was there to hear Miss Alice Joyce, the children's librarian, tell all about "The Forest Bride" and "Tom Tiptop." One of the little boys was so excited at the close that he forgot his coat. It is still at the library.

Next Thursday at 4 p. m., Miss Joyce will tell Hallowe'en stories.

Negro Youth Gets $500 For Heroic Rescue

Rescues Son Of Late Governor Of North Carolina From Death In Grease Pit

DEBT OF RACE IS REPAID IN HEROISM

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—In Washington, D. C., there stands today the statue of the late Governor Charles B. Aycock of North Carolina. For his achievements in establishing public schools for the colored youth of his state he has been chosen to represent North Carolina in the congressional hall of fame.

To the accomplishments of his term, 1900 to 1904, the colored people of the Tarheel State owe a great deal.

Last night when Kate Smith presented a scroll for heroism and a check for $500 to Harry Earl, 31, a Negro auto mechanic at a Greensboro, N. C., service station, that debt to Governor Aycock was in good part paid.

Saves Man's Life

For, because Harry Earl thought fast and moved fast, Frank Aycock, son of the late governor, is alive today.

Aycock, an attendant at the Firestone Auto Supply and Service Station, was assisting John Diamond weld an iron beam cross the double greasing pit at the service station on the morning of August 20 last. Suddenly the acetylene torch's blaze ignited a drum of alcohol nearby and the greasing pit burst into a searing blue flame.

Man Trapped

Aycock, standing in the bottom of the pit, was trapped, his clothing ablaze. Diamond, standing on a beam, leaped to safety.

Forty yards away Harry Earl had just finished checking the air in the tires of a car. Turning to put up the air hose he heard the explosion and at first thought a tire had exploded.

Turning around he saw the blaze in the greasing pit. Aycock, blinded by the flames, could not find his way to the steps and was screaming for aid.

Makes Rescue

Instinctively, Earl snatched up the canvas seat cover with which auto mechanics work and dashed to the blazing pit. Holding the seat cover before his face he crackled down and seized Aycock's outstretched hand. A mighty pull and Aycock was out of the pit. Earl blanketed the governor's son in the seat cover and stamped out the blaze in his greasy overalls.

From his hospital bed, where he is recovering from severe burns on his face and both arms and legs, Frank Aycock simply said, "I owe Harry Earl my life."

Good Level Head

"It was a mighty brave thing to do," commented Brown Patterson, manager of the station. "When Harry snatched up that seat cover he was showing a good level head."

A good level head, he might have added, because of the schooling colored boys now obtain in the public schools of North Carolina thanks to the late Governor Aycock.

Earl, accompanied by Major Edney Ridge, of Station WBIG, Greensboro, saw the inside of a Pullman dining car yesterday for the first time while enroute here. He had never been further north than Greensboro before in his life.

After appearing at Kate Smith's "command performance" on the Columbia broadcasting system's national network last night he plans to return, put the prize money in savings and go back to work.

"But first I want to see Jack Dempsey," he said.

MANY BUS CRASHES OCCUR LAST MONTH

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Four persons were killed and 57 injured in the 251 bus accidents reported to the accident division of the Public Service Commission last month. Total bus accidents reported showed an increase of 42 over similar accidents reported in September, 1935. The property damage resulting from last month's accidents totaled $5031.

Taxicab operators reported 50 accidents last month or 119 less than in the same month last year. No fatalities were reported. The injured numbered 15 and the property damage amounted to $855.

Truckers under the commission's jurisdiction reported being involved in 175 accidents in September, or 10 less than were reported in September, 1935. Three persons were killed and 10 others injured in last month's accidents. The property damage reported amounted to $6561.

OHIO TOWN IS IN THREE COUNTIES

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 23—The town of Loveland, northeast of here on the Little Miami river, is the only town that is in three counties, according to Elder R. Herring, author of a history of Loveland now running in the Loveland Herald.

Herring says that several towns are in two counties, but that Loveland is the only one in the county whose corporate lines include three. The counties are Hamilton, Clermont and Warren.

Copyright, 1936, General Press Association

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The doctor said, rest. Take a day off. Forget about the column, about the stories you promised for the Sunday sections, about that fiction after midnight, about the personal problems. Let your mind go blank. That ought not to be hard—judging from some of the stuff I've read (said the doctor). Just loaf and wander; break all appointments. Coast.

That's the way doctors talk. A man can pull down a couple of little shades in his head and shut out thought, even the automatic, surface cerebrations of a New York chatterist. That's what doctors tell you; and they are the same doctors who, very likely, will go to pieces suddenly at fifty because they hear bells ringing and are being followed about by a little green man with big ears.

Still, it was an experience to try the impossible, "I'll go blank," I said. After an appropriate pause I had the uneasy feeling that, while pleasantly blank, I wasn't much different upstairs from usual.

But it was best to get away from the sight of typewriters. Typewriters had been the straw, as it were, that crushed the camel's back—for with three of them in the house I had suddenly discovered that not one was in working order and there had followed a wild morning carrying a 75-pound noiseless up Park Avenue to swap it for a mill in working order, only to find the firm in uproar over a shipment of 100 machines to Bombay and too upset to worry over one humble scrivener's dilemma.

So I got away from typewriters altogether. I strolled out in Stuyvesant Park, among the strange fences and concrete mixers and modernistic rest rooms of a frantic WPA summer. The leaves were falling and I sat down on a bench.

What did I think about? In that dutifully blank state on a fine fall morning with only a little soot in the air—say a concentration of 1 to 1,000, which is bracing for this town—what did I moon about? About the item that had just come to my desk and would make a nice paragraph—the one dealing with "Kated, Incorporated," which is the name of Kate Smith's firm and has a payroll of 55 persons just to answer fan mail, attend to theatrical and radio bookings, charities and the "Celtics," a professional basketball team Kate bought during an attack of whimsy—did I think of that, through habit?

I did not. Instead I wondered how the several well-dressed persons who sat around me with a placid, proprietary air—the men of veteran park-bench sitters—earned a living. And I wondered how all the thousands and thousands of men who are to be found in morning movies all over town earn a living. Are they night watchmen? Are they all chatter-writers taking a day off?

Then I got interested in the old gentleman who was carefully wrapping up his shiny patent-leather shoes in old newspapers. When he got them all wrapped nicely he unwrapped them again. A lady in a lace shawl, with jabots and patrician features passed me twice, strolling. Suddenly she paused looked me straight in the eye and said, "It all happened after the fire."

So I moved out of the park. It was high time, if people got like that from staying there; my resistance was too low.

Union Square was no better. I listened awhile to an orator. He was praising Russia, as usual, in a heavy accent. "What America needs—" he was saying, and conveyed immediately that he had never been very far west of the Hudson and that he was talking as one who had never seen America to those who would probably never go there. Who had hurt him long ago, I wondered; and caught a subway uptown.

The peanuts vended by the handful from subway machines are the best peanuts in the world, small and crisp and tangy. So many of the delights of New York are skipped, I thought, by the commentators. Take subway peanuts.

I emerged at 59th St. and walked to East 67th and the Park, where I used to live. On the way a young man stopped me and I unloosed a quarter because I was so startled by his plea: "I need a haircut," he cried. Then I wandered a few more blocks and even thought of dropping into the Planetarium, when it began to rain gently. So I took a bus for the homeward trek, with the faint suspicion that I had been working at a column for the last two hours.

WAR ON AGAINST STRAY DOG MENACE

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Pennsylvania is slowly reducing to a minimum the menace to life and property of the stray, ownerless dog, J. Hansell French, secretary of agriculture, reports.

Last month local police officers destroyed 2,160 uncontrolled dogs. For this service to their communities these officers were paid a total of $2,150 by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Although more than 2,000 dogs each month are found running at large without licenses, the department still receives many claims for damages to livestock and poultry by dogs. Last month 216 such claims were investigated by the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement. Claims totaling $3,782.85 were paid in September.

LATEST WONDERS IN FIELD OF PHYSICS

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 23.—A score of papers dealing with the latest developments in the field of physics was delivered to more than 100 teachers and students of that subject at the fall meeting of the Pennsylvania conference of college physics teachers.

Dr. Saul Dushman, assistant director of the General Electric company research laboratory, gave the principal address.

NEW YORK INSPECTS ALL FOREIGN BUSES

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Pennsylvania buses entering the state of New York must carry an approved inspection sticker affixed by New York authorities, Secretary of Revenue John B. Kelly said today.

The New York state law requires that omnibuses carrying seven or more passengers for hire cannot enter that state unless such buses are first inspected by the Transit Commission or the Public Service Commission of New York. If the vehicle passes the inspection, an approval sticker is affixed.

No charge is made for the inspection or sticker but unless the vehicle carries such a sticker, the driver is liable to arrest. When this occurs it results in delay and inconvenience for the passengers while the bus is taken to the local precinct office.

SISTERS HOLD SECRET OF "KUTCHEN" CAKES

(International News Service)

LATROBE, Pa., Oct. 23—The recipe for "kutchen", little German cakes which Father Coughlin, Detroit radio priest, ate as guest of St. Vincent college, has been a secret with the sisters there for 103 years.

The recipe for the cakes was brought here by the sisters from Bavaria, when they settled at Latrobe seminary. They are baked by old fashioned methods with unbleached flour, on a stone hearth.

Questioned as to the ingredients in the tasty cakes, the Sister Superior said:

"I'll give you some cakes, but I won't give you the recipe."

Negro Youth Gets $500 For Heroic Rescue

Rescues Son Of Late Governor Of North Carolina From Death In Grease Pit

DEBT OF RACE IS REPAID IN HEROISM

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—In Washington, D. C., there stands today the statue of the late Governor Charles B. Aycock of North Carolina. For his achievements in establishing public schools for the colored youth of his state he has been chosen to represent North Carolina in the congressional hall of fame.

To the accomplishments of his term, 1900 to 1904, the colored people of the Tarheel State owe a great deal.

Last night when Kate Smith presented a scroll for heroism and a check for $500 to Harry Earl, 31, a Negro auto mechanic at a Greensboro, N. C., service station, that debt to Governor Aycock was in good part paid.

Saves Man's Life

For, because Harry Earl thought fast and moved fast, Frank Aycock, son of the late governor, is alive today.

Aycock, an attendant at the Firestone Auto Supply and Service Station, was assisting John Diamond weld an iron beam cross the double greasing pit at the service station on the morning of August 20 last. Suddenly the acetylene torch's blaze ignited a drum of alcohol nearby and the greasing pit burst into a searing blue flame.

Man Trapped

Aycock, standing in the bottom of the pit, was trapped, his clothing ablaze. Diamond, standing on a beam, leaped to safety.

Forty yards away Harry Earl had just finished checking the air in the tires of a car. Turning to put up the air hose he heard the explosion and at first thought a tire had exploded.

Turning around he saw the blaze in the greasing pit. Aycock, blinded by the flames, could not find his way to the steps and was screaming for aid.

Makes Rescue

Instinctively, Earl snatched up the canvas seat cover with which auto mechanics work and dashed to the blazing pit. Holding the seat cover before his face he reached down and seized Aycock's upstretched hand. A mighty pull and Aycock was out of the pit. Earl blanketed the governor's son in the seat cover and stamped out the blaze in his greasy overalls.

From his hospital bed, where he is recovering from severe burns on his face and both arms and legs, Frank Aycock simply said, "I owe Harry Earl my life."

Good Level Head

"It was a mighty brave thing to do," commented Brown Patterson, manager of the station. "When Harry snatched up that seat cover he was showing a good level head."

A good level head, he might have added, because of the schooling colored boys now obtain in the public schools of North Carolina thanks to the late Governor Aycock.

Earl, accompanied by Major Edney Ridge, of Station WBIG, Greensboro, saw the inside of a Pullman dining car yesterday for the first time while enroute here. He had never been further north than Greensboro before in his life.

After appearing at Kate Smith's "command performance" on the Columbia broadcasting system's national network last night he plans to return, put the prize money in savings and go back to work.

"But first I want to see Jack Dempsey," he said.

MANY BUS CRASHES OCCUR LAST MONTH

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Four persons were killed and 57 injured in the 251 bus accidents reported to the accident division of the Public Service Commission last month. Total bus accidents reported showed an increase of 42 over similar accidents reported in September, 1935. The property damage resulting from last month's accidents totaled $5031.

Taxicab operators reported 50 accidents last month or 119 less than in the same month last year. No fatalities were reported. The injured numbered 15 and the property damage amounted to $855.

Truckers under the commission's jurisdiction reported being involved in 175 accidents in September, or 10 less than were reported in September, 1935. Three persons were killed and 10 others injured in last month's accidents. The property damage reported amounted to $6561.

OHIO TOWN IS IN THREE COUNTIES

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 23—The town of Loveland, northeast of here on the Little Miami river, is the only town that is in three counties, according to Elder R. Herring, author of a history of Loveland now running in the Loveland Herald.

Herring says that several towns are in two counties, but that Loveland is the only one in the county whose corporate lines include three. The counties are Hamilton, Clermont and Warren.

My New York By James Aswell

Copyright, 1936, Central Press Association

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The doctor said, rest. Take a day off. Forget about the column, about the stories you promised for the Sunday sections, about that fiction after midnight, about the personal problems. Let your mind go blank. That ought not to be hard—judging from some of the stuff I've read (said the doctor). Just loaf and wander; break all appointments. Coast.

That's the way doctors talk. A man can pull down a couple of little shades in his head and shut out thought, even the automatic, surface cerebrations of a New York chatterist. That's what doctors tell you; and they are the same doctors who, very likely, will go to pieces suddenly at fifty because they hear bells ringing and are being followed about by a little green man with big ears.

Still, it was an experience to try the impossible. "I'll go blank," I said. After an appropriate pause I had the uneasy feeling that, while pleasantly blank, I wasn't much different upstairs from usual.

But it was best to get away from the sight of typewriters. Typewriters had been the straw, as it were, that crushed the camel's back—for with three of them in the house I had suddenly discovered that not one was in working order and there had followed a wild morning carrying a 75-pound noiseless up Park Avenue to swap it for a mill in working order, only to find the firm in uproar over a shipment of 100 machines to Bombay and too upset to worry over one humble scrivener's dilemma.

So I got away from typewriters altogether. I strolled out in Stuyvesant Park, among the strange fences and concrete mixers and modernistic rest rooms of a frantic WPA summer. The leaves were falling and I sat down on a bench.

What did I think about? In that dutifully blank state on a fine fall morning with only a little soot in the air—say a concentration of 1 to 1,000, which is bracing for this town—what did I moon about? About the item that had just come to my desk and would make a nice paragraph—the one dealing with "Kated, Incorporated," which is the name of Kate Smith's firm and has a payroll of 55 persons just to answer fan mail, attend to theatrical and radio bookings, charities and the "Celtics," a professional basketball team Kate bought during an attack of whimsy—did I think of that, through habit?

I did not. Instead I wondered how the several well-dressed persons who sat around me with a placid, proprietary air—the mien of veteran park-bench sitters—earned a living. And I wondered how all the thousands and thousands of men who are to be found in morning movies all over town earn a living. Are they night watchmen? Are they all chatter-writers taking a day off?

Then I got interested in the old gentleman who was carefully wrapping up his shiny patent-leather shoes in old newspapers. When he got them all wrapped nicely he unwrapped them again. A lady in a lace shawl, with jabots and patrician features passed me twice, strolling. Suddenly she paused looked me straight in the eye and said, "It all happened after the fire."

So I moved out of the park. It was high time, if people got like that from staying there; my resistance was too low.

Union Square was no better. I listened awhile to an orator. He was praising Russia, as usual, in a heavy accent. "What America needs—" he was saying, and conveyed immediately that he had never been very far west of the Hudson and that he was talking as one who had never seen America to those who would probably never go there. Who had hurt him long ago, I wondered; and caught a subway uptown.

The peanuts vended by the handful from subway machines are the best peanuts in the world, small and crisp and tangy. So many of the delights of New York are skipped, I thought, by the commentators. Take subway peanuts.

I emerged at 50th St. and walked to East 67th and the Park, where I used to live. On the way a young man stopped me and I unloosed a quarter because I was so startled by his plea: "I need a haircut," he cried. Then I wandered a few more blocks and even thought of dropping into the Planetarium, when it began to rain gently. So I took a bus for the homeward trek, with the faint suspicion that I had been working at a column for the last two hours.

WAR ON AGAINST STRAY DOG MENACE

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Pennsylvania is slowly reducing to a minimum the menace to life and property of the stray, ownerless dog, J. Hansell French, secretary of agriculture, reports.

Last month local police officers destroyed 2,160 uncontrolled dogs. For this service to their communities these officers were paid a total of $2,160 by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Although more than 2,000 dogs each month are found running at large without licenses, the department still receives many claims for damages to livestock and poultry by dogs. Last month 216 such claims were investigated by the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement. Claims totaling $3,82.85 were paid in September.

State Issues Fall Warning Against Fires

Blazes In Forests Of State Should Be Guarded Against This Month

FIRE TOWERMEN BEING RECALLED

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—The menace of falling leaves in the state forests prompted the Department of Forests and Waters bureau of forest protection to issue its annual fall fire warning today, urging visitors to state forest parks to take extra precautions against fire.

The first threat of fall fire normally begins early in October in the northern tier counties of Pennsylvania, but in a few weeks the situation becomes general throughout the state from falling leaves. The menace to the timberland, resulting from a dry forest floor, remains until the snow begins to fall.

Towermen have been recalled to duty in most of the fire districts, and the remainder will be recalled as they are needed. There are 144 fire towers in Pennsylvania, which are fully manned during each spring and fall season.

Chief of the Bureau of Protection, George H. Wirt, said today that the state's fire-fighting equipment was in excellent condition, and that 4000 fire wardens throughout Pennsylvania were organized to check the "red enemy."

The current year has been the most successful in the protection of the state forests from fire ever experienced by the Department of Forests and Waters. The spring season was considered the least damaging in the history of the department, and the number of fires reported during the summer was negligible.

The recent "ground rain" which was fairly general throughout Pennsylvania has delayed the approaching fire season slightly, but unless there is additional precipitation during the weeks to come the fire threat to the state's timber during October and November will be present.

St. Louis Police Interrupt Honeymooning At 1:30 A. M. In Hotel Room

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—Albert Dubach, 22, of Chicago, and his pretty, 17-year-old bride, the former Isabelle Basile, high school senior of Cleveland, Ohio, resumed their honeymoon after an interruption by police.

While the couple were being married at Venice, Ill., last night, police here received a telegram from Cleveland authorities stating the young bride's parents had reported her as a runaway.

At 1:30 a. m. Thursday detectives knocked on the hotel room door of the newlyweds and took Mrs. Dubach to the matron's room at police headquarters.

Several hours later, Cleveland police wired that the young bride's parents had relented and were "satisfied with the marriage of our daughter." Mrs. Dubach was allowed to rejoin her husband.

ON DISPLAY at all Buick Showrooms

FOUR WONDROUS NEW REASONS WHY:

"It's Buick again!"

SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year.

Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision.

Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars into next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence?

We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!"

That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent retooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more.

That's why every car in the 1937 Buick line—the SPECIAL, the CENTURY, the ROADMASTER and the LIMITED—has more beauty for dazzling style, more power for breath-taking action, more room for full-family comfort, more downright "road-command" for safety and pleasure. See them.

YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES! $765 and up f.o.b. at Flint, Mich.

You can afford the new Buick. It's easy to buy and thrifty to own. With all its quality, its phenomenal performance and stunning style, prices start as low as . . . General Motors terms to suit your taking. Safety glass included, accessories extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—Albert Dubach, 22, of Chicago, and his pretty 17-year-old bride, the former Isabelle Basile, high school senior of Cleveland, Ohio, resumed their honeymoon after an interruption by police.

While the couple were being married at Venice, Ill., last night, police here received a telegram from Cleveland authorities stating the young bride's parents had reported her as a runaway.

At 1:30 a. m. Thursday detectives knocked on the hotel room door of the newlyweds and took Mrs. Dubach to the matron's room at police headquarters.

Several hours later, Cleveland police wired that the young bride's parents had relented and were "satisfied with the marriage of our daughter." Mrs. Dubach was allowed to rejoin her husband.

ON DISPLAY at all Buick Showrooms

FOUR WONDROUS NEW REASONS WHY:

"It's Buick again!"

SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year.

Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision.

Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars into next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence?

We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!"

That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent retooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more.

That's why every car in the 1937 Buick line—the SPECIAL, the CENTURY, the ROADMASTER and the LIMITED—has more beauty for dazzling style, more power for breath-taking action, more room for full-family comfort, more downright "road-command" for safety and pleasure. See them.

YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES! $765 and up list at Flint, Mich.

You can afford the new Buick. It's easy to buy and thrifty to own. With all its quality, its phenomenal performance and stunning style, prices start as low as . . . General Motors terms to suit your liking. Safety glass included, accessories extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

M. E. Choir Have Novel Masquerade

West Madison Avenue Home Is Scene Of "Newspaper Masquerade"

Upon arriving at the home of Myrtle Conn, West Madison avenue, Thursday evening, members of the senior choir of the Mahoning M. E. church, were presented at the door with newspapers, with which they were ordered to make their costume for the masquerade. In short time the guests had changed to Napoleon Bonaparts, beautiful Spanish ladies, clowns, witches and various other characters from fiction.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. C. A. DeRemer and Miss Pearl Dunham in the newspaper contests and games that followed. Refreshments were served later in the evening by hostess assisted by her mother Mrs. J. M. Conn. The house was attractively decorated in Hallowe'en suggestions. John Kyle was a special guest of the evening.

The entertainment committee in charge included: Myrtle Conn, Mrs. M. R. Olmstead, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Leighty, Mrs. C. H. Hagadorn and Mrs. Clark Godwin.

AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY

Members of the Grand International Auxiliary to the B. of L. E. held their regular business meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Legion Hall on North Jefferson street.

Plans were made to attend the Union meeting that will be held on November 10 at Carnegie. The next regular meeting will be on Thursday, November 12.

CLASS TO MEET SATURDAY

The gym class, under the direction of Albert Russo, which was to have met this evening at the Mahoning school, will meet Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Afternoon Tea For Presbyterian Women

Six women from the Mahoning Presbyterian church were cohostesses to all the ladies of the church Thursday afternoon at a beautifully appointed tea. The occasion was in the form of a good fellowship affair, featuring an entertaining program composed of musical numbers.

The assembly was divided into groups, according to the month when their birthdays fall due, and each was responsible for a contribution to the program.

At tea time, the guests filed past a table beautifully decorated with a rainbow floral centerpiece, set off with candle lighting effects, where a dainty menu was served.

The hostesses included Mrs. F. W. Wallace, Mrs. F. W. Guy, Mrs. David Bender, Mrs. W. F. McClurg, Mrs. Gertrude Marshall and Mrs. E. W. Smith.

Five From Here Go To Pittsburgh

District Meeting Of O. R. C. Auxiliaries Is Conducted On Thursday

Mrs. M. R. Olmstead, Mrs. W. T. Saul, Mrs. J. M. Frew, Mrs. P. E. Flowers and Mrs. W. P. McGrath represented the local ladies auxiliary to the Order of Railroad Conductors on Thursday at a district meeting conducted in the Century building at Pittsburgh.

Visiting members were there also from Connellsville, Carnegie and Brownsville. The grand president, Mrs. Agnes M. Whelan from Columbus, O., was the presiding officer.

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock. Luncheon was served at noon in the Roosevelt hotel and a class of candidates was initiated during the afternoon.

Hallowe'en Party Enjoyed By Class

Methodist Church Class Meet At Local Residence For Party

Clowns, beautiful ladies, witches and ghosts gathered together on Thursday evening at the home of Ruth Craven, Eighth street, as she entertained members of the Miriam class of the Mahoning M. E. church at a masquerade party.

A short business session filled the earlier hours, over which the vice president, Dorothy Gillespie, presided. Reports were heard from the secretary and treasurer. In the game contests that followed, prizes were awarded Ella Jean Wilson, Edith Goodhart and the special guest, Mary Louise Jolley.

Later in the evening a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, aided by co-hostess Myrtle Rohrer.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

M. E. Choir Have Novel Masquerade

West Madison Avenue Home Is Scene Of "Newspaper Masquerade"

Upon arriving at the home of Myrtle Conn, West Madison avenue, Thursday evening, members of the senior choir of the Mahoning M. E. church, were presented at the door with newspapers, with which they were ordered to make their costume for the masquerade. In short time the guests had changed to Napoleon Bonaparts, beautiful Spanish ladies, clowns, witches and various other characters from fiction.

Prizes were awarded. Mrs. C. A. DeRemer and Miss Pearl Dunham in the newspaper contests and games that followed. Refreshments were served later in the evening by hostess assisted by her mother Mrs. J. M. Conn. The house was attractively decorated in Hallowe'en suggestions. John Kyle was a special guest of the evening.

The entertainment committee in charge included: Myrtle Conn, Mrs. M. R. Oldmstead, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Leighty, Mrs. C. H. Hagadorn and Mrs. Clark Godwin.

AUXILIARY MEETS THURSDAY

Members of the Grand International Auxiliary to the B. of L. E. held their regular business meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Legion Hall on North Jefferson street.

Plans were made to attend the Union meeting that will be held on November 10 at Carnegie. The next regular meeting will be on Thursday, November 12.

CLASS TO MEET SATURDAY

The gym class, under the direction of Albert Russo, which was to have met this evening at the Mahoning school, will meet Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Afternoon Tea For Presbyterian Women

Six women from the Mahoning Presbyterian church were cohostesses to all the ladies of the church Thursday afternoon at a beautifully appointed tea. The occasion was in the form of a good fellowship affair, featuring an entertaining program composed of musical numbers.

The assembly was divided into groups, according to the month when their birthdays fall due, and each was responsible for a contribution to the program.

At tea time, the guests filed past a table beautifully decorated with a rainbow floral centerpiece, set off with candle lighting effects, where a dainty menu was served.

The hostesses included Mrs. F. W. Wallace, Mrs. F. W. Guy, Mrs. David Bender, Mrs. W. F. McClurg, Mrs. Gertrude Marshall and Mrs. E. W. Smith.

Five From Here Go To Pittsburgh

District Meeting Of O. R. C. Auxiliaries Is Conducted On Thursday

Mrs. M. R. Olmstead, Mrs. W. T. Saul, Mrs. J. M. Frew, Mrs. F. E. Flowers and Mrs. W. P. McGrath represented the local ladies auxiliary to the Order of Railroad Conductors on Thursday at a district meeting conducted in the Century building at Pittsburgh

Visiting members were there also from Connellsville, Carnegie and Brownsville. The grand president, Mrs. Agnes M. Whelan from Columbus, O., was the presiding officer.

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock. Luncheon was served at noon in the Roosevelt hotel and a class of candidates was initiated during the afternoon.

Hallowe'en Party Enjoyed By Class

Methodist Church Class Meet At Local Residence For Party

Clowns, beautiful ladies, witches and ghosts gathered together on Thursday evening at the home of Ruth Craven, Eighth street, as she entertained members of the Miriam class of the Mahoning M. E. church at a masquerade party.

A short business session filled the earlier hours, over which the vice president, Dorothy Gillespie, presided. Reports were heard from the secretary and treasurer. In the game contests that followed, prizes were awarded Ella Jean Wilson, Edith Goodhart and the special guest, Mary Louise Jolley.

Later in the evening a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, aided by co-hostess Myrtle Rohrer.

NEGOTIATIONS ON PAY RAISE MAY CONTINUE

mployee Representatives Committee Discussing Statement Of Carnegie-Illinois Co.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation today d a wage committee of employe presentatives it was unable, due to esent economic conditions, to int wage increase demands, but the way open for possible pay ases with an offer to "compromise" the issue after further negotiation.

Replying to an employe group representing the Homestead, Pa., works of the company for a blanket raise of $1.12 a day or $5 daily minimum for all employes, the corporation announced:

"The management cannot consider at this time, due to economic conditions, the request as submitted by the committee, but will be pleased to enter further negotiations for a compromise agreement."

It was the corporation's first definite offer of any kind of pay raise since more than 100,000 employes of Carnegie-Illinois in the Pittsburgh Youngstown and Chicago districts began asking several months ago for wage boosts ranging from 10 to 25 per cent, with a $5-a-day minimum as the goal.

The announcement was made in the name of E. F. Fairless, president of the United States Steel subsidiary, by Ross Leffler, manager of industrial relations for the company in the Pittsburgh district.

Empowered only to negotiate demands specifically set forth in instructions from the general body of employe representatives, the committee retired from the conference to report back to the general body at a special meeting called for Friday afternoon, to be held here.

The committee made the following statement:

"Inasmuch as the above answer refused the original request but holds the door open for a possible compromise, and since the committee did not feel that their instructions from the general body included the power to accept other than the increase requested, it was decided to refer the matter to the general body in a special meeting to be held Friday afternoon, when a decision may be reached determining the next step."

More Than 240,000 Illegally Enrolled To Cast Ballots

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—More than 240,000 fraudulent enrollments are included in New York City's record registration of voters this year, Morris Percy Bloch, attorney for the Honest Ballot Association, had charged today.

He called the condition "flagrant and unprecedented" and declared his association will do all in its power to check threatened illegal voting.

Harry F. Rader and Miss Ethel Rybold were united in marriage at the Enon Valley Presbyterian church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Koonce performed the ceremony. Following the ceremony, the couple left to spent their honeymoon at Niagara Falls and expect to be home Saturday. They will occupy part of Geo Andrews' home for the present.

CONSTITUTION TO BE STUDIED IN SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Pennsylvania's educators aim to make the pupils of this state constitution-conscious during the observance next year of the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the national basic law.

This observance will cover a period of twenty months beginning next fall and ending April 30, 1939. During this time classroom projects, auditorium programs, library exhibits, museum displays, speaking and writing contests, commencement programs, memorial tree planting ceremonies, and other appropriate exercises will be held in the public schools.

MANY DISABLED PERSONS AIDED

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Vocational Rehabilitation in Pennsylvania is a service provided to the disabled employable through the joint cooperation of the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of Labor and Industry.

Through this service five hundred and forty persons were rehabilitated last year, that is, prepared for and placed in permanent employment commensurate with their abilities. This was an increase of eighty-four or fifteen per cent. over the previous year. Besides those placed in permanent positions, temporary employment was obtained for two hundred and eight. About one hundred and fifty of the group were trained in public and private institutions and industrial establishments for specific occupations.

NEGOTIATIONS ON PAY RAISE MAY CONTINUE

Employe Representatives Committee Discussing Statement Of Carnegie-Illinois Co.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation today told a wage committee of employe representatives it was unable, due to present economic conditions, to grant wage increase demands, but left the way open for possible pay boosts with an offer to "compromise" the issue after further negotiation.

Replying to an employe group representing the Homestead, Pa., works of the company for a blanket raise of $1.12 a day or $5 daily minimum for all employes, the corporation announced:

"The management cannot consider at this time, due to economic conditions, the request as submitted by the committee, but will be pleased to enter further negotiations for a compromise agreement."

It was the corporation's first definite offer of any kind of pay raise since more than 100,000 employes of Carnegie-Illinois in the Pittsburgh Youngstown and Chicago districts began asking several months ago for wage boosts ranging from 10 to 25 per cent, with a $5-a-day minimum as the goal.

The announcement was made in the name of B. F. Fairless, president of the United States Steel subsidiary, by Ross Leffler, manager of industrial relations for the company in the Pittsburgh district.

Empowered only to negotiate demands specifically set forth in instructions from the general body of employe representatives, the committee retired from the conference to report back to the general body at a special meeting called for Friday afternoon, to be held here.

The committee made the following statement:

"Inasmuch as the above answer refused the original request but holds the door open for a possible compromise, and since the committee did not feel that their instructions from the general body included the power to accept other than the increase requested, it was decided to refer the matter to the general body in a special meeting to be held Friday afternoon, when a decision may be reached determining the next step."

More Than 240,000 Illegally Enrolled To Cast Ballots

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—More than 240,000 fraudulent enrollments are included in New York City's record registration of voters this year, Monrie Percy Bloch, attorney for the Honest Ballot Association, had charged today.

He called the condition "flagrant and unprecedented" and declared his association will do all in its power to check threatened illegal voting.

CONSTITUTION TO BE STUDIED IN SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Pennsylvania's educators aim to make the pupils of this state constitution-conscious during the observance next year of the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the national basic law.

This observance will cover a period of twenty months beginning next fall and ending April 30, 1939. During this time classroom projects, auditorium programs, library exhibits, museum displays, speaking and writing contests, commencement programs, memorial tree planting ceremonies, and other appropriate exercises will be held in the public schools.

MANY DISABLED PERSONS AIDED

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Vocational Rehabilitation in Pennsylvania is a service provided to the disabled employable through the joint cooperation of the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of Labor and Industry.

Through this service five hundred and forty persons were rehabilitated last year, that is, prepared for and placed in permanent employment commensurate with their abilities. This was an increase of eighty-four or fifteen per cent. over the previous year. Besides those placed in permanent positions, temporary employment was obtained for two hundred and eight. About one hundred and fifty of the group were trained in public and private institutions and industrial establishments for specific occupations.

Red Cross Is Mapping Plans For Roll Call

Preparations Are Being Speeded Up For Annual Campaign For Memberships

SUPPLIES READY FOR WARD WORKERS

Preparations are being speeded up for the annual Roll Call of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, and everything is being made in readiness for a quick but effective drive between November 4 and November 8.

Mrs. Bart Richards, who will have charge of the house to house campaign throughout the city has received acceptances from a number of women who will head up the work in their own communities, and a compact organization is being formed to solicit the various homes.

Thursday, Mrs. David H. Kay, vice chairman of the Lawrence County Chapter, with Mrs. John Crowl and Mrs. Kenneth R. McClaran, spent the day in getting the supplies ready for the workers and this task is now about completed.

With one of the most splendid records of achievement in disaster relief work and in the other peacetime activities of the organization to point to, the Lawrence County Chapter has no hesitancy in asking the people of the county to rejoin this great organization devoted to the relief of human suffering, and expects to attain its quota this year during the short time alloted for the drive.

Grangers Will Gather In Ohio

Feature Of National Grange Sessions At Columbus Will Be Youth Luncheon

MANY YOUTHS TO ATTEND EVENT

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—With 500 reservation received for the youth luncheon, a special feature of the 70th annual session of the National Grange, L. J. Tabor, master, expects at least 1,000 boys and girls to participate in this event, November 12, at Columbus.

The luncheon is being given in honor of Future Farmers of America, boys and girls 4H clubs and scout members and is open to any young person who is a member of any farm organization and the grange.

In addition to distinguished speakers on this occasion there will be a Future Farmers of America chorus of 300 voices representing each of the 240 departments of vocational agriculture in Ohio and this group will receive the seventh degree of the National Grange in a body.

"This luncheon," said Tabor, "is in honor of those boys and girls who are going on the right track. The youth of today who is fortunately enough situated to receive inspiration from vocational agriculture training, 4H club and scout work will be the agricultural leaders of tomorrow."

Carl J. Burdett Escapes Injury In Auto Accident

Wheels Lock Car Crashes Pole Near New Wilmington Thursday Night

Thursday evening at about 7 o'clock, an automobile driven by Carl J. Burdett, Lincoln avenue, Sharon, left the road about a quarter of a mile outside of New Wilmington, enroute to New Castle, and crashed into a pole.

Burdett states that he had just come up the long hill just inside New Wilmington and something happened in the steering gear and his wheels locked, and he was unable to make the turn. The car jumped a ditch and snapped a telephone pole in three pieces. The car was almost demolished.

J. H. Lynn, 1013 West Washington street, New Castle, who was passing as the accident happened, in a truck, stopped and pulled the Burdett machine back onto the highway from where Burdett had it taken to a New Wilmington garage and he preceeded on to New Castle, where he was headed to visit friends.

Burdett is a former resident of New Castle and has many friends and associates here. He has been living in Sharon for the past year. Although nearly all of the glass in the car was shattered, Burdett escaped without even a scratch.

EMPLOYMENT

HARRISBURG—A total of 15,963 persons were placed in employment through the state employment service in September, according to a report submitted to Secretary of Labor Ralph M. Bashore by Tensard DeWolf, director of the bureau of employment. During the month 20,206 persons applied for employment. The active applications on file at the end of September were 674,655, this figure including all those who have been placed on works relief projects at security wages.

FARMS REFORESTED

HARRISBURG—Farmers in the United States purchased at cost 26,000,000 tree seedlings for reforestation purposes last year. Federal-state co-operating agencies made the trees available at low cost.

Making Fight For Her Back Salary

BEAVER, Pa., Oct. 23.—Miss Wilhelmina H. Behnamann, former clerk of courts and candidate for the state senate in the Beaver-Lawrence district, yesterday sued Beaver county for the return of $600, alleged voluntary salary cuts from her salary of $4,000 per year during 18 months of 1934 and 1935.

Miss Behnamann deducted the $600 from moneys she turned over to the county alst December 31 when she retired from office. The county commissioners protested, declaring Miss Behnamann had voluntarily agreed to the cut in the interest of economy. Miss Behnamann denied today she had agreed to the salary cut but had accepted her check, minus 10 per cent, for 18 months.

Judge To Speak On Armistice Day

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Oct. 23.—Judge Gustav L. Schramm of the Allegheny county juvenile court will be the principal speaker at the all-county Armistice Day celebration to be held in Slippery Rock on November 11. The speaking program in the college chapel will be held in the evening following the big parade, football game and memorial program during the day. A military ball at Stoughton's Beach at 9 p. m. will climax the event.

Climalene without soap washes better than soap without Climalene

That's how marvelous CLIMALENE is! . . . you can dispense with soap altogether and it will never be missed, but in any cleansing operation you like to see good soap suds.

So do this!

Sprinkle a little CLIMALENE in water to see soap suds at their best . . . rich, white, billowing bubbles . . . the finest, safest, cleansing combination ever discovered.

Never before have you seen such soap suds with ½ the soap, and you've never seen such amazing cleaning results with ½ the labor.

CLIMALENE softens hard water . . . gives twice the cleaning action to any soap, cuts like a knife through grease and grime . . . with utter safety . . . and gives to your china and glassware the sheen of a window in the sun.

CLIMALENE makes white clothes whiter and colored clothes color-fresh as new . . . and with CLIMALENE on guard neither bar soap nor powder, nor flakes, can cause "soap scum," "soap fade," or "soap eat," cause damage to stoutest linens or delicate lingerie.

Anniversary Is Being Observed

Jack Gerson Observes 14th Anniversary In Successful Business

HAS GROWN FROM HUMBLE BEGINNING

JACK GERSON

Fourteen years of successful business enterprise is being observed starting today by Jack Gerson, one of Western Pennsylvania's leading jewelers, and the event will be observed by special merchandise offerings by Mr. Gerson at his popular new store at the corner of Mill and Washington streets.

Mr. Gerson's business growth has been phenomenal. Starting out on North Mercer street with but one other employe, a bookkeeper, the business has grown and grown until now, fourteen people are needed to look after the wants of his many customers.

It was necessary to start looking for a new location a year ago, and the valuable corner at Mill and Washington was secured by Mr. Gerson.

Additional Help

During the anniversary sale which opens today, six additional people will be employed to augment the present staff, making 20 in all who will be present to attend to the wants of those seeking the splendid jewelry offerings which he is making. Thousands of articles in jewelry have been secured just for this event, giving his patrons a wider selection than ever to choose from.

During the fourteen years that he has been in business Mr. Gerson has had accounts with 25,000 people from this community, showing the tremendous volume of business which has been done.

In commenting on his success, Mr. Gerson stated today that it is not so much himself, but the people of the community who have built this great business, and he feels grateful for the confidence they have had in him.

Draw Tickets In Sweepstakes

Sixteen Persons Drawing Horse That Wins Race Will Get $150,000 In Cash

(International News Service)

DUBLIN, Oct. 23—Distribution of $8,044,825—at least 40 per cent of which will go to lucky Americans—began today as the great drum full of counterfoils in the 19th Irish hospitals sweepstake revolved in the gilded round room of the Dublin lord mayor's mansion house.

Of the first 280 tickets drawn, 97 went to the United States.

Draw director John O'Sheehan announced that receipts for this draw, which will be based on the Cambridgeshire horse race to be run at Newmarket, Eng., next Wednesday, amounted to $13,531,455 and would be split into sixteen prize units of half a million dollars each.

Rightist Spanish Newspaper Says Soviet Ships Will Be Stopped

REPORT ARMS ARE LANDED IN SPAIN

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 23—The rightist newspaper La Liberte stated the Spanish rebel headquarters had ordered all Russian ships found in Spanish territorial waters to be stopped and searched and sunk if munitions are found aboard.

The rebels were reported notifying all foreign powers to this effect.

The order was issued, said La Liberte, following landing of arms and munitions at Santander, Spain, by an unidentified vessel believed to have been Russian. The arms were for Madrid's forces, the paper said.

Celebrities who give their reason for supporting a certain party could boil it down to three words: "Because grandsire did".

After the usual routine of business was concluded, Mrs. P. K. Fike gave a reading entitled "Coming Into The Harbor," followed by a paper on, "There's Always Finland," and given by Mrs. G. G. Orr. A selected poem by Mrs. L. T. Moore concluded the short program.

A special memorial service was conducted for the late Mrs. C. N. Lockhart, who passed away within the last year. She was a charter member of the organization. Those taking part were Mrs. W. E. Burrows, Mrs. J. A. Wilson and Mrs. P. K. Fike.

Mrs. H. C. Mitchell invited members to her home on Winter avenue, November 5.

CHEERIO CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEET

Cheerio club members were pleasantly entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. William Burdett of Ray street.

A business session was held after the guests arrived, at which plans were made for fall and winter work, and also a Hallowe'en party to take place Wednesday, October 28, at the home of Viola Neyman, Bradner avenue.

Various games and sewing claimed attention, Mrs. William Donaldson winning the favor in the contests and also the drawing prize.

Seated about a large table cleverly arranged in Hallowe'en suggestions, the group found their places marked with appropriate favors. The centerpiece was a lighted large black cat. Mrs. Floyd Neyman assisted the hostess with a tempting lunch.

On Thursday, November 5, the next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Edward Kelly, East Washington street.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS OF LOCAL COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Verl of 409 East Lutton street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Abe Vago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vago, 618 East Lutton street.

The engagement will terminate in a quiet wedding on November 23, and will take place in the parsonage of St. Vitus church of this city.

Housewarming

Mrs. James Bartlett, of Robinson street, was surprised Thursday evening when members of the Ritz club, of which he is the president, journeyed to her new home, also on Robinson street, for a housewarming.

Music and dancing were the main diversions and a special song was sung by Mrs. Anthony Panella. At an appointed time, Mrs. Fred Farrone and Mrs. Frank Boran served a flavorful lunch.

PARLEY-VOUS GUESTS AT DINNER GATHERING

Mrs. Lou Davies of Martin street was a pleasing hostess to her associates of the Parley-Vous club Thursday evening, when she entertained at a nicely appointed seven o'clock covered dish dinner. Fall flowers were used in profusion in the rooms and a choice boquet formed the table centerpiece.

After partaking of the full course menu attention was given to games and contests. Mrs. Vivian Dunlap and Mrs. W. S. Caskey were winners of the prizes. When festivities reached their height a special birthday shower was tendered two of the club women, Mrs. Lou Davies and Mrs. Carl Wright. Each received lovely remembrances.

Their November meeting will take place in the home of Mrs. Elmer Tinstman, Wilmington avenue, the date to be announced.

L. A. B. Club

Mrs. William Eligass of Wallace avenue, was hostess to L. A. B. club members Thursday evening, at their regular meeting. The rooms were decorated in Hallowe'en suggestions, and a series of 500 and bingo games claimed attention. Those winning prizes, were Mrs. John Sweet and Mrs. James McCullough.

Seated about the dining room table, which too, was appointed in orange and black tones, the guests were served an appetizing holiday lunch. Mrs. Eligass was assisted by Mrs. M. R. Sweet. Special guests, included Mrs. E. Duvall and son Edward of New York who are visiting in the city.

Their meeting on Thursday, October 29, will be in the form of a quilting party, with luncheon to be served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. John Shaffer of Cunningham avenue will be hostess on this date.

Amerita Club

Mrs. Nicholas Altobelli of Du-Shane street had as guests in her home Thursday evening members of the Amerita club. Bingo was played, with Angeline Iacobucci receiving the main prize. Mrs. Andrew Nocera was awarded the club favor, while in other games Mrs. Anthony Valianni was the winner.

A delicious lunch was served by candle light by the hostess, with Hallowe'en appointments predominating. Special guests in attendance included Aurora DeCicco of Beaver Falls, Mrs. Samuel Bassano and Mrs. Nobile DiLorenzo.

On November 12 Angeline Iacobucci of Summit street will entertain.

LINGER LONGER CLUB NEW ORGANIZATION

Mrs. Wentworth Graham was a charming hostess to associates in a last year's quilting club on Thursday, at her home on South Lee avenue.

The club has recently been re-organized with eight members under the name of Linger Longer Quilting club. Meetings will be held once a month with a tureen dinner at noon featuring.

Officers elected are: Mrs. Clark Miller, president; Mrs. Albert Pilshaw, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Huling, secretary; Mrs. Jack Thatcher, treasurer; Mrs. George Edwards, News reporter.

At noon, the group enjoyed an excellent chicken dinner in the dining room at a table artistically decorated with flowers. Mrs. Miller assisted. Plans will be revealed later for the next meeting.

LADIES ASSOCIATION LUNCHEON-MEETING

Mrs. A. H. McBride, Mrs. Raymond McBride, Mrs. M. R. Newbery and Mrs. Harvey Robinson were associated in the entertainment of the Ladies' Association of the First U. P. church Thursday afternoon in the home of the first named on Carlisle street.

Mrs. Robinson had charge of the program which was in the nature of a thank offering service. Reports were heard concerning the Beaver Valley Presbyterial which was held in New Galilee recently. Mrs. Newberry, Mrs. Fred Sontum and Mrs. R. M. Jamison reported.

At the luncheon preceding the program, 20 members enjoyed an appetizing hot menu which was served buffet fashion. The next meeting will take place on the third Thursday in November.

Q. A. C. CLUB WOMEN HOLD MASQUERADE

Launching the Fall season of social activities, Q. A. C. club members gathered in the home of Mrs. Edwin Hannon, Round street, on Thursday evening in masquerade to take part in a Hallowe'en celebration.

Games were played, with Mrs. Harry Pithoff, Mrs. Fred Steckel and Mrs. James Flynn receiving prizes. A tasty holiday lunch was served afterwards, and a special feature was the reading given by Edna Hanna, daughter of the hostess.

Mrs. James Flynn of Edison avenue will entertain on November 5 in her home.

Lo-Cour-Chee Club

Mrs. Cecil Logan of Brooklyn avenue was hostess last evening to the Lo-Cour-Chee club members. Prizes were distributed to Mrs. Earl White, Mrs. Thomas McClurg and Mrs. Roy Nelson for winning honors in the card contests featured. Mrs. Marie Ray was a special guest.

After partaking of a dainty collation served by the hostess, they made plans for their meeting on November 5, to take place with Mrs. Earl White on Ray street.

DINNER FEATURES QUILTING PARTY

Even though it's Hallowe'en when superstitions run riot, the presence of 13 members at the meeting of the 1934 Jolly Quilters Thursday with Mrs. William Anderson of Monroe street, did not subdue the spirits of the group.

There was one guest, Mrs. John Book who increased the number to 14, so everything was hotsy-totsy. Regular quilting was the occupation of the morning and afternoon with an appetizing tureen dinner in between at noon.

Mrs. Robert Abernathy will be hostess to the club on November 5, at her home in South New Castle Boro.

SWASTIKA CLUB MASQUERADE PARTY

A masquerade party was enjoyed by Swastika club members in the home of Irene Price on Rose avenue Thursday evening, marking one of their leading October events.

A program of games in keeping with the Hallowe'en idea provided the entertainment, and later the guests were served a delicious lunch by Mrs. James Lavender, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Irene Price and the latters' aunt, Mrs. Reese Price. Seasonal appointments predominated throughout.

Plans were formed for a Hallowe'en social, to take place October 27 in the First Congregational church, while on November 5 the club will meet in regular session, with Mrs. James Lavender on East Washington street.

D. S. Q. Club

D. S. Q. club members, met with Mrs Ethel Reed on Neshannock avenue Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mary Wilkins, secretary, was in charge and gave her report.

Cards provided the main pastime, with Florence McCall, Armenda Hoover and Marion Hoover receiving awards. The door prize went to Hazel Gallagher. At 10:30, lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter Dorothy Reed.

Following, a piano recital of old favorites, proved enjoyable with all joining in a song period. Their next meeting on October 29, will be with Marion Hoover, Neshannock avenue.

West Side Club Meeting

Mrs. J. C. Carr of West Washington street entertained informally at her home Thursday evening, members of the West Side club. Cards held attention, honor score trophies falling to Mrs. Richard Hannon, Winifred O'Connor and Mrs. Patrick Thornton. Sweets were served throughout play.

Their next assembly on November 5, will take place with Mrs. Anna Gillespie on West Washington street.

Umberto Primo Auxiliary

The Umberto Primo auxiliary will hold its regular meeting in King Humbert hall on East Division street Sunday, Oct. 25, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. On November 20 the auxiliary will hold a frolic in Humbert hall.

Red Cross Is Mapping Plans For Roll Call

Preparations Are Being Speeded Up For Annual Campaign For Memberships

SUPPLIES READY FOR WARD WORKERS

Preparations are being speeded up for the annual Roll Call of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, and everything is being made in readiness for a quick but effective drive between November 4 and November 8.

Mrs. Bart Richards, who will have charge of the house to house campaign throughout the city has received acceptances from a number of women who will head up the work in their own communities, and a compact organization is being formed to solicit the various homes.

Thursday, Mrs. David H. Kay, vice chairman of the Lawrence County Chapter, with Mrs. John Crowl and Mrs. Kenneth R. McClaran, spent the day in getting the supplies ready for the workers and this task is now about completed.

With one of the most splendid records of achievement in disaster relief work and in the other peacetime activities of the organization to point to, the Lawrence County Chapter has no hesitancy in asking the people of the county to rejoin this great organization devoted to the relief of human suffering, and expects to attain its quota this year during the short time alloted for the drive.

Grangers Will Gather In Ohio

Feature Of National Grange Sessions At Columbus Will Be Youth Luncheon

MANY YOUTHS TO ATTEND EVENT

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23—With 500 reservation received for the youth luncheon, a special feature of the 70th annual session of the National Grange, L. J. Tabor, master, expects at least 1,000 boys and girls to participate in this event, November 12, at Columbus.

The luncheon is being given in honor of Future Farmers of America, boys and girls 4H clubs and scout members and is open to any young person who is a member of any farm organization and the grange.

In addition to distinguished speakers on this occasion there will be a Future Farmers of America chorus of 300 voices representing each of the 240 departments of vocational agriculture in Ohio and this group will receive the seventh degree of the National Grange in a body.

"This luncheon," said Tabor, "is in honor of those boys and girls who are going on the right track. The youth of today who is fortunately enough situated to receive inspiration from vocational agriculture training, 4H club and scout work will be the agricultural leaders of tomorrow."

Carl J. Burdett Escapes Injury In Auto Accident

Wheels Lock Car Crashes Pole Near New Wilmington Thursday Night

Thursday evening at about 7 o'clock, an automobile driven by Carl J. Burdett, Lincoln avenue, Sharon, left the road about a quarter of a mile outside of New Wilmington, enroute to New Castle, and crashed into a pole.

Burdett states that he had just come up the long hill just inside New Wilmington and something happened in the steering gear and his wheels locked, and he was unable to make the turn. The car jumped a ditch and snapped a telephone pole in three pieces. The car was almost demolished.

J. H. Lynn, 1013 West Washington street, New Castle, who was passing as the accident happened, in a truck, stopped and pulled the Burdett machine back onto the highway from where Burdett had it taken to a New Wilmington garage and he preceeded on to New Castle, where he was headed to visit friends.

Burdett is a former resident of New Castle and has many friends and associates here. He has been living in Sharon for the past year. Although nearly all of the glass in the car was shattered, Burdett escaped without even a scratch.

EMPLOYMENT

HARRISBURG—A total of 15,963 persons were placed in employment through the state employment service in September, according to a report submitted to Secretary of Labor Ralph M. Bashore by Tensard DeWolf, director of the bureau of employment. During the month 20,206 persons applied for employment. The active applications on file at the end of September were 674,655, this figure including all those who have been placed on works relief projects at security wages.

FARMS REFORESTED

HARRISBURG—Farmers in the United States purchased at cost 26,000,000 tree seedlings for reforestation purposes last year. Federal-state co-operating agencies made the trees available at low cost.

Making Fight For Her Back Salary

BEAVER, Pa., Oct. 23.—Miss Wilhelmina H. Behnamann, former clerk of courts and candidate for the state senate in the Beaver-Lawrence district, yesterday sued Beaver county for the return of $600, alleged voluntary salary cuts from her salary of $4,000 per year during 18 months of 1934 and 1935.

Miss Behnamann deducted the $600 from moneys she turned over to the county alst December 31 when she retired from office. The county commissioners protested, declaring Miss Behnamann had voluntarily agreed to the cut in the interest of economy. Miss Behnamann denied today she had agreed to the salary cut but had accepted her check, minus 10 per cent, for 18 months.

Climalene without soap washes better than soap without Climalene

That's how marvelous CLIMALENE is! . . . you can dispense with soap altogether and it will never be missed, but in any cleansing operation you like to see good soap suds.

So do this!

Sprinkle a little CLIMALENE in water to see soap suds at their best . . . rich, white, billowing bubbles . . . the finest, safest, cleansing combination ever discovered.

Never before have you seen such soap suds with ½ the soap, and you've never seen such amazing cleaning results with ½ the labor.

CLIMALENE softens hard water . . . gives twice the cleaning action to any soap, cuts like a knife through grease and grime . . . with utter safety . . . and gives to your china and glassware the sheen of a window in the sun.

CLIMALENE makes white clothes whiter and colored clothes color-fresh as new . . . and with CLIMALENE on guard neither bar soap nor powder, nor flakes, can cause "soap scum," "soap fade," or "soap eat," cause damage to stoutest linens or delicate lingerie.

Get Climalene from your grocer today; two sizes — 10c, 25c. You will be glad tomorrow. The Climalene Company, Canton, Ohio.

Girl Reporter In Honolulu

Only Has 2400 Mile Flight To Reach Coast Of United States

HAS COVERED GREAT EXPANSE OF OCEAN

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN
(International News Service and New York Evening Journal Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1936, by International News Service and New York Evening Journal)

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 23—We're back in civilization again, and I've a brief breathing spell to make a final sketchy shopping trip before we take off on the 2,400 mile hop to the Golden Gate.

The China Clipper dropped down on the waters of Pearl Harbor just after dusk last night, completing the hop from the Midway Islands in a little less than 10 hours.

The jaunt of 1,380 miles from Sand Island in the Midland group was uneventful. There was perfect flying weather over the blue seas dotted with tiny coral atolls, and we were pushed by strong tailwinds.

I've always wanted very specially to see Honolulu, and it was a perfect approach to drop down on it out of the red sunset sky, with the harbor lights twinkling out of the blue dusk.

I thought the whole population of the island had turned out to greet us when I saw the crowd gathered at the landing float.

On the hop from Midway, I discarded my slacks and sweater in favor of a white sharkskin dress—so that when we landed I could be distinguished from my fellow passengers, who are all men.

It's very consoling to see and talk to a woman again, after flying thousands of miles across the Pacific with only men companions, and stopping at wild tropical islands where a woman is as rare as a white collar.

Although it was really only the past couple of nights that we stopped at the lonely mid-Pacific Islands we've covered so many miles on trackless ocean since we left Manila it seems ages since we've seen a civilized city.

phia learn that the best plan, with a thigh bone, broken near the hip socket, is to nail the pieces together, instead of putting the patient in a plaster cast. Nailing the bones means recovery in four to five weeks, a plaster cast means six months. The simplest way is often the best.

YOUNG MR. Dewey, busy in New York clearing out rackets and discouraging criminals, including some lawyers, understands his business.

He transferred the worst vice racketeer from his lucrative job to a long prison term, and his latest list of 14 men indicted by the grand jury includes labor union officials, lawyers, gangsters and representatives of employers, engaged in blackmailing 300 restaurants, besides stealing $240,000 from union funds.

One lawyer, Abraham Cohen, is under $100,000 bail; Irving Epstein, business agent of the restaurant union, is under $50,000 bail; Harry A. Vogelstein, another lawyer, is out on $20,000 bail; others accused are Philip Grossell, bail $50,000; Charles B. Baum, president of a union local, bail $50,000; John J. Williams, a union business agent, bail $50,000; Max Pincus, labor union president, bail $50,000.

ALL THESE gentlemen may be innocent, as they say, but Mr. Dewey is to be congratulated on giving them a chance to prove it, and the public hopes they will be able to catch the five others who ran away.

Labor union men are interested in eliminating union officials and union lawyers accused of working criminal rackets and incidentally, stealing union funds. Unions would not last long on that basis. The one little restaurant-union-lawyer racket, according to Prosecutor Dewey, paid $2,000,000 a year profit.

BUSINESS IS picking up, with Uncle Sam's tax collectors.

In July, August and September they collected more than one thousand million dollars, or one hundred and sixty-four millions more than they collected in the same months last year.

Tom Reed, who used to be speaker, of the House and fight against spending, will open his eyes if he hears of this, in Heaven. In his day five hundred millions was enough to run the entire government for a whole year, pensions and all, and that was called "hideous extravagance". We live and learn.

A WELL-MEANING orchestra leader says all orchestras should refrain from playing martial music, thus "preventing another international war."

This country might give up warlike music and settle down to sweet, gentle crooning, but would that help against other countries, preferring martial tunes? The old kings knew that to encourage good fighting, you must make it attractive. They gave drums, fifes and fighting music to soldiers, and fancy uniforms.

IF ANYTHING happens to you in the way of a bad accident, have it attended to immediately, or as soon as possible. Dr. John J. Moorehead, professor of clinical surgery, says there is a "golden period," namely, six hours immediately following an accident, when broken bones, etc., can be treated with the least danger of complications. Every hour's delay is dangerous.

Travel, including airplanes and automobiles, causes 60 per cent of all accidents. Industry accounts for 20 per cent, football is the most dangerous sport, polo next.

A GENTLEMAN-IN-WAITING to Victoria, formerly Queen of Spain and daughter of Queen Victoria of England, Count Fernando Mora, says Spain will put a king on the throne, namely Alfonso's third son, Prince of Asturias.

The world thinks the day for kings has gone by; modern fashion calls for a self-chosen dictator, rather than an accident of birth. Even the old-fashioned democratic self-government idea is going out of fashion.

existence? They are responsible for the organization and management of the greatest financial Exchange in the world. They watch over the distribution of the Bonds of the Nation, the stock of the country's corporations. They determine what is worthy of being exchanged and, believe it or not, in most instances the information which they disseminate is true and accurate. The New York Stock Exchange is as necessary as the Capitol at Washington.

And who are the "Predatory Rich?" As a matter of fact, the only "Predatory Rich" are the Racketeers,—those who steal and rob and cheat. They are few in number and fewer of them ever become rich. By inference, those who talk about the "Predatory Rich" would have you believe that Morgan, Du Pont, Ford, Rockefeller, Mellon and men of that stamp constitute that class. They do not. Their brains have put millions of citizens to work at wages which have astounded the rest of the world, wages so high that the United States is the only Nation where the majority of citizens live in homes of their own, built substantially, with sanitary plumbing, electric light, mechanical refrigeration, heating plants, radios and to cap it all, with an automobile in the garage.

Few of the really rich men of the Nation spend great sums in luxurious living. Their money is not in Banks. It is invested in Railroads, Mines, Steel Plants, Oil Wells, Refineries, Pipe Lines and the myriad enterprises which make America the envy of the world. They are our best and most valued citizens.

What about the "Predatory Poor?"

HOME BURNS, BUT HE DOESN'T CARE

POMEROY, O., Oct. 23.—A little thing like a fire is a mere nothing to Dave "Jersey" Terrill, Pomeroy man-about-town.

Terrill lived in a small one-room shack until it burned recently. When it started to burn, Terrill was inside, and, being mildly disturbed by the heat, he moved out of the shack, lay down on the ground and resumed the nap he was taking.

Sheriff Roscoe Fowler, seeing Terrill lying on the ground while his home burned was moved to give him a roof over his head, and offered him a place in the county jail.

The charge was intoxication.

GOATS DISEASE-FREE

HARRISBURG—All goats tested for Bangs' disease in Pennsylvania have been found to be free of this disease, Dr. Howard M. Kalodner, director of the state bureau of animal industry, reported. Last month four herds were tested with negative results.

Three County Cases Before Pardon Board

Decisions Will Be Handed Down Later By State Board

ALL CONCERNED WITH ROBBERIES

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23—A trial judge, district attorney's office and board of trustees of eastern state penitentiary unanimously recommended Thursday that clemency be granted to Gervas Castner, 36, of Avoca, Luzerne county, convicted of slaying his wife six years ago.

Emmett Carroll, of Pittston, Pa., who represented Castner, told the state board of pardons that the applicant, who was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to serve 10 to 20 years, had completely rehabilitated himself.

Other cases heard by the board Thursday included:

Lawrence county—Willie Wayne Belton, three to six years, Western state penitentiary, 1934, larceny: Homer Chrisner, sentenced 1935, 5½ to 11 years, Western penitentiary robbery: Frank Rausch, sentenced 1933, 1½ to three years, Western penitentiary, breaking and entering.

Women Vote For Ideal Husband

Good Looks, Fashion Plates And Sex Appeal Relegated To Limbo Of Forgotten

INTELLIGENCE IS BIG THING

(International News Service)

PORT ARTHUS, Tex., Oct. 23—Good looks, a fashion plate and sex appeal, faded into insignificance today as the requisites for the "ideal" husband, according to a survey completed here by the Rev. Joseph E. Shaw, Methodist pastor.

The male with "good health" a 'fair' salary and intelligence" are, at the present, what Port Arthur women consider tops among the requisites, according to the survey which the pastor said he made as a basis for a sermon.

When the married women and widows were questioned, they emphasized "personality traits." The married women, however, ranked "understanding and intelligence" first, while the widows chose "mutual interests and intelligence."

The latter two classes placed health third, both recognized the need of a 'good provider." However, the married women, strangely enough, placed the "good provider" phrase seventh, while the widows ranked it fourth.

The widows were found to be far more tolerant on the drinking question and "pasts." When it came to weekly income of any future husbands' the widows put their feet down and set a minimum of $35.

Liquor License Fund For City Being Awaited

Money Will Be Placed In General Revenue Fund—City To Get $13,850

City Treasurer C. C. McKibben today stated that as yet he has not received $13,850.00 representing an overdue payment by the state from the liquor license funds.

The payment was due in August and was made possible through the sale of $45,000,000 in tax anticipation notes, $1,000,000 of which was returned to the liquor fund recently. The payments were held up, it was pointed out at Harrisburg, because of "raids" on the special funds for relief purposes. When the money is received here it will be placed in the general revenue fund, the Harrisburg advices stated.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP NO. 17

Troop No. 17 had a meeting at Highland church this week. A number of the girls passed the sewing tests. Patrol corners were formed, then groups wherein compass, signalling and meal-planning were studied. Goodnight circle was conducted and the patrol leaders stayed for court of honor.

Scribe, Nancy Stitzinger.

TROOP NO. 12 MEETS

Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 12 gathered Thursday evening in Thaddeus Stevens school for their regular weekly meeting. This was opened with group singing being led by Miss LaServe, who was also a special guest.

Patrol corners were held and plans for the cookie sale discussed. Plans were also laid for a Hallowe'en party to be held next Thursday evening. Following patrol corners, interest groups were formed with Miss Thelma Tankratz in charge of the tenderfeet, Miss Mildred Lusk in charge of the second class girls, and Miss LaServe taught foreign dances to the first class girls.

The meeting was closed by a good night song and a short court of honor session.

Scribe, Martha Davis.

TROOP NO. 16

The Girl Scouts of Troop 16 met on October 20 in their troop house in Walnut Glen. The meeting was opened by a flag ceremony, Dorothy Stritzinger presiding. The girls worked on a dance and then formed their patrols. After patrol corners the discussion was based on plans to finish the world-knowledge badge requirements. Songs were sung. The meeting was closed by taps.

Scribe, Mary L. Jolley.

TROOP NO. 1.

The regular meeting of the Girl Scouts of Troop 1 was conducted at the North Street school on Thursday evening. Games and songs were used to open the meeting, followed by patrol corners in which attendance was checked and dues collected Audrey Bridenbaugh was elected treasurer. The meeting was closed by the songs, "Run Along Home" and "Taps." Court of honor was conducted after the meeting.

Scribe, Doris Boalick.

TROOP MACEGOSEGI

Troop Nine held a masquerade party Wednesday, October 21. The prize for best costume went to Mary Louise Davis.

The committee of three which went early decorated the room with cornstalks and pumpkins; they had a lighted pumpkin face with leaves all around it which represented a campfire.

They played games and later had a luncheon.

They had a usual dismissal and all left happy after having a nice evening.

Scribe, Martha Carlson.

But lady—those "dishpan hands" do more than a gray hair to add years to your age

Don't you know that people notice your hands almost as much as your face? Don't use those ordinary washday soaps for dishes—they were never made to protect sensitive skin. But IVORY SOAP was. It gives your hands a gentle Ivory bath every time you wash dishes. And didn't you know? . . . Pure, gentle IVORY SOAP costs less to use for dishes than washday chips and powders! Ask for the practical "LARGE SIZE" Ivory.

Don't let dishwashing give you "old hands"—use IVORY SOAP

Red Cross Is Mapping Plans For Roll Call

Preparations Are Being Speeded Up For Annual Campaign For Memberships

SUPPLIES READY FOR WARD WORKERS

Preparations are being speeded up for the annual Roll Call of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, and everything is being made in readiness for a quick but effective drive between November 4 and November 8.

Mrs. Bart Richards, who will have charge of the house to house campaign throughout the city has received acceptances from a number of women who will head up the work in their own communities, and a compact organization is being formed to solicit the various homes.

Thursday, Mrs. David H. Kay, vice chairman of the Lawrence County Chapter, with Mrs. John Crowl and Mrs. Kenneth R. McClaran, spent the day in getting the supplies ready for the workers and this task is now about completed.

With one of the most splendid records of achievement in disaster relief work and in the other peacetime activities of the organization to point to, the Lawrence County Chapter has no hesitancy in asking the people of the county to rejoin this great organization devoted to the relief of human suffering, and expects to attain its quota this year during the short time alloted for the drive.

Grangers Will Gather In Ohio

Feature Of National Grange Sessions At Columbus Will Be Youth Luncheon

MANY YOUTHS TO ATTEND EVENT

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23—With 500 reservation received for the youth luncheon, a special feature of the 70th annual session of the National Grange, L. J. Tabor, master, expects at least 1,000 boys and girls to participate in this event, November 12, at Columbus.

The luncheon is being given in honor of Future Farmers of America, boys and girls 4H clubs and scout members and is open to any young person who is a member of any farm organization and the grange.

In addition to distinguished speakers on this occasion there will be a Future Farmers of America chorus of 300 voices representing each of the 240 departments of vocational agriculture in Ohio and this group will receive the seventh degree of the National Grange in a body.

"This luncheon," said Tabor, "is in honor of those boys and girls who are going on the right track. The youth of today who is fortunately enough situated to receive inspiration from vocational agriculture training, 4H club and scout work will be the agricultural leaders of tomorrow."

Carl J. Burdett Escapes Injury In Auto Accident

Wheels Lock Car Crashes Pole Near New Wilmington Thursday Night

Thursday evening at about 7 o'clock, an automobile driven by Carl J. Burdett, Lincoln avenue, Sharon, left the road about a quarter of a mile outside of New Wilmington, enroute to New Castle, and crashed into a pole.

Burdett states that he had just come up the long hill just inside New Wilmington and something happened in the steering gear and his wheels locked, and he was unable to make the turn. The car jumped a ditch and smashed a telephone pole in three pieces. The car was almost demolished.

J. H. Lynn, 1013 West Washington street, New Castle, who was passing as the accident happened, in a truck, stopped and pulled the Burdett machine back onto the highway from where Burdett had it taken to a New Wilmington garage and he proceeded on to New Castle, where he was headed to visit friends.

Burdett is a former resident of New Castle and has many friends and associates here. He has been living in Sharon for the past year. Although nearly all of the glass in the car was shattered, Burdett escaped without even a scratch.

EMPLOYMENT

HARRISBURG—A total of 15,906 persons were placed in employment through the state employment service in September, according to a report submitted to Secretary of Labor Ralph M. Bashore by Tensard DeWolf, director of the bureau of employment. During the month 20,206 persons applied for employment. The active applications on file at the end of September were 674,655, this figure including all those who have been placed on works relief projects at security wages.

FARMS REFORESTED

HARRISBURG—Farmers in the United States purchased at cost 26,000,000 tree seedlings for reforestation purposes last year, Federal-state co-operating agencies made the trees available at low cost.

Making Fight For Her Back Salary

BEAVER, Pa., Oct. 23.—Miss Wilhelmina H. Behnamann, former clerk of courts and candidate for the state senate in the Beaver-Lawrence district, yesterday sued Beaver county for the return of $600, alleged voluntary salary cuts from her salary of $4,000 per year during 18 months of 1934 and 1935.

Miss Behnamann deducted the $600 from moneys she turned over to the county 31st December 31 when she retired from office. The county commissioners protested, declaring Miss Behnamann had voluntarily agreed to the cut in the interest of economy. Miss Behnamann denied today she had agreed to the salary cut but had accepted her check, minus 10 per cent, for 18 months.

Judge To Speak On Armistice Day

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Oct. 23.—Judge Gustav L. Schramm of the Allegheny county juvenile court will be the principal speaker at the all-county Armistice Day celebration to be held in Slippery Rock on November 11. The speaking program in the college chapel will be held in the evening following the big parade, football game and memorial program during the day. A military ball at Stoughton's Beach at 9 p. m. will climax the event.

EGG INSPECTORS FEE

HARRISBURG—After January 1, 1937, qualified egg inspectors shall be required to pay a fee of $3 for their state license, James L. States, acting director of the Bureau of Markets, announced today. Heretofore there was no fee for this permit.

Climalene without soap washes better than soap without Climalene

That's how marvelous CLIMALENE is! . . . you can dispense with soap altogether and it will never be missed, but in any cleansing operation you like to see good soap suds.

So do this!

Sprinkle a little CLIMALENE in water to see soap suds at their best . . . rich, white, billowing bubbles . . . the finest, safest, cleansing combination ever discovered.

Never before have you seen such soap suds with ¼ the soap, and you've never seen such amazing cleaning results with ¼ the labor.

CLIMALENE softens hard water . . . gives twice the cleaning action to any soap, cuts like a knife through grease and grime . . . with utter safety . . . and gives to your china and glassware the sheen of a window in the sun.

CLIMALENE makes white clothes whiter and colored clothes color-fresh as new . . . and with CLIMALENE on guard neither bar soap nor powder, nor flakes, can cause "soap scum," "soap fade," or "soap eat," cause damage to sheerest linens or delicate lingerie.

Get Climalene from your grocer today: two sizes—10c, 25c. You will be glad tomorrow. The Climalene Company, Canton, Ohio.

Fire Loss Here Below Average Of Other Cities

Fires In New Castle Last Year Cost Average Of Sixty-Three Cents Per Person

ENTIRE LOSS WAS $30,000

New Castle firemen are proud of the record of the city in regard to fires during the past year, due in part to the care of citizens here in preventing fires, and to the fact that the firemen here have been alert to the situation and have stopped many fires which might have been serious before the blazes had a chance to get away to a good start.

The figures compiled by the United States Chamber of Commerce taken from reports of fire department officials and insurance companies, reveal that the per capita fire loss for New Castle last year was but 63 cents, while the figures for the nation as a whole are $1.95 per capita.

When active fire prevention contests were staged, cities showed a loss of $1.25, under the national average, but not as low as the figures for this city.

The number of fires in New Castle last year totaled 287, of which 52 were in brick and stone buildings, 135 were in frame buildings, 2 were in buildings not classified, and 98 were other than building fires. The total loss resulting from these fires was $30,206, of which $26,281 was covered by insurance. Insurance loss on buildings, because of fire, totaled $17,814; and on contents, $8,467. Fire insurance in New Castle last year totaled $1,832,300.

Eight Injured By Gas Blast

Tremendous Explosion Of Butane Gas Causes Home To Burn To Ground

(International News Service)

CROWLEY, La., Oct. 23—Eight persons were hurt here Thursday in a tremendous blast of butane gas that shook the outer residential section of the city.

The explosion took place as employes of the C. C. Carnes Company, distributors for the gas, were unloading it from a tank. Some of the gas escaped and drifted into the home of Earl Shreve.

The place in which the gas was stored and the Shreve home burned to the ground. A nearby store building was wrecked.

Members of the Shreve family were taken to a hospital where the condition of all but one was pronounced critical.

Air Mail Lines Sold, Approved

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Purchase of the Central Airlines, Inc., and the Pennsylvania Airlines & Transport company, airmail contractors between Washington and Detroit, and Detroit and Milwaukee, respectively, by the Pennsylvania-Central Airlines corporation, was approved Thursday by Acting Postmaster General Harlee Branch.

In authorizing the purchase of the two air mail routes by one contractor would result in improved mail, passenger and express service between Washington and Milwaukee, via Pittsburgh, Akron, Cleveland, Detroit, Pontiac, Lansing, Grand Rapids and Muskegon, a total of 743 miles.

Houdini's Widow Waits For Message

To Make Final Attempt To Communicate With Dead Magician

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 23—The ghost of Harry Houdini will have plenty of company Hallowe'en night if it should return during what Mrs. Houdini says will be a final attempt to communicate with the magician, dead for ten years, according to plans announced today.

Mrs. Houdini said there will be accommodations for 500 persons on the roof of a Hollywood hotel where the seance will be held.

Before dying Houdini, who spent his later years exposing fake mediums told his wife if he did not communicate with her within ten years she would know he could not.

TO DEDICATE SHAFT FOR WILL ROGERS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Work on placing a monument to Will Rogers in Mt. Lebanon park has been started here. Conceived by Boy Scouts, the monument, a granite shaft, was supported by the South Hills post No. 156, American Legion, and by the Kiwanis and Lions clubs.

It was donated by a local contractor, and, weighing four tons, has been approved by Mt. Lebanon township commissioners, it will be dedicated in November.

Three County Cases Before Pardon Board

Decisions Will Be Handed Down Later By State Board

ALL CONCERNED WITH ROBBERIES

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23—A trial judge, district attorney's office and board of trustees of eastern state penitentiary unanimously recommended Thursday that clemency be granted to Gervas Castner, 36, of Avoca, Luzerne county, convicted of slaying his wife six years ago.

Emmett Carroll, of Pittston, Pa., who represented Castner, told the state board of pardons that the applicant, who was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to serve 10 to 20 years, had completely rehabilitated himself.

Other cases heard by the board Thursday included:

Lawrence county—Willie Wayne Belton, three to six years, Western state penitentiary, 1934, larceny; Homer Chrisner, sentenced 1935, 5½ to 11 years, Western penitentiary robbery; Frank Rausch, sentenced 1933, 1½ to three years, Western penitentiary, breaking and entering.

Women Vote For Ideal Husband

Good Looks, Fashion Plates And Sex Appeal Relegated To Limbo Of Forgotten

INTELLIGENCE IS BIG THING

(International News Service)

PORT ARTHUS, Tex., Oct. 23—Good looks, a fashion plate and sex appeal, faded into insignificance today as the requisites for the "ideal" husband, according to a survey completed here by the Rev. Joseph E. Shaw, Methodist pastor.

The male with "good health" a "fair" salary and intelligence" are, at the present, what Port Arthur women consider tops among the requisites, according to the survey which the pastor said be made as a basis for a sermon.

When the married women and widows were questioned, they emphasized "personality traits." The married women, however, ranked "understanding and intelligence" first, while the widows chose "mutual interests and intelligence."

The latter two classes placed health third, both recognized the need of a 'good provider." However, the married women, strangely enough, placed the "good provider" phrase seventh, while the widows ranked it fourth.

The widows were found to be far more tolerant on the drinking question and "pasts." When it came to weekly income of any future husbands' the widows put their feet down and set a minimum of $35.

Liquor License Fund For City Being Awaited

Money Will Be Placed In General Revenue Fund—City To Get $13,850

City Treasurer C. C. McKibben today stated that as yet he has not received $13,850.00 representing an overdue payment by the state from the liquor license funds.

The payment was due in August and was made possible through the sale of $45,000,000 in tax anticipation notes, $1,000,000 of which was returned to the liquor fund recently. The payments were held up, it was pointed out at Harrisburg, because of "raids" on the special funds for relief purposes. When the money is received here it will be placed in the general revenue fund, the Harrisburg advices stated.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP NO. 17

Troop No. 17 had a meeting at Highland church this week. A number of the girls passed the sewing tests. Patrol corners were formed, then groups wherein compass, signalling and meal-planning were studied. Goodnight circle was conducted and the patrol leaders stayed for court of honor.

Scribe, Nancy Sultzinger.

TROOP NO. 12 MEETS.

Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 12 gathered Thursday evening in Thaddeus Stevens school for their regular weekly meeting. This was opened with group singing being led by Miss LaServe, who was also a special guest.

Patrol corners were held and plans for the cookie sale discussed. Plans were also laid for a Hallowe'en party to be held next Thursday evening. Following patrol corners, interest groups were formed with Miss Thelma Tankratz in charge of the tenderfeet, Miss Mildred Lusk in charge of the second class girls, and Miss LaServe taught foreign dances to the first class girls.

The meeting was closed by a good night song and a short court of honor session.

Scribe, Martha Davis.

TROOP NO. 16

The Girl Scouts of Troop 16 met on October 20 in their troop house in Walnut Glen. The meeting was opened by a flag ceremony, Dorothy Stritzinger presiding. The girls worked on a dance and then formed their patrols. After patrol corners the discussion was based on plans to finish the world-knowledge badge requirements. Songs were sung. The meeting was closed by taps.

Scribe, Mary L. Jolley.

TROOP NO. 1.

The regular meeting of the Girl Scouts of Troop 1 was conducted at the North Street school on Thursday evening. Games and songs were used to open the meeting, followed by patrol corners in which attendance was checked and dues collected Audrey Bridenbaugh was elected treasurer. The meeting was closed by the songs, "Run Along Home" and "Taps." Court of honor was conducted after the meeting.

Scribe, Doris Boalick.

TROOP MACEGOSEGI

Troop Nine held a masquerade party Wednesday, October 21. The prize for best costume went to Mary Louise Davis.

The committee of three which went early decorated the room with cornstalks and pumpkins; they had a lighted pumpkin face with leaves all around it which represented a campfire.

They played games and later had a luncheon.

They had a usual dismissal and all left happy after having a nice evening.

Scribe, Martha Carlson.

In Religious and Fraternal Circles

Classes Have Social

Mrs. Merrill Cadwell's and Mrs. James Hoover's classes of the First Christian church, held their monthly meeting Wednesday evening, in the church in the form of a joint social affair.

The occasion took the form of a box social, and featured a program of games of wide variety. Lunches were exchanged afterwards.

Soloist At Plaingrove

One of the features of Sunday morning's services in the Plaingrove U. P. church will be a vocal solo, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Miss Ruth Drescher, a prominent soloist of New Castle, teacher in the Croton school.

Edith Woodrow Class

The Edith Woodrow class of the First Baptist church will meet on Monday evening at the home of Miss Alma Broadhead, Monroe street, with Mrs. Stella Reel as the associate hostess.

Woodrow Class Meeting

Members of the Edith Woodrow Bible class of the First Baptist church will meet in the home of Miss Alma Broadhead, 707 Monroe street, on Monday, October 26, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Stella Reel will be associate hostess.

Finnish Lutheran

Ladies of the Suomi College board and those of the church board will meet Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the parlors of the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran church, South Ray street, to make preparations for the Sunday dinner.

Christ Lutheran

The Young People's society of Christ Lutheran church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the church rooms. On the committee in charge are the Misses Minnie Schenker and Hilda Leonhardt.

Baraca Class Meeting

The Baraca Class of the First Baptist church, met with their teacher, Mr. Dandy, in the home of Walter Maxwell of Butler avenue extension, Thursday evening. The usual monthly business was transacted, and plans were developed for increasing the class attendance this fall.

An informal social period ensued, and Mrs. Maxwell served an appetizing lunch as the concluding feature.

The next meeting will take place with Lawrence Kohna, near Princeton.

Bird Experts To Visit Pymatuning

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23—Climaxing the fifty-fourth meeting of the American Ornithologists Union, a special motorcade of bird experts from all sections of the country will journey today to Pymatuning Lake to make observations of the bird life there.

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP SIX

Troop No. 6, Boy Scouts, held its weekly meeting in the Junior room of the Croton Avenue M. E. church, Monday evening. The opening was in charge of Bob Starr, and consisted of the scout oath led by Bill Glover; the scout laws, led by Don Grove; and the Lord's prayer, led by Bill Tinkman.

After the patrols had returned from their corners, practice for the fall Field Meet took place. A Hallowe'en party will take place at the next meeting of the Troop on Monday evening.

Scribe, Crescenzo De Matteis.

School Supplies On Display Today

Among the early arrivals for the convention of the midwestern section, Pennsylvania State Education Association opening today, were the commercial exhibitors who have taken over the lobby of the Cathedral.

Displays of school books, art supplies, reading courses, pencils, paper of various kinds, everything needed in the modern class room are on display.

But lady—those "dishpan hands" do more than a gray hair to add years to your age

Don't you know that people notice your hands almost as much as your face? Don't use those ordinary washday soaps for dishes—they were never made to protect sensitive skin. But IVORY SOAP was. It gives your hands a gentle Ivory bath every time you wash dishes. And didn't you know? . . . Pure, gentle IVORY SOAP costs less to use for dishes than washday chips and powders! Ask for the practical "LARGE SIZE" Ivory.

Don't let dishwashing give you "old hands"—use IVORY SOAP

Railroad Trains Taken Off Street

Iron Horse Will No Longer Be Seen On Main Thoroughfares Of Carlisle

LAST RUN MADE GALA OCCASION

(International News Service)

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 23.—High street, Carlisle, where for the past 99 years railroad trains have mingled with other traffic, has seen the "iron horse" for the last time.

The last run of a Pennsylvania Railroad train down the center of this Cumberland county community's main street was made on October 16 with all the ceremony that might have attended the dedication of the first railroad here a century ago.

Drawing a string of cars bearing some 1500 persons, a streamlined Pennsylvania locomotive moved slowly through the town and into a new terminal on the outskirts of Carlisle. Twenty minutes after the special halted among the hundreds of cheering observers, a passenger train on regular schedule roared into the new station.

No sooner had the special moved from the old station than work on removing the rails from historic High street was begun. Burgess Raymond Heckman pulled the first spike, and piece by piece, the tracks that for almost a century had carried every type of equipment the years had evolved were taken up.

Hundreds of persons who gathered for the ceremony placed coins on the tracks as the special puffed through mid-Carlisle. Others besieged railroad and borough officials riding in the coaches for their autographs. Those who rode on the train had purchased special tickets printed to serve as souvenirs of the "last ride."

There was a bottle of champagne broken on the corner of the new station and there were fine speeches.

But for many old residents, Carlisle will never quite be the same.

AROUND CITY HALL

Workmen have started knocking out part of the north wall of the city toolhouse so that the hook and ladder fire truck can be driven into the repair shop, then driven out of the north doorway. After part of the brick wall is removed a door will be built.

Although council was late convening Thursday they did not stay in session long. Only a few transactions were completed. No action was taken to award a contract for $300.00 worth of electric light bulbs. If the General Electric company will permit the usual discount the business may be divided among local firms, otherwise one local firm may receive the award.

John Haven, commissioner of traffic, stated today that since the erection of the traffic light at the intersection of Grant and North Jefferson streets no accidents have occurred at that corner. According to police reports it was one of the most dangerous intersections, both for autoists and pedestrians, in the city. The light will flash an and off during months when North Jefferson street hill is covered with snow.

Completion of Rural avenue, which was opened to traffic today, is one of the city father's dreams fulfilled. The work was started two years ago. The avenue probably will take considerable traffic off North Mercer street and Highland avenue. The bituminous surface, according to city engineers, will not be ruined by storm water, drain having been connected to the storm sewer beneath the road.

FARM CO-OPERATIVES DOING MORE BUSINESS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Farmers' cooperative fruit and vegetable associations in the United States in the 1935-36 marketing season did a business of $212,000,000, or 6 per cent. more than in the preceding year, according to reports to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. More than 166,000 farmers and growers sold fruit and vegetables through cooperative associations against 158,000 in 1934-35. Cooperative marketing of citrus fruit accounted for the major part of the business.

Farmers' cooperative livestock marketing associations reported a business of $250,000,000 against $175,000,000 in 1934-35. More than one-half of the 600,000 farmers and stockmen marketing livestock through cooperatives are in Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, and Ohio. The largest of the cooperative terminal-market sales agencies handled more than 1,000,000 animals for its farmer patrons during 1935.

HAS RECORD FOR SUNDAY ATTENDANCE

(International News Service)

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O. Oct. 23—A local barber, Bert Garfield Bear, 33 appears to be entitled to the world's record for the best Sunday school attendance record.

For 27 years—since he was six years old—he has missed Sunday school classes on only three Sundays and they don't count because that failure was due to the quarantine imposed during the "flu" epidemic of 1918-19.

On each of the three Sundays when he was unable to attend, Baer went to the door of the First Methodist church and touched the door handle to indicate his willingness to attend.

For his devotion he won another seal from the Robert Baikes Alumni Sunday school Association.

Fire Loss Here Below Average Of Other Cities

ENTIRE LOSS WAS $30,000

New Castle firemen are proud of the record of the city in regard to fires during the past year, due in part to the care of citizens here in preventing fires, and to the fact that the firemen here have been alert to the situation and have stopped many fires which might have been serious before the blazes had a chance to get away to a good start.

The figures compiled by the United States Chamber of Commerce taken from reports of fire department officials and insurance companies, reveal that the per capita fire loss for New Castle last year was but 63 cents, while the figures for the nation as a whole are $1.95 per capita.

When active fire prevention contests were staged, cities showed a loss of $1.25, under the national average, but not as low as the figures for this city.

The number of fires in New Castle last year totaled 287, of which 52 were in brick and stone buildings, 135 were in frame buildings, 2 were in buildings not classified, and 98 were other than building fires. The total loss resulting from these fires was $30,206, of which $22,281 was covered by insurance. Insurance loss on buildings, because of fire, totaled $17,814; and on contents, $8,467. Fire insurance in New Castle last year totaled $1,232,300.

Eight Injured By Gas Blast

Tremendous Explosion Of Butane Gas Causes Home To Burn To Ground

(International News Service)

CROWLEY, La., Oct. 23—Eight persons were hurt here Thursday in a tremendous blast of butane gas that shook the outer residential section of the city.

The explosion took place as employes of the C. C. Carnes Company, distributors for the gas, were unloading it from a tank. Some of the gas escaped and drifted into the home of Earl Shreve.

The place in which the gas was stored and the Shreve home burned to the ground. A nearby store building was wrecked.

Members of the Shreve family were taken to a hospital where the condition of all but one was pronounced critical.

Air Mail Lines Sold, Approved

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Purchase of the Central Airlines, Inc., and the Pennsylvania Airlines & Transport company, airmail contractors between Washington and Detroit, and Detroit and Milwaukee, respectively, by the Pennsylvania-Central Airlines corporation, was approved Thursday by Acting Postmaster General Harlee Branch.

In authorizing the purchase of the two air mail routes by one contractor would result in improved mail, passenger and express service between Washington and Milwaukee, via Pittsburgh, Akron, Cleveland, Detroit, Pontiac, Lansing, Grand Rapids and Muskegon, a total of 743 miles.

Houdini's Widow Waits For Message

To Make Final Attempt To Communicate With Dead Magician

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 23—The ghost of Harry Houdini will have plenty of company Hallowe'en night if it should return during what Mrs. Houdini says will be a final attempt to communicate with the magician, dead for ten years, according to plans announced today.

Mrs. Houdini said there will be accommodations for 500 persons on the roof of a Hollywood hotel where the seance will be held.

Before dying Houdini, who spent his later years exposing fake mediums told his wife if he did not communicate with her within ten years she would know he could not.

TO DEDICATE SHAFT FOR WILL ROGERS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Work on placing a monument to Will Rogers in Mt. Lebanon park has been started here. Conceived by Boy Scouts, the monument, a granite shaft, was supported by the South Hills post, No. 166, American Legion, and by the Kiwanis and Lions clubs.

It was donated by a local contractor, and, weighing four tons, has been approved by Mt. Lebanon township commissioners, it will be dedicated in November.

Statesmen Of Many Nations In Conference

Launch Diplomatic Battle With Peace Of Europe At Stake

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Statesmen of 27 nations squared off today for a diplomatic battle royal as the Spanish non-intervention commission reconvened in the famous Locarno room at the foreign office, with the peace of Europe possibly at stake.

Britain stalling, and France pleading, played the roles of peacemakers in an effort to keep Ivan Maisky, the Soviet ambassador, from walking out of the commission and leaving the U. S. S. R. free to aid openly the Spanish leftists.

If the representatives of Fascist countries launch a violent attack against Russia, Maisky will bolt the conference, diplomats said, but if the meeting—in contrast to the last one—is orderly, the Soviet emissary may agree to submit Fascist counter-charges to Moscow.

London, Oct. 23.—In a desperate attempt to prevent the collapse of Spanish non-intervention, French Ambassador Charles Corbin today conferred with Lord Plymouth, chairman of the non-intervention commission, at the foreign office.

Landon Still Holds Big Lead

Semi-Final Literary Digest Poll Shows 11-8 Lead For Kansan

POLL MAJORITY FOR 32 STATES

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—Despite a heavy count of ballots from the metropolitan centers which cut his lead for the seventh consecutive week, Governor Landon is ahead of President Roosevelt 11 to 8, in the semi-finals of the Literary Digest presidential poll announced today.

Governor Landon has a poll majority in 32 states, while President Roosevelt was shown carrying 16. The electorate vote, on this basis, would be Landon 370, Roosevelt 161.

The total vote of 2,158,739 tabulated to date, is divided as follows:

Landon—1,182,307.
Roosevelt—873,526.
Lemke—75,119.

The remaining 22,787 votes are divided among the minor candidates.

Governor Landon's percentage of the vote is 54.8, compared to President Roosevelt's 40.7.

Metropolitan returns were divided as follows between the major candidates:

New York, Roosevelt 83, 566, Landon, 42,089; Chicago, Roosevelt 16,-934, Landon 16,293; Philadelphia, Roosevelt 29,599, Landon 23,464; Pittsburgh, Roosevelt 9,866, Landon 7,095; Cleveland, Roosevelt 2,063, Landon 1,025.

Latest returns by states included:

Electoral vote—

Ohio—Landon 70,046, Roosevelt 42,052.

Pennsylvania — Landon 115,393, Roosevelt 78,324.

New York, Oct. 23.—Incomplete, second report figures on the presidential poll being conducted in cities by Literary Digest today included:

Allentown, Pa. — Landon 2,666, Roosevelt 2,137.

Cincinnati, O. — Landon 8,571, Roosevelt 5,060.

WILLING TO WAIT

Jones was a shoemaker. By dint of hard saving he had managed to send his son Billy to a good school.

One afternoon Billy came into the shop.

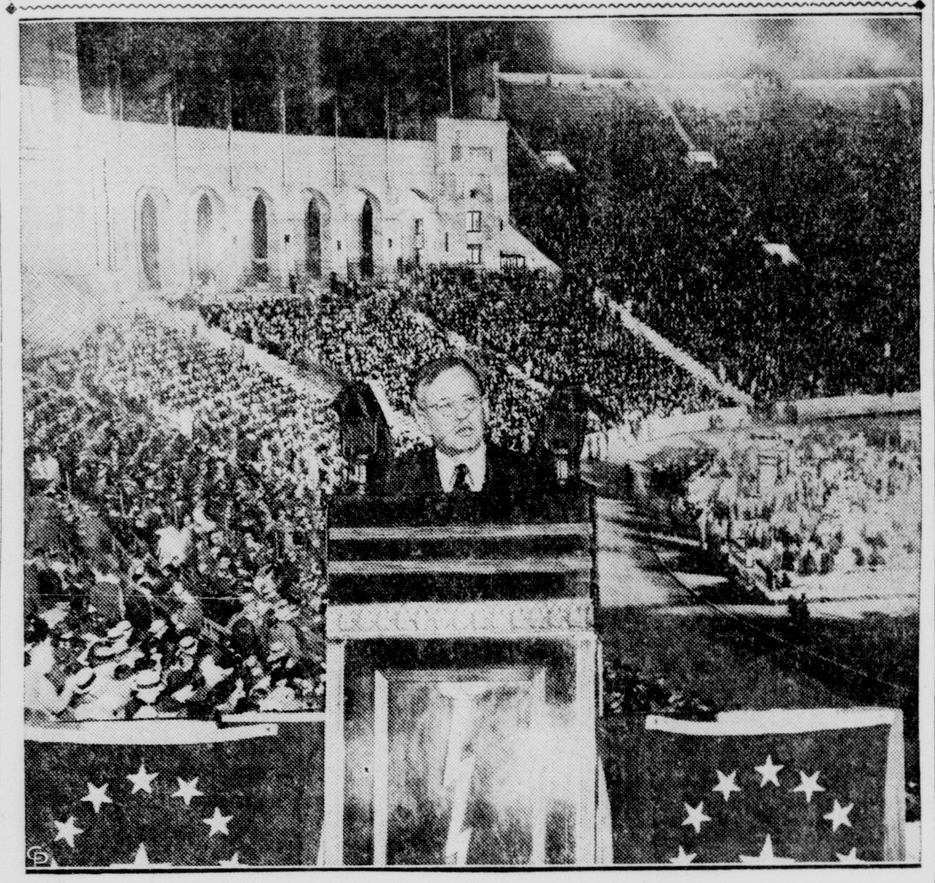
"Father," he demanded, "I want $1.25 to go to the movie."

"What!" cried Jones. "Do you realize that I've got to sole and heel three pairs of shoes to make $1.25?"

Billy sat down comfortably in a chair.

"All right, father," he said. "I'll wait."

As Landon Spoke To 75,000 In Los Angeles



A view of the crowd in the Los Angeles Colosseum with Governor Landon speaking, inset

When Gov. Alfred M. Landon invaded Los Angeles for an address in the Colosseum, 75,000 persons assembled to hear him speak. This gives an idea of the immense assemblage.

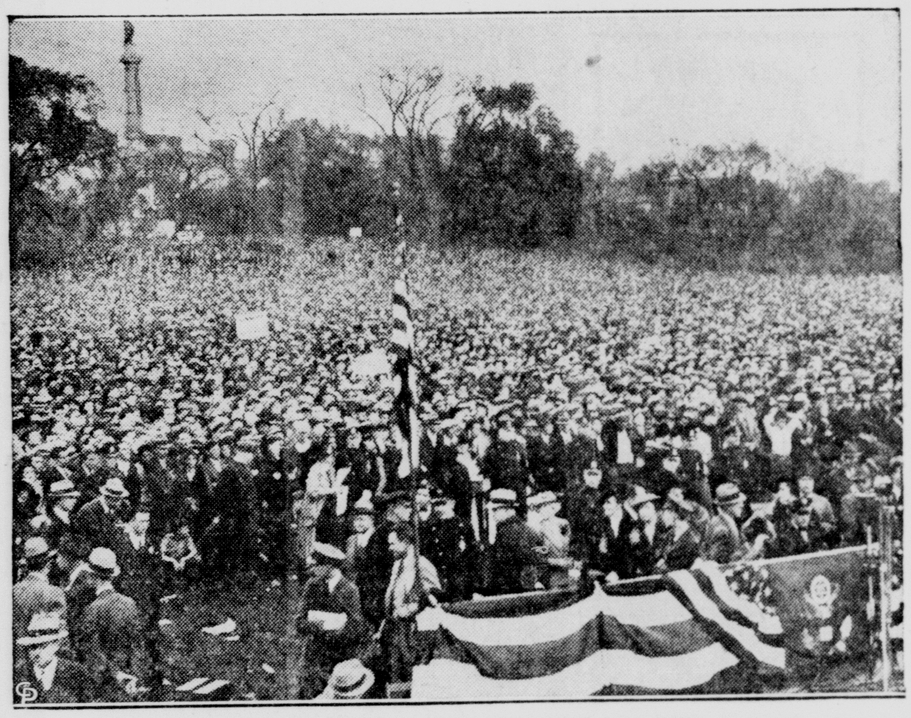
Monster Crowd Hears President In Boston



A VIEW OF THE CROWD OF 175,000 PERSONS JAMMED ON BOSTON COMMON

A view of the crowd of 175,000 persons which turned out for President Roosevelt in Boston and heard him declare that "American democracy will be safer" after election day. Police said the crowd on Boston Common was the largest since the signing of the Armistice in 1918. Following his Boston appearance the president gave the major address of his New England tour at Worcester.

Pastor's Wife Taken By Death

Mrs. Rees T. Williams, Of This City, Dies Today At Bangor, Pa.

Mrs. Rees T. Williams, wife of the First Congregational church pastor here, died today at the home of her parents at Bangor, Pa., after several weeks of illness. She was 28 years old.

The condition of Mrs. Williams had been critical for some time, and her husband had been at her bedside until several days ago when he returned to this city. In answer to a call from his wife's mother Rev. Williams left at 2 o'clock this morning for Bangor, accompanied by D. O. Davies and Ernie Crawford. Mrs. Williams had taken a turn for the worse Thursday night.

NEW PASTOR AT BAPTISTE TEMPLE

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA—Rev. Dr. Daniel A. Poling, head of the world-wide Christian Endeavor movement, was installed as pastor of Baptist Temple, September 30, to fill the vacancy caused more than a year ago by the departure of Rev. M. Joseph Twomey.

Participating in the ceremonies was Dr. Poling's father, his brother and his two sons, all of whom are clergymen. Dr. Twomey, who is director of the department of religious education, American Baptist Publication Society, officiated.

Voting Machines Being Prepared

Mercer County Completing Plans For Casting Of Record Vote

EIGHT TICKETS TO BE ON BALLOT

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Oct. 23—Ballots for the voting of electors on November 3 must all be delivered by the printers to the commissioners not later than October 27 is the today statement of Commissioners Registration Clerk Frank McConnon who states that all preparations for the election will be completed by that date.

Commissioners will start delivery of ballots following their delivery. The early date and delivery will put the supplies in the hands of the judges of the 97 county precincts several days prefacing the election which makes possible the correction of mistakes.

The 70 voting machines installed in 55 county precincts in the larger towns have all been checked by county and factory inspectors states McConnon. They are being set up to vote 8 tickets which constitutes the copy sent the commissioners by the bureau of elections. The machines are in charge of McConnon who states that they will be ready for voting the first of next week.

The Republican and Democratic party organization are just as ambitious in lining up the voters for the contest as the commissioners are in preparing for them. Within a few hundred of 50,000 voters are eligible to cast ballots. The number is the largest total in 130 years of the corporate history of the county. Predictions of percentage of total vote cast vary from 75 to 90 percent by leaders with the best bet around 83 percent.

BELIEVES METEOR CAUSED BARN FIRE

(International News Service)

BEEBE, Ark.—Loss of a barn and foodstuff stored within it by a mysterious fire here was attributed to the falling of a small meteor. So believes Whit Folkes, farmer of Hammondsville, near here.

Folkes said he left the barn just a few minutes before his wife discovered the blaze. Just prior to this, he said he heard some object strike the building. Neither he nor any of the members of his family smelled smoke and he does not suspect incendiarism.

Railroad Trains Taken Off Street

Iron Horse Will No Longer Be Seen On Main Thoroughfares Of Carlisle

LAST RUN MADE GALA OCCASION

(Special to Local News Bureau)

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 23.—High street, Carlisle, where for the past 50 years railroad trains have mingled with other traffic, has seen the "iron horse" for the last time.

The last run of a Pennsylvania Railroad train down the center of the Cumberland county community's main street was made on October 19 with all the ceremony that might have attended the dedication of the first railroad here a century ago.

Drawing a string of cars bearing some 1500 persons, a streamlined Pennsylvania locomotive moved slowly through the town and into a new terminal on the outskirts of Carlisle. Twenty minutes after the special halted among the hundreds of cheering observers, a passenger train on regular schedule roared into the new station.

No sooner had the special moved from the old station than work on removing the rails from the one time street was begun. Burgess Raymond Hoffman pulled the first spike, and piece by piece the tracks that for almost a century had carried every type of equipment the years had evolved were taken up.

Hundreds of persons who gathered for the ceremony placed coins on the tracks as the special pulled through mid-Carlisle. Others borrowed railroad and borough officials' pens on the coaches for their autographs. Those who rode on the train had purchased special tickets printed to serve as souvenirs of the "last ride."

There was a bottle of champagne broken on the corner of the new station and there were fine speeches.

But for many old residents, Carlisle will never quite be the same.

AROUND CITY HALL

Workmen have started knocking out part of the north wall of the city toolhouse so that the hook and ladder fire truck can be driven into the repair shop, then driven out of the north doorway. After part of the brick wall is removed a door will be built.

Although council was late convening Thursday they did not stay in session long. Only a few transactions were completed. No action was taken to award a contract for $600.00 worth of electric light bulbs, as the General Electric company will permit the usual discount the business may be divided among local firms, otherwise one local firm may receive the award.

John Haven, commissioner of traffic, stated today that since the erection of the traffic light at the intersection of Grant and North Jefferson streets no accidents have occurred at that corner. According to police reports it was one of the most dangerous intersections, both for autoists and pedestrians, in the city. The light will flash on and off during months when North Jefferson street hill is covered with snow.

Completion of Rural avenue, which was opened to traffic today, is one of the city father's dreams fulfilled. The work was started two years ago. The avenue probably will take considerable traffic off North Mercer street and Highland avenue. The bituminous surface, according to city engineers, will not be rutted by storm water, drain having been connected to the storm sewer beneath the road.

FARM CO-OPERATIVES DOING MORE BUSINESS

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Farmers' cooperative fruit and vegetable associations in the United States in the 1935-36 marketing season did a business of $272,000,000, or 6 percent more than in the preceding year, according to reports to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. More than 165,000 farmers and growers sold fruit and vegetables through cooperative associations against 158,000 in 1934-35. Cooperative marketing of citrus fruit accounted for the major part of the business.

Farmers' cooperative livestock marketing associations reported a business of $250,000,000 against $175,000,000 in 1934-35. More than one-half of the 600,000 farmers and stockmen marketing livestock through cooperatives are in Minnesota, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, and Ohio. The largest of the cooperative terminal-market sales agencies handled more than 1,000,000 animals for its farmer patrons during 1935.

HAS RECORD FOR SUNDAY ATTENDANCE

(Special to News Bureau)

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O. Oct. 23.—A local barber, Bert Garrick Beal, 38, appears to be entitled to the world's record for the best Sunday school attendance record.

For 27 years since he was six years old—he has missed Sunday school classes on only three Sundays and they don't count because that failure was due to the quarantine imposed during the "flu" epidemic of 1918-19.

On each of the four Sundays when he was unable to attend Beal went to the door of the First Methodist church and touched the door handle to indicate his willingness to attend.

For his devotion he won another seal from the Robert Raikes Alumni Sunday school Association.

J. Vale Downie Presents Figures On Work And Funds Spent

DECREASE IN ROLLS SHOWN SINCE MARCH

In a resume of the year's work done by the Works Progress Administration since its inception in July, 1935, J. Vale Downie director of District 14, shows the amount of money spent in Lawrence county and in the district the number of cases affected and other informative data.

The district was created to provide jobs for 19,436 cases on relief in the four counties of which Lawrence had 5,463. Beginning with March, 1936, there was a lessening of cases and by June 1 the number was down to 16,716 cases in the district. October 16, 1936, the total was 15,200. Approximately 1,516 had been released to private industry.

In the past 15 months WPA in District 14 has expended $9,074,571.54, of which $260,280.67 or 2.87 per cent was applied to administrative expense in the district. Of this amount expended, Lawrence county's share was $2,918,315.92. Of the grand total for the district, $4,659,192.04 went to highways, state and federal; $3,538,286.60 went to general construction, rural projects; $560,119.94 went to women's sewing projects, and $316,972.96 went for white collar work.

In connection with the release of WPA workers to private industry, Mr. Downie said:

"Complaints have been received at the district office from private employers to the effect that jobs had been offered to and refused by WPA workers.

"In answer to all such inquiries and complaints, we repeat the announcement previously published that all WPA employes are expected to accept private employment when it is offered. The district office instructs and encourages its workers to leave the projects for jobs in industry paying the equivalent of the security wage.

"To set at rest the apprehensions of workers, that they may leave WPA for a private job of short duration and may then be unable to get back on either relief or WPA, we wish to emphasize once more that any WPA worker may take private employment and may return to WPA at any time within three months without loss of time or resort to the relief office."

Pacelli Praises Press Of World

Says Press Great Instrument In Promotion Of Peace In Universe

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, secretary of state for the Vatican, praised the press as a great instrumentality for world peace, in an address before 400 persons at a luncheon given in his honor at the National Press club Thursday.

"Glory belongs not only to those who die on the field of battle," he said, "but also to those who are the protectors and guardians of world peace."

The cardinal, on his first visit to Washington, visited Washington's tomb at Mt. Vernon, received a degree from Georgetown university and addressed the faculty and students of both Georgetown and Catholic universities before leaving for New York.

ATHLETICS COSTLY

Ten years ago, Dr. Lewis H. Wagenhorst published a study at Columbia University on "The Administration and Cost of High School Interscholastic Athletics."

Of 366 high schools in 28 states, he found that the smaller the high school the larger the proportion of the appropriation by the board of public education for physical education went to interscholastic athletics. In high schools enrolling from 750 to 3,300 students, the percentage was 35; in high schools from 325 to 750 pupils, 70 per cent, and in high schools from 100 to 325 students, 96 per cent. Isn't that a pretty large price to pay for physical training of a very few students? What the figures are for today I do not know. Perhaps they are smaller. Let us hope they are. What are the figures for your high school?

Dr. Wagenhorst concludes that the present administration of high school athletic finance is loose and unbusinesslike.

"The price of supporting high school interscholastic athletics by means of gate receipts, pupils' fees and appeals to the public, tends to dramatize these activities.

"District and state championship contests sponsored by state high school athletic associations, should be financed by schools which participate, and be open to spectators without admission charge.

"The salary of the coach should be based upon his professional training and experience, and should not be out of proportion to the salaries paid to other members of the teaching staff. The salary of the coach should be paid by the board of education. . . .

"All games should be free alike to pupils and the public."

Submitted for the consideration of my readers.

Now I wish to raise a question. Since there are a number of fatalities and serious injuries incident to interscholastic and intercollegiate games, especially football, should there not be some responsibility assumed by the school, especially the college, for these injuries? In the last analysis, does not the football player become a potential asset financially to the school, especially to the college, for which he plays? Would it not seem a just and humane measure if schools and colleges were to take out insurance on each of the players, varsity and subs, against death and injury, the player and his family being the beneficiaries? The chief objection I can see to this proposal is that the poorer high schools and colleges would be placed at a disadvantage.

Statesmen Of Many Nations In Conference

Launch Diplomatic Battle With Peace Of Europe At Stake

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Statesmen of 27 nations squared off today for a diplomatic battle royal as the Spanish non-intervention commission reconvened in the famous Locarno room at the foreign office, with the peace of Europe possibly at stake.

Britain stalling, and France pleading, played the roles of peacemakers in an effort to keep Ivan Maisky, the Soviet ambassador, from walking out of the commission and leaving the U. S. S. R. free to aid openly the Spanish leftists.

If the representatives of Fascist countries launch a violent attack against Russia, Maisky will bolt the conference, diplomats said, but if the meeting—in contrast to the last one—is orderly, the Soviet emissary may agree to submit Fascist counter-charges to Moscow.

London, Oct. 23.—In a desperate attempt to prevent the collapse of Spanish non-intervention, French Ambassador Charles Corbin today conferred with Lord Plymouth, chairman of the non-intervention commission, at the foreign office.

Landon Still Holds Big Lead

Semi-Final Literary Digest Poll Shows 11-8 Lead For Kansan

POLL MAJORITY FOR 32 STATES

(Special News Representative)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23—Despite a heavy count of ballots from the metropolitan centers which cut his lead for the seventh consecutive week, Governor Landon is ahead of President Roosevelt 11 to 8, in the semi-finals of the Literary Digest presidential poll announced today.

Governor Landon has a poll majority in 32 states, while President Roosevelt was shown carrying 16. The electorate vote, on this basis, would be Landon 370, Roosevelt 161.

The total vote of 2,158,739 tabulated to date, is divided as follows:

Landon—1,182,307.
Roosevelt—873,526.
Lemke—75,119.

The remaining 22,787 votes are divided among the minor candidates.

Governor Landon's percentage of the vote is 54.8, compared to President Roosevelt's 40.7.

Metropolitan returns were divided as follows between the major candidates:

New York, Roosevelt 83, 566, Landon, 42,089; Chicago, Roosevelt 16,-934, Landon 16,293; Philadelphia, Roosevelt 29,599, Landon 23,464; Pittsburgh, Roosevelt 9,856, Landon 7,095; Cleveland, Roosevelt 2,063, Landon 1,025.

Latest returns by states included: Electoral vote—

Ohio—Landon 70,046, Roosevelt 42,052.

Pennsylvania — Landon 115,393, Roosevelt 78,324.

New York, Oct. 23.—Incomplete, second report figures on the presidential poll being conducted in cities by Literary Digest today included:

Allentown, Pa. — Landon 2,666, Roosevelt 2,137.

Cincinnati, O. — Landon 8,571, Roosevelt 5,060.

WILLING TO WAIT

Jones was a shoemaker. By dint of hard saving he had managed to send his son Billy to a good school.

One afternoon Billy came into the shop.

"Father," he demanded, "I want $1.25 to go to the movie."

"What!" cried Jones. "Do you realize that I've got to sole and heel three pairs of shoes to make $1.25?"

Billy sat down comfortably in a chair.

"All right, father," he said. "I'll wait."

Pastor's Wife Taken By Death

Mrs. Rees T. Williams, Of This City, Dies Today At Bangor, Pa.

Mrs. Rees T. Williams, wife of the First Congregational church pastor here, died today at the home of her parents at Bangor, Pa., after several weeks of illness. She was 28 years old.

The condition of Mrs. Williams had been critical for some time, and her husband had been at her bedside until several days ago when he returned to this city. In answer to a call from his wife's mother Rev. Williams left at 2 o'clock this morning for Bangor, accompanied by D. O. Davies and Ernie Crawford. Mrs. Williams had taken a turn for the worse Thursday night.

NEW PASTOR AT BAPTISTE TEMPLE

Voting Machines Being Prepared

Mercer County Completing Plans For Casting Of Record Vote

EIGHT TICKETS TO BE ON BALLOT

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Oct. 23—Ballots for the voting of electors on November 3 must all be delivered by the printers to the commissioners not later than October 27 is the today statement of Commissioners Registration Clerk Frank McConnon who states that all preparations for the election will be completed by that date.

Commissioners will start delivery of ballots following their delivery. The early date and delivery will put the supplies in the hands of the judges of the 97 county precincts several days prefacing the election which makes possible the correction of mistakes.

The 70 voting machines installed in 55 county precincts in the larger towns have all been checked by county and factory inspectors states McConnon. They are being set up to vote 8 tickets which constitutes the copy sent the commissioners by the bureau of elections. The machines are in charge of McConnon who states that they will be ready for voting the first of next week.

The Republican and Democratic party organization are just as ambitious in lining up the voters for the contest as the commissioners are in preparing for them. Within a few hundred of 50,000 voters are eligible to cast ballots. The number is the largest total in 150 years of the corporate history of the county. Predictions of percentage of total vote cast vary from 75 to 90 percent by leaders with the best bet around 83 percent.

BELIEVES METEOR CAUSED BARN FIRE

(International News Service)

BEEBE, Ark.—Loss of a barn and foodstuff stored within it by a mysterious fire here was attributed to the falling of a small meteor. So believes Whit Folkes, farmer of Hammondsville, near here.

Folkes said he left the barn just a few minutes before his wife discovered the blaze. Just prior to this, he said he heard some object strike the building. Neither he nor any of the members of his family smelled smoke and he does not suspect incendiarism.

On Court House Hill

Tomorrow will be the last day on which voters in boroughs and townships can register at the county commissioners' office. Those eligible to register are persons who have been missed by the registering assessors or persons who have moved from one district to another and who have reason to believe that they may have been missed.

All jurors attending court this week except those who were called in the case of J. S. Wasilewski against the County of Lawrence, were excused yesterday morning. Court this week was considerably shortened by the settlement of several cases. There will be no more regular terms of court until quarter sessions in December, a common pleas term, scheduled for November, having been called off.

Under the will of the late Mary Werl, of Bessemer, which has been admitted to probate at the register and recorder's office, all of decedent's estate has been left to her husband, John Werl, during his lifetime. At his death it is to go to decedent's five children, William Glassel, Fred Glassel, Alice Edwards, Catherine Werl and Mary Taylor, share and share alike.

A somewhat unusual suit has been filed at the prothonotary's office by Ralph Beight against C. A. Stewart, in which the plaintiff is seeking to recover $200 for his automobile which was wrecked when he ran into two horses belonging to Stewart. The horses, which were valuable, had managed to get out of a pasture field to the public highway. Beight was driving along the New Middletown, O., and Bessemer road to Bessemer at 1:30 in the morning, when the horses suddenly jumped from the side of the highway into his car, wrecking it badly. While the statement of claim does not say what became of the horses, it is understood that one of them or possibly both, were so badly injured that they had to be killed.

Marie H. Zollum has filed an application at the prothonotary's office for a divorce from her husband, Andrew Zollum, on the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment. The couple were married in March, 1928. The libellant now lives on Glenn avenue, Ellwood City, and the respondent at Erie, Pa.

Settlement by agreement between the parties has been made in the case of Lester H. Kavanaugh and Caroline Kavanaugh, of Sharon, against Olive Adams, of Polk, Pa. The case was one growing out of an automobile accident on the New Wilmington-Sharon road, at the intersection of the Pulaski road, a short distance west at New Wilmington. There is a sharp curve at the point of the road intersection. The Kavanaugh's were driving south. The defendant was going north. It is claimed that the accident was caused when the defendant's car got over the center line of the road. Under the settlement, Mr. Kavanaugh is to receive $150 for injuries, and his wife $50.

Hugh M. Marquis has filed a scire facias against Eva Wallace, executrix in the estate of the late M. Louis Wallace to collect a mortgage of $5,000. The debt with interest and taxes now amounts to $7,274.91.

An amicable action in ejectment has been filed at the prothonotary's office by Stella Gallaher against Percy and Alice Weaver to secure possession of a property in Wurtemburg.

Eldest Daughter Of Mussolini To Visit U. S. Shortly

(International News Service)

ROME, Oct. 23—Countess Galeazzo Ciano, the former Edda Mussolini, eldest daughter of Il Duce, is planning a visit to the United States shortly, it was understood here today.

Precise purpose of her visit is not known. The suggestion was made to her some time ago that she take her two young sisters, sufferers from infantile paralysis, to Warm Springs, Georgia, for treatment, but indications are she will not do so at present.

A report circulated in Rome today that Mussolini's son Vittorio, who fought with the air force in Ethiopia is shortly to marry a Milanese girl, daughter of a prominent industrialist. Her identity has not been disclosed.

AAA Measures Farms In Ohio

(International News Service)

URBANA, O., Oct. 23.—A staff of 46 AAA investigators are engaged in a two months' task of measuring 1,500 local farms to determine their eligibility for participation in federal benefits under the 1936 soil conservation program. Fields will be measured individually to determine extent of soil building and soil depleting crops on all farms which have observed regulations of the conservation program. Of the 2,340 farms in the county owners of 1,500 have attempted to comply, it was said.

J. Vale Downie Presents Figures On Work And Funds Spent

DECREASE IN ROLLS SHOWN SINCE MARCH

In a resume of the year's work done by the Works Progress Administration since its inception in July, 1935, J. Vale Downie director of District 14, shows the amount of money spent in Lawrence county and in the district, the number of cases affected and other informative data.

The district was created to provide jobs for 19,436 cases on relief in the four counties of which Lawrence had 5,463. Beginning with March, 1936, there was a lessening of cases and by June 1 the number was down to 16,716 cases in the district. October 16, 1936, the total was 15,200. Approximately 1,516 had been released to private industry.

In the past 15 months WPA in District 14 has expended $9,074,571.54, of which $260,280.67 or 2.87 per cent was applied to administrative expense in the district. Of this amount expended, Lawrence county's share was $2,918,315.92. Of the grand total for the district, $4,650,192.04 went to highways, state and federal; $3,538,289.60 went to general construction, rural projects; $560,119.94 went to women's sewing projects, and $316,972.96 went for white collar work.

In connection with the release of WPA workers to private industry, Mr. Downie said:

"Complaints have been received at the district office from private employers to the effect that jobs had been offered to and refused by WPA workers.

"In answer to all such inquiries and complaints, we repeat the announcement previously published that all WPA employes are expected to accept private employment when it is offered. The district office instructs and encourages its workers to leave the projects for jobs in industry paying the equivalent of the security wage.

"To set at rest the apprehensions of workers, that they may leave WPA for a private job of short duration and may then be unable to get back on either relief or WPA, we wish to emphasize once more that any WPA worker may take private employment and may return to WPA at any time within three months without loss of time or resort to the relief office."

Pacelli Praises Press Of World

Says Press Great Instrument In Promotion Of Peace In Universe

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, secretary of state for the Vatican, praised the press as a great instrumentality for world peace, in an address before 400 persons at a luncheon given in his honor at the National Press club Thursday.

"Glory belongs not only to those who die on the field of battle," he said, "but also to those who are the protectors and guardians of world peace."

The cardinal, on his first visit to Washington, visited Washington's tomb at Mt. Vernon, received a degree from Georgetown university and addressed the faculty and students of both Georgetown and Catholic universities before leaving for New York.

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ATHLETICS COSTLY

Ten years ago, Dr. Lewis H. Wagenhorst published a study at Columbia University on "The Administration and Cost of High School Interscholastic Athletics."

Of 366 high schools in 28 states, he found that the smaller the high school the larger the proportion of the appropriation by the board of public education for physical education went to interscholastic athletics. In high schools enrolling from 750 to 3,300 students, the percentage was 35; in high schools from 325 to 750 pupils, 70 per cent, and in high schools from 100 to 325 students, 96 per cent. Isn't that a pretty large price to pay for physical training of a very few students? What the figures are for today I do not know. Perhaps they are smaller. Let us hope they are. What are the figures for your high school?

Dr. Wagenhorst concludes that the present administration of high school athletic finance is loose and unbusinesslike.

"The price of supporting high school interscholastic athletics by means of gate receipts, pupils' fees and appeals to the public, tends to dramatize these activities.

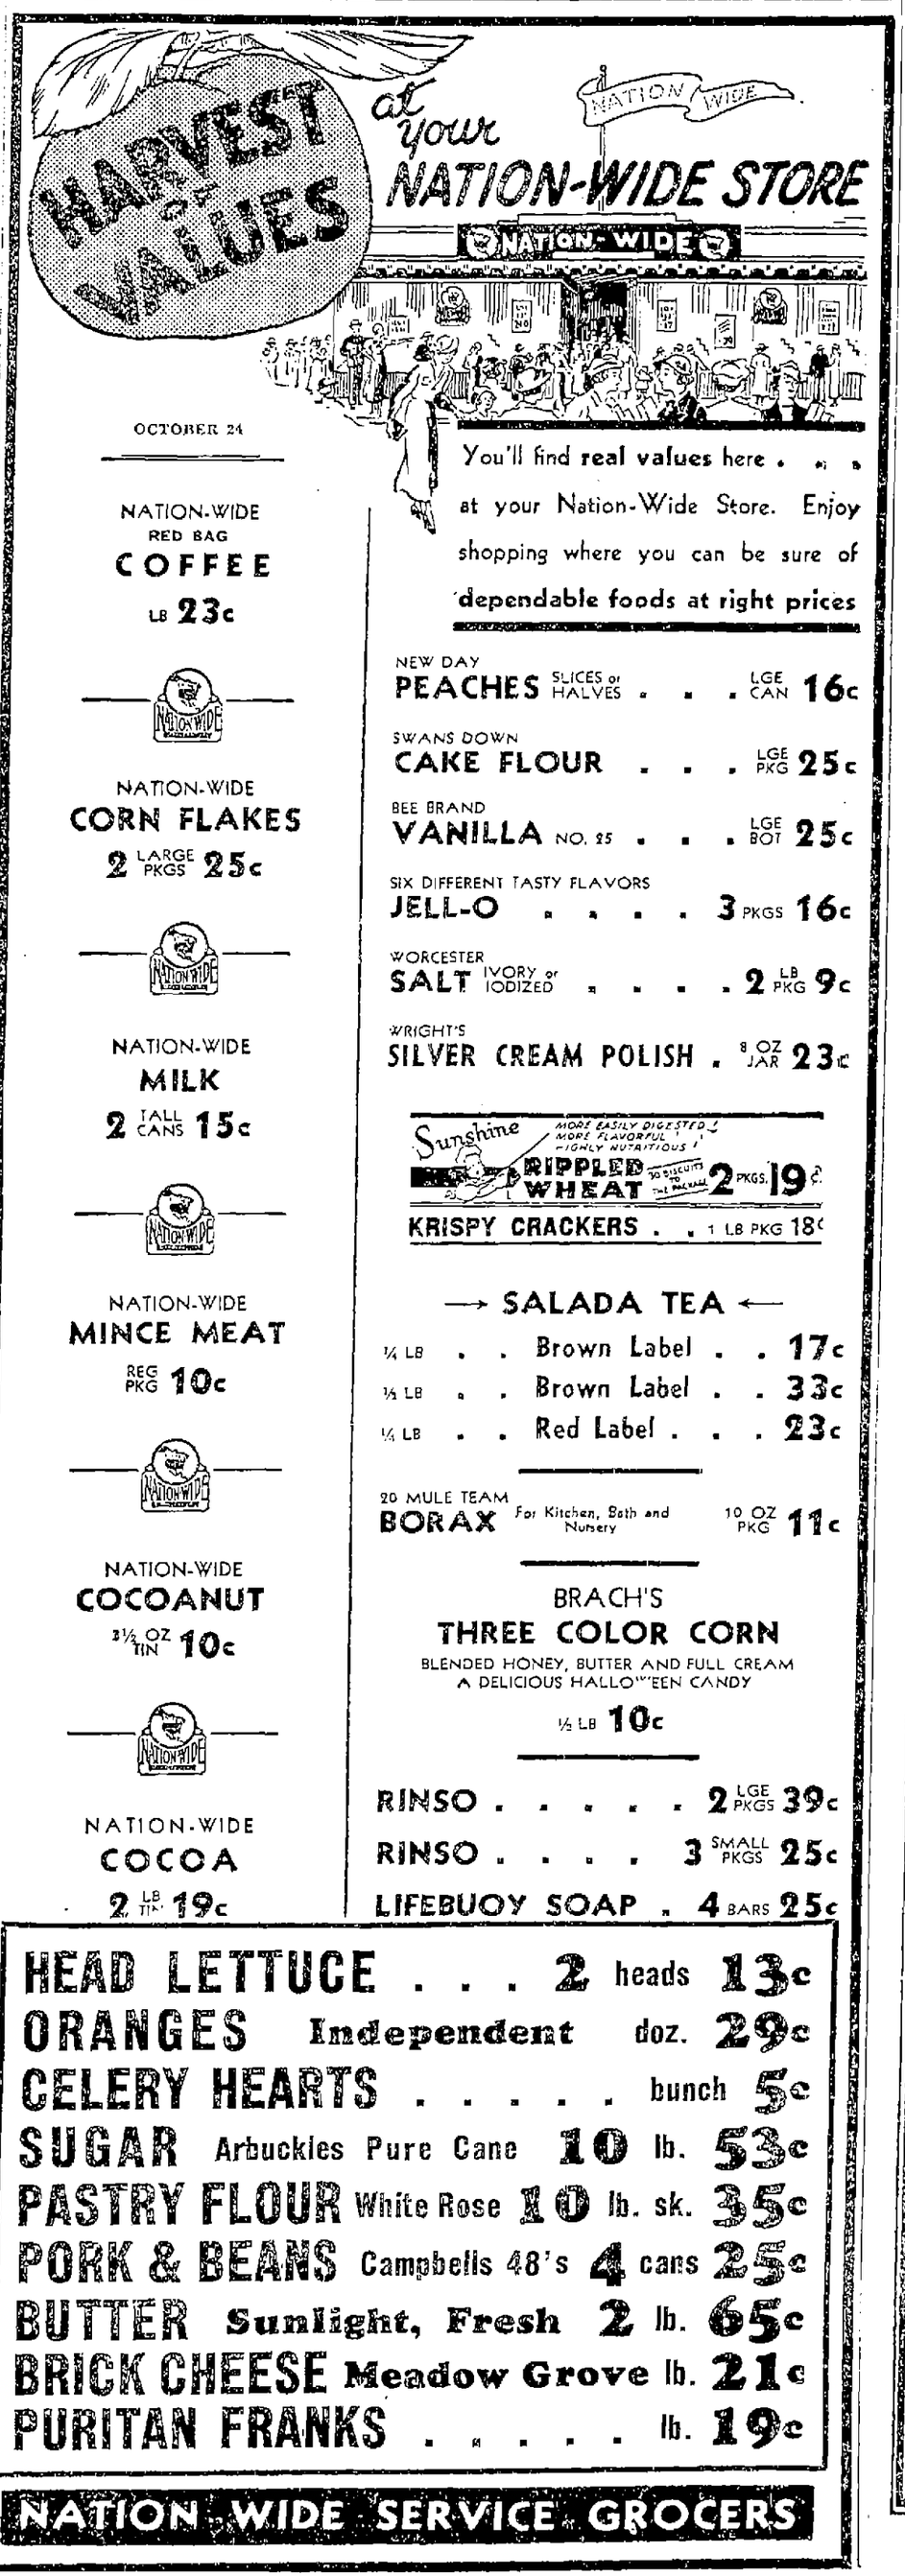
"District and state championship contests sponsored by state high school athletic associations, should be financed by schools which participate, and be open to spectators without admission charge.

"The salary of the coach should be based upon his professional training and experience, and should not be out of proportion to the salaries paid to other members of the teaching staff. The salary of the coach should be paid by the board of education. . . .

"All games should be free alike to pupils and the public."

Submitted for the consideration of my readers.

Now I wish to raise a question. Since there are a number of fatalities and serious injuries incident to interscholastic and intercollegiate games, especially football, should there not be some responsibility assumed by the school, especially the college, for these injuries? In the last analysis, does not the football player become a potential asset financially to the school, especially to the college, for which he plays? Would it not seem a just and humane measure if schools and colleges were to take out insurance on each of the players, carrying said risks, against death and injury, the player and his family being the beneficiaries? The chief objection I can see to this proposal is that the poorer high schools and colleges would be placed at a disadvantage.



Painless Surgery Is Latest Thing In Medical World

New Kind Of Anaesthetic Will Keep Patient Quiet For Several Days

Would Put Patients To Sleep Six To Seven Hours Before Operating

By WILLIAM G. WEART
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—Painless surgery has progressed to a point where the patient can be spared physical and mental suffering before and after, as well as during an operation.

This was revealed publicly for the first time Thursday, when Dr. A. L. Soresi of the Italian medical center, New York, explained the "ideal anaesthesia", at the 26th clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

"The fundamental idea underlying the ideal anaesthesia is to create in the patient an unconscious state of mind not only during the operation, but also as long as possible before and after, so that on regaining consciousness all the unpleasant features of the surgical intervention have vanished and convalescence starts pleasantly," Dr. Soresi explained.

Conditions Ideal

"Conditions have been so ideal in some cases," he said, "that patients upon regaining consciousness two, three or four days after the operation asked the surgeon or the nurse in charge—'when am I going to be operated?'"

The ideal anaesthesia, Dr. Soresi stated, calls for the patient being placed in a restful sleep at least six hours before the operation with "wine proctoclysis" started after the surgery.

"The wine absorbed by the lower colon supplies not only all the calories and fluid required by the patient," Dr. Soresi pointed out, "but acts also as a marvelous tonic and keeps the patient in a state of semi-consciousness resembling natural sleep with normal full pulse and normal respiration, thus the patient enjoys a full rest free from mental anxiety and physical pain when rest is most desirable."

No Complications

The post-operative prolonged unconsciousness not only spares the patient pain, but "enables the surgeon to carry on whatever surgical procedures he deems best under ideal anaesthetic conditions. is safe as to life, prevents unpleasant complications and also constitutes the most important factor in helping the patient in recovering," Dr. Soresi said.

"It carries the patient from the immediate pre-operative period into a pleasant uncomplicated convalescence, utterly unconscious of having been in the hospital two, three or four days, of having been brought to the operating room, of having been operated, or having gone through the preoperative and postoperative periods.

"The patient has no recollection of time, he has simply slept two or three days untroubled by events that ordinarily would have caused him the greatest concern and anxiety, not to mention physical suffering," Dr. Soresi stated.

Declares Landon Will Be Elected

Eastern Manager Of Knox-Landon Campaign Sees Certain Victory For G. O. P.

SAYS PENNSYLVANIA MAJORITY 200,000

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Before returning to New York for the wind-up of his work as manager of the eastern division of the Landon-Knox campaign, Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of North Attleboro, Mass., repeated his prediction of victory for Governor Alfred M. Landon and also expressed confidence that the Republicans would have a majority in the next national house of representatives.

"I am very confident," declared Congressman Martin, "that the final figures on Nov. 3 will show a substantial victory for Governor Landon in the presidential contest.

"The eastern situation has been steadily improving during the last ten days. We no longer need to worry about Pennsylvania. That state will go Republican by over 200,000."

Give Report On Grade Crossings

Most Of Crossing Crashes Occur At Junctions Which Are Protected

FOUR KILLED IN LAST MONTH

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Of the 32 grade crossing accidents reported to the division of accidents of the Public Service Commission last month, 17, or more than half, occurred at protected grade crossings. Fifteen accidents were reported from unprotected crossings. The total grade crossing accidents reported were eight less than in the same month in 1935.

Four persons were killed in last month's accidents, three of the fatalities resulting from accidents at protected crossings. Fourteen persons were injured, six at protected crossings and eight at unprotected crossings. Of the 32 accidents reported last month, 17 resulted in no casualties.

Steam railroads reported 220 accidents in September, an increase of 46 over the corresponding month last year. Of the 40 persons killed last month, 28 were trespassers, eight were employes and four were travellers over grade crossings. No passengers were killed. The 174 injured include 95 employes, 29 passengers, 14 travellers over grade crossings, 28 trespassers and nine classified as non-trespassers.

The railroads reported 55 non-casualty accidents where the damage to equipment and road-bed was in excess of $250 each. Of the 96 operating companies and divisions in the state, 47 reported having had no accidents.

Eight persons were killed and 220 injured in the 196 accidents reported by street railway companies in September. Total accidents increased by 25 over those reported in September, 1935. Two passengers were killed and 126 injured last month. No employes were killed or injured. Seventeen of the 34 operating electric railway companies reporting last month reported having had no accidents.

Pennsylvanians Win Egg Title

Thirteen Of First Twenty Pens Owned In This State

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—In the fifth annual egg-laying contest of the Pennsylvania department of agriculture Pennsylvania recaptured the honors lost last year to California.

With a record of 2826 eggs and 2960.40 points a pen of single comb White Leghorns owned by Guy A. Leader, York, took first place in this year's contest which has just closed. The winning pen last year, also single comb White Leghorns, produced 2907 eggs and scored 3057.35 points.

Thirteen of the ranking first 20 were Pennsylvania Pens. With the exception of the fourth place pen, Rhode Island Reds, the 20 ranking pens were single White Leghorns.

The point scoring is on a basis of one point for each two-ounce egg. Thirteen pullets comprise a pen, the record of the ten highest birds counting in the pen's score.

Bar pins, ranging from tailored metals to rhinestone evening types, are staging a return to favor.

Says Al Smith Is Big Factor

Support Will Have Large Part In Landon Victory Says Woman Leader

SMITH TO SPEAK IN PITTSBURGH

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23—Al Smith and other Jeffersonian Democrats will prove a decisive factor in Republican victory at the polls November 3, Mrs. Mabel Jacques Eichel of New York, national director of the Independent Coalition of American Women, declared here Thursday.

Here to make arrangements for Smith's address in Pittsburgh Saturday night, Mrs. Eichel, who has traveled 50,000 miles to further the coalition's program, declared:

"Either there has been a tremendous change of sentiment towards the Republican candidates or else the people who formerly were afraid to speak up are expressing their views since Governor Smith and others have come out against the New Deal.

"After Governor Smith spoke for the coalition in New York letters poured in to us from all parts of the nation indorsing our support for Landon and Knox. These letters came not so much from New York as the more remote sections of the country."

'SCANTY ATTIRE' IS OKAYED BY BOARD

DANBURY, Conn.—Some call them "shorts"; others term them "very short shorts"; but conservative New Englanders call them "scanty attire."

However, the board of councilmen here settled the issue of whether women in shorts could do their shopping in the downtown area in a four to two vote against a measure proposed to ban the wearing of "shorts" on the streets.

The controversy raged over the western end of Connecticut, especially in Westport and Danbury. Ministers, womens' clubs, public officials, physicians, and others have taken sides.

State President Gives Juniors Stirring Talk

Ranking with the foremost addresses which have been heard in New Castle by clubwomen of the community, was the one given in Highland U. P. church Thursday evening, by Mrs. John M. Phillips, state federation president, who spoke under auspices of the Junior Federated groups.

Straight from the heart of their state leader, older clubwomen, as well as younger women, heard a stirring plea from Mrs. Phillips to "Hold Fast To Those Things Which Are Good."

Taking her theme from the Bible, the speaker said those words written centuries ago, are as applicable today in the period of social insecurity and unrest, as they were in olden times, if not more so today. Wonderful advice at a time when we are seemingly being led astray.

Outlines Subject

She outlined her subject generally, into various sub-divisions; First, she admonished, "Hold Fast to the Soil; get back to nature, appreciate the big outdoors as fundamental. Second, Hold Fast to Home; with health as the first requisite for happiness. Third, Hold Fast to Citizenship; making political life an honorable calling; acquaint yourself with facts, single out the right person for the job, and if necessary, draft him or her into service."

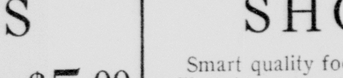
"Fourth, Hold Fast to the Constitution; it can be amended legally, but adhere strictly to fundamental principles. The Constitution is above partisanship but must be the guide for all parties."

"Finaley, and yet first, Hold Fast to the Spiritual—God. We must bring back God to the world and it's up to the women to do it. Wake up, take a stand for open churches, open chapels in colleges, put the Bible back on the table, and revive family worship."

Applicable To Club Work

As to club work, the theme is applicable to club traditions. As proof, it was shown that last year's plans are working out successfully inasmuch as there is a closer relationship between the several divisions since the new plan is state directly to county, eliminating the middle district.

Second, progress is evident along lines of leadership as women are now being trained in the Federation for particular work assigned them. Third, department of Juniors has been recognized by the state,



MRS. JOHN M. PHILLIPS

inasmuch as the Juniors now have their first representative on the state board, Mrs. Russell Heyre of Milton, having been elected last October, as second vice president at large. The vice president receives the same budget as the Senior officer for which a strict accounting must be made. Fourth, each department now has a Junior vice chairman. Fifth, a Junior is on the finance committee.

These are a few of the accomplishments already for the Juniors, and still another aim is a Junior vice chairman of organization.

Not Only Social Group

Mrs Phillips stressed the point of not viewing a woman's club as a social group in the strict sense of the word, but rather a "union of interests of many individuals." The Federation whole set-up is founded on the theme, "Organization to unite interest and influences of women."

This means women of any and all communities and the leader drew attention to the fact that the time is coming when clubs will be available for all types of women, as there is a dire need for just such background.

In all club work, Mrs. Phillips emphasized the importance of better feeling among club workers. "Cut criticism," she said, "learn to know each other better, accept suggestions, show strength in organization by attending meetings whether to one's liking or not, for there's value in just 'sitting in' on a meeting, interested or not in the speaker.

"Arouse enthusiasm, have hospitality committees, reach out hands in friendliness, accept chairmanships in the light of service, for we know not when we may be called upon to act."

Representing 100,000 club women, Mrs. Phillips repeatedly urged organization. In her goal to double the number of club women in Pennsylvania and have every club federated, she spoke of untiring efforts being made to harmonize interests between Juniors and Seniors, new groups being formed all over the state. She herself, has traveled far and near since August to lend assistance to this work.

Greatest Menace

Further, she touched upon the liquor problem, urging the Juniors to do their part against the degragation of this evil, which she termed the greatest menace in the United States.

As to program planning, she said it is commendable to read about the accomplishments of Benjamin Franklin and other great men, but in so doing, relate them to present day leaders for inspiration. Show faith, because it is being sorely tested, in this time and age.

Mrs. Phillips called attention to the state convention which will be held in Philadelphia, "The Cradle of Liberty," next May 11-14. "Citizenship" has been chosen as the basic theme, most appropriate in the year of the 150th anniversary of the framing of the Constitution.

Also, she reminded her listeners of the November district meeting in Pittsburgh, featuring Fine Arts, a day of which week, November 10, has been set aside for the southwestern district.

Keen appreciation was expressed at the conclusion of the address by Elsie McGeorge, secretary of the Federated Juniors who charmingly introduced Mrs. Phillips for the uplifting message brought to them, as it very deservedly merited the sincere applause received.

Mrs. Phillips is a brilliant speaker, with a wealth of background built upon active interest and leadership in all phases of civic and club work. She speaks informally, winning her audiences at the outset and holding them in rapt attention to the conclusion of her talks. She has a vivid personality which, coupled with a motherly charm, wins for her, followers where she appears.. While in New Castle, she was the house guest of Mrs. Charles Greer, of North Jefferson street.

Auspices under which last night's meeting was held include in the Junior groups: Woman's club, Mary E. Wilson, acting president; Federated Juniors, Martha Jo McGoun, president; Junior Reading Circle, Elizabeth Dietterle, president; and sub-Juniors, Gretchen Smith, president.

Serving as ushers were representatives from each group: Georgiana McNees, Eleanor McGill, Sara McGoun, Iva Mayberry and Dorothy Millinger.

Church Workers Conference Will Take Place Here

Conference Scheduled For Sunday At St. Paul's Lutheran Church

A church workers conference will be conducted in St. Paul's Lutheran church of New Castle Sunday afternoon, October 25, at 2:30 o'clock.

This conference, one of thirteen in the territory of the Pittsburgh Synod and one of three in the territory of the West Conference of the synod, is for Sunday school officers and teachers particularly and for all the workers in the churches from the other organizations including the church councils.

The speaker will be the Rev. C. H. B. Lewis, D. D., of Fremont, Neb., field secretary of the church and parish school board of the United Lutheran church. His theme will be "Multiplying Our Power" through co-operation and consecration. The Lutheran churches of New Castle, Ellwood City, Youngstown, O., and surrounding territory are co-operating in this conference. Dr. Lewis is an expert in his department and brings an effective and inspirational message.

The other workers conferences in the West Conference territory will be at Grace Lutheran church, Butler, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and Grace church, Rochester, Pa., Monday afternoon and evening.

The Mikado Is Well Presented

Second Performance Is Given At The Cathedral Thursday

LARGER CROWD IS ENTHUSED

"The Mikado," the tuneful Gilbert and Sullivan opera which opened in the Cathedral Wednesday night, delighted another large crowd on Thursday night and they were rewarded by another stellar performance.

Well over any slight nervousness which marks opening night performances the cast performed in a most professional manner Thursday night, and the customers out in the house stormed the players with applause. Between the first and second act a number of the women in the cast were presented with flowers.

The success of "The Mikado" seems to indicate two things. First, that the New Castle amateurs are capable of presenting such things and second that in seeking a vehicle for public entertainment the Y. W. C. A., sponsoring organization, need not confine itself to productions that are purely amateur both as to libretto and cast.

PLANT GROUPS MUST ACT ON AMENDMENT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23—Adopted by an employe representative council representing about 50,000 workers in Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation mills in the Pittsburgh-Youngstown district, the much discussed amendment to the company's employe representation plan must now be submitted to individual plant groups for ratification before it becomes effective it was revealed today.

The individual plant groups, generally termed the "general bodies" meet once a month. In some cases, the monthly meetings have already been held, in which case the amendment, which is to go before all bodies at their next regular meetings, holds over until next month.

The amendment creates what will be known as the Pittsburgh district general council, comprised of two employe representatives and two management delegates from each plant in the affected area. The manager of industrial relations for the employer-plant will sit on the council as an ex-officio member.

Employe delegates may only be elected from among employe representatives, and the council will meet quarterly, in November, February, May and August. The council will be empowered to adjust only those matters referred to it by the local plant general bodies or by the management.

Committee meetings of the council may be called only upon call of the committee chairman or district manager of industrial relations, or upon written request of the majority of the committee.

Sign Despoilers Caught In Act

Ordered By Mayor To Clean Up Results Of Their Work —To Halt Vandalism

Mayor Charles E. McGrath today adopted a unique method of preventing the ruination of signs in different parts of the city and as a result five youths who police claim threw mud on a picture of Republican Presidential Nominee Alfred M. Landon were "sentenced" to wash the mud off the sign board. The mayor also stated that henceforth any vandalism to any sign, whether it be political or otherwise, will result in swift punishment.

According to the police report, Patrolman Willis McMullen saw five youths last night go to the signboard along South Mill street and throw "muck" on the likeness of Landon. He caught one of the boys Three others were taken by Policeman Harry Flinner and Cecil Suber to the police station. The fifth could not be located until today. Two were released last night on forfeits of $10 each.

This morning the mayor said the boys would be sentenced to clean off the "muck' or pay a fine. He said that following the work, police would inspect the sign to see that it had been done well.

Americans wouldn't tolerate a dictatorship. Notice how mad they get when forced to listen to advertising to avoid missing the rest of the program.

C. C. C. Recruits Will Leave For Ft. Meade Tonight

Ten Additional Recruits To Be Dispatched For C. C. C. Service From District

Following an examination this morning by Sergeant Edward Permar of the local army recruiting station, ten recruits for C. C. C. service were passed and will leave this evening for Fort George Meade, Maryland.

The following men successfully passed the physical requirements for service at the camps: Joe DeMatteo, 3 East Friendship street; Lloyd C. Trover, 317 Shenango street; William Albert Weaver, 2207 Pennsylvania avenue; Clair R. Dunlap, R. D. 4, Butler; Melvin E. Hayes, R. D. 5, Butler; Donald C. Lynn, North Butler; Verdett G. Shoemaker, Hilliards, Pa.

These youths enlisted through the State Emergency Relief office in their respective cities. At Fort Meade the young men will be given six weeks' preliminary training, and will then be sent to the various C. C. C. camps about the country for the remainder of their six-month enlistment.

News Briefs From City Hall

Police cruiser cars were dispatched to various sections of the city last night where boys were accused of acting disorderly.

So far police have not received any word as to whether or not Jess Everett, 86, who was reported missing from 404 Harbor street, has been found.

Officers were summoned to Maryland avenue, where it was alleged yesterday handbills were being passed.

Employes of the WPA today started repairing the plaster on the third floor of the city building. It was damaged during a rainstorm when the roof was under repair.

Painless Surgery Is Latest Thing In Medical World

New Kind Of Anaesthetic Will Keep Patient Quiet For Several Days

Would Put Patients To Sleep Six To Seven Hours Before Operating

By WILLIAM G. WEART
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—Painless surgery has progressed to a point where the patient can be spared physical and mental suffering before and after, as well as during an operation.

This was revealed publicly for the first time Thursday, when Dr. A. L. Soresi of the Italian medical center, New York, explained the "ideal anaesthesia", at the 26th clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

"The fundamental idea underlying the ideal anaesthesia is to create in the patient an unconscious state of mind not only during the operation, but also as long as possible before and after, so that on regaining consciousness all the unpleasant features of the surgical intervention have vanished and convalescence starts pleasantly," Dr. Soresi explained.

Conditions Ideal

"Conditions have been so ideal in some cases," he said, "that patients upon regaining consciousness two, three or four days after the operation asked the surgeon or the nurse in charge—'when am I going to be operated?'"

The ideal anaesthesia, Dr. Soresi stated, calls for the patient being placed in a restful sleep at least six hours before the operation with "wine proctoclysis" started after the surgery.

"The wine absorbed by the lower colon supplies not only all the calories and fluid required by the patient," Dr. Soresi pointed out, "but acts also as a marvelous tonic and keeps the patient in a state of semi-consciousness resembling natural sleep with normal full pulse and normal respiration, thus the patient enjoys a full rest free from mental anxiety and physical pain when rest is most desirable."

No Complications

The post-operative prolonged unconsciousness not only spares the patient pain, but "enables the surgeon to carry on whatever surgical procedures he deems best under ideal anaesthetic conditions. Is safe as to life, prevents unpleasant complications and also constitutes the most important factor in helping the patient in recovering," Dr. Soresi said.

"It carries the patient from the immediate pre-operative period into a pleasant uncomplicated convalescence, utterly unconscious of having been in the hospital two, three or four days, of having been brought to the operating room, of having been operated, or having gone through the preoperative and postoperative periods.

"The patient has no recollection of time, he has simply slept two or three days untroubled by events that ordinarily would have caused him the greatest concern and anxiety, not to mention physical suffering," Dr. Soresi stated.

Declares Landon Will Be Elected

Eastern Manager Of Knox-Landon Campaign Sees Certain Victory For G. O. P.

SAYS PENNSYLVANIA MAJORITY 200,000

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Before returning to New York for the wind-up of his work as manager of the eastern division of the Landon-Knox campaign, Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of North Attleboro, Mass., repeated his prediction of victory for Governor Alfred M. Landon and also expressed confidence that the Republicans would have a majority in the next national house of representatives.

"I am very confident," declared Congressman Martin, "that the final figures on Nov. 3 will show a substantial victory for Governor Landon in the presidential contest.

"The eastern situation has been steadily improving during the last ten days. We no longer need to worry about Pennsylvania. That state will go Republican by over 200,000."

Squared shoulders and a small rolled collar are employed in a seven-eighths length box coat which is slightly fitted in front to give a slenderizing line.

Give Report On Grade Crossings

Most Of Crossing Crashes Occur At Junctions Which Are Protected

FOUR KILLED IN LAST MONTH

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—Of the 32 grade crossing accidents reported to the division of accidents of the Public Service Commission last month, 17, or more than half, occurred at protected grade crossings. Fifteen accidents were reported from unprotected crossings. The total grade crossing accidents reported were eight less than in the same month in 1935.

Four persons were killed in last month's accidents, three of the fatalities resulting from accidents at protected crossings. Fourteen persons were injured, six at protected crossings and eight at unprotected crossings. Of the 32 accidents reported last month, 17 resulted in no casualties.

Steam railroads reported 220 accidents in September, an increase of 46 over the corresponding month last year. Of the 40 persons killed last month, 28 were trespassers, eight were employes and four were travellers over grade crossings. No passengers were killed. The 174 injured include 95 employes, 20 passengers, 14 travellers over grade crossings, 28 trespassers and nine classified as non-trespassers.

The railroads reported 55 non-casualty accidents where the damage to equipment and road-bed was in excess of $250 each. Of the 96 operating companies and divisions in the state, 47 reported having had no accidents.

Eight persons were killed and 220 injured in the 196 accidents reported by street railway companies in September. Total accidents increased by 25 over those reported in September, 1935. Two passengers were killed and 126 injured last month. No employes were killed or injured. Seventeen of the 34 operating electric railway companies reporting last month reported having had no accidents.

Pennsylvanians Win Egg Title

Thirteen Of First Twenty Pens Owned In This State

HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—In the fifth annual egg-laying contest of the Pennsylvania department of agriculture Pennsylvania recaptured the honors lost last year to California.

With a record of 2826 eggs and 2906.40 points a pen of single comb White Leghorns owned by Guy A. Leader, York, took first place in this year's contest which has just closed. The winning pen last year, also single comb White Leghorns, produced 2907 eggs and scored 3057.35 points.

Thirteen of the ranking first 20 were Pennsylvania Pens. With the exception of the fourth place pen, Rhode Island Reds, the 20 ranking pens were single White Leghorns.

The point scoring is on a basis of one point for each two-ounce egg. Thirteen pullets comprise a pen, the record of the ten highest birds counting in the pen's score.

Bar pins, ranging from tailored metals to rhinestone evening types, are staging a return to favor.

Says Al Smith Is Big Factor

Support Will Have Large Part In Landon Victory Says Woman Leader

SMITH TO SPEAK IN PITTSBURGH

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23—Al Smith and other Jeffersonian Democrats will prove a decisive factor in Republican victory at the polls November 3, Mrs. Mabel Jacques Eichel of New York, national director of the Independent Coalition of American Women, declared here Thursday.

Here to make arrangements for Smith's address in Pittsburgh Saturday night, Mrs. Eichel, who has traveled 50,000 miles so further the coalition's program, declared:

"Either there has been a tremendous change of sentiment towards the Republican candidates or else the people who formerly were afraid to speak up are expressing their views since Governor Smith and others have come out against the New Deal.

"After Governor Smith spoke for the coalition in New York letters poured in to us from all parts of the nation indorsing our support for Landon and Knox. These letters came not so much from New York as the more remote sections of the country."

'SCANTY ATTIRE' IS OKAYED BY BOARD

DANBURY, Conn.—Some call them "shorts"; others term them "very short shorts"; but conservative New Englanders call them "scanty attire."

However, the board of councilmen here settled the issue of whether women in shorts could do their shopping in the downtown area in a four to two vote against a measure proposed to bar the wearing of "shorts" on the streets.

The controversy raged over the western end of Connecticut, especially in Westport and Danbury. Ministers, women's clubs, public officials, physicians, and others have taken sides.

Fur coats of muskrat are high favorites with the college students.

State President Gives Juniors Stirring Talk

Ranking with the foremost addresses which have been heard in New Castle by clubwomen of the community, was the one given in Highland U. P. church Thursday evening, by Mrs. John M. Phillips, state federation president, who spoke under auspices of the Junior Federated groups.

Straight from the heart of their state leader, older clubwomen, as well as younger women, heard a stirring plea from Mrs. Phillips to "Hold Fast To Those Things Which Are Good."

Taking her theme from the Bible, the speaker said those words written centuries ago, are as applicable today in the period of social insecurity and unrest, as they were in olden times, if not more so today. Wonderful advice at a time when we are seemingly being led astray.

Outlines Subject

She outlined her subject generally, into various sub-divisions: First, she admonished, "Hold Fast to the Soil; get back to nature, appreciate the big outdoors as fundamental. Second, Hold Fast to Home; with health as the first requisite for happiness. Third, Hold Fast to Citizenship; making political life an honorable calling; acquaint yourself with facts, single out the right person for the job, and if necessary, draft him or her into service."

"Fourth, Hold Fast to the Constitution; it can be amended legally, but adhere strictly to fundamental principles. The Constitution is above partisanship but must be the guide for all parties."

"Finaley, and yet first, Hold Fast to the Spiritual—God. We must bring back God to the world and it's up to the women to do it. Wake up, take a stand for open churches, open chapels in colleges, put the Bible back on the table, and revive family worship."

Applicable To Club Work

As to club work, the theme is applicable to club traditions. As proof, it was shown that last year's plans are working out successfully inasmuch as there is a closer relationship between the several divisions since the new plan is state directly to county, eliminating the middle district.

Second, progress is evident along lines of leadership as women are now being trained in the Federation for particular work assigned them. Third, department of Juniors has been recognized by the state, inasmuch as the Juniors now have their first representative on the state board, Mrs. Russell Heyre of Milton, having been elected last October, as second vice president at large. The vice president receives the same budget as the Senior officer for which a strict accounting must be made. Fourth, each department now has a Junior vice chairman. Fifth, a Junior is on the finance committee.

MRS. JOHN M. PHILLIPS

These are a few of the accomplishments already for the Juniors, and still another aim is a Junior vice chairman of organization.

Not Only Social Group

Mrs Phillips stressed the point of not viewing a woman's club as a social group in the strict sense of the word, but rather a "union of interests of many individuals." The Federation whole set-up is founded on the theme, "Organization to unite interest and influences of women."

This means women of any and all communities and the leader drew attention to the fact that the time is coming when clubs will be available for all types of women, as there is a dire need for just such background.

In all club work, Mrs. Phillips emphasized the importance of better feeling among club workers. "Cut criticism," she said, "learn to know each other better, accept suggestions, show strength in organization by attending meetings whether to one's liking or not, for there's value in just 'sitting in' on a meeting, interested or not in the speaker.

"Arouse enthusiasm, have hospitality committees, reach out hands in friendliness, accept chairmanships in the light of service, for we know not when we may be called upon to act."

Representing 100,000 club women, Mrs. Phillips repeatedly urged organization. In her goal to double the number of club women in Pennsylvania and have every club federated, she spoke of untiring efforts being made to harmonize interests between Juniors and Seniors, new groups being formed all over the state. She herself, has traveled far and near since August to lend assistance to this work.

Greatest Menace

Further, she touched upon the liquor problem, urging the Juniors to do their part against the degragation of this evil, which she termed the greatest menace in the United States.

As to program planning, she said it is commendable to read about the accomplishments of Benjamin Franklin and other great men, but in so doing, relate them to present day leaders for inspiration. Show faith, because it is being sorely tested, in this time and age.

Mrs. Phillips called attention to the state convention which will be held in Philadelphia, "The Cradle of Liberty," next May 11-14. "Citizenship" has been chosen as the basic theme, most appropriate in the year of the 150th anniversary of the framing of the Constitution.

Also, she reminded her listeners of the November district meeting in Pittsburgh, featuring Fine Arts, a day of which week, November 10, has been set aside for the southwestern district.

Keen appreciation was expressed at the conclusion of the address by Elsie McGeorge, secretary of the Federated Juniors who charmingly introduced Mrs. Phillips for the uplifting message brought to them, as it very deservedly merited the sincere applause received.

Mrs. Phillips is a brilliant speaker, with a wealth of background built upon active interest and leadership in all phases of civic and club work. She speaks informally, winning her audiences at the outset and holding them in rapt attention to the conclusion of her talks. She has a vivid personality which, coupled with a motherly charm, wins for her, followers where she appears. While in New Castle, she was the house guest of Mrs. Charles Greer, of North Jefferson street.

Auspices under which last night's meeting was held include in the Junior groups: Woman's club, Mary E. Wilson, acting president; Federated Juniors, Martha Jo McGoun, president; Junior Reading Circle, Elizabeth Dietterle, president; and sub-Juniors, Gretchen Smith, president.

Serving as ushers were representatives from each group: Georgiana McNees, Eleanor McGill, Sara McGoun, Iva Mayberry and Dorothy Millinger.

Church Workers Conference Will Take Place Here

Conference Scheduled For Sunday At St. Paul's Lutheran Church

A church workers conference will be conducted in St. Paul's Lutheran church of New Castle Sunday afternoon, October 25, at 2:30 o'clock.

This conference, one of thirteen in the territory of the Pittsburgh Synod and one of three in the territory of the West Conference of the synod, is for Sunday school officers and teachers particularly and for all the workers in the churches from the other organizations including the church councils.

The speaker will be the Rev. C. H. B. Lewis, D. D., of Fremont, Neb., field secretary of the church and parish school board of the United Lutheran church. His theme will be "Multiplying Our Power" through co-operation and consecration. The Lutheran churches of New Castle, Ellwood City, Youngstown, O., and surrounding territory are co-operating in this conference. Dr. Lewis is an expert in his department and brings an effective and inspirational message.

The other workers conferences in the West Conference territory will be at Grace Lutheran church, Butler, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and Grace church, Rochester, Pa., Monday afternoon and evening.

The Mikado Is Well Presented

Second Performance Is Given At The Cathedral Thursday

LARGER CROWD IS ENTHUSED

"The Mikado," the tuneful Gilbert and Sullivan opera which opened in the Cathedral Wednesday night, delighted another large crowd on Tirursday night and they were rewarded by another stellar performance.

Well over any slight nervousness which marks opening night performances the cast performed in a most professional manner Thursday night, and the customers out in the house stormed the players with applause. Between the first and second act a number of the women in the cast were presented with flowers.

The success of "The Mikado" seems to indicate two things. First, that the New Castle amateurs are capable of presenting such things and second that in seeking a vehicle for public entertainment the Y. W. C. A., sponsoring organization, need not confine itself to productions that are purely amateur both as to libretto and cast.

PLANT GROUPS MUST ACT ON AMENDMENT

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23—Adopted by an employe representative council representing about 50,000 workers in Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation mills in the Pittsburgh-Youngstown district, the much discussed amendment to the company's employe representation plan must now be submitted to individual plant groups for ratification before it becomes effective it was revealed today.

The individual plant groups, generally termed the "general bodies" meet once a month. In some cases, the monthly meetings have already been held, in which ense the amendment, which is to go before all bodies at their next regular meetings, holds over until next month.

The amendment creates what will be known as the Pittsburgh district general council, comprised of two employe representatives and two management delegates from each plant in the affected area. The manager of industrial relations for the employer-plant will sit on the council as an ex-officio member.

Employe delegates may only be elected from among employe representatives, and the council will meet quarterly, in November, February, May and August. The council will be empowered to adjust only those matters referred to it by the local plant general bodies or by the management.

Committee meetings of the council may be called only upon call of the committee chairman or district manager of industrial relations, or upon written request of the majority of the committee.

Sign Despoilers Caught In Act

Ordered By Mayor To Clean Up Results Of Their Work —To Halt Vandalism

Mayor Charles E. McGrath today adopted a unique method of preventing the mutilation of signs in different parts of the city and as a result five youths who police claim threw mud on a picture of Republican Presidential Nominee Alfred M. Landon were "sentenced" to wash the mud off the sign board. The mayor also stated that henceforth any vandalism to any sign, whether it be political or otherwise, will result in swift punishment.

According to the police report, Patrolman Willis McMullen saw five youths last night go to the signboard along South Mill street and throw "muck" on the likeness of Landon. He caught one of the boys Three others were taken by Policeman Harry Plimner and Cecil Siber to the police station. The fifth could not be located until today. Two were released last night on forfeits of $10 each.

This morning the mayor said the boys would be sentenced to clean off the "muck" or pay a fine. He said that following the work, police would inspect the sign to see that it had been done well.

Americans wouldn't tolerate a dictatorship. Notice how mad they get when forced to listen to advertising to avoid missing the rest of the program.

C. C. C. Recruits Will Leave For Ft. Meade Tonight

Ten Additional Recruits To Be Dispatched For C. C. C. Service From District

Following an examination this morning by Sergeant Edward Permar of the local army recruiting station, ten recruits for C. C. C. service were passed and will leave this evening for Fort George Meade, Maryland.

The following men successfully passed the physical requirements for service at the camps: Joe DeMatteo, 3 East Friendship street; Lloyd C. Troyer, 317 Shenango street; William Albert Weaver, 2207 Pennsylvania avenue; Clair R. Dunlap, R. D. 4, Butler; Melvin E. Hayes, R. D. 5, Butler; Donald C. Lynn, North Butler; Verdert G. Shoemaker, Hillards, Pa.

These youths enlisted through the State Emergency Relief office in their respective cities. At Fort Meade the young men will be given six weeks' preliminary training, and will then be sent to the various C. C. C. camps about the country for the remainder of their six-month enlistment.

News Briefs From City Hall

Police cruiser cars were dispatched to various sections of the city last night where boys were accused of acting disorderly.

So far police have not received any word as to whether or not Jess Everett, 86, who was reported missing from 404 Harbor street, has been found.

Officers were summoned to Maryland avenue, where it was alleged yesterday handbills were being passed.

Employes of the WPA today started repairing the plaster on the third floor of the city building. It was damaged during a rainstorm when the roof was under repair.

NEW CASTLE HIGH AT WARREN, OHIO TONIGHT

New Castle Seeks Third Victory In Past Three Years

"Red Hurricane" In Good Condition For Game In Ohio City

Kickoff At 8 P. M. Warren Will Try For First Win Over Castles

WARREN, O., Harding high stadium is the mecca for New Castle football fans tonight. The annual New Castle-Warren grid game starts at 8 o'clock under the lights. At game time close to 1,000 New Castle fans will no doubt be in the stands.

New Castle high will be trying for the third straight win over the Warrenites. There is no reason why the "Canes" can't take the game tonight. New Castle enters the game the favorites. Warren has dropped three games this year, the last three in a row to Erie Academy, Youngstown South and Martins Ferry. It's getting to be a habit with the Pierre Hill coached team, and they seem to want to break that habit tonight.

Expect Tough Battle

It looks like a tough engagement. Coach Hill has promised some drastic cuts on the squad if they fail to upset the Bridenbaughmen. On the other hand, Phil has had his ups and downs with the New Castle boys lately. They lost to Massillon 13 to 0, and have not had the right kind of spirit this week.

A squad of some 35 boys will probably be taken to Warren for the battle. The trip will be made in buses. The New Castle boys will fight hard to make it three in a row from the Hardings.

There has been a quite heavy ticket demand in both towns and that presages a goodly crowd when the schoolboys get ready to do their stuff tonight.

Following are the probable lineups for the game:

New Castle—		Warren—
Nocera	L. E.	Fetchko
Leonard	L. T.	Brutz
Small	L. G.	Detre
Vargo	C.	Hilbinger
Jokinen	R. G.	Little
Roussos	R. T.	Natale
Dombroski	R. E.	Marshall
Mumford	Q. B.	T. Totterdale
Perrett	L. H.	Brogden
Mort	R. H.	Bugzavich
DeCaprio	F. B.	Bartlett

Average weight of warren team, 167.

Average weight of Warren line, 170.

Average weight of Warren backfield, 163.

Average weight of New Castle team, 159.

Average weight of New Castle line, 165.

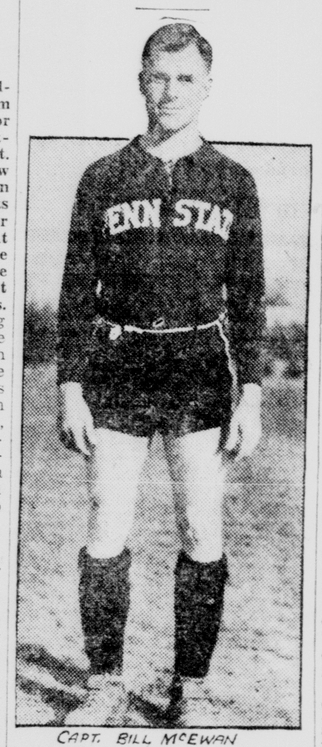
State Soccer Captain Nears Scoring Record



CAPT. BILL McEWAN

STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 23—Bill McEwan, Penn State soccer captain is well on his way toward breaking his twenty goal inter-collegiate scoring record that he established two years ago. In the first two games this season, McEwan tallied nine times to lead the Lions to one-sided victories over Bucknell and Gettysburg.

The Nittany center forward was handicapped last year by a leg injury which kept him out of the opening game. Despite this, he led the undefeated, untied Penn State team with seven goals. For the second straight year, McEwan was also selected as center forward on the All-Eastern team.

The Lion soccer team meets its first real test when the Lafayette booters come to State College Saturday. Last year, Lafayette threw a scare into Penn State by displaying a strong defense and holding the Lions to a one goal victory.

Wm. Ciccone With Wesleyan Gridders

Six Local Gridders May See Action In Games In Pittsburgh, Tonight, Saturday

Six former New Castle high gridders are likely to play in two important games in Pittsburgh tonight and Saturday.

This evening in the Duquesne-West Virginia Wesleyan tussle, George Mike, East Long avenue, a 208 pound star tackle for the West Virginia eleven, will start at his old post. According to reports, William Ciccone, of Scioto street, is sure to see action as an end for the Wesleyan outfit.

In the other battle, Pitt versus Notre Dame, Saturday, Alex and Fred Shellogg, South Siders, will likely play against two former lads who carried the colors of New Castle high, Charles Fleming and Walter Raskowski. The Shelloggs are with Notre Dame. Raskowski may start his first game as a Pitt regular Saturday in place of Glassford, according to a Pittsburgh report.

Route To Warren For Grid Battle

The New Castle football fans who will follow the "Red Hurricane" to Warren, O., tonight will probably use the Coitsville to Hubbard to Brookfield to Warren route instead of the Youngstown-Girard route due to a detour on the latter route.

Westminster To Battle Geneva

Game Will Be Played At Beaver Falls On Saturday afternoon

COACH ROARK TO BE GIVEN HONOR

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 23—Coach Roark put the Westminster Titans through a stiff aerial-defense practice this week in preparation for the game with Geneva on the Covenanter home-field Saturday. The day has been set aside as "George Roark Day" in Beaver Valley, to honor the new Titan coach.

Coach George Roark

The Titans will be the underdogs statistically, but Westminster always plays better ball against Geneva than other district colleges because of the long time rivalry between the two schools. Slippery Rock, who won a 14-0 decision over the Titans last Saturday, were a week earlier trounced by Geneva 25-0 under a rain of passes from the arm of the diminutive Roselli, Covenanter pass-artist.

On the Titan injured list will be Grubb, end, out with a broken finger; Straw, 230 pound tackle, with a lacerated hand; Lee Wright, 200 pound tackle, out with a fractured elbow; John Pawk, Butler, end, in the hospital recovering from an operation, and Dave Mintz, Butler, fullback, out with fractured ribs.

In the Titan backfield, Coach Coark will probably start Laposki in place of Mintz. Laposki, a New Brighton freshman, knows the Ro-

Trap Shoot At East New Castle

Members of the East New Castle Rod and Gun club will stage a trap shoot Saturday afternoon at the Bocius farm located on the first street leading from the New Castle-Ellwood City road, past Cascade Park.

The shoot will start at 1 o'clock, and is open to all members of the East New Castle club and their friends.

Shellogg Brothers On Notre Dame Squad

FRED SHELLOGG ALEC SHELLOGG

New Castle will have more than a casual interest in the Pitt-Notre Dame game at the stadium Saturday afternoon. Pictured above is the Shellogg brothers, Fred on the left and Alec on the right. Former New Castle High star linemen now on the Notre Dame squad.

The boys have seen a lot of action so far this year with the Irish despite the fact that they are only sophomores. Should the boys get in the Pitt game they may find themselves lined up against two former team-mates, Walter Raskowski, a guard on the Pitt team, and Charley "Red" Fleming, an end on the Pitt team.

Big Rangy Boys

The Shelloggs, Raskowski and Fleming played on the same team in high school here, back in 1932, 1933 and 1934.

Fred and Alec both tip the beams well over the 200 mark and tower better than six feet, the ideal type of linemen for Notre Dame power plays. Head Coach Elmer Layden thinks quite a lot of the Shellogg boys and they will probably be after varsity starting posts next year.

Anyway, New Castle will be interested in what transpires in the Pitt Stadium tomorrow when the big Green wave from South Bend tries to give the Pitt Panther tail another twist.

Probably one of the most interested of the spectators on the morrow will be Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh of New Castle, the man who developed all four fine youngsters into real football men.

It would not surprise the writer very much to see at least one or maybe two of the above mentioned boys on future All-American selections. A little more seasoning is all that they need.

These boys are helping to put New Castle on the college football map in stronger letters than ever before.

IN SPORTS' LAND HERE AND THERE

Solly Krieger, of New York, defeated Oscar Rankins of Los Angeles in a 10 round gruelling bout at Duquesne garden, Pittsburgh, last night. The bell saved Rankins from a knockout in the ninth round. Billy Conn, of Pittsburgh, left the ring victor over Ralph Chong, of New York, in eight rounds.

Max Baer has wound up his fistic tour and will do no more barnstorming until after the New Year. Baer and his retinue left Chicago for the Pacific Coast yesterday. His tour ended suddenly in a fiasco in Toronto, Monday night.

Members of the Yankees championship team each received $6,430 and every Giant received $4,655, as their slice of the World series pot. Judge Landis mailed the checks to the baseball players Thursday.

Victor Campolo, Buenos Aires, a former heavyweight boxer, listed his fists among his assets when he filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in a civil court in that city. Campolo lost to Primo Carnera in New York in 1934.

Daring jumpers of the Chilean army took the lead in the International team jumping at Washington where United States and Mexican horsemen also competed. The Chileans are three and one half points in the lead.

The college professor has one advantage over the coach. He doesn't lose his job if his pupils fail to make good.

'Ossie' Solem Is On 'Spot'

Iowa University Alumni Aim To Oust Veteran Football Coach

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 23.—Carl H. Cook of Glenwood, Ia., state Republican chairman, Thursday denied published reports that he had "learned of an alumni attempt to oust Coach Ossie Solem" of the University of Iowa.

The report stated that alumni were "lining up members of the Iowa legislature" to oust Solem.

"I don't know what the legislators could do about it," Cook said. "Furthermore I have heard absolutely nothing in which I would put credence, and I have said this at all times."

Pitt Freshmen Playing Kiski

Purdue-Irish Are Picked In Upset Battles

Pat Robinson Likes Notre Dame And Purdue Over Minnesota And Pitt

MANY OTHER BIG GAMES SCHEDULED

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The less one knows about football, the more likely one is to select winners. If you don't believe it, just compare any coach's selections with the results in any given week and be convinced.

Still, it's a harmless pastime, it costs nothing and it's sometimes amusing, especially in a week-end like this one where at least a dozen of the headline games could go either way without causing a lifted eyebrow.

Picks Purdue.

So let's take it for granted that Army will take Springfield, Colgate will lick Lafayette, Villanova will trounce Boston universtiy and Penn wallop Brown and get down to serious business.

Minnesota-Purdue. This is the day's headlincr and the first named is rightly installed as favorite. Nevertheless, flying in the face of fate and the wrath of Bennie Bierman, I pick Purdue. The Gophers must get it sometime and they might as well lose here as anywhere.

Irish Favored.

Pitt-Notre Dame. Anybody with common sense should string with an aroused Panther to claw the pants off the Irish. Still, Notre Dame gets the vote from this corner.

Fordham-St. Mary's. The Madigannen are laying 5 to 2 on their team and they themselves seem to think Fordham will be a pushover, a state of mind which, oompared with as fine a line as there is in the nation, prompts me to pick Fordham, if it isn't a tie.

Princeton-Navy. There will be no more bruising game than this and the writer likes a hitherto complacent, but now thoroughly aroused Tiger, to beat the Middies.

Michigan State-Marquette. The former seems to have an edge but I'm stubborn enough to pick Marquette in a tight game, where a long pass may bring home the bacon to the home crowd.

Columbia Ahead.

Michigan-Columbia. This is the writer's five-star special to repay those Cleveland scribes who gave me Baldwin-Wallace to take Syracuse two weeks ago. I now give them Columbia. I saw Columbia more than hold its own with Army for three periods until its first stringers became exhausted and anybody should pick Army to beate Michigan. The west is going to see an outweighed and outmanned team in Columbia but one that has all the guns its needs to win.

Let's get a breather by more or less lightly dismissing Cornell over Penn State, Yale over Rutgers, Dartmouth over Harvard, Tulane over North Carolina and will that raise a holler among the Tar Heels!) and Nebraska over Oklahoma and come to:

Ohio State-Indiana. I like the Hoosiers in this one. I think Ohio State is overrated—an opinion that doesn't matter—but I also think that Ohio State thinks so now, an opinion which does matter.

Tennessee-Duke. Tennessee has improved but hardly enough to inhale Duke's Mixture without harmful results.

Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech. Two real topnotchers with anything likely to happen. However, an edge to H. C. behemoths.

ark system, and will probably let loose a wide-open type of ball against the Covenanters if the weather is fair.

At the terminal posts for the Titans will be Miller, New Brighton freshman and Mike Pawk, Butler, at tackles, Susko, Struthers, O., and Bretthole, Carnegie; at guards, Youkers, Butler and Butler, New Castle; and at certer, Holton, Pittsburgh.

In the Titan backfield besides Laposki, will be the Titan regulars, Shoup at fullback, Bailey, Sharon, and Laraway, Erie, at the half-back places.

So far this season, the Titans have proved poor wet-weather gridders, showing very little punch through the line; but at times possessing a dangerous passing attack. With clear weather, the Beaver Falls field should be the scene of a wild-passing-game from both sides.

In the all-time record, the Covenanters have a decided edge with 24 victories to 13 for the Titans, with 7 ties.

St. Louis Browns To Have New Man At Head In 1937

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—Reports of negotiations for the sale of the St. Louis Browns admittedly had some foundation in fact today.

In Chicago, President William Harridge of the American league admitted "a deal is on", but declared he did not know with whom the executors of the estate of the late Phil Ball were negotiating.

It was reliably reported, however, that a syndicate of St. Louis business men, including William O. Dewitt, treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, has practically closed the deal, and only the ironing out of final details holds up the official announcement.

Penn State Will Revise Lineup For Game With Cornell

STATE COLLEGE, Oct 23.—In an effort to present his most formidable team against Cornell this week, Coach Bob Higgins has revised his Penn State lineup by making three drastic changes in which veterans were replaced.

Paul Enders, a back and former center, will start at right tackle in place of the veteran of three campaigns, Roy Schuyler. Dean Hanley, sophomore, has replaced the other veteran tackle, Dan DeMarino. Sever Toretti, at guard, replaces senior Lou Barth.

Another possible change in the backfield may give the fullback assignment to Joe Metro instead of the veteran, Tommy Silvano. Metro was impressive in practice all week. The Penn State team was strengthened when Johnny Economos, star guard, took his position after a two-week's absence because of injury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The players' world series' melon, the largest ever to be cut, was in the mails today.

Checks totaling $193,201.12 were mailed to 36 players, officials and culb employes of the New York Yankees, while the Giants will divide $128,800.74 thirty-two ways.

The remainder of the players' share, amounting to $138,000.80, goes to the second third and fourth place clubs in each league.

The official total receipts as announced at the officer of Commissioned K. M. Landis here were $1,304,399.

GAME IS DEADLOCKED

The Mercer Street Stars and the Pearson All-Stars played a 7-7 tie game at Dean Park Field yesterday. The Pearsons led 7 to 0 at the half. In the third period J. DeLorenzo took it to the 15 yard line and Tommy Morella carried it to the one yard line, from where V. Bullano carried it over for the Mercer Streets. S. Bullano made the extra-point. T. Ross scored for the Pearsons.

Gray In Shape, Williams Says

Local Boy To Do One More Of Hard Training For Karak

RANDALL HAS FOE FOR DIME'S 'HEAVY'

Dapper Dy Williams, trainer for Ray Gray, local middleweight, scheduled to box Frankie Karak of Youngstown at the Arena Garden, Monday night today pronounced his protege in the pink of condition. Williams said that Gray will go through a strenuous workout Saturday but from then on indulge in only light exercise for fear of bruising his hands. Judging from the interest in the coming amateur boxing show which will contain eight bouts, the garden, which is located in Neshannock avenue, will be packed Monday night.

Gray's opponent is said to be the best middleweight in the amateur ranks of Youngstown. Should Karak be able to stand up under Gray's right to the chin there will be no disputing this claim. Gray is one of the best punchers in the amateur ranks, having stopped Billy Bunton, colored slugger at East Liverpool and later here he stood toe to toe and won the decision over Keith Goodballet.

Has Two Huskies

Indications are that Jimmie Dime's 210 pounder, Joe Charff, heretofore known as Ernie Sharff, will be pitted against a heavyweight in the stable of Tiger Joe Randall of West Elizabeth, Pa. The Tiger is tutoring Nate Richardson, 190 and another colored heavyweight. He claims that either Nate or his other protege, whom he has dubbed "Chief", will be able to give the Beaver Falls "socker" a real test.

George Davis and George Donaldson, Ohio champions are also scheduled for a three round bout. Owing to their prominence a real classy scrap should ensue. Other bouts listed are Mike Rubin vs. Julius Walters, Ted Blasak vs. Harold Blank, Willie Hart vs. Johnny Vargo, Carl Brown vs. Charlie Houser and Johnny Cola vs Jimmy Patton, a former favorite here.

Promotion of the amateur scraps have started wheels turning here and some of the boys who once were prominent in the professional ranks will turn, they say, to tutoring local boxers. Paris Cangie has several boxers who will get a chance on the next show. Frankie Ross intends to teach some of them how to hit and make punches slide by and George Chip and Tom McMahon are figuring on giving boxers instructions.

TEAM WILL MEET

The members of the New Castle Dairy baseball team will have a meeting at the South Hill baseball club on Monday night to discuss the coming baseball season. The Dairymen hope to have a crackerjack team on the field this next year.

Kickoff At 8 P. M. Warren Will Try For First Win Over Castles

WARREN, O., Harding high stadium is the mecca for New Castle football fans tonight. The annual New Castle-Warren grid game starts at 8 o'clock under the lights. At game time close to 1,000 New Castle fans will no doubt be in the stands.

New Castle high will be trying for the third straight win over the Warrenites. There is no reason why the "Canes" can't take the game tonight. New Castle enters the game the favorites. Warren has dropped three games this year, the last three in a row to Erie Academy, Youngstown South and Martins Ferry. It's getting to be a habit with the Pierre Hill coached team, and they seem to want to break that habit tonight.

Expect Tough Battle

It looks like a tough engagement. Coach Hill has promised some drastic cuts on the squad if they fail to upset the Bridenbaughmen. On the other hand, Phil has had his ups and downs with the New Castle boys lately. They lost to Massillon 13 to 0, and have not had the right kind of spirit this week.

A squad of some 35 boys will probably be taken to Warren for the battle. The trip will be made in buses. The New Castle boys will fight hard to make it three in a row from the Hardings.

There has been a quite heavy ticket demand in both towns and that presages a goodly crowd when the schoolboys get ready to do their stuff tonight.

Following are the probable lineups for the game:

New Castle—		Warren—
Nocera	L. E.	Fotchko

State Soccer Captain Nears Scoring Record

CAPT. BILL McEWAN

STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 23—Bill McEwan, Penn State soccer captain is, well on his way toward breaking his twenty goal inter-collegiate scoring record that he established two years ago. In the first two games this season, McEwan tallied nine times to lead the Lions to one-sided victories over Bucknell and Gettysburg.

The Nittany center forward was handicapped last year by a leg injury which kept him out of the opening game. Despite this, he led the undefeated, untied Penn State team with seven goals. For the second straight year, McEwan was also selected as center forward on the All-Eastern team.

The Lion soccer team meets its first real test when the Lafayette booters come to State College Saturday. Last year, Lafayette threw a scare into Penn State by displaying a strong defense and holding the Lions to a one goal victory.

Wm. Ciccone With Wesleyan Gridders

Six Local Gridders May See Action In Games In Pittsburgh, Tonight, Saturday

Six former New Castle high gridders are likely to play in two important games in Pittsburgh tonight and Saturday.

This evening in the Duquesne-West Virginia Wesleyan tussle, George Mike, East Long avenue, a 208 pound star tackle for the West Virginia eleven, will start at his old post. According to reports, William Ciccone, of Sciolo street, is sure to see action as an end for the Wesleyan outfit.

In the other battle, Pitt versus Notre Dame, Saturday, Alex and Fred Shellogg, South Siders, will likely play against two former lads who carried the colors of New Castle high, Charles Fleming and Walter Raskowski. The Shelloggs are with Notre Dame. Raskowski may start his first game as a Pitt regular Saturday in place of Glassford, according to a Pittsburgh report.

Route To Warren For Grid Battle

The New Castle football fans who will follow the "Red Hurricane" to Warren, O., tonight will probably use the Coitsville to Hubbard to Brookfield to Warren route instead of the Youngstown-Girard route due to a detour on the latter route.

Westminster To Battle Geneva

Game Will Be Played At Beaver Falls On Saturday Afternoon

COACH ROARK TO BE GIVEN HONOR

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 23—Coach Roark put the Westminster Titans through a stiff aerial-defense practice this week in preparation for the game with Geneva on the Covenanter home-field Saturday. The day has been set aside as "George Roark Day" in Beaver Valley, to honor the new Titan coach.

Coach George Roark

The Titans will be the underdogs statistically, but Westminster always plays better ball against Geneva than other district colleges because of the long time rivalry between the two schools. Slippery Rock, who won a 14-0 decision over the Titans last Saturday, were a week earlier trounced by Geneva 25-0 under a rain of passes from the arm of the diminutive Rosell, Covenanter pass-artist.

On the Titan injured list will be Grubb, end, out with a broken finger; Straw, 230 pound tackle, with a lacerated hand; Lee Wright, 200 pound tackle, out with a fractured elbow; John Pawk, Butler, end, in the hospital recovering from an operation, and Dave Mintz, Butler, fullback, out with fractured ribs.

In the Titan backfield, Coach Coark will probably start Laposki in place of Mintz. Laposki, a New Brighton freshman, knows the Ro-

Trap Shoot At East New Castle

Members of the East New Castle Rod and Gun club will stage a trap shoot Saturday afternoon at the Boclus farm located on the first street leading from the New Castle-Ellwood City road, past Cascade Park.

The shoot will start at 1 o'clock, and is open to all members of the East New Castle club and their friends.

Those muscles and that chest! Why, this fellow looks like a Tarzan. Who is he? He is "Tarzan" Henry Louis Gehrig, slugging first baseman of the New York Yanks who is dickering with a film company for a Tarzan role in the films. Lou just donned the leopard skin for the benefit of the cameramen.

Shellogg Brothers On Notre Dame Squad

FRED SHELLOGG ALEC SHELLOGG

New Castle will have more than a casual interest in the Pitt-Notre Dame game at the stadium Saturday afternoon. Pictured above is the Shellogg brothers, Fred on the left and Alec on the right. Former New Castle High star linemen now on the Notre Dame squad.

The boys have seen a lot of action so far this year with the Irish despite the fact that they are only sophomores. Should the boys get in the Pitt game they may find themselves lined up against two former team-mates, Walter Raskowski, a guard on the Pitt team, and Charley "Red" Fleming, an end on the Pitt team.

Big Rangy Boys

The Shelloggs, Raskowski and Fleming played on the same team in high school here, back in 1932, 1933 and 1934.

Fred and Alec both tip the beams well over the 200 mark and tower better than six feet, the ideal type of linemen for Notre Dame power plays. Head Coach Elmer Layden thinks quite a lot of the Shellogg boys and they will probably be after varsity starting posts next year.

Anyway, New Castle will be interested in what transpires in the Pitt Stadium tomorrow when the big Green wave from South Bend tries to give the Pitt Panther tail another twist.

Probably one of the most interested of the spectators on the morrow will be Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh of New Castle, the man who developed all four fine youngsters into real football men.

It would not surprise the writer very much to see at least one or maybe two of the above mentioned boys on future All-American selections. A little more seasoning is all that they need.

These boys are helping to put New Castle on the college football map in stronger letters than ever before.

IN SPORTS' LAND HERE AND THERE

Solly Krieger, of New York, defeated Oscar Rankins of Los Angeles in a 10 round gruelling bout at Duquesne garden, Pittsburgh, last night. The bell saved Rankins from a knockout in the ninth round. Billy Conn, of Pittsburgh, left the ring victor over Ralph Chong, of New York, in eight rounds.

Max Baer has wound up his fistic tour and will do no more barnstorming until after the New Year. Baer and his retinue left Chicago for the Pacific Coast yesterday. His tour ended suddenly in a fiasco in Toronto, Monday night.

Members of the Yankees championship team each received $6,430 and every Giant received $4,655, as their slice of the World series pot. Judge Landis mailed the checks to the baseball players Thursday.

Victor Campolo, Buenos Aires, a former heavyweight boxer, listed his fists among his assets when he filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in a civil court in that city. Campolo lost to Primo Carnera in New York in 1934.

Daring jumpers of the Chilean army took the lead in the International team jumping at Washington where United States and Mexican horsemen also competed. The Chileans are three and one half points in the lead.

The college professor has one advantage over the coach. He doesn't lose his job if his pupils fail to make good.

'Ossie' Solem Is On 'Spot'

Iowa University Alumni Aim To Oust Veteran Football Coach

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 23.—Carl H. Cook of Glenwood, Ia., state Republican chairman, Thursday denied published reports that he had planned an alumni attempt to oust Coach Ossie Solem of the University of Iowa.

The report stated that alumni were "lining up members of the Iowa legislature" to oust Solem.

"I don't know what the legislators could do about it," Cook said. "Furthermore I have heard absolutely nothing in which I would put credence, and I have said this at all times."

ELECTION PROCLAMATION

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH

IN PERFORMANCE of the duty imposed upon me by the Constitution and Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, especially by the Acts of the General Assembly approved June 10th, A. D. 1893, and its amendments and supplements,

I, EDWARD D. PRITCHARD, High Sheriff of Lawrence County, Pa., do hereby make known and give this Public notice and Proclamation to the electors of said county and of City of New Castle, a city of the third class, that AN ELECTION will be held in the several election districts in said county and city, as the same are established by law, at the several places hereinafter mentioned.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd, 1936

next, being the First Tuesday following the First Monday of November, at which time the said electors will vote by ballot for the several different offices hereinafter mentioned.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That the following is the official list of the names of all candidates, nominated under the provisions of the several acts providing for the nomination of candidates, to be printed on the official ballot, and to be voted for in the Commonwealth at Large, and in the County of Lawrence, at the General Election to be held Tuesday, the Third day of November, 1936.

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (x) in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice.
A cross mark in the square opposite the name of the party and its Presidential Candidates, is a vote for all the electors of that party, BUT FOR NO OTHER CANDIDATE.
A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.
To vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his or her name in the blank space provided for that purpose. This shall count as a vote without the cross mark.
To vote for an individual candidate of another party after making a mark in the party square, mark a cross (x) opposite his or her name.
For an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the voter, after marking in the party square, may divide his or her vote by marking a cross (x) to the right of each candidate for whom he or she desires to vote. For such office votes shall not be counted for candidates not individually marked.

Purdue-Irish Are Picked In Upset Battles

Pat Robinson Likes Notre Dame And Purdue Over Minnesota And Pitt

MANY OTHER BIG GAMES SCHEDULED

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The less one knows about football, the more likely one is to select winners. If you don't believe it, just compare any coach's selections with the results in any given week and be convinced.

Still, it's a harmless pastime, it costs nothing and it's sometimes amusing, especially in a week-end like this one where at least a dozen of the headline games could go either way without causing a lifted eyebrow.

Picks Purdue.

So let's take it for granted that Army will take Springfield, Colgate will lick Lafayette, Villanova will trounce Boston university and Penn wallop Brown and get down to serious business.

Minnesota-Purdue. This is the day's headliner and the first named is rightly installed as favorite. Nevertheless, flying in the face of fate and the wrath of Bennie Biermar, I pick Purdue. The Gophers must get it sometime and they might as well lose here as anywhere.

Irish Favored.

Pitt-Notre Dame. Anybody with common sense should string with an aroused Panther to claw the pants off the Irish. Still, Notre Dame gets the vote from this corner.

Fordham-St. Mary's. The Madigaunen are laying 5 to 2 on their team and they themselves seem to think Fordham will be a pushover, a state of mind which, compared with as fine a line as there is in the nation, prompts me to pick Fordham, if it isn't a tie.

Princeton-Navy. There will be no more bruising game than this and the writer likes a hitherto complacent, but now thoroughly aroused Tiger, to beat the Middies.

Michigan State-Marquette. The former seems to have an edge but I'm stubborn enough to pick Marquette in a tight game, where a long pass may bring home the bacon to the home crowd.

Columbia Ahead.

Michigan-Columbia. This is the writer's five-star special to repay those Cleveland scribes who gave me Baldwin-Wallace to take Syracuse two weeks ago. I now give them Columbia. I saw Columbia more than hold its own with Army for three periods until its first stringers became exhausted and anybody should pick Army to beate Michigan. The west is going to see an outweighed and outmanned team in Columbia but one that has all the guns its needs to win.

Let's get a breather by more or less lightly dismissing Cornell over Penn State, Yale over Rutgers, Dartmouth over Harvard, Tulane over North Carolina and will that raise a holler among the Tar Heels!) and Nebraska over Oklahoma and come to:

Ohio State-Indiana. I like the Hoosiers in this one. I think Ohio State is overrated—an opinion that doesn't matter—but I also think that Ohio State thinks so now, an opinion which does matter.

Tennessee-Duke. Tennessee has improved but hardly enough to inhale Duke's Mixture without harmful results.

Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech. Two real topnotchers with anything likely to happen. However, an edge to H. C. behemoths.

ark system, and will probably let loose a wide-open type of ball against the Covenanters if the weather is fair.

At the terminal posts for the Titans will be Miller, New Brighton freshman and Mike Pawk, Butler, at tackles, Susko, Struthers, O., and Brettholz, Carnegie; at guards, Youkers, Butler and Butler, New Castle; and at center, Holton, Pittsburgh.

In the Titan backfield besides Laposki, will be the Titan regulars, Shoup at fullback, Bailey, Sharon, and Laraway, Erie, at the half-back places.

So far this season, the Titans have proved great wet-weather gridders, showing very little punch through the line; but at times possessing a dangerous passing attack. With clear weather, the Beaver Falls field should be the scene of a wild-passing-game from both sides.

In the all-time record, the Covenanters have a decided edge with 24 victories to 13 for the Titans, with 7 ties.

St. Louis Browns To Have New Man At Head In 1937

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—Reports of negotiations for the sale of the St. Louis Browns admittedly had some foundation in fact today.

In Chicago, President William Harridge of the American league admitted "a deal is on", but declared he did not know with whom the executors of the estate of the late Phil Ball were negotiating.

It was reliably reported, however, that a syndicate of St. Louis business men, including William O. Dewitt, treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, has practically closed the deal, and only the ironing out of final details holds up the official announcement.

Penn State Will Revise Lineup For Game With Cornell

STATE COLLEGE, Oct. 23.—In an effort to present his most formidable team against Cornell this week, Coach Bob Higgins has revised his Penn State lineup by making three drastic changes in which veterans were replaced.

Paul Enders, a back and former center, will start at right tackle in place of the veteran of three campaigns, Roy Schuyler. Dean Hanley, sophomore, has replaced the other veteran tackle, Dan DeMarino. Sever Toretti, at guard, replaces senior Lou Barth.

Another possible change in the backfield may give the fullback assignment to Joe Metro instead of the veteran, Tommy Silvano. Metro was impressive in practice all week. The Penn State team was strengthened when Johnny Economos, star guard, took his position after a two-week's absence because of injury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The players' world series' melon, the largest ever to be cut, was in the mails today.

Checks totaling $193,201.12 were mailed to 36 players, officials and club employes of the New York Yankees, while the Giants will divide $128,800.74 thirty-two ways.

The remainder of the players' share, amounting to $138,000.80, goes to the second third and fourth place clubs in each league.

The official total receipts announced at the officer of Commissioner K. M. Landis here were $1,304,399.

GAME IS DEADLOCKED

The Mercer Street Stars and the Pearson All-Stars played a 7-7 tie game at Dean Park Field yesterday. The Pearsons led 7 to 0 at the half. In the third period J. DeLorenzo took it to the 15 yard line and Tommy Morella carried it to the one yard line, from where V. Bullano carried it over for the Mercer Streets. S. Bullano made the extra-point. T. Ross scored for the Pearsons.

Gray In Shape, Williams Says

Local Boy To Do One More Of Hard Training For Karak

RANDALL HAS FOE FOR DIME'S 'HEAVY'

Dapper Dy Williams, trainer for Ray Gray, local middleweight, scheduled to box Frankie Karak of Youngstown at the Arena Garden, Monday night today pronounced his protege in the pink of condition. Williams said that Gray will go through a strenuous workout Saturday but from then on indulge in only light exercise for fear of bruising his hands. Judging from the interest in the coming amateur boxing show which will contain eight bouts, the garden, which is located in Neshannock avenue, will be packed Monday night.

Gray's opponent is said to be the best middleweight in the amateur ranks of Youngstown. Should Karak be able to stand up under Gray's right to the chin there will be no disputing this claim. Gray is one of the best punchers in the amateur ranks, having stopped Billy Burton, colored slugger at East Liverpool and later here he stood toe to toe and won the decision over Keith Goodballet.

Has Two Huskies

Indications are that Jimmie Dime's 210 pounder, Joe Charff, heretofore known as Ernie Sharff, will be pitted against a heavyweight in the stable of Tiger Joe Randall of West Elizabeth, Pa. The Tiger is tutoring Nate Richardson, 190 and another colored heavyweight. He claims that either Nate or his other protege, whom he has dubbed "Chief", will be able to give the Beaver Falls "socker" a real test.

George Davis and George Donaldson, Ohio champions are also scheduled for a three round bout. Owing to their prominence a real classy scrap should [illegible] bouts listed are Mike [illegible] Julius Walters, Ted [illegible] Harold Blank, Willie [illegible] Johnny Vargo, Carl [illegible] Charlie Houser and Johnny [illegible] vs Jimmy Patton, a former favorite here.

Promotion of the amateur scraps have started wheels turning here and some of the boys who once were prominent in the professional ranks will turn, they say, to tutoring local boxers. Paris Cangie has several boxers who will get a chance on the next show. Frankie Ross intends to teach some of them how to hit and make punches slide by and George Chip and Tom McMahon are figuring on giving boxers instructions.

TEAM WILL MEET

The members of the New Castle Dairy baseball team will have a meeting at the South Hill baseball club on Monday night to discuss the coming baseball season. The Dairymen hope to have a crackerjack team on the field this next year.

The Polls shall be opened promptly at 7:00 o'clock A. M., and close at 7:00 o'clock P. M. I also give notice that every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States or of this State, or of any City or Incorporated District, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer, or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive, or Judiciary Department of this State, or of the United States, or of any City or Incorporated District, and that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the Council of any City or Commissioners of any incorporated district is, by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

EDWARD D. PRITCHARD, High Sheriff.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH

IN PERFORMANCE of the duty imposed upon me by the Constitution and Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, especially by the Acts of the General Assembly approved June 10th, A. D. 1893, and its amendments and supplements,

I, EDWARD D. PRITCHARD, High Sheriff of Lawrence County, Pa., do hereby make known and give this Public notice and Proclamation to the electors of said county and of City of New Castle, a city of the third class, that AN ELECTION will be held in the several election districts in said county and city, as the same are established by law, at the several places hereinafter mentioned.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd, 1936

next, being the First Tuesday following the First Monday of November, at which time the said electors will vote by ballot for the several different offices hereinafter mentioned.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That the following is the official list of the names of all candidates, nominated under the provisions of the several acts providing for the nomination of candidates, to be printed on the official ballot, and to be voted for in the Commonwealth at Large, and in the County of Lawrence, at the General Election to be held Tuesday, the Third day of November, 1936.

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (x) in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice.
A cross mark in the square opposite the name of the party and its Presidential Candidates, is a vote for all the electors of that party, BUT FOR NO OTHER CANDIDATE.
A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.
To vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his or her name in the blank space provided for that purpose. This shall count as a vote without the cross mark.
To vote for an individual candidate of another party after making a mark in the party square, mark a cross (x) opposite his or her name.
For an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the voter, after marking in the party square, may divide his or her vote by marking a cross (x) to the right of each candidate for whom he or she desires to vote. For such office votes shall not be counted for candidates not individually marked.

Al Smith Speaks In Pittsburgh On Saturday Night

Meeting Will Be Held In Duquesne Gardens; Col. Breckenridge Also To Speak

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith will make an address here Saturday night, Oct. 24, under the auspices of the Independent Coalition of American Women. The meeting will be held in Duquesne Garden, the doors of which will open at 7 o'clock. There are no reserved seats, aside from the fifty to a hundred on the stage, which will be occupied by Democrats.

Music will be provided until the speaking begins and between the addresses. Danny Nirella's famous band, the crack Tarentum drum corps and two other bands will be present. Colonel Henry Breckinridge will speak between 9:30 and 10 o'clock and Mr. Smith will begin speaking promptly at 10 o'clock. Both addresses will be broadcast.

Amplifiers have been installed outside the Garden to accommodate those who cannot get inside.

Rural Avenue Hill Now Open

First Cars Traverse New Improved Route This Morning

CLOSED MONTHS FOR PAVING JOB

Now 30 feet wide and paved with a smooth bituminous concrete surface, the new Rural avenue hill roadway was thrown open this morning to North Hill-downtown traffic.

The route has been closed for months because of construction work.

Many North Hill cars moved up and down the improved road today and all motorists exerted the caution asked by City Engineer Glenn R. Throop while workmen complete the erection of 500 feet of guard rails.

The city engineer declared today: "The route is open again and motorists are using it. We ask them to use caution in driving up and down—the guard rail job will be hurried."

Bishop Is Mobbed, And Then Slain By Police In Spain

(International News Service)

VATICAN CITY, Oct. 23.—First sold on the auction block to the highest bidder, the Bishop of Barcelona was shot and killed by police, the Vatican was officially informed today.

The bishop was auctioned off during a mock "slave sale", the Vatican said. He was mobbed and seriously injured before being shot.

The Vatican also was informed nine priests were shot by anarchists at Figuera.

Stock Market Tone Steadier

Considerable Irregularity Among Pivotal Groups Continues In Market

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A steadier tone prevailed in the stock market today but considerable irregularity continued among pivotal groups.

In steels, Bethlehem dropped nearly a point before meeting support. U. S. Steel, Republic and Otis limited declines to fractions.

Rails and utilities also were generally lower.

Oils were prominent among issues to show plus signs on the day. Texas Corp., Standard of Jersey and Standard of Indiana were turned over in fair volume.

Aviations, some coppers and building shares also were improved.

Irregular price tendencies ruled the bond market. Grains were carried fractionally lower at Chicago. Cotton, though, displayed a steady tone.

Report Attack In Radio Studio On Rev. G. K. Smith

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 23.—The Rev. Gerald K. Smith, who recently announced the formation of a nationalist party, was attacked by three unidentified men in a radio studio here last night after he had finished a blistering attack on the administration of Gov. Richard Leche, heir to the political machine of the late Senator Huey P. Long, it was revealed today.

Without announcing themselves, the men walked into the studio where Smith was listening to a reply to his address by Major Clinton Wunder. One of the men swung a hard blow at Smith, landing on the chest.

Followers of the Rev. Mr. Smith took up the cudgels in his behalf and a brief, furious fight ensued. The trio that started the skirmish fled.

The radio studio where Smith spoke denied all knowledge of the affair. However, it was confirmed by Smith's secretary.

Lou May Be Tarzan in Films, But Not to Mrs.

Larrupin' Lou Gehrig, slugging first baseman of the New York Yankess, may do all the tree climbing and jungle yowling he has a mind to before the cameras, but Mrs. Lou draws the line at rehearsals in the home. And she won't stand for any of that leopard skin stuff, either. If Lou thinks he can get away with it, let him cast an eye on the Missus at the right.

Suggests Deeper End Zone On All Football Fields

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Everybody naturally will give the side of his face to that suggestion of Litz Ruseness about deepening the end zones of the football field for greater latitude in goal-line offense, since Ruseness is only the freshman coach at Northwestern and all of us are bound to be preoccupied, listening to blather by "name" guys who want to do everything with football, except keep it interesting. Objections, in fact, seem to have cropped up to Mr. Ruseness's idea almost before he had it.

Move Stadiums

One of them suggests that it's all quite simple. In order to lengthen the field, says he, all we have to do is tear down a few stadiums That's a glib crack but not necessarily bright. I doubt if there's a playing field worth the name that can't spare a few extra yards.

A second objection is furnished by a New York football writer who is admittedly partial to the defense, having played three years in the line on an admittedly bad team in college. That was twenty years ago, but he still has dominoes on his bosom from countless enemy cleats. Personally, I have an open mind, perhaps because I'm not the kind of a guy who ever had a bosom.

How About Two Yards

My own idea about Ruseness's story is that it errs a little on the lavish side. He talks about an extra depth of ten yards for the end zones; make it two yards and maybe you'll have something. Anyhow, under current conditions, it isn't always the defensive team that's on the spot when the play moves inside the 10-yard line. Too often, in fact, it's the team with the ball.

It's tough enough for the latter to gain ten yards in four downs when play is up the field a bit, provided, of course, the two principals are on something of a parity. At such a point, the second line of defense backs waits from eight to ten yards behind the line of scrimmage and a running attack if it has anything, can really proceed with some show of alacrity.

Passing Licked

But on or near the goal line, what happens? The second line of backs hoves up to within three yards, the first line practically takes places on the line of scrimmage, making a nine-man defense up forward, and the safety man plays five yards back. That ought to kill the running attack and all too often does. The pass is killed, or at least deeply wounded, by lack of latitude, since a blind man can take off his dark glasses and defend in the ten yard end zone.

The result, in spite of the more or less recent rule permitting possession of the ball after one incompleted pass over the goal, is that nobody seems to be passing into the end zone, except from well up the field. That, in itself, is a tacit admissior that the rules have passing licked from a position on the goal line.

Know Your Signals!

PUSHING HANDS FORWARD

When the official pushes his hands forward from shoulders with hands vertical it indicates interference with a forward pass, or a pass which touches an ineligible player.

On Rubber Menu

Thomas Lee Scott, two years old, of Chicago, developed scar tissue which threatened to close his esophagus after he swallowed lye. He is to be placed on a menu of rubber balls which, physicians hope, will open the passage.

Ben Franklin Hi Noses Out Local Junior High 7-6

Two Well Matched Teams Put On Thrilling Game Before Big Crowd At Lincoln Field

TIME CUTS ELLWOOD LAST QUARTER RALLY

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—It was not thought likely that two Junior High teams could bring football fans to a high pitched fervor. But those who heard the noise and cheering at Lincoln Field Thursday afternoon from about 2,000 throats would think that this was the big game of the year.

Coach Emmett Gillespie and his undefeated Ben Franklin Junior high team invaded Ellwood yesterday for a battle with the first junior high team ever had here. Well it just so happened that Father Time intervened and permitted the Gillespie coached team to escape with a 7-6 victory over the Ellwood Junior high team coached by the well known and popular Howard Gillis, former varsity coach. The locals had scored a touchdown in the final quarter and were well on their way for the second when the final whistle blew.

It was a game between two well matched teams and was close and hard fought throughout. Local fans felt that there was little doubt as to who had the superior attack as the Ellwood Juniors practically dominated the second half. The first downs were 9-5 for Ellwood. Ben Franklin scored in the second quarter via the aerial route when their running attack was stopped. Sowinski heaved a long pass to Gender for 33 yards and then one to Motsko for 20 yards and a touchdown. The point that was to decide the game was place kicked by Gender.

The locals received in the third quarter and rolled off three consecutive first downs to go deep into Ben Franklin territory, when a fumble delayed their march. Ellwood took possession of the ball on a punt on Ben Franklin's 45 and started down the field again. A pass was good for four yards. Newton ripped off 20 yards through left tackle and Biego hit the same hole for 18. Homner picked up four over left guard and then Newton crashed over center for the score. A line buck by Hoimner for the extra point failed. The Ellwood Juniors were off again after gaining the ball and had completed two passes for long gains when the final whistle sounded.

The line-up:

Ellwood Juniors 6.	Ben Franklin 7.

Krieger Whips Oscar Rankins

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Oscar Rankins' badly battered face was mute evidence today of the severe punishment he absorbed at the hands of Solly Krieger of Brooklyn here last night in a 12-round affair. Rankins, hailing from Chicago, opened up fast but by the eighth round Krieger had worn him down to his own style. The colored boy was saved by the bell in the ninth. Rankins weighed 161 while the winner checked in at 160.

Local Ministerial Association Plans Evangelistic Meet

Three Week Union Evangelistic Campaign To Start Nov. 22 In Ellwood City

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—The Evangelistic committee of the Ellwood City Ministerial Association composed of Rev. O. B. Emerson of the Methodist church, Rev. G. E. Aubrey of the Christian church and Rev. Bernie G. Osterhouse of the Baptist church as chairman, have arranged for a three weeks evangelistic service beginning November 22 and continuing through December 13, and to be held in the United Presbyterian church. The Ministerial Association feel fortunate in being able to bring to Ellwood City Rev. McCormick Lintz and party of Chicago, Ill.

It is hoped that all church organizations whose meetings come within the above dates will arrange to postpone their meetings and that all efforts will be concentrated in this large undertaking of the Ministerial Association.

B. And P. W. Club Meets Last Night

Local Club Has Special Meeting To Hear Talk On Hobbies By John Chase Of Youngstown

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—Business and Professional Women's club of Ellwood City held a special meeting last night in the First Baptist church to hear a talk on Hobbies, by John Chase of Youngstown, O.

Mr. Chase is reputed to have taught Youngstown how to play and learn a hobby. He has assisted Denny Schill in playground work for nine years. The speaker of the evening was introduced to the audience by Mr. Schill. The text of his talk appears in the Rotary club story on this page. Mrs. Schill was also a special guest on the occasion

The club held a short business meeting, after which it was announced that the club would take charge of selling tickets for a flower show to be held in New Castle under the auspices of the Northwest Pennsylvania Florist association at the Cathedral on November 11-14. The club will held a dinner meeting and panel discussion on November 3.

Donna Jean Clyde Has Masque Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—Miss Donna Jean Clyde proved to be a charming hostess last evening when she opened her home on the Ellwood-Portersville road to members of the Merry Maids class of the Wurtemburg Methodist church, taught by Mrs. Harold Boots, who assembled for a masquerade party.

The fourteen members and three guests in attendance had a merry time guessing who was who and after everyone had been guessed, games and contests occupied the attention of everyone with prizes going to Freda Strickhizen and Geraldine Hoover. Hallowe'en decorations throughout the home added to the enjoyment of the affair.

During the evening seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess' mother, Mrs. William Clyde, and Mrs. Ernest McConahy.

A business meeting was held with the following officers being selected: President, Betty Ford; secretary, Donna Jean Clyde, and treasurer, Helen May Stewart.

Number Of Guests At Rotary Meeting

Rotarians Hear Fine Talk On Hobbies By Youngstown Man Thursday Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—The presence of a number of visitors contributed to the life of the weekly meeting of the Ellwood City Rotary club in the First Presbyterian church Thursday night. Vice President H. W. Smith was in charge.

A quartet, Paul Winters, Dr. W. H. Shields, Arthur M. Stevenson, Harold Burns, made a lusty bow. In response to enchore, Paul Winters told the club and guests that the quartet would sing its other number at another time. The speaker of the evening was introduced by Denny Schill, John H. Chase, of Youngstown. Mr. Chase has had large experience in directing the play life of boys and girls in Youngstown and, out of that experience, gave a very interesting and challenging address on the value of hobbies and of recreation in life building.

Mr. Chase complimented the local Rotary club for putting on the Boys' Hobby Fair. But he advised that another year, girls and adults be included. He stressed the natural inclination for growing people for different kinds of activities. For instance, children, 3-7 years of age, want to swing. Mr. Chase told how a man could take some hooks and a little rope and make a swing for the garage door in summer, and in the basement for the winter. From 7-11 years, games are desired, also the collecting instinct should be encouraged. He told of encouraging his own daughter during those years to make a collection of geological specimens. The pleasure which the daughter had in so doing led her to major in geology in her higher education. She is now teaching geology. From 11-15 years, the gang spirit is strong. Team play is the answer to that natural desire. Later adolescence and early young manhood and young womanhood demands vigorous play life and opportunity for the cultivation of the arts. Mr. Chase had a number of interesting exhibits.

Elmer N. Sanders will have charge of the program next Thursday. He anticipates having as the speaker of the evening, J. Frank Lanning, of Pittsburgh.

Ellwood High To Invade Midland

Locals To Be Under Dogs Against Tough Valley Opponent Saturday Afternoon

FLANAGAN RECOVERS FROM INJURIES

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23—Coach Bill Mitchell and his Ellwood City High Wolverines will take their second trek after a three game stay at home when they invade Midland on Saturday afternoon for a battle with Coach Rusty Lomond's Crucibles.

The locals have been drilling carefully for this game and are in the best physical condition since their invasion of Uniontown several weeks ago. The ailing Jim Flanagan, regular left end has recovered sufficiently from his injuries that will enable him to start Saturday. But Bill Young, pile driving fullback and spark plug of the team will be kept out of action for at least another week by his swollen ankles. Another blow for the locals is the injury to Blaine who has been playing at left end since Flanagan's injury. This leaves weak replacements for the wing posts. The remainder of the squad is in fine shape and will be available for action.

The game Saturday will be the first Beaver Valley team the Wolverines have faced this season. Against Ellwood's one victor and four losses Midland shows two victories, two losses and one tie. Sizing the teams up from the angle of man power they are about on a par. It then simmers down to condition drilling, and replacements. There is no doubt that the locals are well fortified in the matter. Coach Mitchell will more than likely have for his starting line-up Flanagan and Fehl at the ends, H. Young and Daufen at the tackles, Perry and Keller at the guards, Pishioneri at center, Funari at quarterback, Koah and Galati at the halfback posts and Kolch at fullback. The latter has finally rated a starting position from his punting and passing ability.

The probable line-up:

Ellwood City		Midland
Flanagan	L E	Smith
H. Young	L T	Case
Perry	L G	Sopko
Pishioneri	C	Komora
Keller	R G	Connelly
Daufen	R T	Edmiston
Fehl	R E	O'Hara
Funari	Q	Alston
Galati	R H	Dawson
Koah	L H	J. Roach
Kolch	F	McNeil

Hallowe'en Party At K. Hazen Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—A group of grotesque looking characters gathered last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keth Hazen of Frisco. When the 21 mummers finally revealed their identity it was revealed that they were 21 members of Young Peoples class of the Providence Baptist church, assembled for their annual masquerade party.

Games and contests of a wide variety were enjoyed in the basement of the home, which had been transformed into a fine setting for the affair with witches, ghosts, etc.

At a seasonable hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Zeigler and Mrs. Lester Hazen, who had charge of all the arrangements, served the guests tasty refreshments.

The next regular meeting of the class will take place on Thursday evening, Nov. 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Guy of Linden avenue.

Stock Market Tone Steadier

Considerable Irregularity Among Pivotal Groups Continues In Market

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A steadier tone prevailed in the stock market today but considerable irregularity continued among pivotal groups.

In steels, Bethlehem dropped nearly a point before meeting support. U. S. Steel, Republic and Otis limited declines to fractions.

Rails and utilities also were generally lower.

Oils were prominent among issues to show plus signs on the day. Texas Corp., Standard of Jersey and Standard of Indiana were turned over in fair volume.

Aviations, some coppers and building shares also were improved.

Irregular price tendencies ruled the bond market. Grains were carried fractionally lower at Chicago. Cotton, though, displayed a steady tone.

Report Attack In Radio Studio On Rev. G. K. Smith

(International News Service)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 23.—The Rev. Gerald K. Smith, who recently announced the formation of a nationalist party, was attacked by three unidentified men in a radio studio here last night after he had finished a blistering attack on the administration of Gov. Richard Leche, heir to the political machine of the late Senator Huey P. Long, it was revealed today.

Without announcing themselves, the men walked into the studio where Smith was listening to a reply to his address by Major Clinton Wunder. One of the men swung a hard blow at Smith, landing on the chest.

Followers of the Rev. Mr. Smith took up the cudgels in his behalf and a brief, furious fight ensued. The trio that started the skirmish fled.

The radio studio where Smith spoke denied all knowledge of the affair. However, it was confirmed by Smith's secretary.

Lou May Be Tarzan in Films, But Not to Mrs.

Larrupin' Lou Gehrig, slugging first baseman of the New York Yankees, may do all the tree climbing and jungle yowling he has a mind to before the cameras, but Mrs. Lou draws the line at rehearsals in the home. And she won't stand for any of that leopard skin stuff, either. If Lou thinks he can get away with it, let him cast an eye on the Missus at the right.

Suggests Deeper End Zone On All Football Fields

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Everybody naturally will give the side of his face to that suggestion of Litz Ruseness about deepening the end zones of the football field for greater latitude in goal-line offense, since Ruseness is only the freshman coach at Northwestern and all of us are bound to be preoccupied, listening to blather by "name" guys who want to do everything with football, except keep it interesting. Objections, in fact, seem to have cropped up to Mr. Ruseness's idea almost before he had it.

More Stadiums

One of them suggests that it's all quite simple. In order to lengthen the field, says he, all we have to do is tear down a few stadiums. That's a glib crack but not necessarily bright. I doubt if there's a playing field worth the name that can't spare a few extra yards.

A second objection is furnished by a New York football writer who is admittedly partial to the defense, having played three years in the line on an admittedly bad team in college. That was twenty years ago, but he still has dominoes on his bosom from countless enemy cleats. Personally, I have an open mind, perhaps because I'm not the kind of a guy who ever had a bosom.

How About Two Yards

My own idea about Ruseness's story is that it errs a little on the lavish side. He talks about an extra depth of ten yards for the end zones; make it two yards and maybe you'll have something. Anyhow, under current conditions, it isn't always the defensive team that's on the spot when the play moves inside the 10-yard line. Too often, in fact, it's the team with the ball.

It's tough enough for the latter to gain ten yards in four downs when play is up the field a bit, provided, of course, the two principals are on something of a parity. At such a point, the second line of defense backs waits from eight to ten yards behind the line of scrimmage and a running attack if it has anything, can really proceed with some show of alacrity.

Passing Licked

But on or near the goal line, what happens? The second line of backs moves up to within three yards, the first line practically takes places on the line of scrimmage, making a nine-man defense up forward, and the safety man plays five yards back. That ought to kill the running attack and all too often does. The pass is killed, or at least deeply wounded, by lack of latitude, since a blind man can take off his dark glasses and defend in the ten yard end zone.

The result. In spite of the more or less recent rule permitting possession of the ball after one incompleted pass over the goal, is that nobody seems to be passing into the end zone, except from well up the field. That, in itself, is a tacit admission that the rules have passing licked from a position on the goal line.

On Rubber Menu

Thomas Lee Scott, two years old, of Chicago, developed scar tissue which threatened to close his esophagus after he swallowed lye. He is to be placed on a menu of rubber balls which, physicians hope, will open the passage.

Ben Franklin Hi Noses Out Local Junior High 7-6

Two Well Matched Teams Put On Thrilling Game Before Big Crowd At Lincoln Field

TIME CUTS ELLWOOD LAST QUARTER RALLY

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—It was not thought likely that two Junior High teams could bring football fans to a high pitched fever. But those who heard the noise and cheering at Lincoln Field Thursday afternoon from about 2,000 throats would think that this was the big game of the year.

Coach Emmett Gillespie and his undefeated Ben Franklin Junior high team invaded Ellwood yesterday for a battle with the first junior high team ever here. Well it just so happened that Father Time intervened and permitted the Gillespie coached team to escape with a 7-6 victory over the Ellwood Junior high team coached by the well known and popular Howard Gills, former varsity coach. The locals had scored a touchdown in the final quarter and were well on their way for the second when the final whistle blew.

It was a game between two well matched teams and was close and hard fought throughout. Local fans felt that there was little doubt as to who had the superior attack as the Ellwood Juniors practically dominated the second half. The first downs were 9-5 for Ellwood. Ben Franklin scored in the second quarter via the aerial route when their running attack was stopped. Sowinski heaved a long pass to Gender for 33 yards and their one to Monaco for 20 yards and a touchdown. The point that was to decide the game was place kicked by Gender.

The locals received in the third quarter and rolled off three consecutive first downs to go deep into Ben Franklin territory, when a fumble delayed their march. Ellwood took possession of the ball on a punt on Ben Franklin's 45 and started down the field again. A pass was good for four yards. Newton ripped off 20 yards through left tackle and Biggus hit the same hole for 18. Hommer picked up four over left guard and then Newton crashed over center for the score. A line buck by Hommer for the extra point failed. The Ellwood Juniors went off again after gaining the ball and had completed two passes for 30 yards when the final whistle sounded.

The line-up:

Ellwood Juniors 6.		Ben Franklin 7
Minnerd	LE	Gender
Maccoze	LT	Latino
Trevilono	LG	Colecchia
Rubino	C	Mores
Biggins	RG	Monaco

Krieger Whips Oscar Rankins

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Oscar Rankins' badly battered face was mute evidence today of the severe punishment he absorbed at the hands of Solly Krieger of Brooklyn here last night in a 12-round affair. Rankins, hailing from Chicago, opened up fast but by the eighth round Krieger had worn him down to his own style. The colored boy was saved by the bell in the ninth. Rankins weighed 161 while the winner checked in at 160.

Billy Conn, 154, of Pittsburgh, decisioned Ralph Choiri, 160, of New York (8); Herbie Katz, 159, of New York, decisioned Jimmy Brown, 165½, of Canton, O. (6); Joey Sick, 121, of Pittsburgh, decisioned George Raffa, 127, of East Liverpool, O., (6); Charley Burley, 147, of Pittsburgh, decisioned Ralph Glizy, 146½ of Donora (6).

Local Ministerial Association Plans Evangelistic Meet

Three Week Union Evangelistic Campaign To Start Nov. 22 In Ellwood City

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—The Evangelistic committee of the Ellwood City Ministerial Association composed of Rev. O. B. Emerson of the Methodist church, Rev. G. E. Aubrey of the Christian church and Rev. Bernie G. Osterhouse of the Baptist church as chairman, have arranged for a three weeks evangelistic service beginning November 22 and continuing through December 13, and to be held in the United Presbyterian church. The Ministerial Association feel fortunate in being able to bring to Ellwood City Rev. McCormick Lintz and party of Chicago, Ill.

It is hoped that all church organizations whose meetings come within the above dates will arrange to postpone their meetings and that all efforts will be concentrated in this large undertaking of the Ministerial Association.

B. And P. W. Club Meets Last Night

Local Club Has Special Meeting To Hear Talk On Hobbies By John Chase Of Youngstown

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—Business and Professional Women's club of Ellwood City held a special meeting last night in the First Baptist church to hear a talk on Hobbies by John Chase of Youngstown, O.

Mr. Chase is reputed to have taught Youngstown how to play and learn a hobby. He has assisted Denny Schill in playground work for nine years. The speaker of the evening was introduced to the audience by Mr. Schill. The text of his talk appears in the Rotary club story on this page. Mrs. Schill was also a special guest on the occasion.

The club held a short business meeting, after which it was announced that the club would take charge of selling tickets for a Flower show to be held in New Castle under the auspices of the Northwest Pennsylvania Florist association at the Cathedral on November 13-14. The club will hold a dinner meeting and panel discussion on November 3.

Donna Jean Clyde Has Masque Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—Miss Donna Jean Clyde proved to be a charming hostess last evening when she opened her home on the Ellwood-Portersville road to members of the Merry Maids class of the Wintersburg Methodist church, taught by Mrs. Harold Beers, who assembled for a masquerade party.

The fourteen members and three guests in attendance had a merry time guessing who was who and after everyone had been guessed, games and contests occupied the attention of everyone with prizes going to Freda Strickhauser and Geraldine Hoover. Hallowe'en decorations throughout the home added to the enjoyment of the affair.

During the evening seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess' mother, Mrs. William Clyde, and Mrs. Ernest McConahy.

A business meeting was held with the following officers being selected: President, Betty Ford; secretary, Donna Jean Clyde and treasurer, Helen May Stewart.

Number Of Guests At Rotary Meeting

Rotarians Hear Fine Talk On Hobbies By Youngstown Man Thursday Evening

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—The presence of a number of visitors contributed to the life of the weekly meeting of the Ellwood City Rotary club in the First Presbyterian church Thursday night. Vice President H. W. Smith was in charge.

A quartet, Paul Winters, Dr. W. H. Shields, Arthur M. Sweeney, Harold Burns, made a lusty bow in response to applause. Paul Winters told the club and guests that the quartet would soon welcome members at another time. The speaker of the evening was introduced by Donnie Smith, John H. Chase, of Youngstown. Mr. Chase has had some experience in directing the play life of boys and girls in Youngstown and, out of that experience, gave a very interesting and challenging address on the value of hobbies and of recreation in the building.

Mr. Chase complimented the local Rotary club for putting on the Boys Hobby Fair. But he advised that another year, girls and adults be included. He stressed the fraternal inclination for showing hobbies for different kinds of activities, pre-school children, 3-7 years of age want to swing. Mr. Chase told how a man could take some bits and a little rope and make a swing for the garage door in summer, and in the basement for the winter. From 7-11 years, games are desired, also the collection of mineralogical specimens should be encouraged. He told of encouraging his own daughter during those years to make a collection of geological specimens. The pleasure which the daughter had in so doing led her to major in geology in her higher education. She is now teaching geology. From 11-15 years the gang spirit is strong. Team play is the answer to the natural desire. Later adolescence and early young manhood and young womanhood demands vigorous play life and opportunity for the cultivation of the arts. Mr. Chase had a number of interesting exhibits.

Elmer N. Sanders will have charge of the program next Thursday. He anticipates having as the speaker of the evening, J. Frank Lamma, of Pittsburgh.

Ellwood High To Invade Midland

Locals To Be Under Dogs Against Tough Valley Opponent Saturday Afternoon

FLANAGAN RECOVERS FROM INJURIES

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—Coach Bill Mikosh and his Ellwood City High Wolverines will take their second trek after a three game stay at home when they invade Midland on Saturday afternoon for a battle with Coach Rusty Lomond's Crusaders.

The locals have been drilling carefully for this game and are in the best physical condition since their invasion of Uniontown several weeks ago. The ailing Jim Flanagan, regular left end has recovered sufficiently from his injuries that will enable him to start Saturday. But Bill Young, pile driving fullback and spark plug of the team will be kept out of action for at least another week by his swollen ankles. Another blow for the locals is the injury to Blaine who has been playing at left end since Flanagan's injury. This leaves weak replacements for the wing posts. The remainder of the squad is in fine shape and will be available for action.

The game Saturday will be the first Beaver Valley team the Wolverines have faced this season. Against Ellwood's one victor and four losses Midland shows two victories, two losses and one tie. Sizing the teams up from the angle of man power they are about on a par. It then gimmers down to condition drilling and replacements. There is no doubt that the locals are well fortified in the matter. Coach Mikosh will more than likely have for his starting line-up Flanagan and Fiori at the ends, H. Young and Bevins at the tackles, Perry and Kolper at the guards, Pshionen at center, Furnari at quarterback, Koah and Gender at the halfback posts and Welsh at fullback. The latter has finally gained a starting position from his punting and passing ability.

The probable line-up:

Ellwood City		Midland
Flanagan	LE	Smith
H Young	LT	Case
Perry	LG	Sopko
Pshionen	C	Komora
Kolper	RG	Connelly
Dudish	RT	Edmiston
Fiori	RE	O'Hara
Furnari	Q	Alton
Coash	FH	Darwen
Welsh	LH	J. Roach
Kolen	F	McNeil

Hallowe'en Party At K. Hazen Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 23.—A group of grotesque looking characters gathered last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keth Hazen in Elwin. When the 21 mummers finally revealed their identity it was revealed that they were 21 members of Young Peoples class of the Providence Baptist church, assembled for their annual masquerade party.

Games and contests of a wide variety were enjoyed in the basement of the home, which had been transformed into a fine setting for the affair with witches, ghosts, etc.

At a seasonable hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Zeigler and Mrs. Lester Hazen, who had charge of all the arrangements, served the guests tasty refreshments.

The next regular meeting of the class will take place on Thursday evening, Nov. 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gay of Linden avenue.
